FROM THE PUBLISHER GO AGGIES!

What does it mean to be a college student in 2022? Maybe no one knows for sure.

Maybe you, as a college student in 2022, can help create the answer to that question.

Historically, university life has created multiple opportunities for young people to learn and grow.

To learn about history, biology, science books, and the French you took.

It has also been about the opportunities to learn about people, to learn about life, to learn how to learn and, perhaps most important, the opportunity to learn about yourself.

Are you in college to get a four-year degree in a very specific field and then go get a job in that field?

Are you in college to explore different options to then decide what you want to do?

Are you in college because someone expected you to be there?

Are you in college because you want to meet new people and learn new things?

Maybe you can answer yes to more than one of these questions. And why not?

Is that what it means to be a college student in 2022?

Maybe. Maybe not. Maybe we won't know the answer to that question until, say, 2042.

Regardless, like so much of life, college will be a combination of whatever you make it, hard work, and luck.

We have produced this guide to give you some resources. To give you some ideas of what New Mexico State University, Las Cruces and the Land of Enchantment can offer you.

Whatever brought you to this point in life, and whatever your goals are right now, we wish you the best in your venture.

Along the way, we hope you'll pick up a Las Cruces Bulletin, or plug into lascrucesbulletin.com to learn more about what's going on in the immediate world around you.

Buena suerte y buen camino, and, of course, Go Aggies!

Welcome Aggies!

Hello Aggies and welcome to another exciting school year at New Mexico State University!

We're so happy that you're a part of our top-tier university, nationally recognized for our efforts to enhance student success through social mobility. For our students, a degree from NMSU positions them to earn higher salaries, to live healthier lives and to achieve greater successes throughout their lifetime. In turn, this helps their families and lifts the communities where they live.

During your time on our campus, I encourage you to participate in many of the outstanding activities that take place here. Why not go to an Aggie game, and invite your roommate or some classmates? You can also join a club, participate in intermural sports, or attend any of the other exciting events happening all the time at NMSU.

I'm so glad you are here and I'm confident each of you will have a hand in shaping the future. Go Aggies!

FROM THE ASNMSU PRESIDENT

Hey Aggies!

My name is Garrett Moseley and I have the privilege of serving as your student body president. I am so excited for the school year and all the new opportunities and experiences waiting for us. Whether you are a first time or returning student, WELCOME! We are so excited to have you! NMSU has been a place to call home for many students. I hope each of you find a home in NMSU, just as I have.

NMSU is a magical place, but what makes this university truly special is the people. If there is any advice I can give you, it is to get out of your comfort zone. There are so many interesting individuals surrounding you at any given time.

Take care of your schoolwork, but don't forget your academics are only one aspect of your college experience. Remember to make memories, take care of yourself, meet new friends, and be your most authentic self! Always remember every single person on this campus is committed to your success and happiness! And, as always, GO AGGIES!

WELCOME TO LAS CRUCES

AGGIE STOMPING GROUNDS

You may have lived in Las Cruces your whole life, or you might just be arriving from somewhere far away. Either way, the city has lots to offer. The weather, and recreational opportunities provide outside activities almost year round in Las Cruces.

The vibrant Downtown Las Cruces still has a small-town feel, and new bars, coffee shops and restaurants keep popping up all over. There's also a great bookstore, a comic shop, theaters, museums, galleries and apparel stores along Main Street. It is also a prime spot for festivals, and the stage on the Plaza de Las Cruces hosts many live music and dance events.

Explore the Mesquite Street and Alameda Depot Historic Districts near downtown and walk the Plaza at Old Mesilla, enjoying its shops and entertainment. And if you're the type of person who enjoys the outdoors, you're in the right place. Explore the many peaks and trails of Organ Mountains-Desert Peaks National Monument or float down the Rio Grande on a kayak or inflatable tube.

Here are some more ideas to help you get started planning your next outing:

LAS CRUCES FARMERS & CRAFTS MARKET

The sights, sounds and people watching at the Las Cruces Farmers & Crafts Market bring a thousand smiles. Food trucks with all kinds of fare gather on Main Street along with artisans offering beard creams and CBD salves, jewelry, art and a wild variety of other crafts. This is the place to find locally sourced meat, a great cup of coffee, music or a card featuring the Organ Mountains to send back home. Local farmers offer the freshest produce from tomatoes, pecans, honey and greens to fresh flowers to brighten your dorm room. The market takes place near the Downtown Plaza every Wednesday and Saturday from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Info: farmersandcraftsmarketoflascruces.com, 575-201-3853.

MESQUITE STREET HISTORIC DISTRICT

For a sense of the town's history without the touristy feel, take a walk through the Mesquite Street Historic District, a colorful neighborhood filled with character. Along these historic streets you'll stumble upon Klein Park and shops, as well as restaurants like La Nueva Casita, Nopalito, Willow + Blaine and some of Las Cruces' oldest buildings. Beck's Roasting House and Creamery sometimes hosts live music, as well as other special events throughout the week.

WATCH THE DRAMA

If your schedule allows for a little drama in your life, Las Cruces is home to numerous theatres where you can test your audition skills or take in a show.

Las Cruces Community Theatre, 311 N. Main St., is located Downtown, and offers a student discount on tickets. Visit lccntm.org to view the full schedule of performances. Black Box Theatre, 430 N. Main St., gives a platform to overlooked and little-known works, as well as a space for local writers to develop their projects. There's also the American Southwest Theatre Company, which hosts productions at the ASNMSU Center for Fine Arts, 1000 E. University Ave.

FILM

The beautifully restored Rio Grande Theatre, 211 N. Main St., is located Downtown. It shows a variety of classic films and hosts national musicians and regional acts. Call 575-541-2290 or visit riograndetheatre.org for more information. Located at 2469 Calle de Guadalupe, in Mesilla, The Fountain Theatre has entertained residents of Mesilla since 1905. Visit this landmark, enjoy the best popcorn in town and take in an Oscar winner or foreign film. Visit mesillavalleyfilm.org for a list of current showings.

Catch popular current films at Allen Theatres' Telshor 12 or the Cineport 10 at Mesilla Valley Mall. See what's playing at allentheatresinc.com/city/las_cruces.

MUSEUMS

Visit Las Cruces' museums for a day of cultural enrichment. Downtown, you will find the Branigan Cultural Center, Museum of Art and the Museum of Nature & Science. Nearby, in the Alameda Depot Historic District, you'll find the Railroad Museum. And closer to campus is the New Mexico Farm & Ranch Heritage Museum, which serves as a venue for several events, ongoing exhibits and some special breeds of livestock. Visit las-cruces.org/1523/Museums or nmfarmandranchmuseum.org for more information.

ART OBSCURA

Part gallery, part gift shop, this quirky two-story building at 3206 Harrelson St., in Mesilla Park, provides intriguing diversions and gift ideas. Featuring local artists and historic ephemera and oddities, this is a place to get lost in for a little while. Open weekends only Saturday and Sunday 12 p.m.- 4 p.m., learn more at artobscuragallery.com.

SPIRIT WINDS

A longstanding gift shop and cafe, Spirit Winds offers coffee, sandwiches, snacks and goodies, and a wonderful array of gifts and jewelry. The shady patio at 2260 S. Locust St. has been a study spot for generations of Aggie students. Open daily 7 a.m. - 7 p.m., learn more at spiritwindsnm.com.

TAKE A HIKE

Las Cruces is near several hiking trails and mountains. Try the simple hike of Tortugas (or "A" mountain) near University Avenue and work your way up to Dripping Springs Natural Area or Soledad Canyon. Hike Baylor Pass and end up at Aguirre Spring Campground. For a day trip, cruise south to the beautiful Franklin Mountains of nearby El Paso.

NMSU TRADITIONS CRIMSON & WHITE

One of the most basic symbols that triggers emotion, pride and a sense of identity is color, and when you're an Aggie, those colors are crimson and white.

Crimson is one of the most emotionally stimulating of all the colors in the spectrum. It has the widest depth of symbolism ranging from passion to anger. Crimson represents power, vigor, leadership and strength.

White, to many, represents purity, innocence, prestige and good. White, in many cultures, is also suggestive of the springtime and summer, the seasons when crops are planted – a key aspect of this university, as it deals with agriculture. In the education setting, white represents new beginnings.

VISIT NEARBY ATTRACTIONS

DAYTRIPPIN'

The getaway you need is just a short drive away when you live in Las Cruces. Explore neighboring El Paso or head north to Hatch, the Green Chile Capital of the World.

Looking for an outdoor adventure? Visit the area's nearby caverns, hot springs or gypsum sands. Check out the Outdoor Center in the Activity Center on campus to rent any camping equipment you might need.

WHITE SANDS NATIONAL PARK

Situated 40 minutes east of Las Cruces, 10 acres of white gypsum shine with haunting beauty under a full moon, a setting sun or a rising sun. The shifting light, shadows, and truly out-of-this world landscape make White Sands a photographer's paradise. Tours are available November through April, and the park regularly has concerts, full-moon hikes, sunset hikes and educational programming. Bring your plastic disc and slide down the tallest dunes. The entry fee is $25 per vehicle, and annual passes are available.

Info: nps.gov/whsa

CARLSBAD CAVERNS, NEW MEXICO

Located in the Chihuahuan Desert, Carlsbad Caverns National Park is only a three-hour drive from Las Cruces if you take U.S. 180. Hike in the underground caves by day and watch the flight of bats at night. The $15-per-person cavern entrance fee is good for three days and reservations are required.

Info: nps.gov/cave

HOT SPRINGS IN TRUTH OR CONSEQUENCES

Truth or Consequences is known for its hot springs. Journey out with your friends for a relaxing, therapeutic soak. You can reserve a time slot to soak in a private pool at most places, or you may choose to take a dip in a community/shared pool. THE CAMPUS EXPERIENCE

CAMPUS LIFE

There are a variety of organized and under-the-radar activities at NMSU. Enjoy your down time and defeat the dull moments while making new friends at some of the following:

- Support the Aggies by attending a sports game – or getting involved yourself! Aggie athletics includes women's and men's teams for baseball, basketball, football, soccer, golf, tennis and much more. Visit nmstatesports.com for information and tickets.
- Watch big sports events or your favorite TV show in Corbett's Aggie Student Lounge or check out the Game Room, with a pool table, ping pong, foosball and air hockey.
- Grab a bite at Player's Grill. Check for specials, and some Pistol Pete's 1888 Ale. The Player's Grill is in the clubhouse at the NMSU Golf Course, 3000 Herb Wimberly Drive.
- There are museums and galleries all around campus showcasing everything from student art to fossils. If you prefer more performance to your art, the NMSU theatre department puts on classic and contemporary plays throughout the semester, and once a month La Sociedad para las Artes, an NMSU English department organization, hosts readings featuring high-caliber writers in the Health and Social Services auditorium.
- Attend free ASNMSU-sponsored concerts at the Outdoor Stage
- Look out for corkboards around campus for more activities like Frisbee games, game nights and music lessons. Speaking of music, tune in to the student radio station KRUX 91.5 FM, and if you feel inspired, apply to be a DJ at kruxradio.com.

- Pick up a fishing license (find out where to get one at wildlife.state.nm.us/fishing/licenses-permits/fishing-license-vendor-list) then try your luck catching a legendary monster in the duck pond behind the Spiritual Center.
- Looking for a place to relax and mingle? Check out Pete's Patio, located on the first floor of Corbett Center, in the outdoor courtyard. With a firepit and cafe lighting, it's the perfect spot to get to know fellow students, hang out with friends or grab a drink (if you're 21 or older).

ON-CAMPUS COUNSELING

GET HELP

The transition to college life can be both exciting and overwhelming. With new friends, new courses – and in some cases, a part-time job – life can quickly turn into a balancing act, which can be stressful. If you find yourself feeling isolated, depressed or just need someone to talk to, a counselor can be of great benefit to your mental health.

The Aggie Health and Wellness Center provides free and confidential services to NMSU Main Campus students. These services include group, individual and couples counseling with licensed counselors and psychologists. Their qualified staff is there to assist students with crisis, mental health, personal growth and well-being issues.

For more information on counseling services visit the Aggie Health and Wellness Center at the corner of McFie and Breland Drive. Visit: wellness.nmsu.edu/Counseling%20Services/counseling.html or call 575-646-1512.

IF YOU ARE EXPERIENCING A CRISIS

If you don't have an on-campus counselor or you feel you must speak to someone outside of your scheduled appointment, you are welcome to go to the health center and request to meet with the on-call counselor. You will be asked to fill out some brief paperwork. Typically, you will be able to meet with the counselor almost immediately afterward.

TIPS TO MANAGE STRESS

- Play on: Studies have shown playing calm music can reduce the hormone linked to stress, so give your eyes a break from homework and enjoy some music. Laughter is also a stress reliever, watch your favorite sitcom, listen to a funny podcast, or call a friend or family member.
- H2O and Vitamin D: Our basic needs are often the ones we ignore. Make sure you're getting a little sun, fresh air and plenty of water. Don't overdo it with sugar or caffeine, it can make your anxiety feel worse and lead to energy crashes. Take a shower or a nap. Your body also deserves a little maintenance, so go for a jog or a swim at the campus pool.
- Take it Easy (on yourself!): College is hard. Life is harder. You are a champ for getting out of bed this morning. So if you didn't finish the extra credit assignment, or you had to cut back on your work hours, it's okay, tell yourself "I've got this." You can also try meditation. Visit the Spiritual Center on campus. It is a non-denominational facility located west of the Educational Services Building and adjacent to the duck pond. It's a great location for peaceful meditation, regardless of faith.
- Speak up: Relationships are important to our mental health. Don't bottle up negative emotions. Whether it is roommates, friends or teachers, assertive and thoughtful communication can help you express how you feel, avoid miscommunication and gives others the opportunity to help you sort it out and stay on track.
- Ask for help: The Aggie Health and Wellness Center provides free and confidential counseling services that can help in times in need. Don't hesitate to reach out.

STOP SEXUAL ASSAULT

RECOGNIZE AND INTERVENE

Campus sexual assault is an uncomfortable topic, but one that must be talked about. Did you know that one in six women have been a victim of attempted or completed rape in her lifetime and 3 percent of men have been a victim of attempted or completed rape in their lifetime? While in college, a young woman's risk increases to one in four chances of being sexually assaulted.

Sexual assault may consist of sexual harassment, sexual coercion, sexual contact (unwanted fondling/groping), attempted rape and rape. Unfortunately, a victim of sexual assault or rape may often face blame and shaming.

It is never the victim's fault. Ever. Rape and sexual assault are not crimes of passion and love. Rape and sexual assault is about power and control.

There are ways everyone can help prevent sexual assault or other potentially harmful situations from happening or continuing. The following are some tips and resources to understand how you can help intervene and evaluate the situation to help respond in a safe way.

HOW TO RECOGNIZE THE SIGNS OF A POTENTIALLY HARMFUL SITUATION

- Body language: Is a potential victim leaning or pushing the other party away or just appears uncomfortable?
- Raised voices: Do you hear yelling, screaming, banging or other alarming sounds?
- Intoxication: Is the person stumbling, swaying, unable to communicate, being forced to drink, or otherwise unable to consent to what is happening?
- The golden rule: Trust your instincts. If you notice something that doesn't feel right, it probably isn't.

To learn more about violence and sexual assault prevention on campus, call the Office of Health Promotion at 575-646-2813, or visit ohp.nmsu.edu/violence-prevention/sexual-assault.html

For more information on counseling services visit the Aggie Health and Wellness Center located at the corner of Breland Drive and Stewart Street. Visit: wellness.nmsu.edu/Counseling%20Services/counseling.html or call 575-646-1512.

ALCOHOL NOT ALWAYS FUN AND GAMES, KEEP YOURSELF SAFE

As a freshman in college you may be excited for the school year to begin and yet also feel apprehension about what to expect.

One of the many things you will encounter is alcohol. There will be many opportunities for you to drink, and there is a common misperception that for you to have the college "experience" and "fit in" you should drink, despite being underage. Drinking under the age of 21 is illegal and can lead to hefty charges including, minor in possession, or fourth-degree felony for providing alcohol to a minor(s).

Anyone who decides to drink should consider ways to reduce serious risks:

- Plan ahead! Set a limit before you start drinking and stick to it.
- Alternate between alcoholic drinks and water in order to stay hydrated and space out your alcohol intake.
- Designated driver – Call Crimson Cab at 575-524-8294, or register an account with Uber or Lyft.
- Eat before and while you drink to help slow the absorption of alcohol into your blood stream.
- Avoid playing drinking games or cheat during play. Don't drink large amounts of alcohol in a short time.
- Know how much you are drinking: One drink = one 4-ounce glass of wine, one 12-ounce beer, or one shot of 80-proof liquor. Keep track!

- Use Bystander Intervention. If you see a potential harmful situation, either do something about it or let someone know about the situation.
- Don't drink from punch bowls or pitchers – they are easy to drug, potentially unhygienic, and difficult to keep track amount you are drinking.
- Never hesitate to call for help. If someone is showing signs of alcohol poisoning, call 911 immediately. Alcohol may be legal, but it is still a dangerous drug that you can overdose on, or become addicted to over time.
- Remember that it's okay to not drink; you can have just as much fun sober!

For more information about the uses, dangers of alcohol, or laws and policies, visit ohp.nmsu.edu.

Confidential peer coaching is available to help students learn and understand how to manage their finances. Students can attend a financial wellness workshop, or schedule a one-on-one appointment – the Nusenda Center for Financial Capability wants to assist you with overcoming financial barriers that may prevent you from graduating.

The goal of financial wellness education is to inform NMSU students about the value of money and allow money to work for them and not against them. Financial health is just as important as physical health, academic success, and emotional health. Find the financial help you need at the Nusenda Center for Financial Capability.

NMSU 2022-2023 THEATRE SEASON

FEATURES 'CHRISTMAS CAROL,' 'GODSPELL'

The NMSU Theatre Department has scheduled these shows for live production during the 2022-23 season:

- "Broadway On Demand!" 7:30 p.m. Friday, Sept. 9, 2 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 10 at the ASNMSU Center for the Arts, 1000 E. University Ave.

This musical revue will include traditional musical favorites voted on by the community and performed by NMSU students and faculty, community members and students from local schools. The event is a fundraiser for the Theatre Department, helping pay for guest artists and students' education as well as scholarships to help students travel to theatre events and competitions.

- "Big Frog" by Dylan Guerra, Friday, Sept. 30-Sunday, Oct. 9. Here is what the NMSU Theatre Department said about the play: "In high school, five close friends used to meet on a Miami golf course to drink, smoke pot, and ... lick a frog? 10 years later, four of them return to get their story straight, because a well-known crime podcast host has come to town to investigate an unsolved mystery. Oh yeah, and the frog is still there too – just bigger." Guerra is a Latinx playwright based in New York City whose mission is "to create diverse and challenging new works that promote cross sectional conversation." Guerra, who has a bachelor of fine arts degree from Southern Methodist University, will visit NMSU during the production.

- "A Christmas Carol," adapted from the novella by Charles Dickens, Friday, Nov. 18-Sunday, Dec. 4.

- "Hookman," by Lauren Yee, Friday, Feb. 24-Sunday, March 5, 2023. The Theatre Department said this about the play: "Freshman year at college is hard when your roommate is weird, you're feeling homesick, and a hook-handed serial killer is slashing. But if Lexi can discover what really happened to her high school best friend on that car ride to the movies, everything will be okay. In this existential slasher comedy, Lexi and her friends learn what it means to grow up – and it's not pretty."

- "Godspell," music and lyrics by Stephen Schwarz, book by John-Michael Tebelak, Friday, April 28-Sunday, May 7, 2023. In this Tony-nominated musical, "A small group of people help Jesus Christ tell different parables by using a wide variety of games, storytelling techniques and hefty doses of comic timing. An eclectic blend of songs, ranging in style from pop to vaudeville, is employed as the story of Jesus' life dances across the stage. Dissolving hauntingly into the Last Supper and the Crucifixion, Jesus' messages of kindness, tolerance and love come vibrantly to life."

NEW FACES AMONG AGGIE COACHES

Aggie sports fans will see a blend of new and familiar faces leading NM State's teams this year.

While he's a new face in Las Cruces, Jerry Kill is an old hand when it comes to coaching college football.

Kill has a well-deserved reputation for turning around programs, most notably at the University of Minnesota in the Big Ten. During spring practice, sessions were open to the public and optimism is the word heading into the new Aggie season.

When basketball season rolls around, the Aggies will have new head coaches running the show courtside for both the men's and women's teams.

Both new coaches are

proven champions.

Jody Adams-Birch, who will lead the Aggie women, played collegiately at the University of Tennessee, which won the 1991 NCAA title while she was starting point guard under Hall of Fame coach Pat Summitt. As a head coach, she has won 185 games and had multiple NCAA tournament appearances. She coached nine years at Wichita State and a year at Murray State before that.

New men's coach Greg Heiar (pronounced HIGH-er) also has ties to Wichita State. It was there, as an assistant, he first met and worked with Chris Jans, who led the Aggies for the past five years, which included four WAC championships, four NCAA Tournament qualifications and last year's tournament victory over UConn. Heiar is fresh from winning a national title, having coached Northwest Florida

Greg Heiar

State College to the 2022 national junior college championship.

On the flip side, the Aggies have two longtime veteran coaches leading NM State on the softball diamond and the volleyball court.

Kathy Rodolph has led the Aggie softballers for 18 years. She has led the team to four NCAA Tournament appearances and is a five-time WAC coach of the year for softball.

Mike Jordan enters his 24th season as head coach of the Aggie volleyball team, which he's guided to the NCAA tournament 11 times. He's also won the WAC coach of the year award for volleyball 11 times.

NMSU RODEO TEAM CELEBRATES BOTH ANNIVERSARY

By JAMES STALEY
NMSU News Team

A pair of Levi's, $68 and a broken nose. That's what the winner of New Mexico State University's first rodeo received, as reported in archived issues of The Round Up.

The College-Ranch Hands' Rodeo, as it was known, was popular at NMSU. A group of Aggies formed the New Mexico Aggie Rodeo Association, according to the 1942 NMSU yearbook.

This year, the unit now known as the NMSU rodeo team celebrates its 80th anniversary.

"I'd like to think we're one of the tightest teams around," said Brice Baggarley, NMSU rodeo's head coach. "They're battling for each other, pushing for each other as much as anything."

YNMSU hired its first full-time, dedicated rodeo coach, Jim Dewey Brown, in 2002 and started receiving state funding to support rodeo activities. With Brown's guidance and more resources, NMSU's rodeo athletes flourished.

From 2002 to 2015, five Aggies won six national rodeo titles. NMSU had 19 Academic All-Americans, and Brown won NIRA Coach of the Year.

"What I miss is the kids," Brown said of his time at NMSU. "They were my students, but now they are part of my family."

One of those family members, Baggarley, now occupies Brown's boots at NMSU.

"Rodeo kids naturally have a lot of self-drive," Baggarley said, "because it's an individual sport. It's really cool to see, even though it is an individual sport, how much they do for each other."

Baggarley rodeoed at NMSU and later was an assistant coach under Brown. He and his wife, Nicole, a professional breakaway roper, met on the NMSU team.

Logan Corbett was the NMSU rodeo coach 2015-20. He left the program to return to the pro rodeo circuit.
