Leo DePriest

Spring Street Supermarket

Spring Street Supermarket has had the privilege of providing fresh meats, produce and groceries for 56 years and I have owned it for nearly 30 of those. We've spent those years partnering with the Herald-Citizen to help us promote our weekly specials and our friendly curbside service. Our customers have come to rely on our ads in the paper to plan their weekly grocery shopping. Our sales have continued to steadily increase each year due, in part, to our advertising plan with the Herald-Citizen. We're looking forward to continuing our partnership with the Herald-Citizen in the years to come to keep our customers informed of what we have to offer. ~ Leo DePriest

2016/2017 ADVERTISING RATES

- All accounts will be billed promptly at the end of each month and are due for payment by the 10th of the month following service. A 15 day grace period is allowed after the payment due date before a service charge of 1.5% per month (18% per year) is added.
- A classified display ad of 1x3" or larger will be dummied at the bottom of the page in the same manner as other display ads. In this case, it is not possible to assure adjacency to any particular classification.
- On a double truck ad, the gutter is billed as 1/2 of a column (times the actual depth of the ad).
- In order to avoid confusing or misleading our readers, any advertisement which appears similar to editorial must be clearly labeled as an advertisement.
- If and when it seems necessary, the Herald-Citizen will exercise its constitutional right to refuse any or all of an ad at any time.
- Political advertising is accepted at current open rates and must be paid in advance. Non-political advertisers may not use their current advertising agreements for political advertising.
- Pick up advertising of the same ad, up to 5 days, without changes, will be eligible for a discount of 25%.
