VIEW FROM THE COUCH (for week of May 28)

"DUNGEONS & DRAGONS: HONOR AMONG THIEVES"

The popular role-playing game boasts true star power in its latest movie incarnation, with Chris Pine and Michelle Rodriguez teamed as a pair of thieves whose exploits involve more than a taste of the supernatural. They pursue items that have that otherworldly sense attached, but so does a villain (Hugh Grant) who wants the same objects to use in his pursuit of world domination. As should be expected, special effects play a major role in what transpires. Rege-Jean Page ("Bridg-erton") and Sophia Lillis also appear. DVD extras: six "making-of" documentaries; deleted and extended scenes; outtakes. (PG-13: P, V) (Also on Blu-ray, 4K Ultra HD, Digital and On Demand)

"A GOOD PERSON"

Zach Braff was making his own movies while he was on television's "Scrubs," and he gets back behind the cameras with this deeply emotional drama. The film's writer and director, he gives the central role to Florence Pugh as a woman who becomes involved in a car accident in which two future in-laws of hers die. She was behind the wheel, and she grapples with immense guilt as she deals with the deceased couple's daughter (Celeste O'Connor) and that teenager's grandfather (an expert-as-always Morgan Freeman). Chinaza Uche, Molly Shannon and Zoe Lister-Jones ("Life in Pieces") also appear.  (R: AS, P) (Also on Blu-ray and On Demand)

That's 65 as in "65 million years ago," the period in which this fantasy-adventure is set. The story combines elements of the past and future as "Star Wars" franchise veteran Adam Driver returns to an intergalactic environment by playing a space traveler left alone when his vessel crashes, killing almost all of his companions. He's redeemed from total desperation by a youngster (Ariana Greenblatt) he vows to protect, channeling the feelings he had for the seriously ill daughter he left behind to undertake the mission. Dinosaurs are among the dangers faced by the duo as they become aware that an asteroid is in a collision course with Earth. Scott Beck and Bryan Woods shared writing and directing duties on the sci-fi thriller.  (PG-13: P, V) (Also on Blu-ray, 4K Ultra HD, Digital and On Demand)

"RAIN MAN"

Dustin Hoffman won his second Oscar for best actor for director Barry Levinson's superb 1988 film, making its 4K Ultra HD debut. Hoffman has one of his most iconic roles as Raymond, an autistic savant who meets his car-selling huckster brother Charlie (Tom Cruise). The latter wants to milk that newly discovered familial connection for any financial benefit he can get out of it, in the aftermath of their father's death, but he develops different feelings during a road trip shared by the siblings. Valeria Golino also appears in the picture, which went a long way toward building Cruise's credibility as an adult star of true character pieces, not just escapist fare. * (R: AS, P)

"CLIFFHANGER"

One of Sylvester Stallone's most popular and successful movies outside the "Rocky" and "Rambo" franchises returns to home video in a 4K Ultra HD Steelbook edition. The star plays a mountain rescue ranger who goes AWOL after experiencing an on-thejob tragedy, and when he returns, his path crosses that of criminals trying to recover a fortune stolen from the U.S, Treasury and lost in a failed mid-air transfer. The result is bountiful action, supposedly set in Colorado but actually filmed largely in Italy by director Renny Harlin ("Die Hard 2"). John Lithgow chews scenery enjoyably as the main villain in a cast that also includes Michael Rooker, Janine Turner, Ralph Waite, Caroline Goodall, Rex Linn ("Big Sky") and Paul Winfield. A remake involving Stallone reportedly is in the works.  (R: AS, P, V)

It seems that just about everyone is well-versed in, and on, Superman ... except, perhaps, for the actor who's currently playing him on weekly television.

As a youngster, Tyler Hoechlin had other interests, but he got a quick education in the Man of Steel upon landing the coveted role on "Superman & Lois." Now heading toward the end of its third season Tuesdays on The CW (and, in Canada, on CTV Sci-Fi Channel), the series has taken a very deep dive into the family life of the title characters — extending to how they've dealt with a family health crisis lately. That's new material for the iconic figures, and that may have benefited Hoechlin in his not having a preconceived, long-held notion of Superman.

"I really don't have a history with the character," the friendly "7th Heaven" alum confirms. "I played baseball and was acting at a young age, so all of my free time was taken up, and comic books weren't really my thing ... but in what I think in a fortunate way, that lack of history is beneficial, in that I can approach (Superman) in a way that's very honest and intuitive."

Indeed, Hoechlin believes the approach taken by

"Superman & Lois" sets it apart from other incarnations of the saga that he's now aware of. Noting that "the tone is very different," he emphasizes, "We've never seen this before, and that's a very freeing experience on the set."

Even then, Hoechlin wasn't sure he wanted to take flight as Superman at the start. He was enjoying being a free agent with acting gigs, but he changed his mind just in time. He recalls the producers "were thinking this was something they might actually get done, and I was ready to commit to something long-term again. It just worked out for everybody."
