from the Editor

Welcome to NMSU

It could be said that your newly embarked-upon journey at New Mexico State University is the water to your roots, helping you reach your full potential in the long run. You've come this far (great job!), and now the seeds are planted. You will spend the next four years working hard, having fun, making lifelong friends. A successful future will be the fruit of your labor.

It is my hope that this guide serves as encouragement to explore your new environment, and helps you maximize available resources to tend your crops and spread your talented branches into the world.

Use this guide to navigate campus and learn what's available to you, from mental and physical health to free printing, discount books and good eats. Find things to do around campus and throughout Las Cruces, and keep this guide tucked away at home somewhere for easy reference.

Pick up the Bulletin each week to learn about the Las Cruces community and find regional happenings in the monthly arts and leisure publication Desert Exposure. Copies of our weekly, monthly and annual publications are always available at the Las Cruces Bulletin office, 1740-A Calle de Mercado, about 3 miles from campus.

I'm rooting for you.

DEEP ROOTS

“Deep in their roots, all flowers keep the light.”

Theodore Roethke

from the Chancellor

Hello Aggies!

I'm honored to serve as Chancellor of the New Mexico State University system. I'm a proud NMSU graduate, and I was in your shoes as a student here on campus exactly 50 years ago. At that time, I had no idea what the world had in store for me. I was the first in my family to go to college and I know many of our current students are in that same position. Fortunately, this great university gave me the foundation I needed to be successful.

During your time at NMSU, I encourage you to take full advantage of the college experience. Meet new people and get engaged with campus life. Go to an athletic event, catch a theater performance, or go hiking. Through these activities, you will meet new people and form new, life-long friendships. I know I'm still very close friends with a number of people I met during my time as a student.

I'm glad you have chosen NMSU as the place to start your journey. You have a tremendous amount of faculty and staff support. We are invested in your future and we are here to help you succeed because when you succeed, we all succeed. I have been around a lot of universities and there is nothing like Aggie Pride. It's the enthusiasm for what we can all do together, and we see it in our students, our faculty and our staff. This really is a wonderful institution. Welcome home.

from the ASNMSU President

Hey New Mexico State!

If this is your first year on campus, welcome! And if you are a returning student, welcome back!

Here at NMSU, life-changing research is happening, and ground-breaking discoveries are being made every day. There is not a doubt in my mind that the world is becoming a better place because of the work my classmates are doing on this campus.

While time spent in the classroom and in labs is important, the college experience is about much more than what is required to earn a degree. ASNMSU is your student government. We are students striving to create a better college experience for every Aggie. This year, I hope you will make time to join us for some of ASNMSU's free concerts, tailgates, community service events, Homecoming, Spring Fling, and other events. I invite you to use ASNMSU's services by taking a free taxi ride home at night, using an ASNMSU student discount at local businesses, receiving free legal advice from our attorney, or using any number of our other services. At the very least, stop by the ASNMSU office to pick up a free scantron before your next exam and say hello.

I hope that you'll find exactly where you are meant to be at New Mexico State. Whether you run for ASNMSU senate, join a club, play on an intramural team, or find something completely different, make your voice heard and know that you are welcome in your student government and at NMSU.

I look forward to meeting you. Let's have a great year together.

Welcome to Las Cruces!

Get out and explore your surroundings

Las Cruces is a growing city with a small-town feel. From Old Mesilla to Downtown and the nearby Mesquite Street Historic District, there are numerous areas to explore on foot. There are galleries and independent theatre, and peaks and mountains to fill your weekends with outdoor exploring. Grab some sunscreen and comfy shoes, and head out to see all Las Cruces offers.

FARMERS & CRAFTS MARKET OF LAS CRUCES

Food trucks with burritos or vegan pulled “pork” sandwiches gather on Main Street along with artisans offering beard creams and CBD salves, jewelry and art. This is the place to find locally sourced meat, a great cup of coffee, and a card featuring the Organ Mountains to send back home. Local farmers offer the freshest produce from tomatoes, pecans, honey, and greens, to fresh flowers to brighten your dorm room. The Farmers and Crafts Market of Las Cruces takes place near the Downtown Plaza every Wednesday and Saturday from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Info: fcmlc.org, 575-201-3853.

MESQUITE STREET HISTORIC DISTRICT

For a sense of the town’s history without the touristy feel, take a walk through the Mesquite Street Historic District, a colorful neighborhood filled with character. Along these historic streets you’ll stumble upon parks and shops, as well as restaurants and some of Las Cruces’ oldest buildings. Beck’s Coffee hosts live music on Mondays from 6-8 p.m.

WATCH THE DRAMA

If your schedule allows for a little drama in your life, Las Cruces is home to numerous theaters where you can test your audition skills or take in a show.

Las Cruces Community Theatre (311 N. Main St.) is located downtown, and offers a student discount on tickets. This year LCCT will present classics such as “Mary Poppins” and “The Crucible.” Black Box Theatre (430 N. Main St.) gives a platform to overlooked and little-known works, as well a space for local writers to develop their projects. There's a new company in town, and after bringing "Othello: The Remix," a hip hop adaption of Shakespeare's classic to Lavish Ultra Lounge (both a bar and occasional venue), Scaffolding Theatre Company's focus on both process and performance was evident in their production. Learn more and keep up with shows at www.scaffoldingtheatrecompany.com. The recently formed Doña Ana Repertory Theater will begin performances in December, so follow them on Facebook for performance and audition announcements. There's also the American Southwest Theatre Company, which hosts productions at ASNMSU Center for Fine Arts, 1000 E. University Ave.

FILM

The beautifully restored Rio Grande Theatre (211 N. Main St.) is located downtown and shows classic films as well as hosting national musicians and regional acts. Call 575-541-2290 or visit www.riograndetheatre.org for more information.

Located at 2469 Calle De Guadalupe, in Mesilla, The Fountain Theatre has entertained residents of Mesilla since 1905. Visit this landmark, enjoy the best popcorn in town (short of the kettle corn at Farmers and Crafts Market) and take in an Oscar winner or foreign film. Visit www.mesillavalleyfilm.org for a list of current showings.

FIRST FRIDAY ART RAMBLE

On the first Friday of every month, Downtown Las Cruces hosts galleries, shops, businesses and restaurants that make Las Cruces unique. 5-7 p.m. Free to the public. Info: 575-525-1955.

ART OBSCURA

Part gallery, part gift shop, this quirky two-story building at 3206 Harrelson St. provides intriguing diversions and gift ideas. Featuring local artists and historic ephemera and oddities, this is a place to get lost in for a little while. Open 10 a.m.-7 p.m. Thursday through Saturday and 11 a.m.-4 p.m. on Sundays, Art Obscura often hosts musicians as well as food trucks. Learn more at artobscuragallery.com

TAKE A HIKE

Las Cruces is near several hiking trails and mountains. Try the simple hike of Tortugas (or "A") Mountain near University Avenue or work your way up to Dripping Springs Natural Area or Soledad Canyon. Hike Baylor Pass and end up at Aguirre Spring Campground. For a day trip, cruise south to the beautiful Franklin Mountains of nearby El Paso.

ROCKIN' JUMP LAS CRUCES

Rockin' Jump, 805 S. Solano Drive, features a dodgeball arena and slam dunk zone. Open noon-9 p.m. Monday through Thursday, noon-10 p.m. Friday, 11 a.m.-10 p.m. Saturday, 12 p.m.-8 p.m. Sunday. For information, call 575-339-0005.

Las Cruces after dark

*Enjoy the night life
at area pubs, wineries*

Take a lesson from the desert's nocturnal creatures and stay out after dark to enjoy all Las Cruces has to offer!

Whether enjoying the stars from the patio of a wine bar, listening to live music while enjoying retro arcade games, or walking around the downtown fountain after a gin flower martini, Las Cruces has a growing list of bars and social spaces to enjoy.

Most of these local hangouts have an active social media presence, so follow your favorite scene for updates on shows, open mics, and other events.

• Bosque Brewing Co. Public House and Beer Bar, 901 E. University Ave. This popular brewery has two locations in the Cervantes Plaza across from campus. With on-tap options like fruity Elephants Parade or a smooth and bold Scotia Scotch Ale, you might as well order a flight! Hours for the Public House are 11 a.m.-10 p.m. Monday-Thursday, 11 a.m.-midnight Friday and Saturday, noon-9 p.m. Sunday. The hours for the Beer Bar are 4 p.m.-10 p.m. Monday-Thursday, 4 p.m.-midnight Friday-Saturday, 4 p.m.-9 p.m. Sunday. www.bosquebrewing.com, 575-571-4626

• Dublin's Street Pub, across from Garcia Residence Hall at 1745 E. University Ave., Dublin's offers a full bar and food menu, and hosts karaoke on Wednesdays, Thursday Open Mic and DJs, and live music on Friday and Saturday.

FOR THE UNDER 21 CROWD

• Eyeconik Records and Apparel, 224, N. Campo St. In the unlikely event this record shop downtown doesn't have what you're looking for they will undoubtedly have an album you didn't know you needed. Stop by during the day to check out their impressive selection, and don't forget quarters for their retro arcade. Every first Friday of the month Eyeconik hosts Friday Night Live, an all ages music show.

• Milagro Coffee y Espresso, 1733 E. University Ave. In the plaza across from the Pan American Center, Milagro is a perfect place to study and meet up with friends. They serve bacon green chile burritos in the morning and espresso shakes at night. This is a great hangout at any hour. 6:30 a.m. to 8 p.m. every day. www.milagrocoffeeonline.com, 575-532-1042

VALLEY OF FIRES (CARRIZOZO)

Along part of the Tularosa Valley runs the Valley of Fire, several square miles of basalt lava originating from the nearby vent known as Little Black Peak. The lava fields are reachable by driving 4 miles northwest along US 380 from the US 54 junction at Carrizozo. After a two-hour drive, take a break at the provided campsites complete with tables and grills. There's a ¾-mile nature loop trail, and off-trail hiking is possible, but take care. The mountain village of Ruidoso is 36 miles away, and the southern edge of the black lava formations is only 14 miles from the dazzling White Sands National Monument.

WHITE SANDS NATIONAL MONUMENT

Situated 40 minutes east of Las Cruces, 10 acres of sparkling gypsum shine with haunting beauty under a full moon. Tours are available November through April, and the monument regularly has concerts, full-moon hikes, sunset hikes and educational programming. The entry fee is $5 per person, which varies for special events, and annual passes are available. www.nps.gov/whsa/index.htm

When you put down the books

There's plenty to be explored on campus

There are a variety of organized and under-the-radar activities at NMSU. Enjoy your down time and defeat the dull moments while making new friends at some of following:

- Watch big sports events or your favorite TV show in Corbett's Aggie Student Lounge

- Check out special events like Corbett Center's 50th birthday in August, and other recurring events in Corbett like Yoga on the Lawn (Sept. 18, Oct. 16), Canvas and Cupcakes (Sept. 11, Oct. 9, Nov. 6)

International Tea Time (Sept. 12, Oct. 10, Nov. 14)
Late Night Dodge Ball (Sept. 26, Oct. 24, Nov. 28,) and Open Mic (Sept. 20, Oct. 18)

- There are museums and galleries all around campus showcasing everything from student art to fossils. If you prefer more performance to your art, NMSU theatre department puts on classic and contemporary plays throughout the semester, and once a month La Sociedad para las Artes, and organization through the NMSU English department, hosts readings featuring high-caliber writers in the Health and Social Services auditorium.

- Attend free ASNMSU-sponsored concerts at the Outdoor Stage

- Look out for corkboards around campus for more activities like Frisbee games, game nights, and music lessons. Speaking of music, tune in to the student radio station KRUX 91.5 FM, and if you feel inspired, apply to be a DJ at kruxradio.com.

- Pick up a fishing license (find out where to get one at www.wildlife.state.nm.us/fishing/licenses-permits/fishing-license-vendor-list) then try your luck catching a legendary monster in the duck pond behind the Spiritual Center.

DEEP ROOTS

“Consider a tree for a moment. As beautiful as trees are to look at, we don't see what goes on underground – as they grow roots. Trees must develop deep roots in order to grow strong and produce their beauty. But we don't see the roots. We just see and enjoy the beauty. In much the same, what goes on inside of us is like the roots of a tree.”

Joyce Meyer

AGGIE TRADITIONS

THE 'A'

One of NM State's most cherished traditions is that of the "A." For generations, the "A" has been emblazoned on many items, buildings and landmarks, boldly signifying Aggie pride. The most popular and visible "A" is an annual NM State tradition – the painting of the "A" on Tortugas Mountain east of campus. The "A" stands 330 feet tall, roughly the length of a football field.

MOUNTAINS OF OPPORTUNITY

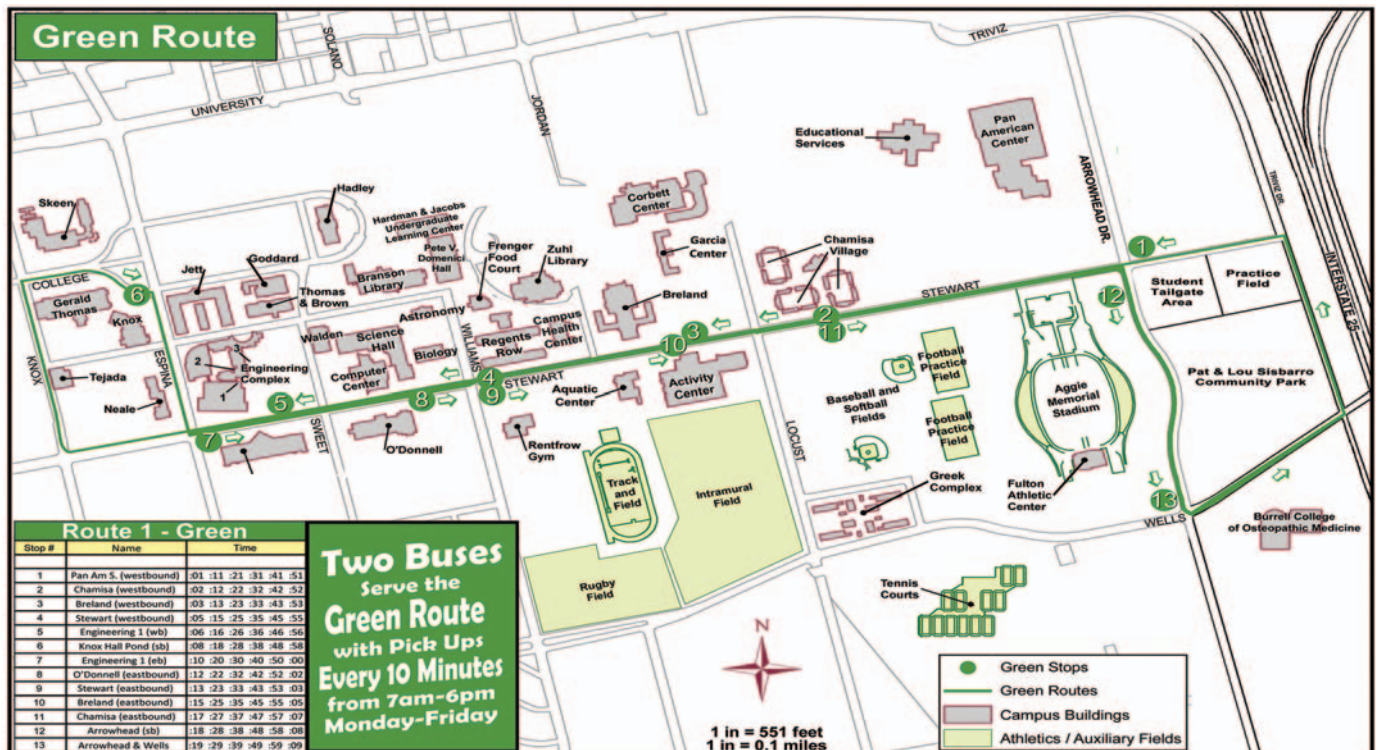

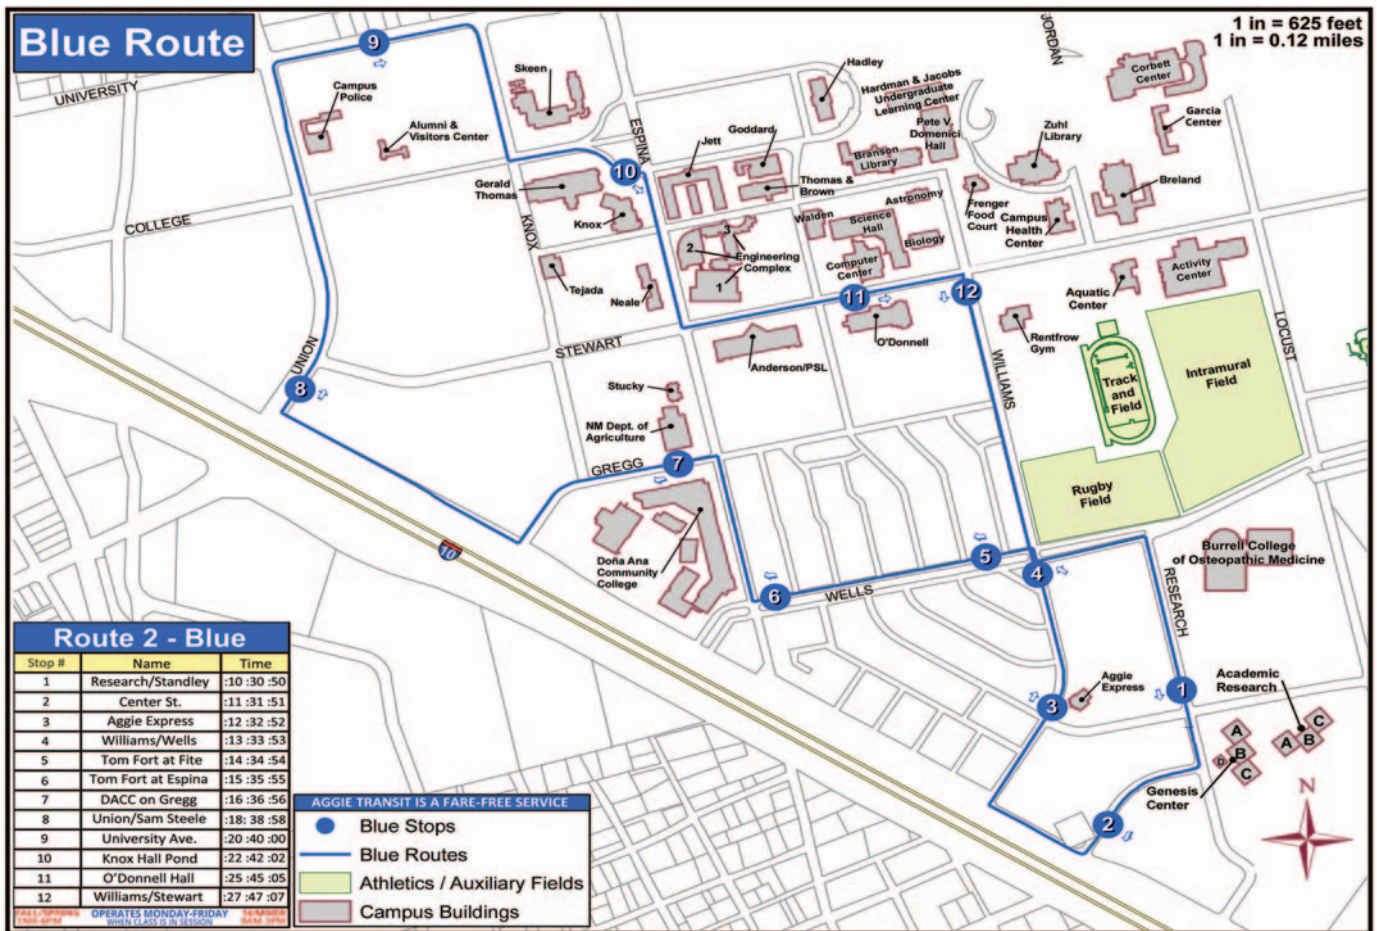

Office hours: Monday-Friday
6:30 a.m. - 7:00 p.m.

ATTENTION DACC STUDENTS

Eligible DACC students have access to unlimited free rides for the semester.

Contact NMSU Parking Services at 646-1839 for details.

Route information is available in buses and on the web at ROADRUNNER.LAS-CRUCES.ORG or by calling 541-2500.

Transportation options

How to get around on and off campus

Walking can be exhausting, especially on a campus as large as NMSU. Know your options when it comes to getting around.

AGGIE TRANSIT

Provides a free shuttle service to students with a valid Pete's Pass. This free bus service runs from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday during the school year. With routes reaching the far ends of campus and plenty of stops along the way, the Aggie Transit offers easy transportation from any of the free parking lots. North-side buses have stops every 10 minutes. South-side buses have stops every 20 minutes. Plan bus routes here: asnmsu.nmsu.edu/aggie-transportation/aggie-transit

CRIMSON CAB

One of ASNMSU's most popular services, it runs every day from 7 p.m. to 5 a.m. to ensure the safety of students by providing a safe ride. Show your NMSU Student ID, and Crimson Cab will take you and your friends home anywhere within the Las Cruces city limits. Crimson Cab will also give you a ride back to your car in the morning. Crimson Cab offers services during the day to help students reach the bus station, auto shop, medical appointments, or interviews. Making a reservation one day in advance is encouraged. Info: 575-524-TAXI (8294)

CRIMSON COACH

Is a free special event shuttle bus offering rides every Thursday to two different El Paso locations. Hop a ride from Corbett to Little Bit of Texas, a country bar in El Paso any Thursday at 7:30 p.m., 8:30 p.m. and 9:30 p.m., with rides returning to Cruces starting at 11 p.m. Or go to Cincinnati Street, a happening scene in El Paso, by taking the Cincinnati Route which runs every Thursday from the West Corbett Center Parking lot, 8 p.m. and 10 p.m., with returning rides at midnight and 2 a.m. Students can use this service for free by showing their valid student ID. Crimson Coach now offers a local route as well! Park in parking lot #19 or leave your car at Dublin's, The Game, Whiskey Dicks, The Warehouse, and Pecan Grill and Brewery and catch a ride on the Coach route between the five stops as many times as you'd like. This route also runs on major holidays. Local routes run 9 p.m. to bar closing every Saturday night. Info: 575-646-4415.

PETE'S PICK UP

If you find yourself alone at night on campus for any reason, you can call Pete's Pick Up for a safe escort to your car or dorm. Just call 575-646-1111 between 6:30 p.m. and 12:30 a.m. Sunday through Thursday and within minutes a driver will be there to safely pick you up.

RENT A BIKE

The Outdoor Center, located in room 108 of the Activity Center, allows students with valid NMSU IDs to rent bikes for $10 a day during the week, and $15 over the weekend. NMSU is a bicycle-friendly campus, complete with a bike shop for minor repairs. Info: 575-646-2885, recsports.nmsu.edu/bikeshop.

PARKING ON CAMPUS

Students can buy parking passes or pay parking citations online (you'll need your student ID number) at the Parking Office website, park.nmsu.edu, or at the Parking Office next to Barnes &

Noble, 1400 E. University Ave., from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Your parking pass has a color indicating which parking lots you can use. The lots will have signs with corresponding colors. If you park in a parking lot which is a different color from that of your pass, you may be cited. Citations start at $35. If you do not pay and get another citation, you may get a boot on your car.

Parking rules are in effect between 7:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. Outside of these times, you are free to park anywhere on campus.

AGGIE TRADITIONS CRIMSON & WHITE

One of the most basic symbols that triggers emotion, pride and a sense of identity is color, and when you're an Aggie, those colors are crimson and white.

Crimson is one of the most emotionally stimulating of all the colors in the spectrum. It has the widest depth of symbolism ranging from passion to anger. Crimson represents power, vigor, leadership and strength.

White, to many, represents purity, innocence, prestige and good.

White, in many cultures, is also suggestive of the springtime and summer, the seasons when crops are planted – a key aspect of this university, as it deals with agriculture. In the education setting, white represents new beginnings.

IN A PINCH

If you find your stomach rumbling between your disbursement or paychecks, you can also contact the Aggie Cupboard, or stop by their mobile food pantry every fourth Tuesday of the month in Preciado Park on the corner of Gregg and Sweet streets. The Aggie Cupboard, on campus at 906 Gregg St., offers emergency food assistance to students both at the main campus and Doña Ana Community College. Clients will remain anonymous and need only show an NMSU or DACC student ID to get assistance. The cupboard also accepts food donations. Info: aggiecupboard.nmsu.edu, aggiecupboard@nmsu.edu, 575-646-7636.

Find your study space

Places to meet your needs

The beautiful campus of NMSU is full of study spaces, not to mention numerous cafes and parks off campus. While most dorms on campus have comfortable and ample areas for you to study alone or with a group, recent studies show a correlation between memory retention and novelty. We remember the unusual, and we can wake our brains up when we change our routine.

Use some of the suggestions below or continue to explore and find an area that meets your needs.

ON CAMPUS

• Zuhl Library: 2911 McFie Circle. Communal and cubicle computer lab on first floor, abundant seating and desks on second and third floors. Groups can also check out rooms on the upper floors.

• Branson Library: 1305 Frenger St. Extensive science library with studying areas in the lobby, and tables and chairs with beautiful views of campus on the third and fourth floors.

• Corbett Center Student Union second floor: Use the Aggie Lounge on the first floor or rent a study room with your NMSU ID upstairs. These rooms have computer hookups to wall-mounted TVs. Or simply enjoy the cushiony seating area on the second floor. Pete's Place is also nearby, if you need to

DON'T GET LOST

Student Success Center

Location: Hardman and Jacob, Room 128
Offers: Study skills workshops, tutoring, peer education and more
Phone: 575-646-3136
Hours: 8 a.m.-5 p.m., Monday-Friday
Website: ssc.nmsu.edu

print something, and this fall NMSU will be opening Pete's Patio on the first floor of Corbett.

• The duck pond/surrounding park: Who needs a white noise machine when you can sit beside ducks and listen to the splash of the occasional fisherman's catch? There are plenty of benches and shade near the pond as well as an outdoor study area complete with USB ports beside the nearby speech building.

• Gerald Thomas Pond: It's hard to feel stressed when sitting in the company of sunbathing turtles. Come to study or to take a quick break from it all.

OFF CAMPUS

• Milagro Coffee y Espresso: 1733 E. University Ave. Grab an espresso shake and hit the books! Whether on the patio, the main room couches or enjoying the chill ambiance of the back room, you probably won't be the only student there. Hours: 6:30 a.m.-8 p.m. every day. Info: 575-532-1042

• International Delights: A popular study spot, this Mediterranean restaurant (with vegan options) serves coffee and desserts to keep you and your study buddies going. Plenty of indoor and outdoor seating. Hours: 11 a.m.-9 p.m., Monday-Thursday; 8 a.m.-10 p.m. Friday-Sunday.

• Spirit Winds Gift Source and Coffee Bar: 2260 S. Locust St. Unique gifts and cards to peruse during breaks, with a full range of coffee products and a daily food menu. Open from 7 a.m.-7 p.m. Monday-Friday, 7:30 a.m.-7 p.m. Saturday, 8 a.m.-6 p.m. Sunday. Info: 575-521-1222

• Village Inn: Order some pie and settle in. This classic diner recently moved to 1435 S. Valley Drive, but they are still close to campus and open until midnight for those late-night group project meetings.

• IHOP: Whatever hour you decide to study, stack your books by a stack of pancakes. Open 24 hours, and just across from campus at 351 E. University Ave.

STUDY TIPS

• Don't be afraid to ask professors for help or clarification, but you don't need to wait until the last minute! If something confused you, review your notes after class and ask your professor for clarification.

• Take breaks every hour; walk around or do some light exercise.

• Although repetition helps with memorization, people learn in different ways. Find what works for you. Practice quizzes with friends. Try Rainy Mood and other music sites designed to help you focus.

• Reach out for extra help through the Student Success Center.

ONLINE CLASSES OFFER FLEXIBILITY

- Shopping online: www.bookfinder.com allows you to search by ISBN or author and compare book prices from numerous sellers such as amazon or Biblio, Ebay, or Amazon.

AGGIE TRADITIONS CHEERLEADERS

The NM State cheerleaders have two spirit squads – a co-ed squad and an all-female squad.

The squads attend a Universal Cheerleading Camp and begin practices early in preparation for the football season.

In the fall, both squads cheer at the NMSU football games. During basketball season, the co-ed squad cheers at men's basketball games and the all-female squad cheers at women's basketball games.

In addition, the NM State cheerleaders are asked to make many public appearances throughout the year at other athletic events, as well as university and community events.

FIND A CAMPUS NOTARY

Advice worth taking

Advisors help you stay on track

Course catalogs and managing a schedule can be overwhelming. An academic advisor can help you make educated decisions regarding your academic schedule and class choices as well as your long-term career goals.

The most important aspect of advising is making sure the classes you take fulfill your degree and/or the university's requirements. By the time you graduate, you'll have mastered the Star Audit system, accessible via your MyNMSU account, but the audit might initially be difficult for a student to interpret. Your adviser should be well-versed in doing so, and they will be able to help you balance required classes as well as

ROLE OF ADVISORS

- Help you choose a major, learn about degrees and graduation requirements
- Select, add or drop a course
- Monitor your academic progress
- Provide you with information, answer questions and assist in completing necessary paperwork
- Assist your understanding of NMSU policies, procedures and deadlines
- Connect you to resources that promote success in and out of the classroom

some of the fun courses NMSU offers.

WHO NEEDS ADVISING?

All students are encouraged to receive advising at least once a semester. New and second semester freshmen and transfer students, undecided or exploratory students, student athletes, "pre" majors (e.g. pre-nursing, pre-social work), students with less than a 2.5, and students whose GPA is less than required for their designated major requirements will have academic advising holds. Advising holds are put in place to ensure that you have an opportunity to meet with an advisor. To avoid an advising hold, meet with your advisor or department. If you aren't sure if you have an advising hold, you can find out through your my.nmsu.edu account. Click "Student Records," and then "View Holds." From there you can find out if and why your account is on hold.

HOW TO MAKE AN APPOINTMENT WITH YOUR ADVISOR

To set up an appointment with your academic advisor, visit Garcia Center room 129 between 8 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, or call 575-646-2941.

A full list of college and departmental advisers can be found online at advising.nmsu.edu.

GET LEGAL ADVICE ON CAMPUS

If you find yourself in need of legal advice, the Associated Students of New Mexico State University (ASNMSU) has a licensed lawyer on staff with whom you can discuss any legal problems.

Karl Rysted is licensed in Oklahoma and New Mexico, and can render legal advice and, in rare instances, court representation for students. You have already paid for his services through student fees, so Rysted will meet with you for an hour free of charge. If after the consultation you think you need further legal representation, Rysted can provide private attorney referrals.

Employed by ASNMSU, licensed attorney Karl Rysted cannot advise you on issues dealing with ASNMSU or NMSU since it would be a conflict of interest, but he can help you with numerous other legal concerns, such as landlord/tenant issues and constitutional law.

Student Legal Aid will need to know the reason for your visit before you go in, so download their intake sheet at student-legalaid.nmsu.edu. Everything you say is confidential. The student legal aid office is located on the second floor of Corbett Center, room 205. For information, call 575-646-4419.

DEEP ROOTS

“The journey is never ending. There's always gonna be growth, improvement, adversity; you just gotta take it all in and do what's right, continue to grow, continue to live in the moment.”

Antonio Brown

One too many courses

How and when to drop a class

It only took you a week to realize the basket weaving class you thought would be fun is a time suck that could put a dent in your GPA. Don't worry! Dropping a class is simple and will ensure you receive a refund, but act quickly! The last day to drop a class and receive a "W" is Aug. 31 for fall 2018 and Feb. 1 for spring 2019.

BEFORE THE DROP DEADLINE

- Visit my.nmsu.edu and log in to your MyNMSU account

- Click on "Registration"
- Click "Add/Drop Classes"
- Select "Web Drop/Delete" on the appropriate class
- Submit changes

AFTER THE DEADLINE

- Go to your college dean's office
- Ask for a withdraw slip and fill it out accordingly
- Get a signature of the course's professor
- Return it to the dean's office to get the class dropped

Don't forget you can always call the registrar's office at 575-646-3411 with any questions.

Beat the blues

Get help from on-campus counseling

You should never feel alone, but the transition to college life where you are suddenly balancing classes, new friends, family and sometimes work might leave a student feeling isolated and overwhelmed.

The Aggie Health and Wellness Center provides free and confidential services to NMSU Main Campus students. These services include group, individual, and couples counseling with licensed counselors and psychologists. Their qualified staff is there to assist students with crisis, mental health, personal growth, and well-being issues.

Services are available at the NMSU Counseling Center in the Campus Health Center on the corner of Breland and Stewart.

If you are experiencing a crisis

If you don't have an on-campus counselor or you feel you must speak to someone outside of your scheduled appointment, you are welcome to go to the health center and request to meet with the on-call counselor. You will be asked to fill out some brief paperwork. Typically you will be able to meet with the counselor almost immediately afterward. See Need to Know Numbers on page 50 for other local and national resources you or a friend might need.

TIPS TO MANAGE STRESS

• Play on: Studies have shown playing calm music can reduce the hormone linked to stress, so give your eyes a break from chemistry homework and enjoy some music history. Laughter is another stress reliever, so watch an episode of your favorite sitcom, listen to a comedian's podcast, or call that friend or sibling who can always put your stress in perspective.

• H2O and Vitamin D: Our basic needs are often the ones we ignore. Make sure you're getting a little sun, fresh air and plenty of water. Don't overdo it with sugar or caffeine as this can make your anxiety feel worse and lead to energy crashes. Take a shower or a nap. Your body deserves a little maintenance, so take yourself for a run around the duck pond or a dip in the campus pool.

• Take it Easy (on yourself!): College is hard. Life is harder. You are a champ for getting out of bed this morning. So you didn't finish the extra credit assignment, or you had to cut back on your hours at work to keep up with your classes. It's okay. While saying affirmations in the mirror isn't for everyone, you can talk back to the voice in your head when it's being a jerk and tell yourself "I've got this." Or try a guided meditation like one of these provided by the Aggie Health and Wellness Center, wellness.nmsu.edu/guided-meditations.

Get Aggie fit

THERE'S AN APP FOR THAT

A recent study showed fitness app users are more active, leading the study's authors to believe an app can help someone overcome common barriers like lack of organization. Building good habits can lead to big changes, so try one of these top-rated apps to get you out of the dorm and climbing stadium steps.

- Couch to 5k: This training program app's claim to fame is its promise that with 30 minutes a day, three times a week, for nine weeks, you'll be off your couch and finishing your first 5k.
- Fit Radio: A music-streaming app featuring DJ mixes with a consistent beat, so you can keep up the pace! You can browse by DJ, genre, or type of workout.
- Fooducate: Most of us want to eat healthier, but we don't always know where to start. Fooducate lets you scan the barcodes of more than 250,000 items and then tells you how "good" or "bad" they are for you.
- Sleep Cycle: Set a 30-minute "wake up" phase, and this app will analyze your sound and movement patterns to ensure your alarm wakes you in the right sleep cycle. This will help you to avoid grogginess and give you more mornings of waking up on the right side of the bed.
- Strava: This app places a heavy emphasis on performance analytics, and its leaderboard function is perfect for the competitive types who want to see where they stand among other athletes.
- Happify: Stretch your smile and keep your mind at peace with daily using science-based strategies developed by psychology experts to keep negative thoughts at bay.
- MyFitnessPal: A step and calorie counter, MyFitnessPal features a database of 5 million foods and a barcode nutrition scanner. This app is consistently ranked as one of the best fitness apps.

Be in the know about sexual assault

Campus sexual assault is an uncomfortable topic, but one that must be talked about. Did you know that one in six women have been a victim of attempted or completed rape in her lifetime and 3 percent of men have been a victim of attempted or completed rape in their lifetime? While in college, a young woman's risk increases to one in four chance of being sexually assaulted. This means that someone you may already know or someone you may meet has been a victim of sexual assault.

So what exactly qualifies as sexual assault? Sexual assault may consist of sexual harassment, stalking, sexual coercion, sexual contact (unwanted fondling/groping, attempted rape, and rape). Often, the victim of sexual assault or rape faces blame and shaming.

It is never the victim's fault. Ever. Rape and sexual assault are not crimes of passion and love. Rape and sexual assault is about power and control.

So what can you, as men and women of this campus, do to help prevent sexual assault?

- When you go out be safe and stay together. Large parties can be fun, but they can also be dangerous. Make sure to keep track of your drink. Don't leave it unattended and don't accept a drink that has already been opened for you. You can't be positive of what's in the drink.

- Watch other people's drinks. If you notice someone has put something in someone's drink, do something about it. Stop the person from doing it and stop the person from drinking it. Or if it's more comfortable for you, tell someone else and they can step in.

- Be careful while drinking, in general. Alcohol is the number one drug used to initiate sexual assault. It is important to know that consent cannot be given when a person is intoxicated. Consent is a sober, verbal, and continuous yes.

- Don't be a bystander. If you see someone getting sexually assaulted, help them.

If someone comes to you claiming to be victim, believe them and help them. Contact the police or reach out to area resources such as La Piñon Sexual Assault Recovery Service at 575-526-3437, the WAVE office at 575-646-2813, the Counseling Center at 575-646-2731 and the Office of Institutional Equity at 575-646-3635.

If you ever find yourself in a situation with your partner where things are starting to go to the next level and you feel uncomfortable, don't be afraid to say "no." Or if your partner says "no" or that they're uncomfortable, stop and don't get upset. Listen to them and respect their wishes.

Dangers of alcohol

Learn how to keep yourself safe

As a freshman in college you may be excited for the school year to begin and yet also feel apprehension about what to expect. There will be many new experiences in your future. With a new sense of independence can come some difficult choices.

One of the many things you will encounter is alcohol. There will be many opportunities for you to drink, and there is a common misperception that for you to have the college "experience" and "fit in" you should drink, despite being underage. Should you decide to drink, there are ways to reduce your risk of potentially serious consequences.

- Always use a designated driver.

NMSU has several options for free rides, including Crimson Cab, Crimson Coach and Pete's Pick Up.

- Set a drinking limit and don't play drinking games. Avoid binge drinking (five drinks for men and four drinks for women in a period of two hours or less). Binge drinking can lead to blacking out, passing out and alcohol poisoning. To make sure this doesn't happen to you, you can alternate drinks with non-alcoholic drinks to slow down the process of intoxication. Keep track of the number of drinks you have as the night goes on.

- Utilize the buddy system. Sexual assault is an issue that affects both men and women, and the buddy system can help you safeguard each other. Never leave your buddy somewhere if you feel it is unsafe. Be accountable for each other! Never leave with a person you just met; exchange numbers and meet up while you both are sober.

- Keep an eye on your drink. Never leave your drink unattended to protect yourself from date rape drugs. Avoid drinking from punch bowls or pitchers, since they are easy to drug and it is difficult to tell how much alcohol it contains.

- Eat before and/or during partying. This will help your body soak up excess alcohol, and will help prevent you from drinking too much, too fast.

- Never hesitate to call for help. If someone is showing signs of alcohol poisoning (shallow breathing, clammy skin, vomiting, blacking out and/or passing out), call 911 immediately. Never try to give the person a cold shower, coffee, or allow them to sleep it off.

Alcohol may be legal (at least for those who are 21) and it comes in many different flavors, with lots of colors and pretty bottles, but it is still a dangerous drug that you can overdose on, or become addicted to over time.

DEEP ROOTS

“Be like a tree. Stay grounded. Connect with your roots. Turn over a new leaf. Bend before you break. Enjoy your unique beauty. Keep growing.”

Joanne Raptis

AGGIE TRADITIONS

VICTORY BELL In the 1940s, the Victory Bell, a gift of the class of 1939, was housed in an open-sided structure on the Horseshoe and rung to announce Aggie victories. In 1972, the bell was rededicated as the NM State Engineer's Bell and now sits at Aggie Memorial Stadium. On game days, various school organizations take turns toting the ringing bell around Las Cruces prior to kickoff. The bell then sits at Aggie Memorial Stadium waiting to give off a triumphant chime.

NMSU Police Department

The agency is at your service

The NMSU Police Department is a full-service department that handles anything from routine patrols and criminal investigations to victim assistance and reporting assault.

Other services offered by the NMSU Police Department include crisis intervention and follow up, and filing financial compensation claims. The department is active on social media, regularly publishing useful information and tips to Facebook and Twitter.

ON-CAMPUS SAFETY TIPS

- Use high-quality “U” locks on all bicycles, locking both the frame and front tire to the rack.
- Roll up windows and lock doors on vehicles and campus residences. Do not leave property in plain sight from windows, or anywhere on campus unattended.
- Be aware of potential scams via phone calls or email. Don’t give out personal information over the phone unless you are sure of the source of the request.

- When in an interpersonal relationship, remember that “no” means exactly that. If the other person is asleep, intoxicated or drugged, they are incapable of giving consent. Any sexual contact at that point is a crime — no matter what they may have said or done earlier. If you are someone you know is the victim of sexual assault, you can call 1-800-656-4673 to be walked through the process for seeking help.

- If you see someone else in danger, say something, do something and/or call for help. If you see an unsafe condition like a fallen tree limb or power line, flooded streets or other hazards, report it promptly.

Don't stay silent about suicide

SIGNS SOMEONE MAY BE CONSIDERING SUICIDE

- Talk about wanting to die or to kill oneself
- Look for a way to kill oneself, such as searching online or obtaining a gun
- Talk about feeling hopeless or having no reason to live
- Talk about feeling trapped or in unbearable pain
- Talk about being a burden to others
- Increase the use of alcohol or drugs
- Act anxious or agitated, or behave recklessly
- Sleep too little or too much
- Withdraw or feel isolated
- Show rage or talk about seeking revenge
- Display extreme mood swings

WAYS TO PREVENT SUICIDE

It is not necessary to wait until thoughts of suicide arise to prevent suicide. There are protective factors, which serve as a shield from suicidal thoughts and acts. Protective factors include the following:

- Effective clinical care for mental, physical, and substance abuse disorders
- Easy access to a variety of clinical interventions and support for help seeking
- Family and community support (connectedness)
- Support from ongoing medical and mental healthcare relationships
- Skills in problem solving, conflict resolution, and nonviolent ways of handling disputes
- Cultural and religious beliefs that discourage suicide and support instincts for self-preservation

Federal financial aid

Find out what you will need to apply

To qualify for subsidized loans (where you don't acquire interest and don't have to repay until after you graduate), unsubsidized loans (where you do) or work-study employment with the university, students should fill out the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at fafsa.ed.gov every year. The Financial Aid Office can aid students in completing the application and finding scholarships.

WHAT YOU'LL NEED TO APPLY

- Student and parent Social Security numbers
- Student and Parent date of birth
- Student driver's license
- Student Alien Registration or Resident Card
- Student and parent IRS tax returns
- Student and parent IRS W-2 forms
- Student and parent IRS 1099 forms
- Student and parent untaxed income records, such as VA Non-Education Benefits, child support paid or received
- List of student and parent current assets, including savings, checking, cash, net worth of investments, businesses, or farms

GET LOCAL AID WITH SCHOLAR DOLLARS

Designed in collaboration with the NMSU Foundation and The Office of Financial Aid and Scholarship Services, Scholar Dollar$ lets you fill out one application to be considered for all NMSU scholarships. The application is available to all potential and current students regardless of their campus.

will be held 5-7 p.m. Oct. 30 and Feb. 12 at Hardman Jacobs Undergraduate Learning Center.

Need a job?

Use Aggie Career Manager to help you find one

Students at NMSU can find temporary, seasonal, part-time or full-time work or internships with the help of Aggie Career Manager.

To create an account, go to careerservices.nmsu.edu and click “student login” under AggieCAREER Manager. Have your resume on hand to upload after creating your profile, and then you will be able to search both on-campus and community job postings. You can find work-study opportunities, as well as local, regional and national job postings.

Be warned: Though NMSU Career Services tries to vet each posting, some fraudulent jobs or even scams get through. If a job seems too good to be true, it probably is and should be reported to Career Services to be removed immediately. The Career Services Center staff members are available for consultation on researching prospective employers.

SUPPORT FOR JOB-SEEKERS

Career Services, next to Corbett Center in room 224 of the Garcia Center, is a valuable resource when it comes to planning your future career.

Career Services can offer a professional review of your resume and cover letter, and even give you a mock interview to help you present your best self as you enter the workforce. It wouldn't hurt to familiarize yourself with this office soon, because as you progress through school and begin looking into your career prospects, you will find Career Services can help with coaching and educational programs as well as job searches. Be sure to stop by one of their workshops or events.

Save money by printing on campus

A printer, let alone ink cartridges, can be a big investment, so why not take advantage of the many on-campus printers and computers.

Your NMSU student ID comes pre-loaded with $20 each school year ($10 for part-time students). This money can be used to print through on-campus computers. There are two types of printers on campus, with comparable pricing.

WEPA PRINTERS

WEPA printers cost 10 cents per one-sided black and white or color page, 15 cents per double-sided black and white and 50 cents per single-sided color; 75 cents for double-sided.

Find one at:

- Corbett Center Food Court
- Hardman & Jacobs Undergraduate Learning Center, rooms 101 and 206
- Pete's Place, Corbett Center 2nd floor
- Zuhl Library, 1st floor

PHAROS PRINTERS

Pharos printers cost 10 cents per one-sided black and white page, 15 cents per double-sided black and white, 10 cents per one-sided color page and 20 cents per double sided. Of these stations, only the Vista del Monte Pharos printers offer color printing.

Find one at:

- Student Success Center, room 128
- Breland Hall, room 175
- Computer Science Building Hallway
- English Building room 102
- Fulton Center, room 149
- Knox Hall

Manage your money

Student Success Center provides comprehensive assistance

Time is money," they say, and as a student you might be running short on both, but Red to Green Money Management, housed inside the Student Success Center, is here to help through online courses, short financial wellness talks, and one-on-one advice.

Red to Green Money Management will inform you about financial wellness and budgeting, as well as help you avoid bad credit and identity theft. These are issues graduates struggle with as well, so get a head start on "adulting," and take advantage of this centralized academic support service. It doesn't matter what program you are in or what your academic standing is, the Student Success Center is there to make sure you know how to overcome financial barriers. Don't let the daunting world of finances keep you from your degree.

Students can take free finance and money management courses online through the Student Success Center's Financial Avenue webpage, ssc.nmsu.edu/financial-avenue. The courses are provided by Inceptia, a private nonprofit organization NMSU has partnered with to provide free self-guided lessons in such topics as FAFSA, loan guidance, earning, spending and borrowing, and more.

Beginning Aug. 28, you may attend free scheduled

MONEY MANAGEMENT APPS

- You Need a Budget: This budgeting app helps you pay down debt and stop living paycheck to paycheck. This app works around your actual income, and if you get off track, its built-in accountability partner will help you see what you need to do differently. YNAB is available for a small monthly or annual fee.
- Mint: Still considered one of the most reliable money management apps available, the free Mint app from Intuit is an all-in-one resource for tracking your spending and creating a budget. Mint can also provide bill reminders to help you avoid late fees.
- Unsplurge: This app has a unique community-based section where you can compare your spending goals with those of others. It also gives you saving tips.

- The Birdy: Cute name aside, this money tracker works by sending a daily email requesting a list of the transactions you remember. It then provides you with a handy – and pretty – pie chart illustrating where your money goes. The Birdy is a free service.

ANOTHER WAY TO SAVE?

- BigOven: By providing ideas for transforming the dregs of your fridge into appetizing meals, this app helps you make the most of the groceries you have on hand. The app contains over 350 thousand recipes allowing you to also plan meals in advance in order to cut down on the amount of food you buy.

LAS CRUCES' OLDEST MICROBREWERY

Our selection of hand crafted lagers and ales are produced on premises using the finest grains and hops. We brew small batches of about 200 gallons ensuring that each beer is served at the peak of freshness.

We brew a variety of about 25 different beers.

We usually have 12 beers on tap, including our special root beer brewed in house. Try a Rootbeer Float!
