Big changes coming to West Beach Boulevard

By MELANIE LECROY
 melanie@gulfcoastmedia.com

If you haven't driven down to Gulf Place Town Green in the last few weeks, you might be surprised to find a building missing. Shortly after the Hangout Oyster Cook-Off, the Surf Style located at 101 West Beach Boulevard, was torn down. Surf Style has obtained approval for a new six-story building with 10,000 sq. ft. of retail space on the first floor, 12 condominium units on floors two through four and amenities on floors five and six. A 76-space parking lot for this project will be located across Beach Boulevard at 102 Gulf Shores Parkway. The development embraces the pedestrian friendly design philosophy encouraged by the Envision Gulf Shores regulations by being located directly adjacent to the public streets and public beach area and shifts the priority from the vehicle to the pedestrian. The project was initially approved December, 2018, but during the regular council meeting Oct. 28, Director of Planning & Community Development Lee Jones presented a request from the developer. "This is a request for council authorization to permit the mayor and city clerk to work with applicant and developer of this project to execute a temporary construction easement agreement as well as a stormwater management maintenance agreement. The underground

The South Alabama Workforce Development Council adds hospitality and tourism as a focus industry

Submitted

The South Alabama Workforce Development Council (SAWDC) announced the addition of Hospitality and Tourism as a focus industry in Region 7 at a press event at the Gulf Shores Welcome Center Nov. 6.

"The SAWDC board of directors and staff are proud to announce Hospitality as its fifth cluster or "industry partnerships." Region 7 is home to more than 40 percent of the state's hospitality jobs. Local and regional data in this sector meet the definition of high wage and high demand. The industry is a core economic driver in the region and SAWDC is proud to support pathways and career development to quality jobs in the industry," said Dr. Josh Duplantis, Executive Director SAWDC. Local business professionals, elected officials, tourism officials, and educators were on hand for the announcement.

In 2018, Region 7 accounted for more than $5 billion in tourism spending and played host to more than 9.7 Million tourists according to AL.com.

"More than 60,000 high-demand, high-paying jobs are supported by tourism in the region" states Ed Bushaw, Workforce Development Director for the Gateway Initiative, a collaboration between the South Baldwin and Coastal Alabama Chambers of Commerce. Bushaw continued, "In support of the governor's "Success Plus" initiative, an additional announcement will be made on our sponsorship and administration of youth and adult apprenticeships in Lodging and Restaurant Management.

utility easement is added to that portion because the stormwater maintenance area is adjacent to the property and in that area are two transformers. There may be a need to work out a utility easement underground among those two transformers."

The construction staging area will be adacent to the proposed Surf Style mixed use building location in the Gulf Place Town Green area next to the site. A portion of the sidewalk on Beach Boulevard will be closed during construction and pedestrians will be rerouted along the crosswalk on the northside of beach Boulevard and then around the existing sidewalks. The park playground will not be affected. Only one sidewalk within Gulf Place Town Green will be affected otherwise all the pedestrian circulation will be open within the park.

Stormwater will be collected from the roof and be dealt with underground on city property adjacent to the Surf Style property.

"Is there any other precedent in the city of a sites stormwater management being on public property?" one citizen in the chamber asked.

"I don't know of any at this point but I do know that with storm drainage issues like they are, any chance we have to solve a drainage issue with a partner we will certainly be interested in doing that,"

Mayor Robert Craft said.

Councilman Philip Harris responded, "The walking district improvement will do just that, collect stormwater in public right of way in order to help better manage that and to help free up land for redevelopment in that walking district. I see this as a similar action as we are looking to store more stormwater in public right of way."

Public Works Director Mark Acreman said, "We have done this before on a lot larger scale at the sports plex.

We installed a regional stormwater system on public property that not only handles the sports plex run off but all the runoff in the region."

The staff recommended approval with conditions. One condition being that any damage to city property will be restored to like new condition and shall be executed before certificate of occupancy.

The council and mayor approved the temporary construction easement agreement as well as the stormwater management maintenance agreement.

Pickleball: "Fun and addictive"

Fastest growing sport in the nation a big hit in Baldwin County

By JESSICA VAUGHN
jessica@gulfcoastmedia.com

GULF SHORES — Pickleball, a sport that until recently you may not have heard about. It actually started in the 1960s, but didn't really catch on until the last ten years when it took the nation by storm, quickly becoming one of the fastest growing sport in the country. There's been a rise in pickleball courts and tournaments everywhere, including here in Baldwin County. Pickleball Ambassador Eddie McDonald gathered a group of people who were ready to play, and the Bama Beach Pickleball Club was formed in Oct. 2017. There are now approximately 100 members. The group plays at the Gulf Shores Church of Christ Mon.-Sat. from 9 a.m. to noon and from 6 - 9 p.m. on Mondays and Thursdays. The cost is $3 per person, and a typical day sees around 35 players on the courts.

"All the money we collect from this we give to the church in exchange for them letting us play here, so it's a win/win for everyone," said McDonald. "We have a place to play and they get additional income. We started collecting money in Nov. 2017, when we had around 227 players, then in Nov. 2018 it jumped to 415 players, and then this past January we had 974 players."

McDonald said snowbird season is the busiest time of year in our area, with the numbers doubling. Since Nov. 2017, the Bama Beach Pickleball Club has made over $35,000 to give to the church at just $3 per person, which McDonald states testifies how rapidly the sport is growing. Pickleball is a mix of ping pong, badminton, and tennis and is played on a smaller court than tennis.

"Most players are retirement age, but people can play pickleball at any age," McDonald said. "We get a lot of people who love tennis but can't play it anymore due to hip replacements or knee replacements, but they can play this sport. It's given them a new lease on life as far as something to do."

As a Pickleball Ambassador, McDonald organizes the local club and tournaments as well as trying to locate more places to play. This is problematic due to the rise in popularity of the sport and the number of new players looking to enjoy it as well. McDonald has been working closely with the cities of Gulf Shores, Orange Beach, and Foley to dedicate pickleball courts in the tri-city area.

A few charitable

tournaments have been hosted by the Bama Beach Pickleball Club over the past two years, one at the Gulf Shores Tennis Center with 170 players and two at the Foley Event Center with 90 players the first year and 204 the next. More tournaments are already planned, and new members are always encouraged. Membership is $20 a year and gives access to tournaments, community events, and club get-togethers and cookouts.

"It's fun to see people doing this who would not normally be doing anything, it's a lifesaver for lots of people," he said. "I've heard stories from people who say how it has rescued them from health issues and mental health issues, because the great thing about this sport is it doesn't matter how old you are, you can play. It's so much fun to see people who have never held a paddle in their hand playing all the time: it's a fun and addictive sport."

Those who are looking for a place to play can download the Places to Play app and input your location to get a detailed map of nearby places that offer pickleball courts. For those who want to join the Bama Beach Pickleball Club, they have organized courts from beginner to advanced, so you can play with those who have similar levels. The sport is very social and offers lots of talking and laughing during the games, and when people aren't playing at the club then they're often chatting as they wait for an open court. And if you're still unsure about the growth of pickleball in our area, you can find a YouTube video made by the Bama Beach Pickleball Club featuring a song written and performed by a club member here: www.youtube.com/watch?v=bxhOASFaktg. If you're interested in learning more about the Bama Beach Pickleball Club, check out their website at <https://bama-beachpickleballclub.teamapp.com>.

The Stray Love Foundation partners with Magnolia Springs Volunteer Fire Department for unique rescue calendar

Submitted

The Stray Love Foundation, a 501c3 nonprofit animal advocacy group, and Magnolia Springs Volunteer Fire Department, have partnered to create a delightfully engaging 2020 calendar. The result — a full-color 12-month layout, featuring the firefighters/EMTs of Magnolia Springs VFD, alongside their paw-some pin-up partners (SL foster kittens).

So what do rescuers and volunteers, fire-houses and felines, all have in common? The unique pairing was a fundraising idea of Stray Love founder and director, Gayle Guthrie.

“Many fundraising calendars go with a ‘beefcake’ theme, and while there’s nothing wrong with that, we have chosen ‘cute and fun’ with a twist,” she explains. Adding more detail would be a spoiler. Says Guthrie, “We promise, you have not seen a calendar like this one.”

Since its formation almost 10 years ago, the 501c3 has remained true to its mission: “To assist as many stray, injured, abandoned or ‘left behind’ cats and dogs (the occasional rabbit) as we can with the resources we have.” To date, more than 1,400 animals have been placed in safe, loving homes. Supporting active TNR programs, advocacy, education and well-being assistance for the area’s senior and vulnerable pet owners, round out Stray Love’s big-picture cause. As it turns out, 2019 is the nonprofit’s most active year, with approximately 178 intakes and a projected budget of $145,000.

Organized in 1961, MSVFD responds to 35-square miles of residential, woodland and waterfront area, averaging 400 calls annually — spanning all variety of fires to medical and traumatic emergencies. During downtime, they provide community fire prevention education and host CPR classes. While the 40-member crew is trained to handle most events, their greatest concern is a fleet of aging apparatus, with ongoing maintenance costs.

Both boots-on-the-ground groups depend on community support to fulfill their year-round efforts.

Please consider ringing in the New Year with one (or more) of these calendars, whether for yourself or as a gift.

SUBMITTED PHOTO

Calendars are $18 each and available at Jesse’s Restaurant & United Bank (Magnolia Springs), Dykes Veterinary Clinic and United Bank (Foley), The Waggy Tail (Fairhope) and Tradewinds Hair Fashion (Daphne). We are also happy to fulfill your order via mail.

Please contact us at info@straylovefoundation.org. All proceeds will directly benefit the missions of both groups.

Prepared to be amazed? Brandon Styles Magic Show wows

By JESSICA VAUGHN
jessica@gulfcoastmedia.com

FOLEY — Do you love magic, mystery, and mind-bending illusions? Have you ever wanted to be on stage during a magic show to assist in a trick? Do you delight in trying to solve the unexplainable? Did you know there's a magic show right here in Foley — Alabama's only magic show? That's right, you can catch Brandon Style's Magic Show at OWA and be amazed in the intimate 100-seat theater as he performs illusions big and small! Styles began practicing magic at the age of seven and performing professionally at 13, then spent many years touring the country under larger agencies and living on the road. "A guy called me and said he was looking for the ultimate variety entertainer that did a lot of different things, and he wanted to place me somewhere down here," Styles said. "So we flew out and had a few meetings, and I think I fell in love with the place, not the opportunity. I knew I'd like to raise a family here, settle down, and make the show work here; and that's what we did."

The Brandon Styles Magic Show features everything, from big illusions to smaller tricks, and involves a lot of audience participation. Like card tricks? Levitation? Disappearing objects? Sword tricks? You'll find it all at Styles' one-hour show, which is filled with humor, comedy, impressions, and of course, magic.

"I got a magic kit when I was a kid and I started playing with it, but I never threw it aside," Styles said. "I kept doing it and then started watching magicians on TV. I loved to watch them, and the reactions of the people. It wasn't so much the magic as it was watching the audience react. That's my drive, wowing people and making them happy."

Tea at Hogwarts

SUBMITTED PHOTOS

Just when Foley thought all was quiet, Platform 9 ¾ opened up for the 5th Annual Tea at Hogwarts refresher class. As hoped for, the dementors and dragons were well-behaved, and guest news reporter Rita Skeeter and sports commentator Ludo Bagman were a great addition to this year's Tri-Wizard Tournament. We had a full enrollment with both new students and Alumni. Wand making and potions class kept the muggles and wizards too busy to get into trouble. We think it's safe to say another year and "Mischievous Managed!"

Military active duty, veterans get extra waterfowl hunting days

By DAVID RAINER

Alabama Department of Conservation and Natural Resources

Active duty military and military veterans will have two extra days to pursue waterfowl in Alabama this season under new federal guidelines. Those military personnel and veterans will be able to hunt waterfowl on Nov. 23, 2019, and Feb. 8, 2020, the same dates as the Alabama Special Youth Waterfowl Hunts.

Military active duty and veterans must have proof of service and all applicable licenses and stamps to participate.

The new federal guidelines also allow states to end their waterfowl seasons on Jan. 31 instead of the last Sunday of January. Alabama has taken advantage of this change and has set waterfowl seasons for Nov. 29-Dec. 1, 2019, and Dec. 6, 2019, through Jan. 31, 2020.

"Some years, it'll add six days at the end," said Seth Maddox, the Alabama Wildlife and Freshwater Fisheries Division Migratory Bird Coordinator. "It's a good management tool at our disposal. The only difference is the season may end during the middle of the week instead of Sunday. For the upcoming season, it ends on a Friday."

No matter what day the season ends, Maddox just hopes we don't have a repeat of last year's season, which was mainly a bust for the whole southeastern U.S.

"It was a rough season, not only in Alabama but in most states," Maddox said. "It was a mild winter with very little snow and ice cover in the Midwest. Most of those storm fronts that came through that normally bring ice and snow brought rain. That put a lot of water and flooding on the landscape. In turn, that spread the ducks out. It opened up a lot of available habitat for the ducks to utilize."

"It was tough hunting because the birds were never concentrated anywhere. I'd say that was true from Illinois south. Most states in the South had tough seasons."

Maddox said conditions for the 2019-2020 season appear to be favorable right now in terms of habitat.

"So far this year, we had rain that continued into the spring and early summer, so the vegetation looks pretty good," he said. "From late summer through early fall, most of Alabama has been in drought conditions. Parts of west Alabama have had decent rainfall. We're probably looking at some dry conditions, at least early in the season. But the rain has picked up the last couple of weeks, and I feel pretty good about having a decent amount of water for the opening day after Thanksgiving."

Until recently, mild conditions continued before the latest cold front plunged temperatures well below freezing in most of the state.

"We seem to be in an almost weekly pattern where a front will come through, and it will get cold," Maddox said. "Then it will warm back up. It's a cyclical weather pattern we sometimes see throughout the season."

"Right now, it's looking good with the cold fronts pushing some birds in. We're seeing some birds show up, so I think we'll have a decent opener."

The news from the annual waterfowl survey conducted by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (USFWS) is both concerning and encouraging.

The overall number of ducks was estimated at 39 million birds, which is down about 6 percent from last year's numbers.

"We've been on a slight downward trend over the last few years, but we're still 10 percent above the long-term average," Maddox said. "For most duck species, the numbers are looking good. They're well above their long-term averages. But a couple of species are not doing as well. Northern pintail and scaup (bluebills) are below their long-term averages and they continue to decline. So, there's a lot of research on those two species to see what's causing the declines."

"But other species have taken advantage of these situations, like the gadwall, which is one of our bread-and-butter ducks. The gadwall numbers are 61 percent above the long-term average, and their numbers continue to grow. Green-winged teal are doing well also. Other species are filling that void left by the lack of pintails and scaup."

Most successful hunters in Alabama will likely have gadwalls in their bag at the end of the hunt.

"Gadwalls are fun ducks to hunt," Maddox said. "They respond to calling really well. People are pretty happy shooting gadwalls, and they taste good."

The bellwether bird for most duck hunters and managers is the mallard. The male's unmistakable green head makes it the most recognized duck on the landscape.

Maddox said the mallard count came in at about 9.5 million birds during the breeding survey, which is 2 percent above last year's numbers and 19 percent above the long-term average.

"The mallard is a big, hardy duck," he said. "They're the last ones to arrive. It takes really cold weather to push them down into our area. They can survive and thrive in areas of cold with snow cover. We need that cold weather to push mallards our way."

Some duck hunters have suggested a shift in duck migration patterns for a variety of reasons, but Maddox points to one main factor in either the abundance or dearth of ducks.

"Most of it is tied with the weather," he said. "As I say every year, we are very weather dependent. We're seeing the warming trends, and fewer ducks are migrating south. There is some ancillary data that ducks aren't making it as far south as they once did. If this trend continues, we're likely to see fewer ducks in the Deep South. It is a concern for us and most waterfowl managers in the South. We'll still see birds. We may not see as many birds as in the colder times."

The bag limit of six ducks remains the same as last season's with no more than 4 mallards (no more than 2 of which may be female), 3 wood ducks, 1 mottled duck, 2 black duck, 2 redhead, 1 pintail, 2 canvasback and 3 scaup. The bag limit on mergansers is 5 per day, only 2 of which may be hooded mergansers.

Hunters must use non-toxic shot. Hunting hours are one-half hour before sunrise to sunset except on special management zones, like the Mobile-Tensaw Delta. If you hunt any type of migratory bird – doves, ducks, woodcock, gallinules or cranes for example – you are required to have a Harvest Information Program (HIP) permit in addition to a valid hunting license, state duck stamp and federal duck stamp. Visit www.outdooralabama.com/waterfowl-season for specific rules and regulations.

Alabama will also have its first sandhill crane hunt in 103 years. For the first hunt since 1916, 400 hunters were selected by random drawing in September. Those selected were required to pass a test and accept the hunt. Once that was completed, WFF mailed the hunters the sandhill crane hunting permit and three tags each.

The sandhill crane season has two segments. The first segment runs from Dec. 3 to Jan. 5, 2020. The second segment is from Jan. 16-31, 2020.

"We had 591 people apply for the permits, which is a few less than I would have thought," Maddox said. "So, you had a good chance of getting drawn this year if you applied. I think people may have been hesitant to apply this year because they didn't have any spots or didn't know any spots to hunt.

Alabama's successful waterfowl hunters will likely have gadwalls in their daily limit this season.

"Unless you went to one of the other states that allow sandhill hunting, you have no experience hunting them. It will be interesting to see how our hunters do this year. Once our hunters get the hang of it, I think we'll have more people apply."

Maddox said he will be happy with "average" waterfowl hunting for the 2019-2020 season.

"We've been through some extremes the last few years," he said. "We had a really good season in 2017-18 and then last year was pretty tough. Hopefully, we'll have one closer to normal. If we get some cold weather early in January, we should have a good season."

DAPHNE — The third round of the 54th annual State Football Playoffs is set for Friday, Nov. 22

In Class 6A, Region 1 fourth seed Spanish Fort will welcome Region 2 fourth seed Park Crossing (5-7).

PCHS edged Stanhope Elmore 35-32 to move into the third round and will visit the Toros (7-4), on The Hill. The Toros advanced to round three with a dominating 63-21 win at Wetumpka. The third-round meeting of two No. 4 seeds is unprecedented.

While Classes 1A through 6A will be in the quarterfinals, the Class 7A teams advanced to the semifinal round. Defending Class 7A state champion Central-Phenix City (11-1) hosts Region 1 rival Auburn (9-3) in the South semifinal and Thompson (10-1) hosts Region 3 rival Hoover (10-2) in the north semifinals.

In Class 1A, all Eight No. 1 seeds were among the 52 teams advancing in all seven classes. Two of those 1A quarterfinal matchups involve unbeaten teams. Defending state champion Mars Hill Bible (12-0) hosts Decatur Heritage (12-0), and Lanett (11-0), the 2017 state champion, hosts Isabella (12-0). Other matchups involving unbeaten teams include Red Bay (12-0) at defending Class 2A state champion Fyffe (12-0) and Montgomery Catholic (12-0) at defending Class 4A state champion UMS-Wright (11-0) in Class 4A.

The other three unbeaten teams have tough matchups with Class 6A Muscle Shoals (12-0) hosting defending two-time state champion Pinson Valley (9-2), Class 3A Gordo (12-0) at Mobile Christian (7-4) and Class 5A Bibb County (12-0) traveling to Briarwood Christian (11-1).

AHSAA TV Network producer Vince Earley of WOTM TV announced Saturday that the AHSAA TV Network / NFHS Network (WOTM) game of the week will be the Central vs. Auburn contest next Friday. The two teams first played in 1930, skipped playing from 1932-1953 and have played almost annually ever since. The Red Devils have won the last seven in a row and hold a 38-14-3 advantage in the series.

Class 3A defending champ Flomaton (11-1) edged Saint James 21-20 to advance to the quarterfinals to host Region 1 rival T.R. Miller (8-4). Class 5A defending champion Central of Clay County (10-2) nipped previously unbeaten Jasper 20-7 and will host Madison County (10-2).

Approximately 20 play-off games are expected to be live-streamed in the third round over the NFHS Network.

Spanish Fort advances to third round to host Park Crossing

Third time was the charm for the Spanish Fort Toros (7-4; 5-3 in region play) as last Friday as they took on the Wetumpka Indians in the second round of the playoffs. The Toros have been eliminated by the Indians in the third round in each of the last two seasons. But last Friday, the

Sports Analysis

Toros got their revenge by dismantling the Indians in the run game with a 63-21 victory to get them in the third round of the playoffs for the 12th year in a row. Spanish Fort's run game in the RPO (run-pass-option) system was the key weakness for the Indians defense. The Toros accounted for 548 total yards on offense with 523 of them coming from the rushing game. RPO quarterback Kris Abrams-Draine rushed for 258 yards and four touchdowns on 16 carries for an average of 16.1 yards per carry. There was only one pass play, a 25-yard touchdown pass from Abrams-Draine to wide receiver Travis McGowan. The Toros will now take on the surprise team of the playoffs so far in the Park Crossing Thunderbirds (5-7, 3-2 in region play). The Thunderbirds entered the playoffs with an underwhelming 3-7 overall record, but their region wins including over Dothan gave them the boost. The Thunderbirds verified their worth in the playoffs as they shocked the Saraland Spartans (10-1) in the first round and Stanhope Elmore Mustangs

(9-3). The Thunderbirds come into this game averaging 26.1 points per game with a balanced style of offense and a dual-threat quarterback as well as dynamic running backs. This game will be huge for the Toros' front seven to shut down running lanes and holes created by the offensive line. The Toros don't have to change their offensive philosophy in their run system. The Toros average 31.5 points per game mostly based on their run game. The Toros have scored 91 total playoff points in their wins over Dothan and Wetumpka. These are the third-most points scored by SFHS in the first two rounds in program history. Their top-offensive performance in the first two rounds was in 2013 when Spanish Fort won the state championship.

Ward named United States Sports Academy Student of the Month

Sports-Science major eyes physical education career after earning degree

USSA.edu

DAPHNE — Studying sports management at the United States Sports Academy runs in the blood for Student of the Month Carmen Ward.

Ward, of Pace, Fla., is pursuing her Bachelor of Sports Science degree in sports management from the Academy. Her brother, Allen Ward, also earned his bachelor's degree from the institution in 2015.

"I studied somewhere else when I graduated from high school, but I always knew I wanted to do something in sports for my career," Ward said. "I knew that my brother had a really good experience studying at the Academy, and of course he encouraged me to try it out. My experience has been wonderful so far."

Ward works as a paraprofessional at S.S. Dixon Intermediate School in her hometown of Pace, Fla. There, she serves as a teaching assistant in the physical education department.

"Nothing I study at the Academy is 'dry.' Everything has been interesting and so many things I've studied in my classes, I've been able to use in my work," she said. "All of my professors have been very helpful and attentive. In my previous college experience, the professors were very impersonal and it was hard to really reach them when I needed help. That's not the case at the Academy, at all.

"The Academy has also been great for me because I work during the day, so being able to take classes when I get home in the evenings has been very helpful. The Academy is perfect for someone like me who works full time and wants to get their degree."

A former softball and basketball player at Pace High School, Ward hopes to become a full time elementary school physical education teacher once she finishes her degree.

"I've always been a sport fan and I absolutely love what I do right now," she said. "I'm excited about being able to have a career doing something I love."

The United States Sports Academy is an independent, non-profit, accredited, special mission sports university created to serve the nation and world with programs in instruction, research and service. The role of the Academy is to prepare men and women for careers in the profession of sports.

The Academy is based in Daphne. For more information, call 251-626-3303 or visit USSA.edu.

Alabama High School Sports Hall of Fame Class of 2020

AHSAA.com

MONTGOMERY — Twelve major contributors to prep athletics in Alabama have been selected for induction into the 30th class of the Alabama High School Sports Hall of Fame. The 2019 class, which includes an "old-timer," will be enshrined at a banquet held at the Montgomery Renaissance Hotel and Spa Convention Center March 16, 2020.

Selected were football coaches Carrol Cox, Steve Mask and Fred Yancey; basketball coaches Tommy Lewis and Yvonne Simmons; track coaches Aaron Goode and Keith Wilmon; wrestling coach Joseph Dasaro; soccer coach Rick Grammar; wrestling official Toney Pugh, who was also an outstanding wrestling coach and football coach; administrator Luke Hallmark and coach/administrator Samuel 'Hamp' Lyon, who chosen in the old timer category.

Sponsors of the Hall of Fame program are the Alabama High School Athletic Directors & Coaches Association (AHSADCA) and the AHSAA. The corporate partners include Alabama Power, ALFA, Cadence Bank, Coca-Cola, Encore Rehabilitation, Future Ones, Jack's, TeamIP and Wilson Sporting Goods.

The first class was inducted in 1991. These 12 in the Class of 2020 will run the total inducted into the Alabama High School Sports Hall of Fame to 365.

A profile of each selectee:

CARROL COX

A 1968 Jackson High School graduate and member of Samford University's 1971 National Championship team, Cox coached from 1973 to 2000 at Jess Lanier High School in Bessemer — serving as head football coach and athletic director the final 21 years compiling a 162-77-2 overall record with the Purple Tigers.

His teams reached the state playoffs 14 times, including two trips to the state finals. His 1990 team was 12-3 and won the Class 6A state championship beating Murphy 22-0 at Legion Field. His teams had just two losing seasons but made the playoffs one of those years. After retiring in Alabama, he continued teaching and coaching in Georgia.

Cox, an old-school coach who had some of the top rushing teams in AHSAA history thanks to his tenacious wishbone offensive scheme, is the winningest head football coach in Bessemer school history. He coached in the Alabama-Mississippi All-Star Classic in 1990, has been a clinician at football coaching clinics across the Southeast and sent a large number of his players to Division I and Division II college programs during his coaching tenure.

JOSEPH DASARO

The 1973 Grissom High School graduate, 65, completed his degree at Auburn University in 1978. He then became a wrestling coach and teacher at Redbud High School in Calhoun (GA) for two years — leading his team to the Class 1A state championship.

Dasaro then moved back to his hometown of Huntsville where began a teaching and coaching career at his alma mater Grissom. He served as assistant wrestling coach from 1980-83 and became head coach in 1984 — a position he has held ever since.

He has been one of the state's premier wrestling coaches — leading the Tigers to seven state championships (1994, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001, 2003 and 20012. His team won four state titles in a row at one stretch. His overall dual meet record was 804-149 through the 2017-18 season. Fifty-nine of his players have won individual state titles with two, Robby MacArthur and Josh Hall, earning positions on Olympic teams.

He has been selected Who's Who among American Teachers (1998), was inducted into the Madison County Sports Hall of Fame (2008) and has been named Huntsville City Schools Coach of the Year eight times — his first year in 1984 and his most recent in 2018. He was named USA Wrestling Man of the Year (1997) and received NFHS State Coach of the Year Award twice (1998 and 2000).

Dasaro, who is very active in numerous community projects, received a special Huntsville City Schools Resolution Recognition for his heroic devotion and disregard for personal safety when he evacuated a number of children during a fire at Stone Middle School in 1983. Also among his numerous awards received was the White House Golden Rule Award from President Bill Clinton in 1996.

AARON GOODE

Goode, 66, graduated from Hazelwood High School as its salutatorian in 1971 where he was an outstanding football and track athlete — helping the Bears win the school's first state football title as a senior in 1970. He was an outstanding two-sport athlete in college at Alabama State University.

He began long tenure as high school teacher and coach at his alma mater, serving in numerous capacities including becoming a football and track coach. He helped the small Lawrence County School in Town Creek win 11 state football crowns before the school merged with Courtland in 2009 to form R.A. Hubbard High School. He laid the groundwork for Hazelwood's track program that also won 13 boys' outdoor state championships and 13 girls' state titles. His hurdlers dominated the track scene.

The Goode family, which included his nephews Clyde, Chris, Kerry, Pierre, Clyde III, and Antonio Langham, not only excelled in high school but at the college and NFL level. His brother Clyde also served on the AHSAA Central Board of Control.

Goode, an assistant coach in various sports much of his career, was head football coach at Hazelwood from 2003-08 compiling a 48-23 record. He then led the merger with Courtland into R.A. Hubbard in 2000 leading the Chiefs to an 11-3 record and the state semifinals in 2009. Goode earned the NFHS Section 3 Track Coach of the year in 2004. He is currently serving as a volunteer track assistant coach at Lawrence County High School in Moulton.

Active in the Town Creek community, he is a member of First Baptist Church and has served as a city councilman. Dedicated to the sport of track, he served on the USA Track and Field Board of Directors from 1988-2004 with a stint as president from 1995-2000.

of new taxiways to serve development-ready land. It has truly been a pleasure working with the leadership at both airports on this project, and I think this is going to be enormous opportunity for the Baldwin County aviation community to acquire personal and corporate hangars for long-term use," says Jay Taffet, president of Regency Hangars.

The hangar community at the two airports — branded Regency Hangar Village JKA and Regency Hangar Village CQF — will be set up like homeowner associations, with Regency Hangars managing all the infrastructure and operating requirements of the community, including airport ground lease obligations, structural reserves, insurance and common area maintenance.

Regency Hangars is projecting upscale hangar units that feature 45' door widths on the T-hangars and 55'/50' door widths on the corporate units, all with insulation, ample interior lighting, electrical outlets and rough-in plumbing.

"Our goal is to develop hangar communities that reflect the same pride that aircraft owners have in their planes. We want Regency Hangar Village to be a true aircraft 'home', not just metal storage buildings. We think we've accomplished this with the design of the hangar units, as well as the projected community amenities," according to Taffet.

Regency Hangars will also be offering custom hangar builds for owners who would like to be part of the community, but with larger and more specialized facilities.

Hangar reservations for the Gulf Shores and Fairhope Regency Hangars community opens online at regencyhangars.com Nov. 15.

Regency Hangars specializes in hangar community developments at Gulf South airports that have land available for General Aviation tenancy and existing demand for corporate hangars and T-hangars. All hangar units are sold pre-construction, and the development is managed by a hangar community association.

Regency Hangars is a Gracen Jules company, a private air development and services company focused on hangar/facility builds, aircraft acquisitions and operator startups. Both companies are based in New Orleans.

Orange Beach Performing Arts presents American Fairy Tales

STAFF REPORT

Fairytales give children some of their earliest opportunities to expand their imagination. Even adults, caught up in the everyday hustle and bustle, can use an occasional break from reality by being immersed in the magical world of fairytales.

As a way to help children and parents, alike, escape into the world of fairytales, the City of Orange Beach Performing Arts presented American Fairy Tales Nov. 13-14 at the Orange Beach Event Center.

The program included a stage adaptation of L. Frank Baum's American Fairy Tales by Jessica Langston, the city's creative director. The play was an action-packed version of four stories found in L. Frank Baum's American Fairy Tales.

These stories included: "The Box of Robbers," "The Glass Dog," "The Girl Who Owned a Bear" and "The Magic Bon Bons."

"These vignettes explore the lives of a crazy cast of characters," according to Langston.

In this incarnation of Baum's work, the audience encountered: three Italian bandits; magic bon bons; a glass dog brought to life and a little bit of everything in between.

"While the stories retain Baum's original plot points, the stage adaptations are filled with extra action and a fun-filled journey from point A to point B," Langston said.

She also indicated that people who are unfamiliar with the books will have no trouble following this production.

"The vignettes explain each character and plot twist in detail, so familiarity with the story is optional, but not necessary," she said.

The stage adaptation took some three weeks to complete and there were many creative hills and valleys to navigate.

"Sometimes I laughed out loud, and other days I wracked my brain. Sometimes the play seemed to spring off the page on its own, while other times, I had to force every word into submission," Langston said, smiling.

American Fairy Tales was presented through the City of Orange Beach Expect Excellence After-School program. The actors encompassed a wide age range from third-graders to adults. The theater classes are offered four times a week with additional time spent for rehearsals and shows. This wide ranging play had 28 actors and a seven-member production crew.

Orange Beach resident Jennifer McBrayer, who played the narrator throughout American Fairy Tales, said she was "thrilled beyond belief to be given a role."

This is McBrayer's first chance to act since her last couple of years of high school, but, this time is special because "I am an adult and I get to play pretend. And, although it is a lot of work, it is also an unmatched thrill and pure magic when the audience has been transformed into the world you are portraying," she said.

American Fairy Tales was Orange Beach resident Alex Kellner's first foray into acting.

"It's fun getting to pretend again — as an adult we don't get to use our imaginations very often," he said.

While he isn't exactly sure how being onstage in front of a crowd will make him feel, Kellner said, "The most exciting thing is getting to bring the characters to life."

Being onstage is somewhat of a transition for him, he said.

"I am typically behind the camera, so getting to act out the script is a different challenge."

Being in the show has also given Kellner an added benefit of getting closer with his two children, Isabella and Ender, who are also in the play.

"They are the ones that talked me into trying out. It is super cool that we are getting to share this experience. They are both much better actors than me, so hopefully I don't embarrass them too badly."

Alabama parents and guardians: Showcase your child's smile in the 'Share Your Smile With Alabama' Photo Contest

To celebrate Children's Dental Health Month, the Alabama Department of Public Health (ADPH) Oral Health Office announces the third annual "Share Your Smile with Alabama" statewide photo contest. Two third grade students, one girl and one boy, will be selected from photo submissions as the overall winners of the campaign.

The pair of third graders will be spotlighted in ADPH marketing campaigns to promote children's oral health throughout the state and will be featured in a news conference in February, Children's Dental Health Month. This month promotes the benefits of good oral health to children, their caregivers, teachers and many others.

This contest is open to children living in Alabama who are either enrolled and attending third grade, or 8 to 10 years of age being homeschooled. The official rules of the photo contest and an application form can be viewed at <http://www.alabamapublichealth.gov/oralhealth/index.html>. Submissions must be made by a parent or legal guardian, and entries must be submitted by Nov. 30. There is no entry fee.

State Dental Health Director Dr. Tommy Johnson said, "Educating children about brushing and flossing, and the need for regular dental visits helps them keep healthy smiles. We are sponsoring this annual contest to bring attention to children's oral health care and to remind everyone that dental decay is preventable."

The ADPH Oral Health Office is dedicated to preventing dental disease for Alabama's citizens by promoting and developing quality, cost-effective community and school-

based preventive, educational and early treatment programs which emphasize elimination of oral health disparities.

As Medicare Open Enrollment begins AARP Alabama issues scam warning

AARP Alabama warns about scams targeting Medicare beneficiaries and offers tips for protection

MONTGOMERY — Medicare scams are a year-round concern, but the coming weeks warrant special vigilance. Medicare open enrollment runs through Dec. 7 — during these weeks Medicare beneficiaries can make changes to their health plan and prescription coverage. As people are looking for good deals, they should also keep an eye out for scammers since this time frame is a prime target for fraud.

Imposter scams are expected to rise during this season with scammers posing as Medicare employees calling and emailing seniors offering free gifts or limited time offers. These scams are all designed to capture Medicare numbers so the crooks can charge Medicare for services the person didn't receive.

"Fraudsters are smart. They use official sounding names to fool us when they call," shares Evey Owen, Interim Associate State Director of Communications for AARP Alabama. "That's why it's important to stay vigilant and remember that no legitimate Medicare employee will call and ask you for your Medicare or bank account numbers. Vigilance is our number one weapon,"

Another common ploy is the refund rip-off — where a scammer tells the individual that they are entitled to a refund for last year's Medicare premiums. All the individual needs to do is verify their identity and bank account number when in fact it's just another ploy to get their account information.

Whatever the come-on, provide no personal information and follow these simple steps to protect yourself from Open Enrollment scams:

- Hang up immediately if you get an unsolicited call from someone who claims to be from Medicare and asks for personal information. Medicare employees will never call you without being invited to do so by you.
- Never share your Medicare or Social Security number with anyone other than your trusted providers, doctors, or pharmacists.

- Review your Medicare Summary Notices (MSN) or Explanation of Benefits (EOB) when they arrive. Look for services, procedures or devices you don't recognize - if you see something on the statement that doesn't look right, report it to Medicare's toll-free number 800-633-4227.
- Report all scam calls to the Federal Trade Commission at www.ftccomplaintassistant.gov or your state attorney general's office.

FTCComplaintAssistant.gov or your state attorney general's office.

AARP's Fraud Watch Network can help you spot and avoid scams. Sign up for free Watchdog Alerts at aarp.org/FraudWatchNetwork or call our toll-free fraud helpline at 877-908-3360 if you or a loved one suspect you've been a victim.

Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Alabama updates Opioid Management Strategy to help battle opioid epidemic in Alabama

Submitted

In a continued effort to help battle the opioid epidemic, Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Alabama is updating its opioid management strategy, effective Jan. 1, 2020, for its commercial members. This further promotes our members' care and safety.

Since 2015, opioid prescriptions in the U.S. and in Alabama have declined. Despite this decline, the age-adjusted rate of drug overdose deaths increased significantly in Alabama by 11.1 percent from 2016 (16.2 per 100,000) to 2017 (18.0 per 100,000). While progress is being made, this issue calls for continued action by all parties.

Beginning Jan. 1, 2020, the following changes to Blue Cross' Opioid Management Strategy for commercial members will be implemented:

- Members with cancer diagnoses or who are in palliative care will be exempt from the program requirements.
- As a safety precaution, members will be required to attain additional prescriber justification for continued coverage of opioids if they exceed a defined opioid dose threshold for a 180-day period. The defined dose threshold will be 300 morphine milligram equivalents (MMEs).
- If a member visits their pharmacy for a prescription refill of their opioid medication, and the member exceeds the 300 MME dose threshold, the member's prescribing physician will need to submit a prior authorization before coverage is granted.

- Prescribing physicians are being notified of patients under their care who may be affected by this change in order to allow for continuity of care.

The well-being of our members remains our top priority. Higher doses of opioids are associated with higher risk of overdose and death. Implementing an opioid dose safety program, combined with our other strategies to improve access to medication used to treat substance abuse and drug overdoses, will add to continuing efforts to help fight the growing opioid epidemic in Alabama.

Blue Cross always encourages its members to consult their doctors about any treatments or prescription drugs they may need, and the company relies on physicians' expertise to know what is best for their patients. Blue Cross will continue to develop and adopt actionable policies and procedures that promote safe prescribing of opioid medication and appropriate access to treatment for opioid use disorder. In addition, we will continue to collaborate with Alabama physicians and pharmacists to help curb the growing epidemic of opioid misuse by offering support, resources, and educational tools to network providers. This, combined with our strategies to improve access to medications used to treat substance abuse and drug overdoses, demonstrate our commitment to the health of our membership and Alabamians.

Orange Beach is not prepared for an active shooter

By RAUF BOLDEN

Orange Beach is not prepared for an active shooter, having dedicated minimal resources to this possibility. Granted the odds are long that a lone shooter takes aim from high on the Beach Road, but when your bread is buttered by keeping tourist families safe in their vacation rentals, doubling down on being frugal may not be the best roll of the dice.

An A.S.H.E.R. Event (Active Shooter/Hostile Event Response) is an incident where an individual (shooter or bomber) is looking for a high body count. Orange Beach needs a stellar plan that is rehearsed several times each year across multiple agencies (City, County, State and Federal), requiring First Responders to go into battlefield mode, perfecting a proven strategy.

Residents should be able to download the City's Comprehensive Preparedness Guide from the web site, outlining the city's plan for constituent families. Telling them to always be aware of their surroundings, protecting themselves, and using concealment from the enemy.

Let's start with the one basic problem. How many casualties can our ambulances carry simultaneously to the hospital in Foley? Two at a time, according to sources at the Fire Department.

In a mass-casualty event we need more capacity. This does not mean more ambulances, simply having a plan where we have enough blankets, litters, tourniquets, chest seal bandages and minimal equipment for transporting victims in designated city trucks (12) is needed. Training drivers where the resources are, and who will be responsible for handing them out, collecting the resources when returned, and getting the equipment serviced for post-event storage.

Communication is critical. We must migrate Fire Dispatch to Orange Beach, consolidating our command infrastructure. Both departments must be on the same page. For example, a call to Robertsdale 911 may send First Responders to Sea Breeze when the actual incident is at Sea Chase. Robertsdale cannot know the area as well as our local dispatch.

The successful response to an active-shooter scenario hangs on effective communication, keeping all agencies on the same frequency, said Roy Glover (rglover@alabamafirecollege.org), Program Manager of the Alabama Fire College, and Instructor for the Active Shooter/Hostile Event Response (A.S.H.E.R.) course.

The key issue is funding, ensuring significant resources are allocated each year, allowing Fire and Police to train together, paying them overtime wages if necessary. In a devastating event like a car bomb at Mullet Toss, training with Gulf Shores, Foley, the County and the State will make the command structure for a mass-casualty event very clear, because Orange Beach has trained with these agencies, familiarizing them with our frequencies, gaining their confidence in our ability to lead.

Inter-Agency Training provides procedural and communications standardization across the affected area with representation from PD, FD, FEMA, DOJ, DOD, and FBI.

I strongly argue for spending the money, ensuring Orange Beach has a clear command structure, respected by other agencies.

Elected Officials on the City Council will argue against spending the money, but this is always the case with resource allocation. Council Members are only doing their jobs, getting paid to be good stewards of the city's finances. They may not imagine what could be, reasoning more like counter-punchers, responding to events as they happen on the ground.

In a mass-casualty scenario you really cannot afford to go spreadsheet frugal on training and communications, because these monies are well spent, definitely saving lives in an active-shooter situation or car-bombing tragedy (Oklahoma City).

Remember, the whole world will be watching, and Orange Beach's brand will either rise or fall on how well managed a mass-casualty event is perceived by the news media.

Training, training, training is the process Nick Saban uses to great effect. Taking a page out of his book rolls off the tongue, but is difficult to emulate. Getting started, we must budget for a well-funded training-communication package for Active Shooter/Hostile Event Response (A.S.H.E.R.) teams across myriad agencies ($1Million).

These same command concepts also apply to hurricanes, because sooner or later Orange Beach will headline Fox News.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Resident says Spanish Fort issues persist

The Spanish Fort Mayor should be put on leave until his case is adjudicated.

The tax increase election should be set aside. It is NOT being carried out as it was voted on. Once again the Baldwin County School Superintendent wants to go back on his word, only it is after the fact. Making the election a FRAUD. Again showing the council and mayor HAD NO REAL PLAN because they have no idea what they want to do with the money.

Start a new holiday tradition at the Second Annual Gingerbread Jam

By MELANIE LECROY

melanie@gulfcoastmedia.com

Start a new holiday tradition with a little friendly competition Dec. 7 at the Second Annual Gingerbread Jam held at the Orange Beach Event Center. This family friendly event is a gingerbread assembly and decorating competition for families and businesses.

The inaugural event in 2018 reached maximum capacity at the Orange Beach Recreation Center so the event has moved to a bigger location this year to accommodate more competitors.

The two categories you can compete in are:

Family category: $10

Up to 4 family members or friends build and decorate a gingerbread display on a 4 ft square section (2 families per 8 ft rectangular table). No baking is allowed on-site. No previously assembled pieces allowed.

A trophy will be awarded to the team with the highest scoring gingerbread House according to our 5 judges. A special prize will also be given to the People's Choice winner.

Business category: $25

Teams of up to 10 co-workers build and decorate a gingerbread village on an 8 ft round table. This category includes a tasting element for 5 judges (may be prepared off-site and brought to the competition). No baking is allowed on-site. No previously assembled pieces are allowed. Businesses will receive online promotions to include: logo on website and social media, plus social media tags and mentions along with inclusion in press releases and media content leading up to, during and after the event. Businesses will also receive a flash drive including professional photography and videography of their assembly, decorating, finished product and tasting element.

A trophy will be awarded to the business with the highest scoring gingerbread village according to our 5 judges. A special prize will also be given to the People's Choice winner. Only 10 team members may build at a time, but team members may be tagged out by additional members and more than 10 can participate if others are handing out marketing materials, greeting onlookers, etc. The 10-co-worker policy is specifically set for a maximum of 10 people to assemble and decorate the gingerbread village at any given time.

The event is open to public from 11 a.m. - 2 p.m. and entry and viewing is free. Cookies and hot chocolate will be available for purchase. Family category judging takes place at noon and business judging at 1 p.m.

Jessica and Jonathon Langston started this fundraiser for Expect Excellence Culinary Arts Program in 2018 with hope this would become an Orange Beach holiday tradition.

"Jonathan and I began this holiday tradition last year, because we wanted the community to come together to enjoy one of our favorite activities of the season — decorating gingerbread houses with family. Some of my fondest Christmas memories include visiting the Grand Hotel in Point Clear with my extended family during our monthly luncheon and seeing the grand gingerbread village and festive spread. We always took a family photo in front of the fireplace and I remember how the sparkling decorations and the smells of gingerbread became a special part of Christmas for us," said Jessica Langston, Creative Director for the City of Orange Beach. This competition does not require a high level of baking or decorating experience. Participants can use store bought kits, candy, cereal and common kitchen ingredients like sugar. Nothing can be assembled before arriving but you can have all your items ready to go as soon as you arrive.

Don't forget a tablecloth and remember all items used in your display must be edible.

Deadline to register and pay is Nov. 28 and there must be a minimum of 20 participants. Register online at <https://www.orangebeachal.gov/events/performing-arts>.
