Katy Sports Editor

Are you a sports reporter hungry for the opportunity to cover some of the best local and regional teams anywhere? The Katy Times is now seeking its next sports editor.

The Houston suburb of Katy is home to Katy ISD, where local schools make deep playoff runs and compete in state championship events in multiple sports every year. In addition to covering our local high school programs, the chosen candidate will have the opportunity to cover competitive college and professional programs including Texas A&M, the University of Houston, as well as the Houston Astros, Rockets and Texans.

The Katy Times coverage area includes the entirety of Katy ISD, encompassing a population of nearly 300,000 in west-suburban Houston. We publish in print weekly but publish daily at katytimes.com.

We're seeking a sports editor who can do more than simply cover games. Our ideal candidate is a storyteller who can take our viewers behind the scenes and give readers rare insights into the athletes, coaches, parents and support staff who make these programs successful.

If you can bring solid reporting skills, a passion for covering top-quality sports programs, solid social media skills including use of video and an interest in podcasting and live stream video, we'd like to talk with you. Prior experience in a community newspaper environment preferred. Must be fluent in AP Style. Photo and video skills required.

Please apply by submitting your resume, cover letter, salary requirements and any relevant sports writing samples at: <https://fenicecommunitymedia.bamboohr.com/jobs/view.php?id=107&source=aWQ9Mw%3D%3D>
