

Teaching Covenant

1. I have a personal relationship with God through Jesus Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit. I believe that Jesus is the Christ, Son of the Living God, my Lord and Savior.
2. I feel called of God to serve Him through the teaching ministry.
3. I will strive to follow the leadership of the Holy Spirit.
4. I will teach the truths of the Bible and its application in a manner that is consistent with the doctrinal understandings of the church, and will meet with the women's minister when there are questions about Biblical interpretation or application.
5. I will participate and work with the women's minister for the approval of teaching materials well before they should be ordered or printed.
6. I will be supportive of the pastor and staff and take any concerns to them directly and only use my position for the purpose of building people up and discipling them.
7. I will actively participate in training and growing opportunities.
8. I will seek to live an evangelistic lifestyle and will encourage others to do so, also. I realize that my participation in a lifestyle of personal evangelism is the key to my effectiveness as a teacher, fulfilling God's will for my life, and assisting others in fulfilling their God-given purpose.
9. I will effectively communicate the vision, mission, and strategy of "My Church".
10. I will do all I can to make my class a positive, uplifting experience, engaging all.
11. I will seek to be obedient to God in every area of my life including my giving, my public and private lifestyle, my habits, and spiritual disciplines, so that I will not be hesitant to teach how to apply any truth from God's Word, the Bible.
12. I will refrain from meeting or counseling with a person of the opposite sex in a private setting.
13. I will prepare for my weekly Bible presentation allowing the Holy Spirit to germinate God's word and give me insight, demonstration, and illustration of His power in my life.
