Study to look at expanding coroner's office

By GUY BUSBY
guy@gulfcoastmedia.com

BAY MINETTE — Expansion of the Baldwin County 911 Center could also mean needed additional space to meet growing demands on the county Coroner's Office, officials said Tuesday.

The Baldwin County Commission voted Tuesday to approve a facility assessment agreement with Crime Lab Design of Southfield, Mich. The study will examine the needs for the Coroner's Office. Coroner Brian Pierce said that like the 911 Center, the Coroner's Office has outgrown its current facility and needs more space.

"We need the space. We're growing so fast," he said. "The volume of calls that we're handling has increased dramatically."

Pierce said Baldwin County's population has reached 220,000, the fastest growing in the state. In addition, the county receives 6.5 million tourists a year. He said that on some days during the tourist season, the county

It's that time of the year again — the one so many young women along the Eastern Shore look forward to — time to sign up to participate in the Dogwood Trail Pageant and Scholarship Program.

"We want each young woman who signs up to know that we are dedicated to enhancing her future," Program Director JoAnn Broadus said. "We teach all the participants lessons that will help them achieve their goals — from interview and public speaking skills to presentation and writing skills. Every single student will learn something valuable."

Sponsored by the Eastern Shore Optimist Club, the program has been a local tradition since 1961 and is dedicated to furthering the progress of each participant through scholarships, public appearances and leadership opportunities throughout the community.

The Dogwood Trail Committee is excited to announce this year's dates of the 60th Annual Dogwood Trail Pageant and Scholarship Program. Orientation sessions will be held on Sundays, Sept. 8 and Sept. 15, from 1:30

If you found yourself tapping along to the beat last weekend in Fairhope then you were entranced by the melodic sounds of musicians participating in International Play Music on the Porch Day.

Nearly a dozen melody makers entertained Saturday shoppers as they performed tunes known to young and old in front of the Fairhope Museum of History.

International Play Music On the Porch Day, founded by Los Angeles-area artist Brian Mallman, is held on the last Saturday of each August. The event brings people together around the world, regardless of their differences, to

Coastal South Baldwin Relay for Life set for Saturday, Sept. 14 in Loxley

By JOHN UNDERWOOD
john@gulfcoastmedia.com

LOXLEY — It's not too late to sign up for the Coastal South Baldwin Relay for Life, set for Saturday, Sept. 14 at Loxley Municipal Park.

Organizers are looking to have 24 teams to raise $90,000 at this year's relay. For the second straight year, this is the only Relay for Life planned for Baldwin County. Last year's event was held in Foley.

"The Game of Relay for Life" is the theme for this year's event. According to relayforlife.org/coastalsouth-baldwin, as of Tuesday, Sept. 3, with 11 days left to sign up, 17 teams had signed up with a total of $32,285.91, more than a third of the goal.

"It's not too late to sign up your team and it's not too late to join an existing team," said Sarah English, local Relay for Life representative for the American Cancer Society. "The great thing about Relay for Life is that teams can raise money throughout the year. If they want to have a cookout or sell T-shirts, or have a bake sale, they can. As long as they have their money turned in by Dec. 31 it will count toward our goal. Relay for Life is a chance for us to come together to celebrate the fight against cancer and honoring those who have fought and continue to fight against the disease."

find common ground through music.

Started in 2013 in the community of Highland Park, Calif., the event has spread internationally. In 2018, over 600 communities in 60 countries participated, from small get-togethers of musicians to jam, to concert style events. Participants meet, play music, and upload videos of their jams to social media.

The Fairhope event was among only a handful of sites in Alabama, and was the only participating venue on the Alabama Gulf Coast.

Mike Turner, a Fairhope songwriter and organizer of the local event, said simply playing together through a common thread of music can help unite and strengthen ties in the toughest of days.

"We live in challenging times, with so many issues and events bombarding us and dividing us every moment of every day on social media, on television and through the Internet," Turner said. "Music is a force that unites us, that binds us together in the things that are the best and brightest of humanity."

OUTDOOR CONDITIONS: In weather as it is in fishing, every year is different. It also seems summer wanted to hang on just a little too long around here, delaying the onset of what can be some of the best fishing of the year in Baldwin County. The warm, stagnant water will now cool off and I would expect a fall fishing frenzy with the cooler temperatures now here. Cooler weather, lower humidity and better fishing? What more could you ask for? Nights under the lights of boathouses and docks can be productive areas for speckled trout and redfish. Live shrimp is nearly always a sure bet as well as imitations of the real thing (artificial lures). Look for daytime action along the edges of channels, weed beds and dock pilings.

September is 'Airbag Recall Repair Month'

Chrysler, Dodge, Jeep, and Ram dealers urge drivers to check for dangerous recalls

Submitted

In response to a pressing safety issue impacting 30,000 vehicles in the Mobile metropolitan area, the National Safety Council and local Chrysler, Dodge, Jeep, and Ram Truck dealers have launched Airbag Recall Repair Month in Mobile.

These vehicles are a portion of more than 214,000 vehicles across Alabama that have dangerous, unrepaired, recalled airbags that are at increased risk of rupturing in hot, humid climates like Alabama. When exposed over time to heat and humidity, they can transform from life-saving devices into life-threatening ones. In a crash, they could rupture and cause, rather than prevent, injury of death.

This statewide campaign aims to convince drivers to make safety a priority by taking immediate action to prevent serious injury and death in Alabama. This safety recall impacts more than 4% of all passenger vehicles statewide.

It's critical that every driver in the Mobile area takes three easy steps now:

1. Locate your vehicle's 17-digit vehicle identification number (VIN). Check the driver's side dashboard or registration and insurance documents.
2. Enter your VIN into CheckToProtect.org. Find out within seconds if you have an open safety recall.
3. Schedule a FREE repair appointment at a local dealership. Chrysler, Dodge, Jeep, and Ram and Toyota dealers have parts in stock and technicians on hand all month.

As part of Airbag Recall Repair Month, Chrysler, Dodge, Jeep, and Ram dealers are reaching out to drivers across the state. Repairs take about an hour to complete, and many dealers have extended hours and can provide complimentary transportation while vehicles are being repaired. Alabama residents may see safety canvassers checking VINs, Check To Protect advertising, and events in the area.

There are 40 local Chrysler, Dodge, Jeep, and Ram dealers across Alabama — five in the greater Mobile area — that are participating in Airbag Recall Repair Month. Area Toyota and Ford dealers have also joined FCA's efforts.

could have a population of 750,000.

"Unfortunately, it's going to happen that some of those folks who come down here are going to need our services," he said. "We need a bigger facility."

The office does not conduct autopsies. Those examinations are done by the Alabama Department of Forensic Sciences laboratory in Mobile. The Baldwin County Coroner's Office, however, does often have to hold bodies awaiting examination or that have not been claimed. Pierce said changes in state regulations now require more time for cases to be processed, increasing the time that bodies might be held and requiring more space for storage.

In the 2018 fiscal year, the Baldwin County Coroner's Office handled 486 cases. Of those, 179 were sent for autopsy and 375 were ruled as natural deaths. Cases included 39 violent deaths — including car accidents and drownings — 38 suicides, 17 drug-related deaths, seven homicides, three undermined, one infectious death and six pending, according to the office's annual report.

Pierce said the office

also issued 1,200 cremation permits in the last year.

The 911 Center is located on McCauliffe Drive in Robertsdale. A new building for the center is under construction across the street from its current location.

Pierce said moving the Coroner's Office to the current 911 building from its present location on Baldwin County 54 would give his staff more space and put his office next to the Baldwin County Emergency Management Agency and the 911 Center to have more emergency services in the same area.

The study is being conducted at a cost of $10,000.

team by signing up at relayforlife.org/coastal-southbaldwin. Teams are asked to make a $100 minimum donation to the American Cancer Society. There will also be sign-up opportunities and donation opportunities at the event.

The annual survivor dinner, which is open to all survivors, along with one caregiver per survivor, will be held Thursday, Sept. 12 beginning at 6 p.m. at the Loxley Civic Center.

Saturday's festivities will begin at 4 p.m. with an opening ceremony, which will include keynote speakers who have survived cancer or a caregiver of someone who was affected by cancer, followed by a Survivor/Caregiver Walk with all survivors and caregivers taking the first lap around the venue before being joined by other participants.

There will also be speakers throughout the event who will give updates on the fight against cancer.

The event will also include food trucks, a carnival-type area with bounce houses, face painting and other activities, and live entertainment. There will also be a pie eating contest and a frozen T-shirt contest, English said.

"Teams will raise money and those who raise the most money will be given a T-shirt that has been frozen solid," she said. "They will have to break through the T-shirt in order to be able to put it on and the one who does so the fastest will win a prize."

Sponsors for this year's event include Columbia Southern University, Riviera Utilities, D.R. Horton, Young's Suncoast Realty & Vacation Rentals, OnSight Entertainment, Eastern shore Inflatables, in memory of Honey Scarcliff, the Town of Loxley and Baumhower's Victory Grill.

A Luminaria Ceremony will be held beginning about 7:30 p.m., which will conclude the event at approximately 8 p.m.

Luminarias are also available for purchase for the event. People who have been touched by cancer and loved ones lost to the disease are remembered during the Luminaria Ceremony. Candles are lit inside bags filled with sand, each one bearing the name of a person touched by cancer and participants often walk a lap in silence.

"Each light represents a life — a life taken by cancer, a survivor of cancer, or a support for a person still fighting the disease," according to acevents.org. "It's a powerful demonstration that gives people the opportunity to grieve but also offers comfort and hope."

Relay for Life has become a major fundraising event for the American Cancer Society since it began in Tacoma, Wash., in the mid-1980s.

Hunting and fishing licenses for 2019-2020 seasons on sale now

Collectible hard cards available for the first time!

Submitted

Those who appreciate wildlife art now have the ability to purchase new collectible licenses with a variety of flora and fauna from the Alabama Department of Conservation and Natural Resources (ADCNR). Licenses for Alabama's 2019-2020 seasons and the new hard cards are available for purchase starting today, Monday, August 26.

Eight different cards that depict a variety of outdoors scenes are available for an extra $5 fee. The art scenes include deer, turkey, freshwater fishing, saltwater fishing, wildlife heritage with an indigo bunting, sandhill crane, or shooting sports. The inaugural bait privilege license hard card will include a deer and feral hog.

A total of 32 license privileges are eligible for a combined purchase with a hard card, including annual hunting and fishing licenses for residents and non-residents, waterfowl stamp, Wildlife Heritage and bait privilege.

Trip licenses are not available on hard cards.

The easiest way to obtain a hard license with the outdoors scenes is to purchase a license online and click on the link to purchase a hard license. Buyers can choose to select one or all eight of the cards at $5 each. Those who purchase licenses at retail locations also have the option to purchase a hard license. If you have already purchased a license and decide to obtain a hard card, you can go online and purchase via the "Replacement/Additional Hard Card" privilege that will be available.

For collectors, the wildlife images will change annually.

After purchase, the hard licenses will be mailed to buyers within 10 days.

ADCNR Commissioner Chris Blankenship said Florida and other states with similar cards have seen a collectible market develop for the hard cards.

"The Department wanted to create a hard card with multiple scenes that people could choose from," Blankenship said. "Whatever outdoors activity people prefer, we have a card for that variety of hunting, fishing or outdoor activity. For the Wildlife Heritage license, we wanted to create cards for bird watchers or shooting sports enthusiasts who want to support the work of the Department. We have a card that is really good for most everybody who

Another option for those who purchase licenses for the 2019-2020 seasons is the ability to round up their purchase to the next nearest dollar. If they choose, that extra money can be designated for research in wildlife, freshwater fishing or saltwater fishing. Also new this year is the ability to opt-in for annual auto-renewal of licenses.

For more information about license requirements, visit www.outdooralabama.com/license-information.

Gov. Ivey awards $3.35 million to support advocates for child abuse victims

Submitted

Gov. Kay Ivey has awarded a $3.35 million grant to support advocacy services for abused, abandoned and neglected children in Alabama.

The grant to Alabama Court Appointed Special Advocates, or CASA, Network Inc. will provide trained, caring volunteers to advocate for a child's best interests in court proceedings. The advocates work with judges, attorneys and social workers to ensure the child receives appropriate care and support while in foster care.

"No child should ever be unsafe at home, but when those situations unfortunately occur and the child enters the foster care system, they need a caring person to advocate for their best interests," Gov. Ivey said. "I commend the Alabama CASA Network for serving and supporting children in need."

The advocates conduct independent, objective investigations into the life of the child and interview adults and those involved with the case. That information, along with legal, medical and psychological records, provides the means to make recommendations to the court until the child can be placed in a safe, permanent home.

The nonprofit organization serves 34 counties: Autauga, Baldwin, Calhoun, Chambers, Chilton, Coffee, Colbert, Cullman, Dale, Dallas, DeKalb, Elmore, Escambia, Etowah, Geneva, Henry, Houston, Jackson, Jefferson, Lauderdale, Lee, Limestone, Madison, Marshall, Mobile, Montgomery, Morgan, Randolph, Russell, St. Clair, Talladega, Tallapoosa, Tuscaloosa and Walker.

The Alabama Department of Economic and Community Affairs is administering the grant from funds made available by the U.S. Department of Justice.

"ADECA joins Gov. Ivey in commending the Alabama CASA Network and supporting their efforts to ensure that children receive advocacy and other important support services during very difficult circumstances," ADECA Director Kenneth Boswell said.

Along with grants, many nonprofit agencies rely on private donations to ensure that their services remain readily available throughout the year.

Gov. Ivey notified W. Todd Crutchfield, the organization's board president, that the grant had been approved.

ADECA administers a wide range of programs that support law enforcement, economic development, energy conservation, water resource management and recreation.

Attorney General Steve Marshall urges FCC to strengthen efforts to stop illegal robocalls

Submitted

Attorney General Steve Marshall is urging the FCC to encourage telecommunications companies to implement strong call blocking and call authentication procedures that would protect consumers from illegal robocalls and spoofing. Attorney General Marshall joined a coalition of 51 attorneys general today in a comment letter to the Federal Communications Commission (FCC).

"To many of us, robocalls are a nuisance that interrupts our everyday lives, but when scammers prey upon vulnerable citizens, robocalls can cause significant harm," said Attorney General Marshall.

"Real solutions require technology and the cooperation of phone service providers. We are pleased that some companies are stepping up to protect consumers, and we stand behind the FCC in sending a strong message that comprehensive action is required."

The attorneys general advocate free automatic call-blocking to all customers, with safeguards in place to avoid inadvertent blocking of important calls such as emergency alerts or automated calls that customers have signed up for, like medical reminders.

The attorneys general join the FCC in its call for major voice service providers to quickly implement technology known as STIR/SHAKEN to verify the authenticity of a caller's phone number, an important tool to prevent scammers from spoofing their numbers to make it appear that a call is coming from the consumer's local area. If this technology is not adopted voluntarily, the FCC has proposed regulatory action to require it.

In addition, the attorneys general call for the development of caller ID authentication to combat robocalls to landline telephones, noting this is particularly urgent because many of victims of robocall scammers are elderly consumers or residents of rural areas who primarily use landline technology.

Many of these actions are covered in a set of anti-robocall principles announced last week by the Attorneys General to fight illegal and abusive robocalls. Twelve phone companies — AT&T, Bandwidth, CenturyLink, Charter, Comcast, Consolidated, Frontier, Sprint, T-Mobile, U.S. Cellular, Verizon and Windstream--have already signed on to the principles.

The comment letter to the FCC was signed by the attorneys general of all 50 states and the District of Columbia.

SFHS junior debuts acting chops in South Baldwin Theatre's "Steel Magnolias"

Production of beloved Southern drama captures spirit of friends, family and bleeding armadillo cake

By ALLISON MARLOW
allisonm@gulfcoastmedia.com

After years working primarily in children's stage productions, Erin Pempel's high school drama teacher urged her to make the jump to community theatre.

When Pempel auditioned for South Baldwin Community Theatre's production of "Steel Magnolias" she didn't merely jump, she leaped head on into a leading role in one of the South's most iconic productions.

"It's very fun, I absolutely love it," said Pempel a Spanish Fort High School junior. "This is one of the bigger roles that I've played but I take the challenge head on."

Want to go?

WHAT: Steel Magnolias

WHERE: South Baldwin Community Theatre

WHEN: Sept. 6, 7, 13, 14 at 7:30 p.m. and Sept. 8, 15 at 2:30 p.m.

FOR TICKETS VISIT:
www.sbct.biz

After earning the parts of "Annie's" Miss Hannigan, "Cinderella's" queen and nurse in "Romeo & Juliet," on other local stages, Pempel's theater teacher, Jessica Jackson, urged her to audition in Gulf Shores.

The pair rejoiced when Pempel brought home

the role of Annelle.

Now, the teen travels nearly every day from the top of the county to the Gulf to rehearse with her first all-adult cast.

"It is a nice change and a different atmosphere," Pempel said. "I love my cast mates. Everyone is so nice and I feel very welcome. I'm definitely the youngest one there but they never treat me like I am."

Not to mention, the teen is doing some heavy lifting as the show's Annelle.

The role is considered by many to carry the largest character development throughout the tale of love and loss as told through the experiences of a group of close-knit female friends.

"Whatever Annelle thinks something she thinks it very strongly," Pempel said. "It's a very big character development as she changes throughout the show."

Pempel said she enjoys performing on stage because "It gives me a voice. I am able to put myself out there, and this feels kind of like a family."

The stage is also where she said she hopes to head professionally, not as an actress, but rather as a high school theater teacher, like Jackson who cheered her on.

"She's like a second mom to all of us weird theater kids and I don't know how she puts up with it," she said. "She's just a wonderful role model."

Mobile Symphony opens season with the music of Spain and Cuba, Sept. 21 & 22

Submitted

The Mobile Symphony Orchestra (MSO) opens its 2019-2020 season with ¡Olé!, The Music of Spain and Cuba, Saturday, Sept. 21, at 7:30 p.m., and Sunday, Sept. 22, at 2:30 p.m., at the historic Saenger Theatre in downtown Mobile. This lively concert features Cuban pianist Aldo López-Gavilán.

The program is filled with beloved tributes to Latin music and includes Gershwin's Cuban Overture, deFalla's Nights in the Gardens of Spain and Rimsky-Korsakov's Capriccio Espagnol.

López-Gavilán will join the orchestra for Ravel's Concerto in G Major. "I'm thrilled to introduce our audiences to my dear friend, pianist Aldo López-Gavilán,"

Scott Speck, MSO music director, says. "Aldo is not only a consummate musical artist with an astounding technique; he is also one of the most exuberant musical collaborators I know. When he's onstage, his sheer delight in performing and childlike generosity of spirit remind me of Yo-Yo Ma. It's a wonder to behold, a gift to our musicians, and a joy to have on our stage."

The six-concert 2019-2020 season is packed with exciting classical works and outstanding guest artists. A holiday extra concert, "A Celtic Christmas" with Irish music supergroup Cherish the Ladies, rounds out the season.

"Mobile is such a diverse and fascinating place; our differences are what make our city so spicy and fun," Speck says. "I'm excited that the MSO's 2019-2020 season is our most diverse in many a year – with offerings from France, Spain, Cuba, Russia, Germany, Austria, England, Ireland, America — and compositions ranging from the 1700s to now, including a world premiere whose ink is still wet!"

Tickets are $15-$80 and can be purchased online at www.mobilesymphony.org, by phone at 251-432-2010, or at the symphony box office, 257 Dauphin Street. Student tickets are $10. Through the MSO Big Red Ticket program sponsored by Alabama Power, students in grades K-12 can attend the Sunday performance free when accompanied by a paying adult. More details can be found online at www.mobilesymphony.org.

The concert is sponsored by Lexus of Mobile, Leannah and Lyman Holland, and the Laura Lee Pattillo Norquist Charitable Foundation. WKRG-TV is the media sponsor.

The Mobile Symphony has been a regional orchestra for the central Gulf Coast since 1997. Scott Speck serves as music director. In addition to offering a full season of classical and pops concerts, the orchestra serves the area with a wide range of educational and outreach programs including student performances, a string academy and a youth orchestra.

Original Oyster House free lunch for first responders

Submitted

The Original Oyster House restaurants will honor Mobile and Baldwin County law enforcement, firefighters, paramedics and sheriff officers by offering a free "Never Forget" Lunch at either the Gulf Shores or Mobile Causeway location on Wednesday Sept. 11, 2019 from 11 am to 4 pm. The 12th Annual Never Forget Lunch was established by the Original Oyster House restaurants in honor of the 9/11 First Responders who risked their lives to save, protect and serve and in recognition of all first responders for their service.

"Let us never forget the brave men and women that went above and beyond that tragic day in history. Please join us on Sept. 11th anytime between 11 am to 4 pm. Just show your ID or better yet wear your uniform so we may recognize you with a handshake," stated David Dekle, co-founder of the Original Oyster House restaurants.

In memory of 9/11, LifeSouth Community Blood Centers, a 501(c) 3 non-profit community blood supplier, will also be on hand at the Mobile Causeway location for blood donations. All blood donations collected will be distributed to local hospitals. Local attractions will also be onsite to honor our first responders and pass out free or discounted tickets. iHeart Radio's Mason will live broadcast the day's event.

The Original Oyster House has become the "must-go-to" place for great fresh Gulf seafood, service and Southern hospitality and for its panoramic waterfront sunsets. A top-spot for hand-shucked and fire-grilled oysters, the Original Oyster House has also become legendary for its homemade gumbo, cheesy grits with blackened shrimp, as well as handcrafted desserts including its famous Peanut Butter Pie. In 2016, the Original Oyster House became the first restaurant in the state of Alabama to recy-

Physically disabled hunt dates announced for field trial area

The M. Barnett Lawley Forever Wild Field Trial Area (FWFTA) in Hale County will host a series of deer hunts for hunters with physical disabilities from late November 2019 through January 2020. Registration for the hunts is now open and runs until 5 p.m. on October 13, 2019. To register, call (334) 289-8030 during the registration period listed above.

"Access to outdoor activities such as hunting should be available to everyone who has an interest," said Chris Blankenship, Commissioner of the Alabama Department of Conservation and Natural Resources (ADCNR) and Chairman of the Forever Wild Board of Trustees. "We are honored to provide hunting opportunities for all Alabamians including those with physical disabilities."

Hunt availability is limited and will be assigned on a first come, first served basis. Hunters are limited to registering for only one hunt for the season and must bring an assistant to help with the hunt. Hunters will need a hunting license and Conservation ID number prior to registering.

FWFTA physically disabled hunt dates

- Nov. 27, 30
- Dec. 21, 28
- Jan. 4, 8, 11, 15, 18, 29, 2020

Hunters with physical disabilities are required to fill out a Disabled Hunter Permit Application prior to the hunt dates. The permit can be downloaded from the "Physically Disabled Hunting Areas" section of www.outdooralabama.com/hunting/where-hunt-alabama.

All deer harvested during the FWFTA physically disabled hunts must be reported via Alabama's Game Check system. Hunters will have 48 hours to Game Check their harvest through the Outdoor AL mobile app or online at www.outdooralabama.com.

If you have questions about the FWFTA physically disabled hunts, please call or email Evan Lawrence with the ADCNR State Lands Division at (334) 353-7909 or Evan.Lawrence@dcnr.alabama.gov.

The M. Barnett Lawley Forever Wild Field Trial Area consists of 4,300 acres in Hale County and is managed as a nature preserve and recreation area. In addition to developing a sporting dog test ground and a youth hunting program, the ADCNR State Lands Division is currently restoring the tract's native prairie grasslands and managing its numerous ponds for public fishing.

The Alabama Department of Conservation and Natural Resources promotes wise stewardship, management and enjoyment of Alabama's natural resources through four divisions: Marine Resources, State Lands, State Parks, and Wildlife and Freshwater Fisheries. # Sunset Series continues at Gulf Place

STAFF REPORT

The City of Gulf Shores will continue to host the 2019 Sunset Series this month on the following dates: Sept. 5, Sept. 12, Sept. 19 and Sept. 26.

The 2019 Sunset Series will kick off on Sept. 5 with a movie screening of "Aquaman", rated PG-13. Residents and visitors are invited to bring a blanket, lawn chair, snacks and cooler and join us for a movie under the stars right beside our beautiful beach front.

"The Trio," featuring Carl Jackson, Jerry Salley and Larry Cordle, will take the stage on Sept. 12 as a preview to the Frank Brown International Songwriters Festival. Carl Jackson has recorded hundreds of songs with sales in excess of 40 million units. Jackson has been inducted into the Mississippi Musician's Hall of Fame and has been honored by the state with an official Country

Music Trail Marker in his hometown of Louisville. Jerry Salley, referred to by Billboard Magazine as "one of Music Row's greatest veteran tunesmiths," has had an incredibly successful songwriting career. Salley has had over 450 songs recorded in his award-winning career. To date Salley's songs have sold in excess of 15.5 million records worldwide and internationally he has penned no less than seven (7) #1 Country hits in Australia. Larry Cordle is a Kentucky Music Hall of Fame member, whose career has seen him garner several awards from the International Bluegrass Music Association including the Society for the Preservation of Bluegrass Music of America 2018 Songwriter of the Year and several Grammy nominations. Cordle's songs have appeared on projects that have to date sold a combined total of more than 55 million records.

On Sept. 19, Jimmy Lumpkin will belt out sublime sounds that are altogether his own. Straight out of a log cabin in South Alabama, Lumpkin is a singer/songwriter and guitarist with an intoxicating voice and a stirring union of Rock & Soul, Folk-Blues and the flare of a long-remembered era of old Country music. With the voice of a 100-year-old angel from the delta, the soul found in Lumpkin's music is like no other. Music from a point of view you have never heard before. In the likes of Bob Dylan, Ray LaMontagne, Ryan Adams, Van Morrison, John Lee Hooker, The Black Keys and Otis Redding, the Jimmy Lumpkin Band plays an eclectic blend of soulful roots rock and Americana.

Florida-based artist John Hart will wrap up the 2019 Sunset Series on Sept. 26. Hart is an acclaimed guitar player all along the East Coast and Gulf Coast. Leading up to his creation of John Hart Project, John spent a few years touring the East Coast with the prominent Sauce Boss. The warm, rich tones of John's classical guitar playing approach brings an exciting and fresh presence to his live show, while his unique weaving of finger picking and blues influence brings a flavor to the sound like no other. Revered as a young man beyond his time, John's influences come from a mix of blues legends such as Muddy Waters, B.B. King and Albert Collins, to rock legends Jimi Hendrix and Duane Allman to modern monsters such as Derek Trucks and John Mayer. His latest record, "Frisson," shines an entirely new light on the depths of his creativity and his reach.

"We are excited to add the Sunset Series to our list of special events for 2019," Brigette Reynolds,

City of Gulf Shores Programs & Events Manager, said. "Our City has put so much effort into making Gulf Place Public Beach a beautiful and relaxing spot for our residents and visitors. We are excited to mix that beauty with free entertainment for everyone to come out and enjoy." All Sunset Series events will begin at 6 p.m. at Gulf Place Town Green and Public Beach. Admission is free to the public. ## Get off-season strategies in motion Hope you had a GREAT Summer! It is officially over, and it is time to implement your off-Season business plan. Did you miss the Baldwin County "Taxpayer Workshop" for Businesses this week? Or do you need to attend again? Mark your calendars for the last workshop of the year which will be Tuesday, Dec. 3, 5-7pm, Baldwin County Central Annex Auditorium in Robertsdale.

These quarterly workshops are at no cost and no pre-registration is requested. This workshop explains the importance to have the correct license, with the correct number of codes, separate business bank account, collecting and remitting the correct sales, rental, and/or use taxes. Here are some considerations for your "Off-Season" business plan.

Do you have enough cash in your business to get you to next Summer Season? Do not wait until it is too late before you seek financial assistance from a local bank or credit union. It is hard to borrow money when you have no cash and a reduction in cash flow. How do you know if you have enough cash? Analyze your cash flow from past years compared to this year. What has changed or stayed the same? Have you lowered your payments for the off-Season? Do you have the inventory needed or ordered? Pre-pay insurance and other items like this to reduce cost and the amount of cash

PalletOne Inc acquires Robertsdale's Bay Wood Products

ROBERTSDALE — PalletOne Inc., America's largest new pallet manufacturer, has purchased Bay Wood Products Inc., a pallet and crate manufacturing business located in Baldwin County on the Alabama Gulf Coast.

"In my heart of hearts, I knew PalletOne was the best option for our employees, customers and the community," said Jimmy Wilson, founder and a former owner of Bay Wood Products. "They understand what we do, and they know our industry. As I was looking at succession plans, it was very important to me to leave our employees in good hands."

Wilson, who founded Bay Wood Products with a group of investors 25 years ago, said he would remain as general manager of the Baldwin County business. PalletOne owns another pallet manufacturing plant in Selma.

"We are very pleased to welcome such a well-run operation in the southern Alabama market," said PalletOne CEO Howe Wallace. "Jimmy and the Bay Wood team are well respected in our industry. It's an honor to move forward with them."

Founded Aug. 31, 1994, exactly 25 years to the day of the acquisition, Bay Wood Products serves clients across the U.S. with a global reach. Producing 190 truckloads of pallets per month, the 20-acre facility manufactures wooden pallets, rough-cut lumber, custom crates and mulch. In recent years, sales have reached $23 million annually.

With the acquisition, Wallace said, the southern Alabama market could see an expansion of products and services, including industrial recycling. Speaking to a group of Bay Wood employees in mid-August, Wilson and Wallace answered questions together about the pending sale, then Wallace shared PalletOne's mission: "We strive to be the best blue-collar employer in the markets we serve."

Bears and Dolphins face off tonight at Gulf Shores

The Gulf Shores Dolphins (1-1) find themselves in the middle of the pack going into Week 3 after their 63-13 loss at Baldwin County. They do have an identity on offense with John Paul Uter at quarterback and are looking to break out into a high-scoring mode. On defense, they will be looking to recover after giving up so many points. The Robertsdale Golden Bears have started off 0-2 under new head coach Kyle Stanford. After starting off with a 35-0 loss to MGM in week one, the Bears fell in first region game to Blount 43-0. They need some offensive efficiency this Friday against the Dolphins. They are also looking to be more potent on defense and not give up this much points. Eliminating big plays of over 20 yards will be highly important for both the Dolphins and Bears defense. For the Dolphins offense, recognizing opposing defensive blitzes and pressures will be crucial for them to drive the ball down the field. For Robertsdale's offense, they need to find some balance in the run and passing game. This will be a critical game for both Gulf Shores and Robertsdale in regional play. A loss will push either team towards the bottom of the 6A region but a win push either team near the top of the region just below Saraland.

Daphne forfeits win over Spanish Fort due to ineligible player

By GUY BUSBY
guy@gulfcoastmedia.com

DAPHNE — The Daphne Trojans forfeited their win over Spanish Fort after an ineligible player was found to have played on the Aug. 31 game.

The Trojans defeated the Spanish Fort Toros 35-7 at Jubilee Stadium in Daphne.

After the game, Kenny King, Daphne athletic director and head football coach, issued a statement that the Trojans would forfeit that game.

"It was brought to my attention that Daphne High School unintentionally played an ineligible athlete in our game against Spanish Fort last Friday. Following the review of this matter, DHS did play an ineligible athlete in violation of the Alabama High School Athletic Association (AHSAA) home rule and restitution is required," King said in the statement.

He said Daphne would report the violation Tuesday and formally give up its win.

"Moreover, it matters not who reported this infraction, but what matters is that DHS is compliant with all AHSAA bylaws and for that I take full responsibility," King said. "My heart is broken but it is my job to make sure we learn from this and not let this affect the rest of our season."

King did not identify the ineligible player and said he would not make any other comments on the game.

The forfeit drops Daphne's record to 0-2 for the season, while Spanish Fort is now 1-1.

Daphne will play Saraland on Friday. Spanish Fort is idle this week.

Female athletes descend on Foley

By TONY WHITEHEAD
tony@gulfcoastmedia.com

FOLEY — Foley Sports Tourism (FST) has had the pleasure of hosting a number of female athletes across a range of sports, but this weekend will likely bring a record number of girls to the city. The Bounders Beach Bash gymnastics meet and the Publix SuperCup Girls Weekend Soccer tournament will welcome hundreds of girls from around the country to Foley for competition, Sept. 7-8.

The Beach Bash is an established meet that has been running for the past nine years. Foley has served as host of the Beach Bash for the last three years and even has the distinction of being the first event held at the Foley Event Center when it opened in 2017. This year, organizers anticipate more than 500 participants from around the region including Alabama, Louisiana, Georgia, and Florida to compete.

The gymnastics meet is a fun event that encompasses a beach theme each year, with this year's centering around "Flip Flops and Flamingos." Participants truly enjoy the atmosphere, but the meet also allows them further themselves within the sport explained Erin Holdefer-Kightlinger, co-owner of Bama Bounders Gymnastics (meet host). If gymnasts earn a certain score, according to their level, they can qualify for the state competition.

Holdefer-Kightlinger understands the importance of providing girls the chance to compete, having been a part of the 2002 NCAA Championship Team at the University of Alabama.

"The opportunities for girls to take part in athletics is huge," Holdefer-Kightlinger said. "Sports teach so many lessons to children! No matter what sport a girl participates in, she will feel a feeling of empowerment. She will learn about motivation, discipline, perseverance, but most of all she will gain a huge sense of positive self-esteem."

Publix SuperCup Girls Weekend

Gymnastics isn't the only sport where girls are stealing the spotlight. With the success of the U.S. Women's Soccer Team at the World Cup, the growth of soccer among girls is something that's been evident on the Gulf Coast.

Nick Cooper, tournament director for the Publix Super Cup Girls Weekend, explains the competition is a partnership between Snap Soccer and Perdido Bay Futbol Club. The tournament was previously called the Florabama Showcase and has continued growing for the past 12 years. In 2014, the event was split into two weekends, one for boys and one for girls, however, the separation didn't slow growth in the slightest.

Cooper anticipates 140 teams just for the girls weekend including teams from around the nation. Teams will compete in age divisions ranging from U9 – U19, and the key to guaranteeing a spot to participate was registering early.

"The facility is a huge help and attraction in bringing larger numbers in. Foley not only has one of the best facilities in the southeast, but the staff are incredibly wel-

Trojans top Toros 35-7, but lose due to ineligible player

By MICHAEL HANICH
GCM Sports

Last Friday night was a gamechanger in 6A region 1 play when the Daphne Trojans dismantled the Spanish Fort Toros with a 35-7 score. On Monday, it was announced that an ineligible player took part according to the rules of the Alabama High School Athletic Association (AHSAA). DHS head coach Kenny King self-reported the error and the forfeiture.

It is unknown if there will be any more punishment due to the incident and which player was considered ineligible. The forfeit of the win will sting the Trojans even more than a traditional loss.

This game doesn't take away from the incredible performance of dual-threat, DHS quarterback Trent Battle. He completed 13 passes out of 19 attempts for 203 yards and two touchdowns. He also rushed for 106 yards and two touchdowns on eight carries. He wanted to create himself a quarterback who could beat defenders with just his feet. Battle displayed great patience while in the pocket while the offensive line played consistently to keep him out of pressure from the Toros defensive line. The Trojans' offense out-gained the Toros' offense in total offensive yards accounted for with 451-to-205.

The Toros couldn't find an answer to either continue drives or capitalize on long drives. The Toros had four drives that consisted of eight or more plays including two that were 11 and 18 plays.

The Daphne Trojans (now with a 0-2 record) will travel to face the Saraland Spartans (2-0). While the Spanish Fort Toros (1-1) will take the week off due cancelation by the Moss Points Ti-

Hurricane Dorian leaves a sobering reminder in its wake, prepare now

It could have been us. It could have been us studying the forecasts. Fretting. Preparing. Waiting.

It could have been us packing. Securing windows. Assuring far-flung friends that we will be safe.

It could have been us swaying back and forth between the instinctual need to run and the level-headed need to wait and see.

Residents of Florida, Georgia and the Carolinas have spent the last week teetering between decisions that could result in life or death as Hurricane Dorian wobbled in the Atlantic before ultimately slamming into the Bahamas as a Category 5 storm, devastating those communities.

Residents in Florida initially prepared for evacuation orders that turned into wait-and-see warnings that turned back into evacuation orders. As Dorian stalled over the island nation of the Bahamas, moving literally slower than most humans walk, no one on the U.S. Southeastern coastline was safe yet.

Buildings were boarded. Supplies were gathered. Residents waited and prayed as the monster storm decided on its next move. Community leaders ordered evacuations, rescinded and ordered them again.

It could have been us. Next time, it very well may be us.

Baldwin County has experienced its share of hurricane damage. Six Category 3 storms have made landfall in Alabama, beginning with the Hurricane of 1926 that roared ashore in Perdido Beach on Sept. 20 with 145 mph winds, leaving extensive damage in its wake that stretched all the way to Bay Minette.

The most recent, Hurricane Michael which spun into the Gulf last fall, didn't make landfall in Alabama but still caused costly damage for many residents across Baldwin and Mobile counties.

Between the two, Hurricanes Baker, Florence, Flossy, Camille, Frederic, Elena, Opal, Danny, Georges, Ivan, Katrina have all stirred the Gulf of Mexico and slapped the coast with unimaginable fury. Some made landfall in Alabama, others didn't. But every one of them caused millions of dollars in damage in our state. Some cost us lives.

Alabama has yet to be the target of a Category 4 or 5 Hurricane. These monster storms don't just cause damage, they destroy entire cities. Those who decided to ride out the storm, and were left alive in their wake, are left among sticks that used to be houses. There is no electricity. No running water. No help for days as first responders try to safely navigate the destruction.

It could have been us. If you haven't prepared your hurricane kit, do it. Now. You can find easy instructions at www.ready.gov

If you haven't considered your evacuation plan, sit down and do it. Now. Download the free app from the Baldwin County Emergency Management Agency to keep you updated on dangerous conditions.

Consider where your pets will go. Know where your important documents are. Have an emergency stash of cash for gas and food if you need to leave.

And, if you decide to stay, and if you survive, be prepared to live on your own in the most austere and devastating of situations for what could be a very long time.

Hurricane Season lasts until Nov. 30 and historically the most devastating storms arrive in September and beyond.

It still could be us.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

No Need for Bridge with Off-Island Parking

Life presents you with motivational moments.

"My thoughts are to have fewer vehicles on the island. Vacationers should park offsite, and ride free shuttles [electric] from secure-parking areas [across the bridge]. Orange Beach has become a very expensive parking lot," said Ian Boles, a resident of Orange Beach in an email.

Developing a strategy for off-island parking with free shuttles makes sense, eliminating the need for a Flyover Bridge west of the Foley Beach Express, and the proposed Wolf Bay Bridge by Doc's.

Imagine taking the $87 Million allocated by the State of Alabama for the Flyover Bridge, and the $60 Million earmarked by the City of Orange Beach for the Wolf Bay Bridge, using those funds to lower the environmental impact of traffic. Electric buses, recharged by solar panels, running every five minutes along the Beach Road (Hwy. 182), Canal Road (Hwy. 180), and Orange Beach Blvd (Hwy. 161), minimizing the congestion problem.

We must create several secure parking areas off the island for vacationers, enhanced by Orange Beach's family-friendly atmosphere, simultaneously providing better control over the visitor experience.

City Managers do it at Beaver Creek, Davos, and Disney. Why not here?

The city is growing at a phenomenal rate, outstripping infrastructure resources for traffic and boat launches. The Council must find innovative solutions that do not include more parking per condo bedroom, minimizing gridlock on the island.

Crafting a 2030 Plan with off-site transfers is vital, engaging with City Council, businesses, and residents, creating policies for the future of parking in Orange Beach, perhaps imitating the example of other successful resort cities.

"From timely shuttle buses to complimentary door-to-door transportation, getting around Beaver Creek is easy," according to a report on the Beaver Creek web site (<https://www.beavercreek.com/explore-the-resort/getting-around.aspx>).

"Complimentary standard parking [off-site] is available to Guests," according to a report on Disney World (<https://disneyworld.disney.go.com/guest-services/parking/>).

The key issue is Mayor Tony Kennon, refusing to have a publicly viewable 2030 Plan, as if the future is an undecided secret. Mayor Kennon told Fox10 News, "You can't stop the growth. It's coming whether you like it or not." Are the constituents comfortable, knowing their City Council has an insatiable appetite for big developments and the dollars they bring without consideration to the quality of life?

A 2030 Plan should not be considered a threat to elected officials. Rather a blue print, providing a venue for meaningful discussions from residents and businesses before adoption.

"All I know is we need a road through the State Park," said Mayor Tony Kennon in an interview with John Mullen of the Lagniappe, putting commerce ahead of environmental impact, supporting development of the natural resource the State Park was created to protect.

Exploitation of the State Park seems to be his real plan, exposing this protected area to development. Luckily the Deep-Water Horizon Settlement Team blocked his proposed roadway across the State Park for 20 years, putting his caucus "in check" for the immediate future.

Some will argue Mayor Kennon already has a plan, widening Canal Road, building a Flyover Bridge, and constructing a span across Wolf Bay. Throwing concrete and asphalt at the traffic problem is shortsighted, simply hoping it goes away. Orange Beach has had no professional infrastructure studies done by independent-academic bodies. Professional-planning research (aside from ALDOT) is the start of the solution.

The Orange Beach Police Jurisdiction (PJ) stretches from the Foley Beach Express to Pirates' Cove, including many agricultural areas suitable for parking north of the Intracoastal Waterway, according to the GIS Map from Community Development (http://maps.digitalmapcentral.com/production/VECommunityView/cities/orange-beach\_al/index.aspx#).

Respectfully, I propose the city debate off-site parking, because politics is the art of the possible. Elected Officials must undertake feasibility studies by multiple universities, buying non-wetland areas north of the Intracoastal as loading points for environmentally-friendly electric busses, transporting tourists to and from the island, as if Orange Beach were a theme-park resort.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Changing your mind doesn't come easily for Lambs, who place a high value on commitment. But new facts could emerge that might persuade you to rethink your situation.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) This is a good time to put that fine Bovine's eye for beauty to work in redecorating your home or workplace. And don't forget to indulge yourself in some personal time as well.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Your sense of loyalty to someone who asks for your help is commendable. But make sure there are no information gaps that should be filled in before you move too far too quickly.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Don't let difficult people raise the Crab's ire levels this week. Avoid them if you can. If not, resist telling them off, even if you think they deserve it. Things improve by week's end.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Your suspicions about a colleague might be on the mark. But you also could be misreading the signals you believe you're getting. Do some discreet checking before jumping to conclusions.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Take some time out from your many tasks and see if someone might be trying to reach out to you. You could be surprised to learn who it is and why you might want to reciprocate.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) You still might want to do more investigating before taking on a new commitment. Later would not be the time to try to fill in any crucial gaps in what you need to know about it.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) A new opportunity should be carefully studied. It might offer some of the things you've been looking for. Or it could contain new possibilities you never considered. Check it out.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) You might have to work harder this week to get people to listen to what you have to say. But if you stay with it, you could start to get your message out to many by week's end.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Although family matters again take up a big chunk of the Goat's time, the week also offers a chance to explore a new career move you'd been contemplating for a while.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Applying your practicality (what does it offer me?) and your creativity (how can I improve on it?) could provide sound reasons for seriously considering that new offer.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) The single set will find that keeping their romantic aspirations on high gives Cupid a better target to aim at. Paired Pisces will find that this week helps reinforce their relationships.

7 p.m. on LIFE
Movie: Identity Theft of a Cheerleader

Vicky Patterson (Maiara Walsh) dropped out of high school during her senior year, buckling under her mother's (Gail O'Grady) expectations and bullying from her classmates. Now 31, Vicki has reached rock bottom, so she hits on a desperate, possibly mad strategy: She'll steal the identity of a high school senior cheerleader and redo her final year. Vicki eventually works her way into the popular crowd, but at least one other student suspects she's not who she pretends to be in this 2019 melodrama.

Sunday Bets

6 p.m. on CBS-5
60 Minutes

Longtime correspondent Steve Kroft, who announced his retirement in May, takes the spotlight in this special edition of the Emmy-winning newsmagazine as he sits down for an interview with colleague Lesley Stahl.

This tribute looks back at 50 years of Kroft's journalistic work, during which he reported nearly 500 segments for "60 Minutes" and won five Peabody Awards, among other honors. The hour revisits such career highlights as his 1992 interview with Bill and Hillary Clinton and a post-election interview with Barack and Michelle Obama.

1 p.m. on FOX-10 Judge Jerry

Among the new entries in this fall's syndication market, probably none has a more recognizable presence in daytime TV than Jerry Springer, via his long-running in-your-face talk-fest "The Jerry Springer Show." Skeptical viewers who think this new show's courtroom setting is merely a stunt are mistaken: Springer actually holds a law degree from Northwestern University and worked at two legal firms early in his career before transitioning into politics, then television.

4 p.m. on CBS-5 The Kelly Clarkson Show

It's probably a no-brainer, but expect music to play a big part in the proceedings as the three-time Grammy winner and former "American Idol" champion makes her first venture into the daytime talk show arena. Viewers also can look forward to guests with feel-good stories to share, as well as various games and surprises to keep things lively. The star admits she wasn't looking to do a show like this, but producers came knocking once they saw what a warm and bubbly presence she was (and still is) on "The Voice."

7 p.m. on CBS-5 Lip Sync to the Rescue

Inspired by a recent social media challenge that went viral, this new one-hour special is an interactive countdown of police officers, sheriff's officials, firefighters, emergency medical technicians and other first responders channeling their inner pop stars as they lip-sync on video to a variety of hit songs. Cedric the Entertainer hosts the special, with the ultimate winner — selected by online viewer voting — announced live during the broadcast.

8 p.m. on HGTV A Very Brady Renovation

The six surviving original cast members of "The Brady Bunch" — Barry Williams (Greg), Maureen McCormick (Marcia), Christopher Knight (Peter), Eve Plumb (Jan), Mike Lookinland (Bobby) and Susan Olsen (Cindy) — team with home makeover superstars on a fantasy project: taking the split-level ranch-style residence in North Hollywood, Calif., that stood in for the Brady home exterior in the show's opening credits and transforming it into a twin of that site, including the interior and furnishings.

Cedric the Entertainer
Jonathan and Drew Scott are among the experts lending a hand.

10 p.m. on CW-55 The Kelly Clarkson Show

8 p.m. on ID Web of Lies

Naively, she soon falls for a boy who flatters her, but her dream turns into a nightmare after a shocking photo is shared online.

8 p.m. on MTV Ghosted: Love Gone Missing

Rachel Lindsay, star of Season 13 of "The Bachelorette," and recording artist Travis Mills team up to help distraught guests who are seeking to find closure with someone who inexplicably cut off communication and vanished without explanation from their lives in this new unscripted series, which premieres tonight with two back-to-back episodes. That act of slamming the door on a relationship, commonly called "ghosting," leaves those on the receiving end with unfinished emotional business, but Lindsay and Mills help such victims find and confront the guilty party.

9 p.m. on PBS-42 Frontline

Two years in the making, a new episode called "Flint's Deadly Water" examines an ongoing American health emergency that started during a 2014-15 outbreak of Legionnaire's disease in this predominantly black Michigan city.

9 p.m. on TRAV Code of the Wild

In upstate New York, Chris and Casey Keefer try to track down an elusive treasure: the lost fortune of mobster Dutch Schultz. According to treasure-hunter lore, Schultz's minions buried a steel box filled with millions of dollars somewhere along the banks of the Esopus Creek near rustic small-town Phoenicia, N.Y. The Keefer brothers use Schultz's final words and newspaper articles to guide them in their search in the new episode "Dutch Schultz's Missing Millions."

Yeh making a name for herself on Food Network's 'Girl Meets Farm'

In an already-crowded cable landscape of TV chefs, Molly Yeh of Food Network's "Girl Meets Farm" had no trouble standing out. Her heritage almost ensured that.

"(I was) into creating food that I didn't see anywhere else, so, food that combined my heritages," the Emmy- and James Beard Award-nominated chef, cookbook author and blogger explained to a recent gathering of journalists in Beverly Hills, Calif. "Like scallion pancake challah – Chinese and Jewish. Pastrami eggrolls – Chinese and Jewish. And just kind of taking my unique heritage and my experiences to create foods that I had never seen before. ... And I just sort of kind of stuck to what I was really passionate about. ... I never wrote a post just for the sake of getting traffic. It was always just something that was a creative outlet for me."

Season 4 of the Sunday-morning series gets underway Sept. 8 and finds Yeh back in her cozy farmhouse kitchen on the Minnesota/South Dakota border, demonstrating how to prepare dishes inspired by her Chinese/Jewish ancestry that are fun to make, beautiful to the eye and tasty to the palate.

In this round of 13 episodes, she'll be showing viewers how to make creations such as a barbecued pulled pork with radishes and smoked butter, savory green pancakes, grilled corn on the cob with tangy kimchi mayonnaise, and a Rosh Hashana brunch including a juicy brunch brisket and carrot hash with eggs and pesto.

Over the first three seasons, Yeh has made a habit of bringing family and friends on "Girl Meets Farm," and she reports that they all have a good time whenever they appear. This season, she'll have a new guest star in the form of first child Bernadette, to whom she gave birth this past March, and whose demands Yeh says make taste-testing new recipes interesting.

"It goes slower," she says, "but it's really fun because as I'm cooking, I'll stick things under her nose for her to smell. And I already have a whole set of recipes that I'm going to make for her in a few months when she can start eating solid food. But yeah, it goes slower. We take breaks to sing 'Old MacDonald Had a Farm' and 'Baby Beluga,' but it's still the best."

Wednesday Bets

8 p.m. on FOX-10 FOX-25 BH90210

The line between real life and reel life has kept getting blurrier in this quasi-reboot of a drama that was one of Fox's earliest flagship series, and it seems likely art will imitate life yet again in the Season 1 finale, "The Long Wait" — a title that refers to the show's cast members waiting to hear whether the network is picking up their show for Season 2. As of this writing, Fox hasn't shared its decision. Tori Spelling, Jennie Garth, Jason Priestley and Ian Ziering star.

8 p.m. on HIST 9/11: Inside Air Force One

This new two-hour documentary takes viewers aboard Air Force One — as well as into cockpits, command centers and underground bunkers across the United States — to recapture the chaotic activity on one of the most terrifying days in American history. The film includes interviews with former President George W. Bush and Vice President Dick Cheney, as well as ex-chief of staff Andy Card and the pilot of Air Force One. What emerges is an account of that day as viewed by American leaders and members who were in the chain of command.

9 p.m. on FX Snowfall

In the Season 3 finale, "Other Lives," Franklin (Damson Idris) decides it's time for him to walk a different path in his life, while daily existence for those living in South Central Los Angeles starts to change forever. That chapter-ending note sets the tone for Season 4, which FX recently greenlit.

9 p.m. on LIFE Marrying Millions

In the first-season finale, "Marriage or Money?," Julia steps in to play attempted matchmaker after her mom, Katie, breaks up with Kolton. Elsewhere, Bill has a major surprise in store for Brianna, and Gentile is racked by indecision over whether to say, "I do." Meanwhile, Sean and Megan's wedding may stall because of his father's strong disapproval of the nuptials.

9:01 p.m. on A&E Psychic Kids

The new episode "Spirit in the Mirror" opens in New Mexico, where a 15-year-old boy feels helpless to protect himself in his own home and a spirit watches him from his mirror. Meanwhile, in Pennsylvania, an 11-year-old is forced to move out of her room because of a dark presence there. Mentors Ryan Michaels and Santana Deleon try to teach both of these young people how to assert control, so they can protect themselves as well as their families.

OF 'BH90210' ON FOX

BY JAY BOBBIN

I think people never thought the whole group would get back together, but it came from us talking over other ideas and thinking, "Well, we always have the '90210' card." But we didn't want to go back to just playing that and having people think, "Oh, great. It's them, but 20 years later." It seemed like the time to merge two worlds that hadn't quite been done together before, especially with an entire cast.

How did redefining your television image strike you, since you're playing a version of yourself as well as the character Donna?

I feel that in our dreams, we see ourselves at one age — and when you look another people, you're like, "Oh, they've gotten older. You don't think of yourself that way." We feel the same way when we look at all of (the other "BH90210" stars), and that's how you know you're truly family. They don't look old to us. I mean, not that they're old, but ...

What do you think about the reception that "BH90210" has gotten?

I think (the network) knew everyone would be excited, but I don't think anyone could have predicted how much the anticipation would be. We thought it would do great, but when our (first) promo hit 34 million views, I think that's when they thought, "Wow. We've really got something here."

As "BH90210" ends its season, what were the initial thoughts that you and Jennie Garth had about doing the show as its co-creators, as well as stars and executive producers of it?

It came out of a conversation where we wanted to work together again and have that quality of life where, if we were working, we might as well be with the people we love and love the experience.

OF 'THE VICTIM' ON BRITBOX

BY GEORGE DICKIE

Playing a grieving mother trying to ruin the life of her child's presumed killer had to be a dark head space to be in. How was it getting into that?

The process isn't much different to doing anything else, drama-wise or comedy-wise. I didn't have to work harder or anything. I don't know how to explain it. The preparation is the same as I always do and whatever is happening in scenes, fun or intensely grim, the same effort is required and you can be drained at the end of the day but not every day was entirely draining.

You filmed in Glasgow, which is also where you live, which had to be very convenient.

Yeah, it was nice. The big thing is it means on my days off I'm not traveling back home to see my family. You know, on my days off, they felt like days off. I could just sort of relax and learn my lines for the week.

You didn't have to do an accent for this. You're known for doing accents, so which is the most difficult to do?

One that I've never done before (laughs). I don't know. They're all a bit of work. You know, you put the hours in. ... It's about tongue placement, mostly.

Other actors have said that going through a character's struggle as an actor has made them stronger as a person. Did you feel that way with Anna?

No. I didn't. I feel like with every job, it's an experience that sort of makes me a better actress. This job certainly stretched me in ways. ... Like going to the gym.
