HURRICANE SALLY

BY ALLISON MARLOW

After wobbling across the Gulf of Mexico at a pace slower than many people walk, Hurricane Sally shifted east, shifted west and shifted east again, finally setting her sights on landfall in Gulf Shores.

The storm slammed into Baldwin County's seaside the same day as Hurricane Ivan 16 years ago. The two made landfall in nearly the same location and at the same time of day. Sally arrived at 4:45 a.m., Ivan at 2:50 a.m.

As a Category 3 storm Hurricane Ivan devastated not just the U.S. but caused massive damage in the Caribbean where it killed more than 60 people before turning toward the U.S. Gulf Coast. Hurricane Ivan arrived as a Category 3 storm on Sept. 16, 2004, packing 120 mph winds. It caused 57 deaths in the U.S. alone and $27 billion in damage.

At press time only one death has been attributed to Hurricane Sally after it finally rolled in as a Category 2 after weakening and strengthening several times in its long crawl to the coast.

Much of the initial damage of both storms is the same. Electrical lines snapped. Trees uprooted. Roads were turned to rivers. Residents in towns across Baldwin County spent the night huddled together listening to terrifying, howling winds outside of their windows. They would have to wait until the first light of dawn

NWS NATIONAL HURRICANE CENTER MIAMI, FL to know just how destructive those winds were.

The chaotic scenes unfolded in that early morning light to reveal boats tossed aside like toys, roofs confused as the humans who spotted it.

More than 510,000 people across Alabama and Florida were left without power. Most were told it would be a week, maybe more, before their lights would shine again.

Leave Only Footprints

Alabama's Gulf Coast is a beautiful place to live, work and play. No one knows this any better than me. Because our beaches of Orange Beach and Gulf Shores are so important to us, both cities voted in ordinances in 2016 to protect our beaches. In 2015, both cities' officials knew something had to be done about trash being left on the beach. Not only is it dangerous to people but also wildlife, especially our nesting turtles.

Each year more than 5 million visitors travel from across the nation and the world to enjoy our beautiful water and white sandy beaches. A beach vacation is a time for rest and relaxation, and my cities want it to be the "Best" vacation. We ask that to make your trip more carefree you need to know beach regulations prior to your travels. Each of us is responsible for protecting our beaches, and that's why my cities strive to provide a safe, clean, family friendly environment for everyone visiting. To help you do your part here are a few tips for our coast responsibly, along with some rules, regulations and resources.

Pick up beach chairs, gather beach toys, fold and carry out tents, and recycle or throw away all trash in a designated receptacle. All abandoned items will be removed for the protection of our beaches and local wildlife one hour after sunset.

If we follow these rules we will continue to have the most beautiful beaches in the world. Remember LEAVE

Local historian Margaret Childress Long moved to Orange Beach from Evergreen when she was just two months shy of her second birthday. Although she did spend 12 years in Creola she has always called Orange Beach home. Margaret and her husband Buddy live in the same house where Margaret's parents lived for more than 50 years. Her dad paid $12,500 to Dr. Amos Garret of Robertsdale, her mom's first cousin, in 1949 for the 300 ft. waterfront parcel. A teacher at Fairhope Middle and High Schools and Elberta Middle School, Margaret served the island as school board representative for six years. A fisherman, hunter and farmer, her father also owned a farm in Summerdale. Sons Wesley and Brooks have turned the farm into the popular Alligator Alley tourist attraction.

Margaret has co-authored two books, "The Best Place to Be – The Story of Orange Beach, Alabama" and "Orange Beach Alabama – A Pictorial History"

Buffett

Prosciutto Wraps

Serves 8

Ingredients

- 1 tablespoon butter
- 8 thinly sliced pieces of Prosciutto
- 4 spinach flour tortillas
- 4 tomato flour tortillas
- 3-4 heirloom or 1 pint of grape tomatoes, coarsely chopped
- 2 cups baby spinach leaves, thoroughly rinsed and dried
- 4 cups LuLu's Summer Shrimp Salad (recipe follows)
- 16 whole Grape tomatoes
- Fresh cut garden herbs for garnish

Directions:

1. Melt butter in a large frying pan. Place prosciutto in sizzling butter and pan fry over medium heat for 1 minute. Turn meat and cook for another minute or until slightly browned but still soft. Reduce temperature as needed. Remove prosciutto to a cutting board and cut meat into thin strips.
2. TO MAKE ONE WRAP: Place one of the tortillas on a clean flat surface.
3. Line tortillas with a few spinach leaves.
4. Sprinkle with 1 tablespoon chopped tomato.
5. Spread  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup shrimp salad over tomatoes and spinach.
6. Sprinkle 1 – 2 tablespoons of prosciutto strips over shrimp salad.
7. TO ROLL WRAP: Take both the left and right sides of the tortilla folding each side one inch toward the center. Then roll from the bottom, being sure to keep the left and right sides tucked in as you go.
8. Cut wrap in half on a diagonal with a serrated knife. Place a grape tomato on the end of a 3-inch frill pick and stick through each half of the wrap.

9. Repeat using all tortillas. Place wraps on a large platter, alternating spinach and tomato wraps for a colorful presentation. Garnish platter with stems of fresh garden herbs.
