"The D'Amelio Show"

This unscripted series follows up the smashing success of its first season with more drama under the glare of the internet spotlight in Season 2, as the D'Amelios' meteoric rise creates once-in-a-lifetime opportunities in business and personal relationships — but they could come at the cost of what makes them a tight-knit family. (ORIGINAL)

"Movie: The Last Duel"

Ridley Scott's 2021 historical action drama unfolds in three distinct "chapters" reflecting the perspective of the three main characters. Matt Damon stars as Jean de Carrouges, a knight who feels compelled to challenge his old friend, Jacques Le Gris (Adam Driver) to a duel after Jean's wife, Marguerite (Jodie Comer), accuses Jacques of raping her. Ben Affleck takes a supporting role.

"Movie: Joe"

Nicolas Cage stars in this 2013 adaptation of Larry Brown's novel as the title character, an ex-convict who's doing his best to go straight — but that becomes difficult when he befriends a youngster (Tye Sheridan, "Mud") whose father is abusive. Joe then has to make a decision whether to do something about the situation in his own way.

"Ice Road Truckers"

The first two seasons of this unscripted History series that follows six hardy drivers whose job it is to drive supplies hundreds of miles to diamond miners in northern Canada — over frozen lakes that could give way under them any minute — comes to the streaming service.

tonight's picks

Katherine McNamara

7 p.m. on KVIA Station 19

At the end of last season we watched Jack Gibson (Grey Damon) drive away from Andy (Jaina Lee Ortiz) after he seemingly quit his job. With the Season 6 premiere, we finally find out just what went down. But with changes on the horizon and drama around every corner from the station, the Season 6 premiere looks like a four alarm fire.

7 p.m. on KVIA2 Walker

If last season's cliffhanger left you on the edge of your seat, the Season 3 premiere will help give an answer to what happened to Cordell Walker (Jared Padalecki). The last we saw was of an unconscious Walker in the back of a truck. Now the race is on to locate him and rescue him from the group holding him hostage and torturing him. Molly Hagan, Keegan Allen, Violet Brinson and Kale Culley also star.

7 p.m. on WE Waka & Tammy

Whenever a door closes, a window opens. And in the Season 3 finale episode "What the Flocka: Divorce," Waka and Tammy finally call it quits. In an effort to move forward, Tammy takes the girls to New Orleans for a getaway as Waka steps out to a new life on the road and all the new opportunities that affords. Meanwhile, Tammy takes a more spiritual path and helps Charlie find her true calling in life.

8 p.m. on KVIA Grey's Anatomy

It's safe to say Seattle will not look the same after the whirlwind craziness that took place during last season's finale, which saw many doctors resign from Grey Sloan Memorial Hospital. While the teaching program has shut down, it looks to start fresh with Meredith (Ellen Pompeo) as the new chief of surgery. Alexis Floyd joins the cast as Simone Griffin, a new first-year surgical resident in the Season 19 premiere. Chandra Wilson and James Pickens Jr. also star.

8 p.m. on KVIA2 Walker Independence

This origin story of CW's hit series "Walker" is set in the 1800s and follows Abby Walker (Katherine McNamara), a Bostonian whose husband is murdered before her eyes while on their journey West. After crossing paths with Calian (Justin Johnson Cortez), Abby arrives in the town of Independence, Texas, where she encounters diverse and eclectic residents running from their pasts, chasing their dreams and keeping their own secrets in this series premiere.

Katie Findlay, Lawrence Kao, Matt Barr, Philemon Chambers and Greg Hovanessian also star.

8:01 p.m. on KDBC So Help Me Todd

If you were looking for the definition of serendipity, this is it. Margaret (Marcia Gay Harden) and Todd (Skylar Astin) work two seemingly unrelated cases, only to discover a key piece of information in the details of Todd's humorously boring civil case could help Margaret's high-profile client in the new episode "Co-pilot." Madeline Wise, Inga Schlingmann, Rose Arredondo and Tristen J. Winger also star.

9:01 p.m. on KVIA Alaska Daily

Eileen Fitzgerald (two-time Academy Award winner Hilary Swank) is an award-winning investigative journalist who leaves her high-profile New York life behind after a fall from grace to join a daily metro newspaper in Anchorage, Alaska. But in the series premiere, her first assignment about a conspiracy-riddled cold case involving a serial killer targeting indigenous women, leaves her feeling a bit unwelcome by the locals.

“Movie: Support Your Local Sheriff!”

Makes sense; after all, he can toss you in jail. A stranger (James Garner) traveling to Australia stumbles into a gold-rush town and ends up becoming the sheriff. He manages to tame the lawless town and keep the peace by using his brains instead of his gun. Directed by Burt Kennedy, this 1969 comedy also stars Joan Hackett, Walter Brennan, Bruce Dern and Harry Morgan.

“Movie: The Lord of the Rings: The Fellowship of the Ring”

In director Peter Jackson's first installment of the epic trilogy, Frodo the hobbit (Elijah Wood) is enlisted to help the wizard Gandalf (Ian McKellen). Evil forces are gathering to control the land, and Frodo is given a magic ring, which he must destroy. He is accompanied on his journey by a noble assortment of companions. Viggo Mortensen, Orlando Bloom, Sean Astin and Dominic Monaghan co-star.

“Friday Night Lights”

Director Peter Berg's 2004 drama about a high school football team in an economically depressed Texas town was adapted for this critically lauded though often low-rated series about the lives of those in and around the Dillon Panthers, a team in a close-knit rural West Texas town. Kyle Chandler, Connie Britton, Zach Gilford and Taylor Kitsch are among the cast of the first season, which streams here.

“Movie: Catherine Called Birdy”

“Girls” creator Lena Dunham co-wrote and directed this adventure flick set in 1290 England that follows Lady Catherine (Bella Ramsey, “Game of Thrones”) aka “Birdy,” as she thwarts repeated attempts by her father, the destitute Lord Rollo (Andrew Scott, “His Dark Materials”) to marry her off for money. Lesley Sharp, Sophie Okonedo and Joe Alwyn also star. (ORIGINAL)

Family Viewing Ratings

AS Adult situations P Profanity V Violence N Nudity GV Graphic Violence

"DC LEAGUE OF SUPER-PETS"

It's the animals— or, more accurately, the super-animals — to the rescue in this animated adventure related to the DC Comics Universe. Dwayne Johnson voices super-powered canine Krypto, who has to launch a mission when Superman (voice of John Krasinski) and the other members of the Justice League are abducted ... but few of the other pets are of heroic status, at least initially. It's largely up to Krypto to whip them into shape for the challenge ahead of them. Kevin Hart, Kate McKinnon, Vanessa Bayer, Keanu Reeves, Natasha Lyonne, Diego Luna, Marc Maron and Thomas Middleditch also are in the voice cast. DVD extra: "making-of" documentary. ★★★ (PG: AS, V) (Also on Blu-ray, 4K Ultra HD, Digital and On Demand)

"NIGHT OF THE LIVING DEAD"

With the Halloween season nearing, and a week that is seeing the 4K Ultra HD debuts of many horror titles, this legendary title ranks very high among them. Director George A. Romero's made-on-a-shoestring 1968 classic inspired more-lavish sequels and remakes (some made by Romero himself), but there's still something highly effective about the basic and quite graphic original, detailing the plight of those who hole up in a Pennsylvania farmhouse to try to survive a rampage by the undead. Duane Jones, Judith O'Dea, Karl Hardman (who also was a producer of the film) and Marilyn Eastman are among the cast members of the thriller, which has continued to be a huge influence for other filmmakers for more than a half-century. ★★★ (Not rated: AS, P, GV)

"THE U.S. AND THE HOLOCAUST"

Televised very recently by PBS, Ken Burns' latest documentary — which he produced and directed in collaboration with Lynn Novick and Sarah Botstein — recalls what the reaction and response in America were to the targeting of certain ethnicities in Europe during the World War II era. First-hand accounts by survivors are included, along with analysis by historians and scholars. Resources supplied by the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum are folded into the three-part program, which Peter Coyote narrates. Liam Neeson and Meryl Streep, who both famously acted in dramatic projects with the Holocaust as their theme, are included in the cast of voices; so are Paul Giamatti, Joe Morton, Hope Davis, Bradley Whitford, Matthew Rhys and filmmaker Werner Herzog. ★★★★★ (Not rated: AS, V) (Also on Blu-ray)

"MELROSE PLACE: THE COMPLETE SERIES"

With the success of their "Beverly Hills, 90210," producers Aaron Spelling and Darren Star cooked up another long-lasting saga in a similar vein with this Fox show about young adults residing — and, in some cases, communing very closely — in a California apartment complex. The series started out soft in the ratings, but it got a huge and sustaining boost from the addition of Heather Locklear as Amanda Woodward, a schemer in business and romance. Members of the ensemble cast also include Grant Show (more recently of the reboot of the Spelling-originated "Dynasty"), Courtney Thorne-Smith, Andrew Shue, Josie Bissett, Thomas Calabro, Doug Savant, Laura Leighton, Marcia Cross (whose Kimberly memorably blew up the place, literally) and Daphne Zuniga. This show got its own reboot, though that was short-lived. ★★★ (Not rated: AS, P, V)

"THE TWILIGHT ZONE (REBOOT): THE COMPLETE SERIES"

"Get Out" Oscar winner Jordan Peele had a big role in this latest incarnation of Rod Serling's classic anthology series. Also an executive producer of the show, Peele is the narrator who introduces stories of the supernatural — one of the most notable stories here being the retitled "Nightmare at 30,000 Feet," with Adam Scott assuming William Shatner's role from the original show as an airplane passenger who sees a demon on the wing. Sanaa Lathan, Greg Kinnear, John Cho, Rhea Seehorn, Tophér Grace, Tracy Morgan, Chris O'Dowd, Ginnifer Goodwin, Joel McHale, Jenna Elfman, Gretchen Mol and George Takei are among the many other talents who were featured over the show's two seasons. Interestingly, a black-and-white version of this show was released digitally, to emulate the style of the first series even more. ★★★ (Not rated: AS, P, V)

celebrity scoop

BY GEORGE DICKIE

As a native of Vancouver, Jewel Staitte is proud to see her city shine in the upcoming CW legal dramedy "Family Law."

Premiering Sunday, Oct. 2, Staitte ("Firefly") stars as Abigail Bianchi, a lawyer trying to pick up the pieces after coming to court drunk — and getting sick. Disgraced and facing disbarment, she's forced to work at her estranged father Harry's (Victor Garber, "DC's Legends of Tomorrow") family law firm with half-siblings Daniel (Zach Smadu, "Cardinal") and Lucy (Genelle Williams, "The Expanse"). Thus setting the stage for plenty of conflict.

For her role of Abby, Staitte embraced the chance to play what she calls a multifaceted character who has a troubled past and a talent for getting into trouble but also offers a chance to stretch her comedic muscles.

"I think my favorite part about her is she wears her heart on her sleeve," Staitte explains. "She doesn't keep secrets very well. She just sort of speaks before she thinks. She's a very impulsive person but she's really smart. I mean, she's conniving so she'll definitely do whatever it takes to win; winning is a very big priority for her. But I kind of went the route of using humor to deflect and to get her way."

Toward that end, Staitte says that while there isn't much room for improv in the show's scripts, she does know how to find the funny between the lines.

"In my mind I feel like almost every line can be said comedically," she says with a laugh, "and I love that they let me go a little bit big sometimes with certain things. It's fun to find a character's quirks and Abby is very quirky and I think a lot of our characters in this show are, so it's fun to see these flawed personalities be able to shine and let the actors run a little bit."

Full name: Jewel Belair Staitte
