Houston Cougars quarterback Clayton Tune (3) escapes the grasp of Texas Tech Red Raiders linebacker Riko Jeffers (6) in the end zone to avoid a safety during an NCAA football game between Houston and Texas Tech on September 4, 2021 in Houston, Texas.

Houston caught Texas Tech napping on a surprise inside kick, and the Cougars added to their lead after an eight play drive as Tune completed a 23-yard touch-down pass to Nathaniel Dell.

“We were up and I felt good about the momentum,” Holgerson said. “The onside was there and we play to win, it worked out and got us the lead.”

Texas Tech got on the board with a touchdown in the second quarter, but Tune again had an answer, as he hooked up with Seth Green for a 9-yard score with 23 seconds remaining in the half and Houston went into the locker room with a 21-7 lead.

Houston finished with just 53 yards of total offense while allowing the red Raiders to accumulate 246 yards of offense in the second half.

Tune threw four interceptions, three of which came in the third and fourth quarters, and finished he night 27-38 for 174 yards and two touchdowns passing.

Dell finished the game with a career-high seven catches for 80 yards and a score. Mulbah Car rushed for 37 yards on 13 carries. Defensively, Donavan Mutin had a team-high eight tackles and forced a fumble.

“They just came out in the second half and did some things,” Tune said. “They got after us a little and we just didn’t make as many plays. That’s what it comes down to.”

Houston will have a chance to get into the win column when they face Rice at 5 p.m. Saturday at Rice Stadium.
