"AVATAR: THE WAY OF WATER"

Director and co-writer James Cameron's long-awaited fantasy sequel was a huge success at the box office, expected using sophisticated technology to continue the saga of the world of Pandora. The revived conflict between the Na'vi and the RDA is the thrust of the adventure, with the sea and its dwellers becoming major participants as that struggle proceeds. Sam Worthington, Zoe Saldana, Sigourney Weaver, Stephen Lang, CCH Pounder and Giovanni Ribisi are among the returnees, with Cameron's "Titanic" star Kate Winslet a very notable addition here. Cliff Curtis and Edie Falco also are newcomers to the cast. Various bonus features, particularly encompassing "making-of" documentaries, are available in different editions being provided to different retailers. This is the second in what is projected to be a series of five films in total, with the third being aimed for release at the end of 2024.  (PG-13: AS, N, P, V) (Also on Blu-ray, Blu-ray 3D, 4K Ultra HD, Digital and On Demand)

"GUY RITCHIE'S THE COVENANT"

Director and co-writer Ritchie ("Sherlock Holmes") moves to the status of having his name in the film's title with this often intense drama about two very different people bound by the wartime peril they share. Jake Gyllenhaal stars as an Army sergeant saved from an attack by his Afghan interpreter (Dar Salim, "Game of Thrones"), later prompting the soldier to go back and rescue his rescuer when it turns out the latter wasn't sent safely to America with his family as was expected ... making them targets of the Taliban. Other actors supporting a typically solid Gyllenhaal include Antony Starr, Alexander Ludwig, Emily Beecham and Jonny Lee Miller.  (R: AS, P, V) (Also on Blu-ray and On Demand)

"CRIMINAL MINDS: EVOLUTION - THE COMPLETE FIRST SEASON"

The original "Criminal Minds" series proved so popular, not only on CBS but also on streaming services, it seemed unlikely that it would stay canceled for long - and indeed, it was revived last fall with this Paramount+ iteration that reunites most of the cast members, though the absence of Matthew Gray Gubler is quite noticeable. David Rossi (Joe Mantegna), a bit the worse for wear due to personal trauma, and Emily Prentiss (Paget Brewster) are back to lead their Behavioral Analysis Unit of the FBI against a clever enemy (Zach Gilford) who used the pandemic to build a network of evildoers. A.J. Cook, Kirsten Vangsness, Aisha Tyler and Adam Rodriguez also return to the core cast, which will reassemble again for a Season 2 of this version.  (Not rated: AS, P, V)

"THE FIRM"

One of the best adaptations of a John Grisham novel, this 1993 drama from director Sydney Pollack (making its 4K Ultra HD debut) is lengthy but highly involving, with a fabulous cast led by Tom Cruise as a newly minted law-school graduate recruited by a Memphis firm that's quite eager to have him. Strange fates have befallen some of the other attorneys there, and federal agents view the newcomer as their ticket to finding out just what's going on. Gene Hackman also stars as the Cruise character's assigned mentor, who may be quite involved in the intrigue, with Jeanne Tripplehorn as Cruise's wife. Ed Harris, Holly Hunter, Hal Holbrook, Wilford Brimley, Gary Busey, David Strathairn, Paul Sorvino and Steven Hill also register strongly — as does the terrific music by Dave Grusin, principally an acoustic piano score.  (R: AS, P, V)

"THE LEGEND OF GLYNN TURMAN"

Still going strong in his career at the time of this writing, Turman is a Primetime Emmy Award-winning actor-writer-director who has been active in show business since his performance as a youngster in the original Broadway staging of "A Raisin in the Sun." This appropriately reverent profile by filmmaker Juney Smith traces the New York native — primarily in his own words - through many of the diverse projects that have followed for him, from the classic television serial "Peyton Place" and the sitcom "A Different World" to the dramas "The Wire," "In Treatment" and "How to Get Away With Murder." Expectedly, clips of much of his work are included.  (Not rated) (Also on Blu-ray)

"NATURE: THE HUMMINGBIRD EFFECT"

It's not hard to guess the subject of this recent episode of the venerable PBS series, with Costa Rica the location as various sorts of hummingbirds — which number more than 50 different species — help to inform a variety of environments, from volcanoes to forests. The unique physiology that enables the birds to maneuver in ways quite particular to them also is considered. Harry Shum Jr. ("Glee," "Everything Everywhere All at Once") is the narrator of the highly scenic program.  (Not rated)

celebrityscoop

Having married her "Bachelorette" choice just over a year ago, Joelle "JoJo" Fletcher isn't thinking about divorce ... except in her latest television job.

The reality-show veteran and husband Jordan Rodgers are the hosts of "The Big D," the current Wednesday series that was picked up by USA Network after TBS suddenly pulled it last summer, a few weeks before it was slated to premiere. The show finds them counseling recently divorced individuals on starting to date again while they stay at a posh villa in Costa Rica. There's just one thing: Each participant's ex also is there, and the reactions of witnessing the new romantic lives of their former spouses are quite varied.

"It was actually very therapeutic in a way," Fletcher says, "because we had never experienced watching other couples go through issues. I just feel like we learned a lot."

Fletcher and Rodgers had some time to do that overall, since the wedding plans they originally set for 2020 had been delayed by the coronavirus pandemic. "What was able to get us to this point was finding hope after heartbreak," she notes. "And I feel like so many people go through heartbreaks in life where they feel like they can't move forward, they won't find that love again.

"Seeing the hope that these contestants come in with, whether that's just healing themselves, whether it's moving on from the past, whether it's opening their hearts up — I saw in the moment, in real time, people breaking down their walls and really seeing a future for themselves. That was really just a cool part for me. And I really love what this show is about. I love that it's about love."

Birthdate: November 1, 1990

Birthplace and current residence: Dallas

Marital status: Married to Jordan Rodgers, her frequent television co-host and the man she chose when she was "The Bachelorette" in 2016, during the show's 12th season

Other television work includes: "The Bachelorette," "The Bachelor," "The Bachelor: The Greatest Seasons – Ever!," "The Bachelor: Listen to Your Heart," "The Bachelor Winter Games," "The Bachelorette Reunion: The Biggest Bachelorette Reunion in Bachelor History Ever!," "Conjuring Kesha," "Battle of the Fittest Couples," "Cash Pad," "Ben & Lauren: Happily Ever After?," "Ready for Love."
