The playoff field got set for District 19-6A last, as the season came down to the last day to decide seeding and which teams would get in the playoffs.

Katy came away as district champions, while Tompkins took the two seed in the district, with Seven Lakes claiming the third see with a win over Cinco Ranch on the last day of the regular season, and Cinco Ranch getting the fourth and final playoff spot after losing to Seven Lakes.

Taylor narrowly missed out on the playoffs by one game, finishing district with a 9-7 record, while Paetow Jordan, Mayde Creek and Morton Ranch rounded out the non-playoff teams.

The bi-district round kicked off Monday.

Katy came into the playoffs fresh off a district championship and with high expectations.

The Spartans had been on a very hot run lately, winning seven straight games and handing Katy its only loss in district play before playing Fort Bend Elkins, which the Spartans beat in last year's playoffs.

Both ended up winners, with Katy beating Ridge Point 63-40 and Seven Lakes beating Fort Bend Austin 66-50, as both had dominant victories to kick off their playoff runs.

Katy will move on to play either Bellaire or Jersey Village in the area round, date time and location to be determined.

Seven Lakes will move on to play Memorial after a dominant performance from the Mustangs (26-10) who come off a 73-37 win over Houston Heights in the bi-district round. The game date, time and location has yet to be determined.
