gram and delivered them, thanks to a ride from Rad Retrocade Pizza Planet to Community Action Agency of Southern New Mexico (CAASNM).

The next day, Nov. 22, Knights of Columbus members were at the CAASNM office in Las Cruces to present a check to the nonprofit for the

Missouri Water Tank Restoration Temporarily Closes Gus Vlachakis Park

By Cassie McClure

The Missouri Water Tank at Gus Vlachakis Park is 66 years old and getting updated. The park will be closed from the end of November until March 2023.

After approximately 46 years since its last rehabilitation, the Missouri Water Tank at Gus Vlachakis Park will get a complete restoration. Las Cruces Utilities (LCU) maintains the 66-year-old water tank, which is nestled behind Fire Station 4 at 2802 E. Missouri Ave. It sits alongside the park's beautiful shade trees and a playground, but the rehabilitation does necessitate the park's closure during the colder months, from the end of November 2022 to the end of March 2023.

"It's a small park, and there's a lot of equipment involved in ensuring that this crucial piece of water infrastructure remains operational for more years to come," said LCU Associate Engineer Fernando Ortiz. The Missouri Water Tank serves the Telshor and South Intermediate water pressure zones and holds 2 million gallons of water.

"The reason we're closing the park is to ensure the safety of our residents because of the amount of equipment and materials it takes to rehabilitate a water storage tank," he said. "We're completing this during the time of the year when there is less water demand."

At the intersection of Missouri Avenue and south Telshor Boulevard, Gus Vlachakis Park will become a staging ground for rehabilitation operation. The tank will be cleaned out of sediment buildup, its interior sandblasted, floor replacement, roof replacement, vent upgraded, new manways installation and replacement, inlet and outlet replacements, repainting, and concrete ring repair. It will also get new ladders, vandal deterrents, and roof safety railings.

Approved by the LCU Board of Commissioners in October 2022, Viking Painting, LLC, will complete the $2.5 million project.

"It's been cared for throughout the years through regular inspections on its interior and exterior, but due to its age, it doesn't meet current standards," said Ortiz. "This is a routine upgrade that all tanks go through as they get older, and new regulations allow for the safety of workers and better operation of the tank for residents."

LCU staff held a public meeting at the Utilities Building at 680 N. Motel Blvd on Thursday, November 17. Attendees' questions focused on water disruptions and loss of water pressure.

"The residents in the area should not see any water disruption or loss of water pressure," said Ortiz. "The water system has other means to reroute water and ensure the water pressure is the same even if a tank needs to be taken offline."

More opportunities to help others for the holidays

By MIKE COOK
Las Cruces Bulletin

There are many non-profits and charitable organizations in Las Cruces and Doña Ana County that provide care and support for those in need every day of the year.

As we approach the holidays, "it is more than usually desirable that we should make some slight provision for the Poor and Destitute, who suffer greatly at the present time," as Charles Dickens said in his classic 1843 novella, "A Christmas Carol."

In this series, which will continue through mid-December, the Bulletin will provide current information on nearly 30 local organizations that could use your support – money, other donations and volunteer time – this holiday season. This week, we are featuring pet adoptions, donations and volunteering.

• Animal Services Center of the Mesilla Valley brings in 9,000-10,000 animals a year, either strays picked up by city/county animal control or brought in by the public, or pets given up by owners. 450-500 or more animals are housed at ASCMV at any given time. Donations help. Links to ASCMV wish lists at ascmv.org/ascmv-donations/. Needed: KMR kitten formula, Miracle Nipples and soft swaddle blankets for bottle-baby kittens, large dog crates, doggie dental chews, soft dog treats, kitty litter, cat toys, sturdy leashes (for bigger dogs especially), towels and blankets (no filling). Cash donations welcome by mail to ASCMV, 3551 Bataan Memorial West, Las Cruces, N.M. 88012, or online at ascmv.org or. Call 575-382-0018 and talk to Yoli Jurado to volunteer or Vanessa Chastain to foster an animal. Loving, forever homes for animals is ASCMV's biggest holiday wish. Visit <https://ascmv.org/adoptable-animals/> and facebook.com/ASCMV for holiday and all-year adoption specials. Please spay and neuter your pets.

• Safe Haven Animal Sanctuary needs fleece throw blankets, Purina One beef or chicken canned dog food, Purina Beyond canned and dry cat food, Friskies Party Mix cat treats, Milk Bones (mini and small sizes), clumping cat litter, disposable gloves (large), toilet paper, paper towels, tall kitchen trash bags, scented laundry detergent, Dawn dishwashing liquid, Clorox unscented bleach, disinfecting wipes, Ziploc bags (all sizes). Strange season gets stranger, in a good way

For several months, folks around Las Cruces have been hearing the term “The Jerry Kill Era,” referring to New Mexico State University football under the veteran head coach, who was new to us.

No one really knew what to expect. The optimists said, “This should be good!” The pessimists said, “It’ll still be the same old Aggies.”

In a rollercoaster season of bizarre oddities, both the optimists and the pessimists have been right at various times, but no one could have predicted the season’s strangeness. We’ve lost games we should have won, and won games we could have lost.

And now, the Aggies have an unexpected December game, in which fans can cheer on NMSU for one more Saturday afternoon.

At 1 p.m. Dec. 3 in Aggie Memorial Stadium, they will play the Valparaiso Beacons, a college based in Indiana.

You’ve heard of “money games” the Aggies play when they hit the road as a sacrificial lamb against the University of Alabama or other superpower in exchange for a couple of million dollars. As strange as it sounds, we’re now the money game for Valparaiso, albeit for way less money.

This was preceded by another big surprise, the Aggies’ 49-14 Nov. 26 road victory against Liberty, a team that spent much of the season in the Top 25.

I was able to catch that game on TV, tuning in when the Aggies were ahead Liberty 14-7. Pleasantly surprised, I continued to watch, as NMSU improved to a 28-7 halftime score.

“I don’t know what I’ll tell ‘em,” Coach Kill told the sideline reporter when she asked what he would say to his team in the locker room. “We’ve never been in this spot before. It’ll be a teaching moment.” Evidently, they learned well, stunning both Aggie pessimists and optimists.

Even more bizarre, as of this writing, there is still a possibility the Aggies could go to a bowl game. NMSU was waiting on a response to a waiver it filed to be bowl-eligible. Normally, a Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) school has to win six games to be considered, but NMSU was in a unique situation. The scheduled Oct. 22 home game against San Jose State was canceled because a Spartan player died in an accident the day before the game. No other FBS team could - or would - find a way to come replace the game for us. So, thank you, Valpo.

Beating the Beacons for a sixth win won’t make us bowl-eligible since they are not FBS, but if we could win, it would be a great lead-in to a bowl if get the waiver and an invite.

Of all the bizarre things for NMSU football, only the most die-hard Aggie optimist would have dared predict a bowl season in the first year of the “Jerry Kill Era.”

Lights, camera, action ... Miranda rights

In June 2012, I succumbed to the hype and joined with millions of others to watch Nik Walenda attempt to cross Niagara Falls on a highwire.

A few minutes into the walk I realized that, because so much of the promotion had been about the fact he could fall off and die at any moment, a little part of me would feel cheated if he made it across alive. Disgusted by my own human nature, I rushed to change the channel.

I got that same vibe recently while watching the new show, “On Patrol: Live,” which broadcasts live every Friday and Saturday night, and claims to be, “the most-watched show on cable.”

“Anything can happen,” the promo touts as video footage shows a police officer wrestling a man to the pavement.

The show feels a little like the NFL Network’s Red Zone channel, as it jumps from one law enforcement agency to another all across the country, including the Bernalillo County Sheriff’s Department. Just like the Red Zone is always looking for the game with the best action, “On Patrol: Live” is always looking for the most dramatic moments, a high-speed chase, a violent attack or, at the very least, a stream of red-faced anger and profanity.

Viewers can only hope for the Holy Grail, a police shootout.

Host Dan Abrams and former officers Sean “Sticks” Larkin and Curtis Wilson provide the color commentary and expert analysis.

WALT RUBEL
The View
From Here

The show offers the promise of chaos and calamity at any moment. And there are times of real danger and excitement. But most nights are a sad parade of the intoxicated, the mentally unstable and ordinary folks going through the worst day of their lives and having it shared with the rest of the country for our amusement.

Normally, TV programs need to get a release from the people they show. But apparently driving with a broken taillight means we forfeit all rights to privacy.

The show is an improved update of “Live PD,” which aired on the A&E Network from 2016 to 2020. It’s not a coincidence that the old show was canceled following the murder of George Floyd in May 2020, and the national call for police reform that followed.

Nor is it a coincidence the new show was born in the backlash of that call for reform with a new passion to “back the blue.” Which is fine. TV follows the trends.

But law enforcement was never meant to be entertainment. The most successful police and sheriff’s departments are those that prevent crimes before they happen, and defuse situations before they spin out of control.

Nobody would watch that.

Habitat for Humanity volunteers start work on new houses

By MIKE COOK
Las Cruces Bulletin

Mesilla Valley Habitat for Humanity (MVHH) staff and volunteers are hard at work on three of the five new houses the nonprofit is building in Las Cruces, MVHH's 129th, 130th and 131st houses.

Building MVHH's two previous houses, Nos. 127 and 128, also on Aurora Star Court, began in 2020, but was delayed because of the pandemic.

"During COVID, we had to adapt and overcome the ever-changing, out-of-our-hands circumstances presented to us all," MVHH Executive Director April Estrada said. "We could not utilize the helping hands of our local and traveling dedicated volunteers until September of 2021. We were so thankful for their return as they are instrumental in constructing our homes."

MVHH 2022-23 "911 Build Week" is Nov. 15-19, as "we will welcome all first responders on-site to build together in partnership with our volunteers," Estrada said. Participating were first responders from the Las Cruces Fire Department, Las Cruces Police Department, Doña Ana County Sheriff's Office, New Mexico State Police and American Medical Response, Inc. (AMR ambulance service) Doña Ana County, she said.

"They go above and beyond every day and they still find time to help us out," Estrada said.

Active-duty military and veterans also participated during the week, she said.

The 2022-23 build season, which started in October and will continue until next May, includes five houses, Estrada said, two on Aurora Star Court and two on Diamante Court.

MVHH 2021-22 build season

MVHH's 2021-22 build season wound up with 358 volunteers on site, with an estimated impact of more than $92,500, Estrada said.

"We use volunteer labor and donated materials to keep costs low and affordable to our partner families, as well as grants received from the City of Las Cruces," she said. MVHH continued its partnership with local businesses that included Doña Ana Title, Sunland Nursery, Wells Fargo, Lockheed Martin and Premiere Distributing, Estrada said.

"This year, First American Bank agreed to partner with us as our qualified loan originator and walk the path to homeownership with our 2021-22 partner families," she said. "Sister Beth and the board of Tutti Bambini donated six desks, chairs and lamps for each of the children's rooms to encourage and help them with their focus and growth to achieve their goals and dreams."

"One day an old co-worker saw me at Wal-Mart," said Lynette Rubio, whose family is one of the two newest MVHH homeowners. "She looked at me and gave me information about MVHH. To be honest, it seemed too good to be true. I then did my research: YouTube videos and Google, I called MVHH (and) Michelle answered all my questions; she seemed too sweet."

Rubio decided to pick up a MVHH application form "just because the lady was so friendly," she said. "When I picked up the application, I was waiting to be given the basic instructions and saw the beautiful pictures on the wall of families with the keys to their new homes. I was then so convinced I wanted to be the next family on the wall with the keys to her new home."

After several months of delays because of child custody issues, Rubio said she got a call from MVHH, thinking "they are going to tell me that I am not a candidate. When I got to the office and the ladies surprised me that I was going to be able to own a home, I cried, cried happy tears because what only seemed like a dream, was going to finally come true. I then came home to all my six kids and gave them the news. Since October 2021 they have packed all their things because they are happy to finally move into their new home, ready to create memories."

"From the day I moved out and started my family it has been a struggle to find a safe and accommodating home," said new homeowner Kara Neri. "My husband and I have been married 12 years and have five beautiful children. When I first heard of MVHH, my sister and her family were in the program. I kept thinking, if this was meant to be, it will happen for us. Finally, we got a call and had our home inspection, and the whole family was so nervous and excited! After waiting what felt like forever, we finally got the phone call that we were accepted! We would be building our forever home! This entire process has been life changing. My kids and my husband and I have got to be a part of building our dream home, a home that our babies will feel safe in, a home where we know we all have our own space and will make so many memories in."

MVHH celebrated its 34th anniversary in 2022. It has helped make homeowners of nearly 120 local families during the past three decades. Qualifying homeowners are selected based on economic need, ability to pay their share of the costs and willingness to help with the construction. Every local family that qualifies for a MVHH house must contribute 300-500 hours of sweat equity helping to build their own home or someone else's. Each participating family makes a small down payment on the house and pays a monthly long-term, low-interest mortgage. Visit lascruceshabitat.org.

ALVIS (JACK) BAKER, 88

Alvis (Jack) Baker of Las Cruces, New Mexico, passed away November 16, 2022. He was born April 26, 1934, to Tom and Grace Baker in Tulia, Texas.

Alvis (Jack) attended school in Portales, New Mexico, graduating from ENMU in 1973 with a BS in Industrial Education. He taught Industrial Arts at Alameda Junior High for LCPS 1973-1974. Alvis (Jack) loved his Lord, surrendering his life to Christ at age 12, his second love was his country, and third, a deep love for his family. He served 32 years of service: Marine Corps (4 years); Army Reserve (10 years); National Guard (18 years). He worked at White Sands Missile Range as Art Specialist 1974 until retiring in 1998.

Preceding Alvis (Jack) in death are both parents, Tom and Grace Baker; his first wife, Marcia Flowers Baker; three brothers; Billy Joe Baker, Wayne Baker, twin brother Jerry Baker; and one sister, Mildred Davis.

Alvis (Jack) was a member of Las Cruces Calvary Baptist Church. He was known for making many wooden crosses for different mission projects: including, the two huge wooden crosses which hang in the auditorium; the smaller wooden cross hanging in the baptistry; and the large wood cross displayed outside in the front of the church during Easter and Christmas seasons.

Alvis (Jack) was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, which everyone knew as Pa Jack. He made rocking horses, wooden desks, doll cradles and rocking chairs for each grandchild with his master wood craftsmanship.

Alvis (Jack) is survived by his wife, Norma Baker and son Michael Baker, both of Las Cruces. He is also survived by three stepchildren: Sandy Daugherty (Mark) of Tatum, NM; Alton Rogers (Jennifer) of Deming, NM; and Truitt Rogers (Leticia) of Las Cruces. Alvis (Jack) is also survived by eight step-grandchildren, whom he loved dearly. Joshua Rogers of Thailand; Brian Rogers of Las Cruces; Colton Cain (Sidney) of Indianapolis, IN; Amanda Daugherty, of Savanna, OK; Sean Daugherty (Bailee) of Midland, TX; Breanna Armstrong (Colton) of Hobbs, NM; Tiatta Van Dam (Arlan); and Tanner Rogers, both of Las Cruces. Also, five great grandchildren: Anson, Axel and Timarie Belle Van Dam of Las Cruces, NM; Kenna and Creed Armstrong of Hobbs, NM. Other survivors include two sisters: Lela Collison (Bob)

Houston, TX; and Ann Leslie of New Mexico.

The family wishes to thank all the staff at Casa Bella Assisted Living, where Alvis (Jack) has been residing. Donations may be made to Gideon Bibles, in honor of Alvis (Jack) Baker. Cremation has taken place. There will be no formal ceremony.

Do you know how to identify a natural gas leak? You might smell sulfur or rotten eggs, you may notice dirt or debris shooting up out of a hole in the ground, dead or dying vegetation in an otherwise green area, and a loud hissing or roaring sound near pipeline markers. These and many more are all tell tale signs of a natural gas or pipeline leak. Use all your senses, even common sense and report any possible leaks to Zia Natural Gas Company. When in doubt call us out!

6 p.m. on HALL
Movie: A Fabled Holiday

Is it a coincidence that the holidays fall at the perfect time each year? Talia (Brooke D'Orsay) and her childhood best friend Anderson (Ryan Paevey) unexpectedly reunite in a curiously familiar looking town full of Christmas spirit that restores its visitors when they need it most in this 2022 romance. Other stars include Rochelle Greenwood, Jake Guy, Daphne Hoskins, John Prowse and Benjamin Jacobson.

6 p.m. on LIFE
Movie: A New Orleans Noel

Grace Hill (Keshia Knight Pulliam) and Anthony Brown (Brad James) went to college to study architecture together, but their lives took them on completely separate paths. But when they're both hired to work together on the home of Loretta Brown (Patti LaBelle) — a New Orleans praline icon — the two find themselves stuck working together at Christmas and butting heads over more than just architecture in this 2022 romance. Tim Reid also stars.

6 p.m. on EPIX
Movie: Top Gun

With "Top Gun: Maverick" an equal-blockbuster sequel, the 1986 original movie helped turn Tom Cruise into a megastar. The actor takes to the skies as a young pilot who competes in the air and on the ground with his classmates at an elite naval aviation training school. He also develops a relationship with one of the school's instructors (Kelly McGillis). Directed by Tony Scott, the film also stars

Anthony Edwards and Val Kilmer.

7 p.m. on OWN
Movie: The Great Holiday Bake War

When former pastry school rivals Julian (Finesse Mitchell) and Brianna (LeToya Luckett) meet years later in a TV baking competition, the sparks — and the flour — fly. Each has their own plans for the winning prize money, but only one can win — unless they work together. While Brianna struggles to support her daughter Willow (Naomi Sogbein) and Julian longs to escape his mother's shadow, they learn that collaboration can create a new recipe for success and love in this 2022 romance.

9 p.m. on FX
Movie: Toy Story 3

There's still plenty of life left in Buzz Lightyear and cowboy Woody, as Tim Allen and Tom Hanks reprise their voice roles in this delightful and quite affecting 2010 sequel to the earlier Disney-Pixar box-office smashes. With their owner, Andy, heading off to college, most of his toys — except Woody, who goes with him — get a new destination, a day care center where they aren't treated too well. Michael Keaton gives voice to Ken, longtime boyfriend of Barbie.

10 p.m. on SHOW
Movie: Bandit

After escaping a Michigan prison, charming career criminal Robert (Josh Duhamel) assumes a new identity in Canada and goes on to rob a record 59 banks and jewelry stores while being hunted by a police task force led by Detective Snyder (Nestor Carbonell). This 2022 crime thriller is based on the true story of "The Flying Bandit," and also stars Mel Gibson, Elisha Cuthbert and Olivia d'Abo.

11:01 p.m. on HMM
Movie: The Holiday Stocking

RJ (B.J. Britt) is a new angel who is given the chance to address his one regret — that he didn't help his sisters reconcile while he was still alive. Returning to Earth as a stranger, he gets each of them to revive The Holiday Stocking, their parent's old tradition to encourage charity at Christmas in this 2022 holiday movie. Nadine Ellis, Karon Riley, Tamala Jones and Mykelti Williamson also star.

Movie: The Waltons' Homecoming

Commemorating the 1971 premiere of "The Homecoming: A Christmas Story," the TV movie that launched the long-running drama series "The Waltons," this 2021 remake of that Depression-era story takes place on Christmas Eve 1933, as a heavy winter storm threatens to keep patriarch John Walton Sr. (Ben Lawson) from getting home to wife Olivia (Bellamy Young) and his large family. Logan Shroyer ("This Is Us") plays eldest son John-Boy; Marcelle LeBlanc, Christian Finlayson, Tatum Matthews and Samuel Goergen co-star; Richard Thomas narrates.

10 p.m. on HBO
His Dark Materials

The long-awaited eight-episode Season 3 premiere is finally here with two back-to-back episodes. Based on "The Amber Spyglass," the final novel in Philip Pullman's award-winning trilogy, the epic fantasy series follows Lyra (Dafne Keen), the prophesied child, and Will (Amir Wilson), the bearer of The Subtle Knife, as they journey to a dark place from which no one has ever returned. As her father's great war against the Authority edges closer, they will learn that saving the world comes at a terrible price.

Finding season's spirit, magic

BY DEBBI MOORE
GLCCC DEO/President

The sound of holiday music is beginning to permeate many of our homes & businesses & reminds us that the holidays are right in front of us. And we are, close to the end of the year and the holiday season. We all can find the “Spirit of Santa,” that magical feeling which somehow energizes us and keeps us going. Throughout the years, I’ve been asked many times “why” I collect Santa’s...well, it’s simple. It is the magic that this bearded, red-suited gentleman brings to the world. For a brief season in time every year, the magic replaces the negativity, pessimism and sadness with positivity, optimism & joy.

We all have the ability to add these three simple “magic” elements to our lives & make a true impact in our community.

Debbi Moore

1. Magic of the Kichen Table – There is a magic in sitting around the table to enjoy wonderful foods with friends and family. Eating seems to be an integral part of each holiday season with family recipes being replicated & enjoyed. Around the table, we tend to have conversations which almost always bring laughter, sharing of memories of the holidays and simply connecting with our loved ones. Perhaps in the scheme of things, the concept of “around the table” should be applied in so many areas of life.

2. Magic of Making a Difference – There’s something very special of giving during the holiday season. This simple gesture of giving of your time and/or dollars to make a difference in someone’s life mirrors the joy of the season in so many ways. Teaching our children & grandchildren the art of “giving back” makes the holidays a perfect teachable moment.

3. Magic of Friends, Family & Laughter – The magic of the company of friends & family can be so calming. Whether its friends or family or both, connecting with those we love can brighten our lives as much as the tree lights do our homes. One thing most lovable about Santa is his “Ho, Ho, Ho” you hear almost constantly whenever you see him. It always makes me smile & laugh myself. In my collection of Santa’s I have ones that sing, dance & read stories. There are times when I drive my family nuts because I get them all singing, dancing & reading at the same time...and then I find myself laughing. Laugh with someone this holiday

LETTER FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Reviewing a year's Chamber work

BY CRAIG BUCHANAN
GLCCC Board Chair

It is hard to imagine nearly a year has passed and my term as Chairman of the Greater Las Cruces Chamber of Commerce is coming to an end. It has been a distinct privilege to play a part of leading an organization with such an important mission.

2022 has been a year of transition back to a more traditional structure for Chamber activities after meeting virtually, more often than not, during 2020 and 2021. The Chamber made the difficult decision to cancel Las Cruces Days in Santa Fe in January 2022 due to continuation of COVID restrictions in place during the legislative session. Final COVID restrictions were lifted in February 2022 and the Chamber has been able to regularly hold in-person meetings and events since that time. Over the course of the year, the Chamber has been actively involved in public conversations on topics such as crime, homelessness, housing and bringing passenger air service back to the Las Cruces International Airport.

Craig Buchanan

In 2022 the Chamber once again hosted a full class of participants for both Leadership Las Cruces and Junior Leadership Las Cruces. The Healthcare Awards Gala in August was a sold-out event, followed by the successful Health/Business Expo in September. Also in September the Chamber recognized the new class of Officers in Training for the Las Cruces Police Department and presented them with gift bags from the community. The Chamber Annual Dinner was held at the Las Cruces International Airport this year to showcase all that is being done to improve and expand air service for Las Cruces. Most recently the Chamber was able to partner with The Bridge of Southern New Mexico to host The Future of Work Summit presented by a team from Deloitte. It's been a busy and productive year.

The work of the Chamber is accomplished through the leadership of Debbi Moore, President and CEO of the GLCCC, her dedicated staff and the Chamber Board of Directors. There will again be much work to be done as the Chamber moves into 2023. Las Cruces Days in Santa Fe are back on the calendar for 2023. I hope that many of you will plan on representing Las Cruces in Santa Fe January 28-30, 2023. Thank you for your ongoing support of the Greater Las Cruces Chamber of Commerce. Best wishes for a wonderful Holiday Season and a prosperous 2023!

season...it'll make your day.

Be strong. Be kind. Be giving. Be supportive. Be available. All of these define what "being a community" really is. Our wonderful, special community which, while we often have differences, comes together to overcome. Together we turn every challenge into an opportunity. The key is that we do this... TOGETHER!

Am I "over the top" for the holiday, Santa, ribbons, bows & all the colors they bring? You bet I am! The sounds, the sights, the colors...all come together to create the "Magic of the Season." It's my tradition that as the season concludes for another year, I keep a Santa out all year, a simple gesture to remind me that the magic of Santa can be year-round, if we only believe. In my version of those famous words, "Yes, my friends, there is a Santa Claus. Enjoy the magic of the season.

To wrap up this year, on behalf of the Board of Directors and the Chamber staff I want to take a few moments to thank our chair, Craig Buchanan, for his leadership. Craig, you represent all that's good, kind & caring in business...Thank you!

"Santa Claus Is Comin' to Town"

6 p.m. on HGTV
Christina on the Coast

Christina meets a couple who wish for a main floor overhaul that boasts an open concept and a bright, airy vibe in the Season 4 premiere. A dream kitchen will anchor the space and feature a wine bar, statement rattan light fixtures and vaulted ceilings with exposed wood beams while dealing with her own bustling family life.

6 p.m. on HISTORY
Mountain Men

They like to call this the "bear" minimum. Mike Horstman makes a death-defying climb up and down the cliffs of Kodiak Island leading to a showdown with a rather skittish brown bear. Then, Jake Herak and his hounds turn loose on a black bear that leads them up a gauntlet of falling rock and steep terrain in the Season 11 final episode "Final Face Off."

6 p.m. on LIFE
Movie: Scentsational Christmas

Perfumer Ellie (Nazneen Contractor) is tasked by her boss to create a holiday scent that will impress, so she returns to her quaint and festive family home for Christmas to find inspiration. There she meets Logan (Mykee Selkin), who is staying with her father at the family's historic property, which includes her mother's former candle-making cottage. As her father struggles to keep her late mother's candle business afloat, they decide to complete the orders in this 2022 romance.

6 p.m. on TCM
Movie: The Barefoot Contessa

In celebration of the channel's "Star of the Month" Ava Gardner's 100th birthday (on Dec. 24), this 1954 classic follows the life and death of Maria Vargas (Gardner) as told by people at her funeral recalling who she was and the impact she had on them. Harry Dawes (Humphrey Bogart), an unsuccessful writer/director, and movie producer Kirk Edwards (Warren Stevens) convinced her to take a chance on acting, and she became a huge star lusted after by rich and powerful men, leading to an unhappy life.

7 p.m. on KVIA
Santa Claus Is Comin' to Town

A lanky mailman with the voice of Fred Astaire explains Santa's origins in this animated 1970 special, which sidesteps the St. Nicholas part. In this version, the future jolly old elf is a founding adopted by the Kringles, a family of toymakers. He grows up with toys in his blood, so to speak, and feels called to give them away to the local youngsters — but mean old Burgermeister Meisterburger will have none of that.

7 p.m. on BRAVO
Million Dollar Listing Los Angeles

Offering a more intimate look into the lives and careers of real estate powerhouses Josh Altman, Josh Flagg and Tracy Tutor, the Season 14 premiere follows Flagg's recent move to Douglas Elliman, where this trio are all working under the same agency roof for the first time, leading to new levels of collaboration and competition. Now, after a two-year housing boom, interest rates are on the rise and the agents must adjust in real-time to the changing market while still securing the best deal for their clients.

8 p.m. on KVIA
CMA Country Christmas

Country music has a long history of celebrating the holiday season through music — and sharing those moments with fans. Filmed in Nashville, this new special features some of country music's most beloved artists coming together for an intimate night full of holiday classics such as "Oh Holy Night," "Have a Holly Jolly Christmas" and "Winter Wonderland."

"Amsterdam"

"AMSTERDAM"

A large and impressive cast populates writer-director David O. Russell's comedy-drama about three friends (played by Russell-movie veteran Christian Bale, Margot Robbie and John David Washington) who get caught up in a 1930s murder scheme involving a military general. Years later, the situation continues to haunt them, with their lives on the line as certain parties attempt to frame them. Chris Rock, Taylor Swift, Anya Taylor-Joy, Mike Myers, Michael Shannon, Zoe Saldana, Timothy Olyphant, Rami Malek, Alessandro Nivola, Robert De Niro and Ed Begley Jr.

also are among the talents featured. (Did we say "large cast"?) DVD extra: "making-of" documentary. ★★★ (R: AS, P, V) (Also on Blu-ray, 4K Ultra HD, Digital and On Demand)

"CLERKS III"

It's widely known that actor-filmmaker Kevin Smith suffered a heart attack a number of years ago, and he utilized that health crisis in developing the premise for this sequel to one of the most popular and successful independent films to date, with the original movie paid homage in many ways here. Store clerk Randal (Jeff Anderson) has a similar medical emergency, prompting him to ask his colleagues Jay and Silent Bob (Jason Meyers, Smith) and others to help document his life and times at the store. Brian O'Halloran, Rosario Dawson, Amy Sedaris, Justin Long and Ben Affleck also appear – and franchise fans will want to keep watching through the closing credits. DVD extras: theatrical trailer: audio commentary by Smith and other cast members; deleted scenes; outtakes. ★★★ (R, AS, P, V)

"BETTER CALL SAUL: SEASON SIX"

The final round of AMC's critically acclaimed "Breaking Bad" spinoff sees Jimmy-turned-Saul (played by Bob Odenkirk) on the verge of resolving his relationship with wife Kim (Rhea Seehorn), while others around them move closer to their own breakthroughs ... possibly at great risk to life and limb for them. Since a drug cartel is involved, such danger definitely is at hand. Early episodes here precede events that were depicted in "Breaking Bad," while later stories unfold subsequently to the same events. A "Complete Series" set also is newly available. Jonathan Banks, Patrick Fabian and Giancarlo Esposito also are in the cast; the season was filmed on location in Albuquerque, N.M. DVD extras: audio commentaries by cast and crew members; deleted scenes; outtakes. ★★★ (Not rated: AS, P, V) (Also on Blu-ray)

"PULP FICTION"

Boasting some truly classic scenes, Quentin Tarantino's excellent, superbly cast patchwork of intersecting Los Angeles crime stories makes its 4K Ultra HD debut. John Travolta and Samuel L. Jackson make an iconic duo as hit-man partners, with Travolta in a legendary dance sequence with Uma Thurman; Bruce Willis portrays a boxer who's in big trouble; and Tim Roth and Amanda Plummer play lovers who embark on a violent robbery spree. This is one of those movies there had been nothing else quite like when it was released in 1994, and its originality holds up – and it arguably stands as the definitive Tarantino project to date. The impressive cast also includes Harvey Keitel, Rosanna Arquette, Ving Rhames, Christopher Walken, Eric Stoltz and Maria de Medeiros. ★★★ (R: AS, P, GV)

"48 HRS."

On its 40th anniversary (though it still seems very fresh), the action-comedy-drama movie that rocketed Eddie Murphy from "Saturday Night Live" to big-screen stardom makes its debut on 4K Ultra HD (as does the logically titled sequel, "Another 48 HRS."). Director Walter Hill's gritty tale casts Murphy as an inmate temporarily sprung from prison to help a weary police detective (Nick Nolte) comb San Francisco to find two vicious escaped convicts ... and the Murphy character's desperation for a taste of freedom prompts him to strike some interesting bargains with the reluctant cop, in one case leading to a show-stopping scene in a bar. Annette O'Toole appears as Nolte's beleaguered girlfriend. ★★★ (R: AS, N, P, V)

celebrity scoop

Checking in with SOPE DIRISU

It's been a dark Season 2 of "Gangs of London" for Sope Dirisu.

His character of former undercover cop Elliot Finch in the AMC+ crime thriller has been forced to work as a hired assassin for the Investors, who are also holding his father hostage to keep him doing their dirty work – something that otherwise would be anathema to him.

Thus, he's a broken man and at the bottom of an abyss, a place the 31-year-old actor felt he also had to go to effectively portray his character's plight.

"I think it's really important to be able to empathize with your character and not necessarily agree with everything that they do but understand the place that they're coming from," Dirisu explains. "And I found that quite difficult over the course of shooting this series. There's some things that the (writers, directors and producers) threw at me and I was just like I don't know if I agree with this is how the character would go."

"I try my best not to take my work home with me," he continues, "but yeah, I think maybe there were a couple of evenings where you need to sit down with a tea and decompress after a shooting day."

Though he's best known for his action work in "Gangs," Dirisu has had a well-rounded career. In film, he's done romance ("Mothering Sunday"), period drama ("Mr. Malcolm's List"), comedy ("Silent Night") and horror ("This House") and on television, science fiction ("Humans"). He's also done stage work with the Royal Shakespeare Company.

For him, not being pigeonholed is paramount, which is why he keeps seeking out variety in his roles.

"I want to continue to see how far and how changeable as an actor I can be," he says. "And people I really look up to include Woody Harrelson and Colin Farrell, Joaquin Phoenix, Christian Bale – who can really look quite different from role to role and have a real freedom of genres to play in."

Full name: Sope Dirisu

Birth date: Jan. 9, 1991

Birthplace: London

Education: Bedford Modern School, where he excelled at drama; studied economics at the University of Birmingham (U.K.) and played quarterback for the school's American football team

TV credits include: "Utopia," "The Casual Vacancy," "Undercover," "Black Mirror," "Next of Kin," "Humans," "His Dark Materials" (voice only)

St. Paul's holiday musical a throwback to WWI era

By MIKE COOK
Las Cruces Bulletin

St. Paul's United Methodist Church Copper Top Concerts' three performances of "Canceling Christmas" in December will be the first full productions of the musical.

Performances are 7 p.m. Thursday-Friday, Dec. 8-9, and 2 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 10, at St. Paul's United Methodist Church, 225 W. Las Cruces Ave. The show is 75 minutes long with no intermission.

Tickets are $5. St. Paul's is also requesting the donation of at least one canned good, which will be donated to Casa de Peregrinos emergency food program.

"We're real excited," said director Diane Schutz, who took over from Doug Weeks earlier this year as the new director of music ministries at St. Paul's.

Schutz, who has been accompanist at St. Paul's since she retired in 2006 after a long career as choir director at Las Cruces High School, has been in regular communication with the show's creators, Keith Ferguson (book and lyrics) and Bruce Greer (music), who may come to Las Cruces to see a performance of the show, she said.

Schutz has consulted with Ferguson and Greer on making small changes to the script, and she even joined the A.C. Gilbert Heritage Society to ensure the production stays true to the true story it is telling.

"Canceling Christmas" takes place December 1916-December 1918 in New Haven, Connecticut, and Washington, D.C., as inventor and toymaker A.C. Gilbert (1884-1961) struggles to keep his factories producing toys – including the Erector set that he invented – while also supplying the United States military with munitions during World War I.

"It's a timeless story because a lot of people wanted to cancel Christmas," Schutz said.

The cast includes Carley Ludlow, Scott Ludlow, Joan Bissett, Santa Claus, Don Harlow, Pam Fugelso, Avey Barham, Ron Hamelink, Daniel Taylor, Tom Warren, Karen Warren, Corrie Cline, Yvonne Kropf, Maddie Sandell, Thomas Brekke, Johann Brekke, Cindy Kennedy, Leonora Oestereich and Andrea Camunez.

The Saint Paul's Chancel choir and children's choirs are also scripted in the musical.

Schutz is co-directing the musical with Danielle Gurnea. Retired New Mexico State University dance instructor Deb Knapp is the show's choreographer and Doug Robey is making the sets.

One of the set pieces Robey built is a Ferris wheel, which Schutz said will be auctioned off after the production.

"It's fun stuff," said

Jarden's Christmas house shows deliver songs of the season

By MIKE COOK
Las Cruces Bulletin

When George Jarden came to Las Cruces in 1970, he was one of two pediatricians practicing between El Paso and Albuquerque. More than 50 years later, Jarden is still delivering – only now it's songs instead of babies.

Jarden, who is 86 and retired, will present "George Jarden's Musical Musings of Christmastime" in five live performances, Dec. 5-24, at his Las Cruces home, 3100 Karen Drive.

The program will include performances of traditional Christmas carols and old holiday classics like "God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen," "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel," "Hallelujah," "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing," "Silent Night," "We Wish You a Merry Christmas," "Deck the Halls," "Christmas Is Coming, the Geese Are Getting Fat," "The First Noel," "Jingle Bells" and "The Little Drummer Boy."

Jarden will also sing popular favorites like "Rudolph, The Red-Nosed Reindeer," "The Chipmunk Song," "Feliz Navidad" and "Twas The Night Before Christmas"; along with spirituals, including "See that Babe in the Lowly Manger," "Sweet Little Jesus Boy," "Mary's Little Boy Child" and "I Saw Three Ships."

The two-hour performance will include free wassail and "a couple of breaks for stretching and hello-ing," Jarden said. There will also be some singalongs and Jarden's telling of the stories behind the songs.

Jarden organized Voz

Vaqueros men's singing group in Las Cruces in 1971, he said, which has performed in hundreds of other performances. He has performed in many shows over the years, including "Gee 'n Ess and I," "The Song of America: Columbus Voyage to Lincoln

Civil War" and "Twice Told Tunes and Tellings."

Performances are
• Monday, Dec. 5: 2 p.m.
• Wednesday, Dec. 14: 6 p.m.

'A TubaChristmas' is Dec. 3 at Atkinson Recital Hall

BULLETIN REPORT

An idea that started 49 years ago has expanded to more than 300 cities across the country and around the world, including Las Cruces.

"A TubaChristmas" will be performed at 2 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 3, at Atkinson Recital Hall in the New Mexico State University

Music Building, 1075 N. Horseshoe St., on the NMSU campus.

There is no charge to attend the concert, which is NMSU's ninth annual TubaChristmas concert.

"A TubaChristmas" was started as an homage to the late and great teacher William J. Bell, who was born on Christmas Day, 1902, said NMSU music professor Alan Kaplan, Ph.D., who is putting on the NMSU event.

Bell "was the premiere tuba player and teacher in America during the first half of the 20th century,"

KAPLAN

Kaplan said.

"Bell was the posthumous initial recipient of the lifetime achievement award from the Tubists International Brotherhood Association," according to edevelop.drobnakbrass.com/.

"The first TubaChristmas opened in the Rink at Rockefeller Center Dec. 22, 1974, led by American composer Alec Wilder," Kaplan said, adding the NMSU concert will include more than 60 musicians who are "ready to showcase a number of Christmas songs. All arrangements are by Wilder, an American composer born Feb. 16, 1907. He died Christmas Eve, 1980.

During the concert, Kaplan said awards will be given in categories such as, "Best Dressed Tuba" and the oldest and youngest participant.

Kaplan has recorded with the Goldman Band, with the Light Fantastic Players and with Richie Havens, according to his biography.

For more information, contact Kaplan at aka-plan@nmsu.edu.

Traffic came to a standstill on I-10 when a South Central Solid Waste Authority (SCSWA) truck’s load caught on fire coming from the Anthony transfer station, heading to Corralitos Landfill, on Monday, November 28. The driver managed to unhook from the load and was unhurt. While it snarled traffic, there were no injuries.

“We got lucky that no one was hurt because when a load catches fire, it’s our immediate priority to get to a safe place, away from the public,” said Patrick Peck, SCSWA director. “Unfortunately, on the highway, that’s sometimes much, much harder. Thankfully we had the help of the New Mexico State Police and Dona Ana Fire Department to secure the scene, and we are immensely grateful to them.”

Peck explained that this is a seasonal hazard, especially as the temperatures dip and people start fires to stay warm.

“When coals from fire pits don’t get thoroughly soaked before ending up in the trash, and those coals mix with things in the trash truck, embers can ignite the whole load,” said Peck. While

Hot Loads Lead to Danger on Our Roads

Submitted by South Central Solid Waste Authority

After firefighters contain the blaze, fire investigators will sift through the trash to find the cause, but SCSWA cautions residents not to throw out hot coals, which is often the culprit for lost loads like this.

fire investigators will make the final call on the cause, managing waste can be challenging. The truck was not a complete loss but will take time to repair before it hits the road again.

“These trailers are specialty equipment, and like everything else, are in short supply these days,” said Peck.

Other potentially dangerous items that should not be thrown into a residential or commercial trash bin: dead animals, vehicle parts including car batteries; paint, paint thinners, oil, gas, or other household hazardous waste; fluorescent light bulbs or fluorescent light fixtures with ballasts; anything known to be toxic, flammable, corrosive, or an irritant; and appliances.

If you have flammables — such as a can of gasoline — the proper and safe disposal is to take it to the Las Cruces Recycling Center at 2855 W. Amador and pour the liquid into the 55-gallon drum in the Household Hazardous Waste area. There is no cost to the residents, and they can bring up to a 5-gallon limit. “Being careful about what goes in your trash is also important for your safety. Hot coals or embers in the trash can ignite flammable materials and be a danger for house fires,” said Peck. “And, we recommend that for any loads that residents bring in, they tarp and secure their load to keep others on the road safe.”

South Central Solid Waste Authority manages recyclables and solid waste for residents and businesses throughout Dona Ana County. Contact SCSWA at (575) 528-3800 or visit www.SCSWA.net.

Monk hosts Dec. 4 'satsang' at Wellspring Church

By MIKE COOK
Las Cruces Bulletin

Brian Lottman, a traveling monk, will host a "satsang" 1-2:30 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 4, at Wellspring Church, 140 W. Taylor Road in Las Cruces.

Satsang is a Sanskrit word that essentially means a group gathering to seek truth.

Wellspring described Lottman's program as a way to "strengthen your direct experience of presence (and) clear away the blocks to a deeper connection."

Lottman has held hundreds of satsangs across the United States and Canada, Wellspring said, where participants experienced "immersion into higher states of consciousness through energy healing, mystical mantra, sweet harmonium music and guided meditation.

The event is open to everyone. The requested donation is $20.

Wellspring Church celebrated its 20th anniversary in October.

Messina wins WE Mean Business Woman award

BULLETIN REPORT

New Mexico State University's Arrowhead Center presented its first Women Entrepreneurs (WE) Mean Business Women Entrepreneur of the Year award to Leah Messina, founder and CEO of Sinate Media in Las Cruces, on Nov. 17, NMSU said in a news release.

Messina received the award during a reception that culminated Arrowhead Center's sixth annual WE Mean Business Conference. During the reception, Messina served as the event's keynote speaker.

"It is truly an honor to be the first recipient of this award, not only for myself but for my hardworking team that steps up every day to deliver world-class service," Messina said. "As a woman in marketing technology, I've often found myself to be one of the few women in the room. I've tried to set an example to my daughters and team that there are no limits to what you want to achieve, and barriers are meant to be broken. To be recognized makes many of the decisions and sacrifices I have made for the sake of my business worthwhile." Messina founded Sinate Media, a marketing technology firm, in 2006 after working at a digital agency in New York City, where she led accounts for American Express, Sony Music, A&E Television and others. She is an innovative digital marketer, delivering cutting-edge campaigns that give clients a competitive edge, and a pioneer of integrating the latest marketing technologies into growth-oriented businesses, from the National Hockey League to Electronic Caregiver.

Messina also holds leadership positions with two blockchain-based startups, both with early 2023 launch dates, and has been an advisor to the startup community for more than seven years, serving as one of Arrowhead Center's entrepreneur advisors. She is a frequent speaker on digital marketing and gave 17 talks within a year on marketing during the height of the COVID-19 pandemic.

She developed and taught a course at NMSU – "E-Commerce for Art Students" – to ensure students had both the business and technology skills to support their passion for the arts. A native New Yorker, she attended Carnegie Mellon University in Pittsburgh and later started her business in Baltimore while attending graduate school at Johns Hopkins University. In 2010, Messina settled in New Mexico, where she lives with her husband and three kids.

The WE Mean Business Woman Entrepreneur of the Year award recognizes local women entrepreneurs making significant impacts in the Las Cruces business community. This is the first year Arrowhead Center has bestowed this award. The center will continue to honor local women entrepreneurs annually.

"The goal of this award is to recognize women entrepreneurs who are leading the way in our community," said Kathy Hansen, director and CEO of Arrowhead Center. "Leah is a pillar of our entrepreneurial community, and we're pleased to recognize her efforts."

Looking at golfers' mental habits: psychopathology

To continue from last week with the partially true but mostly humorous psychopathology afflicting millions of golfers, let's start with the self-appointed rules expert.

Anal Rules Enforcer Syndrome. Think of the annoying bloke (or gal) who always trots out golf rules jargon when it is least welcome, frequently citing USGA rules book quotations and readings in pompous legalese during a friendly round as if they were Bible passages. It's the same know-it-all rules nerd who bothers everyone by sticking his nose where it doesn't belong, like walking way out of his way to check the relief you're taking from a cart path. Or driving his cart over to the pond where your ball met a watery grave, then proceeding to explain, in a tedious and uninvited manner, the different options for a penalty drop. This obnoxious fellow haunts every country club while pontificating about the latest details in the maximum length of drivers and the ban on anchoring any putter. It's a sickness indeed, and a royal pain.

Golf Channel Insomnia. This sleep disturbance is a failure to fall asleep or to stay asleep because of a compulsion to watch whatever is on the Golf Channel, regardless of whether it is mindless infomercials or playing lessons with no-name pros or old highlights from the 1992 Kemper Open. Often it is the spouse who suffers and complains. The next-day fatigue and sluggishness the golfer experiences can cause impairment in social, occupational and golfing functioning. Episodes of narcolepsy (uncontrolled sleepiness) on the golf course are predictable.

Intermittent Club-throwing Disorder. Marked by a pattern of behavior characterized by hurling or flinging golf clubs, this disorder is usually triggered by angry outbursts of uncontrolled temper, sometimes the result of bad luck but usually some bad golf. This is similar to "intermittent explosive disorder" defined by the failure to resist aggressive impulses resulting in aggressive acts grossly out of proportion to any provocation or stressor. Club throwing is a truly risky behavior and a danger to self or others or property.

CHARLIE BLANCHARD
Golf Doctor

I was once playing with a former golfing friend who, in a violent outburst, flung his sand wedge toward his cart, shattering his laser rangefinder attached to the metal upright post. Luckily no one was in the cart.

Golfdoc's Disease. A lot of diseases take the name of the discoverer, like Asperger's, Pick's and Alzheimer's. Golfdoc's disease (GD) is characterized by clinically significant maladaptive kinesthetic behavior (never hitting a proper or good shot) that is indicative of miserable golfing technique and poor reality testing. Quite often seen at practice ranges, GD sufferers appear to be completely oblivious to their own ineptitude, while simply continuing to flail away, like proverbial monkeys at typewriter keys. Under no circumstances should you approach those obviously afflicted by GD with uninvited and certainly unwanted advice, no matter how well-intended it might be. They don't want instruction and lessons or otherwise they wouldn't demonstrate the behavior you observe. The disease is sometimes called "duffer's syndrome." For those GD individuals there is a marked failure to notice that physical motions are not the least bit golf-like, and do not result in balls doing anything that resembles a golf shot. Among the golfing population (those who own or rent clubs) men are afflicted more than women, perhaps because men tend to be more stubborn and less coachable. The adult version of GD is hopeless but not serious. But there is some question whether these folks should be allowed on the golf course proper due to the slowness and inevitable disruption of the pace of play for regular golfers. It may come to issuing a "certification" card to allow some folks to step on the course.

I'm still working on the diagnoses of "self-defeating golfer's disorder," "handicap kleptomania" and "binge golfing syndrome," which I hope to cover here sometime in the future.
