LCPD chief Dominguez announces retirement

BULLETIN REPORT

Las Cruces Police Chief Miguel Dominguez has announced he will retire effective June 30, 2023.

Dominguez has been police chief since 2020 and is "a 21-year veteran of law enforcement," the City of Las Cruces said in a news release.

"I am grateful for the dedication chief has demonstrated and all the contributions he's made to the City of Las Cruces, not only as the chief but in the 20 years he has been part of the Las Cruces Police Department," said City Manager Ifo Pili. "His commitment and leadership will be greatly missed. "We wish Miguel the very best in his retirement."

Dominguez is credited with helping guide LCPD through the COVID-19 pandemic and the development of a plan that led to a marked increase in the number of sworn personnel, the news release said. In July 2022, LCPD had about 160 commissioned law enforcement officers. As of June 2023, LCPD's commissioned workforce stands at 201 officers. Dominguez also pushed for an increase in staffing levels, the city said. Since about 2010, when the city's population was close to 98,000, nel. That number will increase to 220 on July 1, 2023.

Dominguez was also instrumental in implementing LCPD Cares, a department-wide philosophy that illustrates how personnel embrace and interact with the community they serve.

"I would like to thank Las Cruces city councilors, administrators and employees from other departments who have always been supportive of LCPD and have helped make my job easier," Dominguez said. "Above all, I would like to thank our Las Cruces police officers, sergeants, lieutenants, administrative staff and our civilian employees who give 100 percent every day to help keep our community safe. I am proud of the men and women who put their lives on the line every single day," he said.

Dominguez was named police chief in November 2020 following the retirement of former chief Patrick Gallagher. Prior to becoming chief, Dominguez served as deputy chief of field operations 2016-18. In September 2018, he was named deputy chief of investigations and administrative support services.

Born in Silver City, Dominguez and his family relocated to Las Cruces in 1985 during his senior year of high school. He graduated from Las Cruces High School and began his law enforcement career in 2002 as a corrections officer at the Doña Ana County Detention Center. In 2003, he graduated from LCPD's 34th Police Academy.

Dominguez began his career with LCPD as a patrol officer, and also served as a field training officer, patrol sergeant, lieutenant in patrol and special services and commander of the West Area Command.

The city anticipates naming an interim chief in the coming weeks while it conducts a nationwide search for its next chief of police.

Vasquez co-creates SW Coalition

By MIKE COOK

Las Cruces Bulletin

U.S. Rep. Gabe Vasquez, D-N.M., and U.S. Rep. Juan Ciscomani, R-Arizona, announced in a June 15 news conference in Washington, D.C. that they have created the Bipartisan Southwest Coalition.

Through the coalition, Vasquez said the two representatives will work together "on issues that are important to the Southwest," including border security, economic opportunity and the protection of public lands.

The two have "different political ideologies," Vasquez said, but can work together to "represent the country that we love so much."

"By leading this caucus jointly, we will be able to bring together our colleagues and other Southwest lawmakers to advocate for our districts and beautiful Southwest communities," Vasquez said in a news release from his office.

Ciscomani said he and Vasquez will work together on issues that "don't abide by a political line or a state line."

"When we work together, we strengthen our districts, our states, and our region," Ciscomani said in Vasquez's news release.

"Both members' districts border Mexico, and New Mexico's Second Congressional District has one of the longest borders along Mexico," the news release said. "As native Spanish speakers who come from immigrant families, Vasquez and Ciscomani know the importance of a thoughtful, humane, and fair approach to immigration and border security, and both bring unique experiences and perspectives that are lacking in Congress' discussions about the US-Mexico border."

Vasquez and Ciscomani have already introduced bills together, Vasquez's office said, including the Joint Task Force to Combat Opioid Trafficking Act, The Farm Workforce Support Act and the Wolf and Livestock Fairness Act.

Vasquez, 38, was born in El Paso and lives in Las Cruces. The former business editor of the Las Cruces Bulletin, Vasquez served on the Las Cruces City Council 2017-21 and was elected to Congress in 2022. The second district that Vasquez represents includes Las Cruces, southwest New Mexico and part of southeast New Mexico.

Ciscomani, 40, was born in Hermosillo, Mexico. He represents Arizona's Sixth Congressional District, which includes southeast Arizona. Ciscomani was first elected to Congress in 2022.

AAUW-Las Cruces turns 100 years old this month

By MIKE COOK

Las Cruces Bulletin

With a mission "to advance gender equity for women and girls through research, education, and advocacy" and many good works accomplished, the American Association of University Women-Las Cruces Branch (AAUW-LC) turns 100 years old June 25.

"The 100th birthday of AAUW-LC allows our members to reflect on the vibrant history of our organization and the impact we have had on the Las Cruces community," said AAUW-LC President Anne Chase. "We proudly continue the legacy of those women who came before us."

"Preparing for this 100th birthday celebration has been both exciting and challenging, said AAUWLC Centennial Celebration Committee Chair Ruth Jaure. "We have much to celebrate but it is difficult to choose the most important highlights of our very active history. The exciting part has been to see the continuation of important work started years ago, in which we still participate."

Headquartered in Washington, D.C., AAUW's state organization has branches in eight cities. At nearly 90 members, Las Cruces has the largest and oldest branch in New Mexico. It was formally recognized as an AAUW affiliate June 25, 1923. The local branch meets the second day of every month, September through June, at the Doña Ana Community College Workforce Development Center, 2345 Nevada Ave.

Branch history

- Mary Lizzy Curtis Foster was a founding member of AAUW-LC and its first president. She was married to Luther Foster, the fifth president of the New Mexico College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts (NMCAMA), 1901-08, which became NMSU. Mrs. Foster was a teacher, poet and author. Her autobiography is "Pioneer Girl."
- Records show AAUW-LC had 38 members in 1932-33. It led the way for other branches to be accepted into the national network, including Albuquerque (1927), Carlsbad (1928), Santa Fe (1933) and Roswell.
- · AAUW-LC sponsored hot lunches for children attending Booker T. Washington School in Las Cruces 1941-48.
- During World War II, in 1942-45, AAUW-LC members worked in Red Cross surgical dressing rooms, on war bond drives and relief drives as well as helping with parties for servicemen.

- One of AAWU-LC's early initiatives was to get a woman appointed to the NMCAMA Board of Regents. That happened in August 1954 Mrs. Earl Corn of Dexter New Mexico was appointed to the board. She served until 1965.
- NMCAMA was accredited into AAUW's national membership in 1954, allowing graduates with degrees in home economics and foods and nutrition to become AAUW members.
- · AAUW-LC began honoring outstanding high school girls in 1955 with a "Girl of the Month," program, which lasted 23 years.
- · AAUW-LC joined other organizations in 1975 to fight bills introduced in the New Mexico Legislature to rescind the state's ratification of the federal Equal Rights Amendment and attempts to initiate actions to repeal the constitutional amendment New Mexico voters had approved.
- In 1985, AAUW-LC created a video entitled "Careers A to Z," which featured 26 outstanding women in fields from astronomy to zoology. The video was distributed to New Mexico schools and was recognized in Good Housekeeping magazine in an article entitled "Volunteerism in America

Current programs and projects

- The NMSU AAUW-LC Endowed Scholarship began in 1988 and became fully endowed in 2003. Since 2000, 32 scholarships valued at more than $31,000 have been given to qualifying college women.
- The AAUW-LC True Grit Awards were also started in 1988 to provide financial awards to graduating high school girls who have overcome significant obstacles to graduate. During the last two years, eight awards have been
- The national AAUW hosts a leadership conference for female college students each June. AAUW-LC sent two students to the 2023 National Conference for College Women Student Leaders in College Park, Maryland.

- AAUW-LC has hosted GIRLS CAN! every March since 1996. The one-day career exploration event for sixth-grade girls in Doña Ana County is held on the DACC East Mesa campus. Each participant attends sessions lead by local professional women who create hands-on demonstrations of their work. More than 200 local sixth-grade girls attend each year. A parents workshop is offered at the same time to present information about maneuvering through the systems to help parents get girls into institutions of higher education.
- · AAUW Tech Trek is a one-week STEM summer residential camp for eighth-grade girls from throughout New Mexico, held at New Mexico Tech in Socorro. AAUW-LC distributes camp applications, assists in selecting participants and provides financial assistance.

City celebrates opening of 50-meter Natatorium

By MIKE COOK

Las Cruces Bulletin

"It's hard to believe we're actually here and it's actually built," Mayor Ken Miyagishima said June 15, shortly before cutting the ribbon to open the Las Cruces Natatorium.

The 50-meter competitive pool holds 670,426 gallons of water, Miyagishima said, housed in a facility at 405 W. Hadley Ave. that is more than 37,000 square feet in total.

The pool has 10 lanes and ranges from four to 12 feet deep. The total price tag was $18.5 million.

"I'm really impressed with this project," the mayor said. "It's just beautiful."

"This is a much-needed facility," said Las Cruces City Councilor Becki Graham.

The pool is more than an upgrade and replacement for the city's aging Frenger Pool, Graham said. It means Las Cruces can host competitive swim meets and "everyone can get into the water, learn to swim and enjoy swimming sports," she said. The natatorium will also host movie nights and other public events.

"We're making this a community space," Graham said.

"The city was a great partner," said Chief Operating Officer Travis Coker of HB Construction, which built the pool. "It was definitely a team effort," he said.

"This is built to worldclass standards," Coker said.

That means if a world record is set during a swimming competition at the pool, it will stand, he said.

"We're very proud of it," Coker said.

One of the pool's features is a massive underground surge tank, he said, which will absorb the ripple waves created by swimmers, so they don't interfere with other swimmers.

Coker has two children, ages 7 and 11, who will use the pool, he said.

"I am excited about getting them into swim lessons," Coker said.

20 colorful ways to spend your money

Did you get your $500 rebaterefund-tax-kickback from the state of New Mexico?

I'll probably spend mine on something practical, a couple of needed home repairs. Five hundred dollars is a limited amount, especially with inflation, but there's still a lot you can do with it.

You're probably like me, your $500 is already spent. For grins, though, let's look at some different ways to spend your state money, which was actually your money before the state took it in the first place.

COLTHARP
Going Downtown
6.
7.

If you break it down into $25 increments, you can spend the money 20 different ways.

- 1. Put $25 in savings.
- 2. Donate $25 to a favorite charity. Las Cruces has tons of nonprofits that could put your money to good use.

4. Fill up your gas tank. But only if it holds eight gallons or less.

5. Drive down N.M. Hwy. 28 to Chope's in La Mesa and order a couple of chile rellenos a la carte.

6. Drive to Ruidoso.

RICHARD

7. Once there, go to Ruidoso Downs and put $25 on a gray horse in orange silks.

8. Back in Las Cruces, head to Luna Rossa and get a pizza with green chile. For dessert, get a birthday cake gelato and eat it real messy so your lips are all blue. 9. Go to Nellie's and order the red enchilada plate with extra onions. Or if you're in a green mood, get the chile verde con carne. Either works with an egg over easy.

10. Look around your house for some books you don't want. Take them to COAS Books and get some credit on your account. Walk around the store. If you're lucky, you might find a book autographed by a baseball Hall of Famer, like I once did, and you still might not spend all your $25. (That one cost me $3.18 with my credit applied. The Hall of Famer was Sparky Anderson, who managed both the Cincinnati Reds and Detroit Tigers to World Series titles.)

11. Probably time to fill up on gas again.

12. Buy your sweetie some purple and pink flowers.

13. Just a guess here, but you could probably use some new underwear. Black or yellow, maybe.

14. Drive the back road, Hwy. 185, to Hatch.

15. Once there, eat at the Pepper Pot. Then get a vanilla latte at Sparky's, if they're open.

16. Take five hikes at Aguirre Spring, $5 each.

17. After each hike, have a fried egg sandwich with green chile at the Moongate Café.

18. More gas.

19. On Tuesday, grab four friends and go to a $5 movie at Allen Theatres.

20. After the movie, go to your favorite Taco Tuesday joint and get 25 tacos.

Enjoy it while it lasts. It won't be long until you've once again got the no-money blues.

Election reforms should help NM voters

In last week's column I explained why I think the secretary of state should not interfere in an effort to force a referendum on six bills passed this year by the state Legislature. This week I'd like to look at two of the bills being targeted.

House Bill 4 will make it easier for more New Mexico residents to exercise their right to vote. More specifically, it will automatically register voters through the Motor Vehicle Division, bringing more eligible voters onto the rolls. It will restore the voting rights of convicted felons who have served their time and want to play a role in shaping their community. It will make it easier for voters to receive absentee ballots. It will allow for same-day voter registration at all polling places. And, it requires that there be at least two monitored, secure drop boxes for ballots in every county. Senate Bill 180 will require training for election challengers and poll watchers sent by each party to watch the process. It will also allow for electronic signatures on nominating petitions; create an election security program; revise requirements for the impounding of ballots, audits, voting machine rechecks and recounts; revise election-related crimes; and authorize the Secretary of State's Office to inspect taxpayer records for the payer records for the purpose of maintaining voter registration records.

Some of these changes codify temporary reforms made during the Covid-19 pandemic. Others are clearly in response to the organized and concerted effort by former President Donald Trump and his followers to discredit our nation's election system following his loss to Joe Biden in 2020.

They will undoubtedly result in an increase in voter turnout for future elections, which is why Republicans are so eager to stop them. They will, of course, claim voter fraud is their motivation. But there is simply no evidence to back up those claims.

In 2011, New Mexico Secretary of State Dianna Duran claimed she could do what so many other GOP leaders before her (and since) could not - show concrete proof of massive voter fraud.

After a lengthy and costly review, Duran announced to the Legislature that she had found 117 foreign nationals who were illegally registered to vote in New Mexico. And, she claimed, 37 had fraudulently cast ballots in our elections.

All of this, she claimed, proved a "culture of corruption" in New Mexico elections, just as Republican Governor Susana Martinez was pushing for a new voter ID law.

Upon further review, Duran's claims crumbled. When the ACLU sued to force her to show evidence for her claims, she could not. When they filed an Open Records Request, she refused. As a result, her office was forced to pay a $125,000 settlement.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

For years, the Mesilla Valley enjoyed one of the largest hot air balloon events in New Mexico. The Mesilla Valley Balloon Rally was often second in numbers of balloons to the Albuquerque International Balloon Fiesta.

For the last few years, the event has dwindled to only a handful of balloons in a loosely organized event during the Martin Luther King holiday.

The Greater Mesilla Valley Aerostat Ascension Association would like to see the event grow again so residents can enjoy the colorful and uplifting sight of balloons in the skies.

Unfortunately, the number of active balloon pilots and able volunteers in our club who can organize an event has declined. The City of Las Cruces Convention and Visitors Bureau has indicated they can provide funds to help stage a renewed balloon rally, but they cannot organize it.

The balloon club is asking if any organizations or clubs might be willing to assist in organizing the event. The club has several individuals willing to provide advice on how to stage an event, including recommendations on logistics, lodging, site selection, pilot notification and publicity. But we simply don't have enough people to do it all ourselves. The event could be a fundraiser for an organization interested in the opportunity.

If any group is interested in helping return this event to our city, contact me by email at patrick@ aero-cordero.com.

POOL

"We have arrived," Mayor Pro Tempore Kasandra Gandara said. "I am so thrilled."

Opening the pool has improved the quality of life in Las Cruces, Gandara said, and "It's equitable," she said – everyone can use it and now all the city's high schools can have swim teams.

Among those attending the ribbon cutting was Tomas Mendez of ASA Architects. Mendez was a principal designer of the pool for the city before he retired and returned to ASA.

ting, got involved in the city pool issue 15 years

"I was swimming regularly at that point, and the city was getting ready to build the Regional Aquatic Center with a big chunk of capital outlay money that the local legislative delegation had cobbled together," Smith said. "A group of us were advocating for a 'real' pool because Apodaca Pool was about to go offline and Frenger Pool was limping along. Both were 25-meter pools that had been built in 1961. What the city was talking about, and what was built despite our objections, was an enclosed water park that would still be leaving Las Cruces without a 50-meter pool.

"The city's decision to build what they did at that time was one of the reasons I ran for city council in 2011. During my eight years on the council, I was consistently an advocate for the 50-meter pool and worked with city managers to ensure that the question of budgeting for this pool was eventually put before the city council for a vote. That wasn't the end of it, of course, but just as my time on the council was coming to a close, the community pool was finally something of a given, something we were definitely going to do."

Smith said the issue of a city pool arose more than 50 years ago.

New Mexico State University opened a pool in May 1967, said former NMSU Aquatic Director Jack Welsh.

That pool was opened to local swimming teams "because there wasn't enough pool space in Las Cruces," Smith said. The city told NMSU it only needed to "borrow" pool space on campus for a few years, until it built its own pool, he said.

Now, 56 years later, "it is finally true," Smith said.

"In the intervening years, there were several efforts like Swim Las Cruces! and AGUA (Aquatics Get Us Active) attempting to get the pool in place," Smith said.

Welsh said he, Philipp Djang and Dr. John Phillips were among consistent advocates for the city pool.

Welsh, who was NMSU aquatic director 1964-67 and 70-81, said NMSU students approved a referendum in 1962 to assess themselves $5 per semester to construct and operate a 25-yard indoor pool.

"They did the same in 1969 to construct the outdoor pool," he said. "No state monies have been used to construct or operate these pools."

Students compete in film showcase

BULLETIN REPORT

Students from three schools took first-place honors in Las Cruces Public Schools' first ever "Tell the Story Film Showcase." The two-night event was held earlier this month, with LCPS students competing in 48-hour and 168-hour film competitions, LCPS said in a news release.

The winners were:

• Columbia Elementary School won first place in the 168-hour film competition elementary school division for its film "The Great Heist." Filmmakers were Columbia Elementary students Jasmine Holland, Juan Castro, Adrian Trujillo, Nathaniel Franks, Angela Amaya, Kasidee Sedillo, and Mitzel Espinosa.

• Mesilla Valley Leadership Academy won the 168-hour middle school division for "Theft Mess," by student filmmakers Promise Doyal, Aiden Wojtko, Calvin Chastine, Piper Gandy and Liana Brown.

• Arrowhead Park Early College High School took first in the 48-hour film competition with "Last Day," by student filmmakers, Konnor Clifton, Aldo Gonzalez, Kcenia Gwaltney, Keyon Mamali, Axton Pollard, Nathan Willis and Denzel Wright.

In each division, students came up with a storyline; adapted it to a script; and filmed, acted in, directed, produced and edited the film. Each film included elements students had to incorporate in their films as part of the competition.

More than 200 student filmmakers participated in the showcase, LCPS said. Fifty-nine non-competitive films and seven competitive films were submitted.

Students, families and community members were invited to attend the showcase to see the final film products. The second night's screening was followed by an awards ceremony.

During the 2022-23 school year, LCPS installed a broadcast lab at every school site, the news release said.

"This K-12 initiative is the realization of the late Superintendent Karen Trujillo's vision for LCPS – that all campuses would have the tools to tell the story of their school," LCPS said.

McClure to run for Council

BULLETIN REPORT

Cassie McClure is running for the District 1 seat on the Las Cruces City Council, she said in a news release. McClure announced her candidacy June 10 at The Bean on Mesquite.

Current District 1 Councilor Kasandra Gandara is running for mayor.

A local columnist and "active community member," McClure said she

"I believe the people of Las Cruces can be an active part of the community they live in, and find positive ways to advocate for change," Mc-Clure said.

"People can have access to their elected officials and be knowledgeable about the processes in their city."

McClure can often be heard on KRWG radio reading her column, "My So-Called Millennial Life," which has been featured in the Las Cruces Sun-News since 2016 and nationally syndicated since 2020 through Creators Syndicate.

McClure, who earned bachelor's and master's degrees from New Mexico State University, has lived in Las Cruces since 2003.

She, her husband and two children have lived in District 1 since 2014.

"I've watched the transformation of my district, recognizing that what gives a community life is a combination of small businesses, walkable areas and green spaces that allow us to gather as friends and family," Mc-Clure said.

"I believe in responsible growth that preserves our natural resources and enhances the quality of life for families and businesses while keeping the long view of how it will look for future generations. We can prioritize smart and sustainable development while investing in robust infrastructure that creates true community."

Owner of the content-creation agency McClure Publications since 2013, McClure said she recognizes the vital importance of a thriving economy and sustainable job opportunities.

"As a small business owner, I understand the grind and the joy many get from having the ability to contribute to our community," McClure said. "I want to seek opportunities for more NMSU graduates to grow businesses in Las Cruces and stay, just like I did."

McClure has served on the city Parks and Recreation Advisory Board for six years, "enabling those who come to interact with their city employees to have programs started that they need," she said.

"When Covid and staff changes shuttered a senior hiking program, we were able to facilitate conversations with Parks and Recreation (Department) staff so that a modified hiking program could restart," she said. "This was a change led by citizens, and I'm committed to the idea that whether you are a long-standing resident or a newcomer to our city, your voice matters."

'Let Juneteenth be a catalyst for change'

By MIKE COOK

Las Cruces Bulletin

"We pay tribute to their indomitable spirit," New Mexico State Sen. Harold Pope Jr. of Albuquerque said after attendees at the Doña Ana County NAACP's Juneteenth banquet watched a brief slide show that include quotes from Rosa Parks, Martin Luther King Jr., former United States Supreme Court Justice Thurgood Marshall and President Abraham Lincoln.

Juneteenth celebrates "the progress we've made as a society and the challenges we still face" on the way to "a more just and honorable future," said Pope, the first African American ever elected to the New Mexico State Sen-

"Let Juneteenth be a catalyst for change," he said.
"We must still confront systemic racism," Pope said, and "make sure every voice is heard.

"The struggle is far from over," he said. "And, though we haven't gotten there yet, we have come far. We have so much work to do."

Mayor Ken Miyagishima read the city's proclamation in support of the Juneteenth celebration in Las Cruces, and County Commissioner Shannon Reynolds read a similar proclamation issued by Doña Ana County.

Attendees at the banquet also included County Manager Fernando Macias, state Sen. Carrie Hamblen of Las Cruces, state Sen. Leo Jaramillo of Española, state Rep. Joanne Ferrary of Las Cruces, New Mexico State University Interim Chancellor Jay Gogue, NMSU Provost Alan Shoho, NMSU Associate Provost for Student Success Patrick Turner, and NMSU Vice President for Equity, Inclusion and Diversity Linda Scholz.

Melanie Goodman read a letter from U.S. Sen. Ben Ray Lujan, D-N.M., and District Director Cynthia Hull read a letter from U.S. Rep. Gabe Vasquez, D-N.M. at the banquet, which was emceed by DAC NAACP President Bobbie Green.

What's Available NOW On Disney

"Disney Gallery: Star Wars: The Mandalorian - The Making of Season 3" (June 28)

This docuseries pulls back the curtain on all of the hard work, acting, special effects and creative power that goes into making "The Mandalorian." It includes interviews with the cast and crew, as well as special behind-the-scenes footage of the process, bringing audiences an in-depth look at the newest episodes of the 14-time Emmy-winning series.

"Week-end Family -Season 2"

The series follows fun-loving and affable father Fred (Eric Judor), who does his best to be a good dad to his three daughters, Clara (Liona Bordonaro), Victoire (Midie Dreyfus) and Romy (Roxane Barazzuol), during the time he has with them on the weekends. The

This fantastical Disney Junior animated series for preschoolers, is inspired by the beloved world of "Alice in Wonderland." Centered on Alice, the great-granddaughter of the original heroine and a budding young baker at the enchanted Wonderland Bakery, each episode features two 11-minute stories about Alice's recipe adventures with her best pals—Fergie, a white rabbit; Hattie, her madcap friend; and Rosa, the Princess of Hearts.

"Home Improvement -Complete Series"

Tim "The Toolman" Tavlor (Tim Allen), host of the home-improvement show "Tool Time," is definitely not as handy at home as he is on screen. He and his wife, Jill (Patricia Richardson), raise three boys who are racing toward adulthood. The Taylor family often relies on next-door neighbor Wilson (Earl Hindman), who provides unconventional wisdom and perspective to the Taylors' personal and familial crises.

Chris Hardwick hosts "The Wall"

NHL Awards 2023 TNT 6 p.m.

High-sticking might get you a trip to the penalty box, but it doesn't necessarily preclude you from being an NHL Award finalist. From the Hart Memorial Trophy to the Vein Trophy, the league's best and brightest will be honored in Nashville.

Stars on Mars KFOX 7 p.m.

In this new, unscripted series, 12 celebrities (such as Ariel Winter and Marshawn Lynch) act as trailblazers, competing to see who would best conquer and colonize a fictional "Mars," with only one set to win as the final, victorious space invader.

The Wall KTSM 8 p.m.

Watch the bounce. Teams of two battle a variety of trivia questions and a 40-foot wall for a chance to win millions of dollars. Each pair of contestants, from siblings to spouses to best friends, is banking on the potentially life-changing winnings.

The Bachelorette KVIA 8 p.m.

Roses are red — and hard to come by. Twenty-five men will travel across the country in search of love, hoping to find it with Charity Lawson, a child and family therapist, when the 20th season of the series premieres in its new time slot.

"EVIL DEAD RISE"

The iconic horror franchise gets a new chapter that involves many of the talents who also contributed to it previously, including producers Sam Raimi and Rob Tapert and actor Bruce Campbell. Demons still are on the loose here, moving out of woodlands and into a more metropolitan setting for their mayhem, with two estranged and newly reunited sisters (played by Lily Sullivan and Alyssa Sutherland) among their principal targets. It likely goes without saying, particularly for those already familiar with the series that dates back to the early 1980s, that having a strong stomach is a definite benefit for any viewer here. Morgan Davies, Gabrielle Echols and Neil Fisher also appear.  (R: AS, P, GV) (Also on Bluray, 4K Ultra HD, Digital and On Demand)

N Nudity

"BIG GEORGE FOREMAN"

This biographical drama is subtitled "The Miraculous Story of the Once and Future Heavyweight Champion of the World," and that pretty much covers the saga of the boxing legend — played here by Khris Davis ("Judas and the Black Messiah") — whose athletic triumphs were put on hold for a while after a situation that nearly turned tragic for him. That wouldn't be the end of his career in the ring, though, since he became determined to reclaim his title to help his ailing community. Directed and co-written by George Tillman Jr. ("Soul Food"), the film also stars Forest Whitaker, Jasmine Matthews, Sonia Sohn and Lawrence Gilliard Jr.  (PG-13: AS, V) (Also on Blu-ray, Digital and On Demand)

"NATIONAL LAMPOON'S VACATION"

As it marks its 40th anniversary, a classic comedy gets its day on 4K Ultra HD, thanks to this memorable cross-country trip to the California amusement park Walley World undertaken by Clark Griswold – played by Chevy Chase in one of his biggest movie hits - and the rest of his Chicago-area family, including some not-immediate relatives who aren't exactly welcome as fellow travelers. Written by John Hughes and directed by Harold Ramis, the picture (which launched a "Vacation" franchise for Chase) uses Lindsey Buckingham's "Holiday Road" as its theme song. The cast also includes Beverly D'Angelo, Randy Quaid, Imogene Coca, Anthony Michael Hall, Dana Barron, Eddie Bracken, Eugene Levy, Jane Krakowski and (as a determined security guard) John Candy, plus Christie Brinkley as a beauty in a frequently passing car who doesn't escape Clark's notice. ★★★ (R: AS, N, P, V)

"MICKEY & FRIENDS: 10 CLASSIC SHORTS — VOLUME 2"

As part of the continuing 100th-anniversary celebration of the company founded by entertainment icon Walt Disney, this gathering of animated short subjects boasts some of his most famous characters. A notable entry is "Tugboat Mickey," which took the concept of "Steamboat Willie" – the cartoon that introduced Mickey Mouse to the public – and updated it, at least by the standards of 1940, when it originally was released (with Disney himself supplying Mickey's voice). Among the other attractions in this set are "Mr. Duck Steps Out," "Pluto's Party," "The Band Concert" and "Lonesome Ghosts." +++ (Not rated) (Also on Blu-ray)

"TALES OF THE WALKING DEAD"

The parent show yielded another AMC spinoff series last year with this six-episode anthology involving existing characters from the franchise and also introducing new ones. Among the subjects: a time loop that sends some people back to the start of the zombie apocalypse, the struggle for control of a boat, and a scientist's view of the world's future as dominated by the undead. Actors featured in the stories include Terry Crews, Olivia Munn, Parker Posey, Jillian Bell, Samantha Morton, Anthony Edwards, Embeth Davidtz and Juilie Carmen. A follow-up series titled "More Tales From the Walking Dead Universe" is being planned. ★★★ (Not rated: AS, P, GV)

"NATURE: NIAGARA FALLS"

One of the scenic wonders of the United States – though it regularly draws many visitors from over the border in Canada, too — is showcased in this recent episode of the PBS series, and you can bank on many views of the waterfall that has kept the New York site a major destination for tourists for more than two centuries. A year in the "life" of Niagara Falls is the approach taken by award-winning filmmaker Joe Pontecorvo, who also considers the various types of wildlife that the area serves as a home for on the ground, in the water and in the air.

Dulé Hill has done a lot of television, but his current series is a well-known "Wonder."

The veteran of such shows as "The West Wing," "Psych" and "Suits" now plays family patriarch Dean Williams in ABC's reboot of "The Wonder Years," the nostalgic Wednesday sitcom that recently returned for its second season in its present form about a youngster (portrayed by Elisha "EJ" Williams) and those in his immediate circle in late-1960s Montgomery, Ala. In having to wear the styles of the time and evoking that era in other ways as well, Hill is enjoying being a part of the time capsule that the series automatically is.

"Walking out the door, you made a statement," he reflects. "The way you had your hair made a statement. The suit that I have on makes a statement. And I think somewhere along the way, we may have lost that. I do like the idea of looking back on that and, hopefully, reinvigorating that mindset."

At the same time, Hill – who is reunited with a "Psych" executive producer, Saladin K. Patterson, on "The Wonder Years" – notes that "as much as things have changed, they've stayed the same. There is so much tragedy that has gone on between now and then, and it's still happening right now.

"What's interesting to me about even exploring this time period is that you see the trauma, you see the hurt, you see the strength of the people during that time. Then you reflect on where you are now, and you see that same strength, that same power, that same fortitude to press forward that has always been there for people who look like me."

Versatile Mia follows her dreams

By MIKE COOK

Las Cruces Bulletin

Mia Berkson is well on her way to living her dream of performing professionally in live theatre.

Earlier this year, Mia, 15, played the lead in the musical "Matilda," singing, dancing and acting to rave reviews at Las Cruces Community Theatre. She also performed in "The Crucible," "Mary Poppins" and "Annie" at LCCT and was in the cast of 15 shows for A

Mia and Lilah Berkson's great-grandmother, Maria Lopez, in Vaudeville

Children's Theatre of the 800-meter relay. Mesilla Valley. Her first stage roles, as a 3- and 4-year-old in pre-school, were as a frog and a leprechaun.

Mia is studying ballet, tap and jazz at the Las Cruces School of Dance and Music, and has performed in "The Nutcracker Suite," "Cinderella" and "The Grinch" for the school and Borderlands Ballet. Mia is also taking voice lessons from Las Cruces singer/actor Della Bustamante.

At Organ Mountain High School, where she will be a sophomore this year, Mia is in the theatre program and sings soprano in the OMHS choir – she missed two rehearsals of "Matilda" in January to participate in the New Mexico Activities Association All-State Choir.

During the 2022-23 school year, Mia was also a member of the Organ Mountain High track team and part of the fourgirl team that broke the school record in the 4 x

As this story runs, Mia is at Stagedoor Manor summer camp in the Catskill Mountains of New York, a three-week program in which she will study musical theatre, dance and acting for film and perform in four shows. It is the third summer in a row she has enrolled in the program.

"Musical theatre is what I'm passionate about," Mia said. "I love

Her favorite stage musicals are "Hamilton" and "The Drowsy Chaperone," but Mia does not have a favorite song.

"I'm constantly singing a million songs," Mia said.

She also is "super interested in film," Mia said, both acting in the medium and learning the business side.

"People tell me how talented Mia is and I say, 'Yes, but she also works really, really hard," said her mother, Rebecca Berkson.

Mia can trace her theatrical roots back to her great grandmother, Maria Lopez, who performed in vaudeville.

"If Mia makes this passion into a career, it's not merely because of her talent," Rebecca said. "Lots of people have talent and don't make it. When I see how she pushes herself so hard in a track race that she nearly blacks out, or she has swollen feet after two shows on pointe shoes, or how she overcame her nerves as a 10-yearold to sing the National Anthem in front of a full Pan Am Center basketball audience, I think, 'She certainly has grit.'"

"Mia Berkson is one of the most talented young actors in Las Cruces," said actor/director and former theatre owner Norman Duttweiler. "Every time she steps on stage, she brings a level of commitment and honesty to her work that one rarely sees in community theatre. I look forward to working with her again, and to following her progress as she continues to grow as an artist."

Sister Act: Lilah at Smithsonian

While her sister, Mia, was studying theatre, dancing and film in New York, Lilah Berkson, 13, was at the Smithsonian National Museum of American History and presented an exhibit at the museum's National History Day (NHD) Showcase June 14 in College Park, Maryland. Lilah's exhibit was "Adolf Hitler: A Pioneer Of Propaganda In The Media."

"Lilah chose this topic because, unfortunately, she has been running across antisemitism locally (a swastika graffitied on the temple the Berkson family attends in Las Cruces, and anti-Semitic comments Lilah heard from other kids) over the last couple of years," said Lilah and Mia's mother, Rebecca Berkson.

"Lilah's exhibit is an example of the passion and incredible research students put into their NHD projects. For Lilah's work to be featured at the Smithsonian is an honor, and we at New Mexico History Day are so proud of her and the other 61 students we took to the national competition," said Heather McLenahan of the New Mexico Humanities Council (NMHC).

Lilah is a seventh grader at Mesilla Valley Leadership Academy (MVLA).

Also representing Las Cruces Public Schools at the exhibition were MVLA students Maddie Sandell and Lily Louick, both 12, and Alivia Villanueva, 14, along with their teacher, Morgan Harding.

Alivia created a documentary about her grandfather, Danny Villanueva, who played in the NFL in the 1960s for the Los Angeles Rams and Dallas Cowboys and co-founded the Spanish-language television network Univision.

"Both of these girls are smart and talented, but it's their commitment and work ethic that makes them succeed. I admire them both for that," Rebecca Berkson said.

Queen Victoria comes to Black Box

By MIKE COOK

Las Cruces Bulletin

"Victoria in the Highlands" was written by Monte H. Wright and Autumn Gieb. Wright and Gieb, along with Karen Buerdsell, comprise the cast; Wright directed the play and Gieb designed the costumes.

"I was looking for a small cast show about Queen Victoria (the last thing on my theatre bucket list) and could not find one," Wright said. "So, I decided to talk to Autumn Gieb about the possibility of writing or compiling a show together. We then presented the idea to Ceil and Peter Herman at the Black Box Theatre, and they were on board with it, and they would produce the show.

"We decided on the subject being based on the books that Victoria (1819-1901; reigned 1837-1901) had written about her life in the Highlands of Scotland," Wright said. "Leaves from the Journal of Our Life in the Highlands," was published in 1868, Wright said.

"We found that this was in the public domain, and we then picked out different chapters to piece together a play with connecting passages written by Autumn and me. We added the narrator and a servant to break up the single-person narrative and we came up with 'Victoria in the Highlands,' a new play. Queen Victoria's diaries are around 700 volumes, she wrote between 1,500 to 2,500 words a day," Wright said.

"The play opens with a young Victoria recounting her first trip to (Balmoral Castle in) Scotland and the events that took place there over a few years," he said. The second act covers the events after Prince Albert's death. "Even though it covers many years, the play is only about an hour and half long with intermission. We decided to support the events that she tells us about with projections and sound effects," he said.

Prince Albert of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha (1819-61) was "consort of the British monarch," married to Queen Victoria 1840 until his death. Wright is the play's narrator, Gieb portrays Queen Victoria and Buerdsell is the royal servant.

Erin Chenoweth is the production's stage manager; Heather Olvera is the assistant stage manager. Peter Herman did the show's light design and Joshua Taulbee designed the set. Bekah Taulbee is the light board operator.

Career Art Path sparks young artists

By MIKE COOK

Las Cruces Bulletin

Zachary Carpenter is an upcycle artist.

"I pick up items I think might be interesting," Carpenter said at the Doña Ana Arts Council's (DAAC) 34th Career Art Path (CAP) program at Cruces Creatives makerspace.

Carpenter demonstrated for the 23 CAP students, ages 11-15, how he uses doorknobs, pill bottles, broken toys, drawer pulls, candy tins, pieces of wire and a wide range of other things to make "something completely different." He may even add lights and sound. After his presentation, CAP students began making their own art, using his recommendations to "pre-draw and practice first." CAP teacher Lisa Carlson and Cruces Creatives provided metal, plastic, cardboard, art supplies and other tools for their creations.

This is the eighth time Carlson, a long-time Las Cruces artist and art teacher, has taught CAP.

"I just love it," she said. "The kids that are in here, they want to go deep."

The two-week class continued through June 16, when students presented the art they created at an art show at Cruces Creatives, 205 E. Lohman Ave.

Carpenter was among more than a dozen artists demonstrating their work during CAP 2023. Others included Aaron Valenzuela and Anahy Nuñez of Atom Bomb Studio Tattoo in Las Cruces (they were Carl-

Q&A: 'Apache Lands' author Daniel Aranda

By JASON K. WATKINS

For The Bulletin

Las Cruces historian and writer Daniel Aranda has spent a lifetime researching the stories of the Southwest that make up his new book, "Episodes from Apache Lands," available online and at local bookstores, and he has discovered new details about Apache warriors such as Victorio and Josanie.

It has taken Aranda decades to finally publish his research because he's been busy doing other things. He spent his career as a firefighter, and was once named Las Cruces' Firefighter of the Year. He retired from NASA as an officer, and has been a

The results of his decades of study are 10 detailed chapters about Apache leaders such as Geronimo, famous battles and forgotten figures. Among them are Santiago McKinn, a young American boy captured by Apaches. He

Typewriter Revival to return on June 24

BULLETIN REPORT

The first Las Cruces Typewriter Revival in May had such a good turnout, the creators of the event are doing it again.

The return of Typewriter Revival will be held 9 a.m.-noon Saturday, June 24, at COAS Books, 317 N. Main St. downtown during the Farmers and Crafts Market of Las Cruces. COAS is sponsoring the event in partnership with The Las Cruces Type Writers.

"The Las Cruces Typewriter Revival is a free family-friendly event that offers an off-ramp from the digital highway via the opportunity to experience putting your thoughts on paper with a vintage typewriter," said Las Cruces artist Bob Diven, one of the event organizers.

During the revival, "The Typewriter Petting Zoo" will feature a variety of working typewriters (both manual and electric) to try out, including a 102-year-old Underwood Standard, Diven said.

Freshly typed poems will be available, as well as a selection of revived typewriters for purchase.

Visit "The Healing Table," where on-the-spot repairs will be offered for ailing machines, Diven said.

THE INDUSTRIAL AGE OF CLEAN ENERGY:

How Las Cruces Utilities is staying ahead of the energy transition.

& City of Las Cruces By C. T. Barnes

Las Cruces Utilities (LCU) is leading the way in the energy transition as we enter the new industrial age of clean energy. With a focus on bringing the best and most affordable energy technology to the City of Las Cruces, LCU is at the forefront of efforts to achieve carbon-neutral goals in New Mexico.

In 2017, LCU introduced a solar farm near the East Mesa Water Reclamation Facility (EMWRF) to harness clean energy for treating and cleaning wastewater. This strategic move has successfully reduced energy costs associated with powering the facility and treating the City of Las Cruces' wastewater. The reclaimed water from the EMWRF is then utilized for various recreational grounds and parks, including Sonoma Ranch Golf Course, Centennial High School, Foothills Landfill, Sagecrest Park on Roadrunner, Flood Control Dam, and Veterans Park on Roadrunner. The East Mesa Recreation Complex will soon join the facilities benefitting from reclaimed water sourced from the EMWRF.

LCU is actively working on reducing the reliance on natural gas by incorporating methane produced at the Jacob Hands Wastewater Treatment Facility. This innovative project, which began on March 1, 2019, has been a resounding success, resulting in annual savings of $220,000. The project captures 100% of the methane that would otherwise be burned off and reduces the facility's electrical import from El Paso Electric by 30% per generator, meeting 100% of the digesters' heating needs.

Another notable initiative by LCU is using GPS identification for all utility lines. This innovative program allows the city-owned utility to document any damages in real time, ensuring quick response and efficient maintenance of the utility infrastructure.

"With these types of technology, such as GPS identification, we can quickly fix natural gas lines before they have the chance to turn into a safety issue," LCU Interim Utilities Deputy Director of Natural Gas and Energy Ramiro Pereyra Jr stated.

commitment to staying ahead in the energy market, LCU has also been exploring drone technology. By embracing drone technology, LCU aims to enhance operational efficiency and ensure the reliable delivery of services to the City of Las Cruces. LCU also looks to bring more solar facilities to the area to assist the cost of energy bought.

"We are constantly looking to support our team by testing new technologies to assist in the energy transition and make energy safer and more affordable for the City of Las Cruces," Pereyra stated.

As we transition into the new industrial age of clean energy, Las Cruces Utilities is a shining example of proactive measures and innovative solutions. Through initiatives such as methane recycling, solar utilization, and the adoption of cutting-edge technologies like GPS and drones, LCU is leading the way toward a sustainable and carbon-neutral future. With their commitment to providing affordable and environmentally friendly energy, LCU sets a precedent for other utilities and communities to follow as we collectively work towards a greener tomorrow.

NMSU student completes book

BULLETIN REPORT

New Mexico State University doctoral candidate Tyler Martin Sehnal has written a book, "Playing in the Rain."

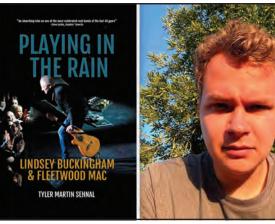

Sehnal, who plans to complete his Ph.D. in English in May 2026, wrote the book about the British/ American band Fleetwood Mac, NMSU said in a news release.

Sehnal describes his book as "Lindsey Buckingham's journey from aspiring rock and roller to solo star, legendary producer and chief architect of Fleetwood Mac's legacy and global superstardom," NMSU said.

A longtime fan of Fleetwood Mac, Sehnal's book explores Buckingham's role as much more than songwriter, lead guitarist and co-lead vocalist of the band in the 1970s and '80s.

"I decided to focus on this topic because I've loved Fleetwood Mac since high school," Sehnal said. "I also wanted to write about Lindsey Buckingham in particular because there are so many books about Stevie Nicks and the band itself, but there aren't any that focus on his role in making Fleetwood Mac global superstars."

Sehnal grew up in North Carolina, earning a bachelor's degree from Guilford College and a master's degree from East Carolina University. His journey took him to Las Cruces for his wedding at the home of a faculty member, who encouraged the couple to study at NMSU.

"Thunder only happens when it's raining" is a line from the song "Dreams," said to be written by band member Stevie Nicks after her breakup with Buckingham. Sehnal's book takes the analogy to the next level.

Sehnal recently signed copies of his book at COAS Bookstore downtown.

St. Paul's office administrator retires after 41 years

BULLETIN REPORT

If you attended a service at St. Paul's United Methodist Church in the past 40-plus years, chances are you ran into Mark Ewing. He may have been putting out donuts for fellowship between services, opening the building for a community group, worshiping at the 8:15 service, covering the front office, counting the offering, changing light bulbs in the commons or any number of other duties he has performed since he began working at St. Paul's as a clerical assistant and sexton in 1982.

Ewing, 66, retires June 25 as St. Paul's office administrator.

Ewing is a native of Waynesville, Missouri, where he lived on a farm with his mother, Wanda, and older siblings, Judi and Bill. The family moved to Las Cruces when Ewing was a young child and began attending St. Paul's.

Mark attended Mayfield High School and, while a member of the U.S. Air Force ROTC at Mayfield, he met Lupita Chavez, to whom he proposed on Valentine's Day 1976. They were married five months later, on June 26. Daughter Michelle was born in 1977, and daughter Brandi in 1986.

In 1984, after two years at St. Paul's, Ewing became office administrator of the church.

He graduated from New Mexico State University with a degree in sociology soon after.

Mark and Lupita became sponsors of a Sunday school class at St. Paul's and Mark also taught Sunday school. The couple started L&M Christian Homecare in the early 2000s.

Ewing has been a long-time participant in the Men Who Cook fundraiser for Mesilla Valley Hospice. He won first place at the 2019 event with the Rockin' Rum Cake with Rollin' Rum Sauce dessert he created with daughter Michelle.

In retirement, Mark and Lupita look forward to traveling and spending more time with their daughters and two grandchildren.

"There is much work to be done in our community reaching people for Christ," Ewing said as he prepares to retire, "and I look forward to the privilege of making disciples for Christ and transforming lives from the heart of Las Cruces."

Another chapter covers the famed warrior chief Josanie's 1885 raid into the U.S. Aranda provides new evidence that the number of people killed in the raid was exaggerated.

"I have waited 36 years for a book by Dan," writes Frank Brito in the foreword. Brito is the son of one of Teddy Roosevelt's Rough Riders and served in World War II.

icahua Desert Museum, ECO focuses on regional history and science.

Apache Lands is a fastpaced, accessible book to read, but also incredibly well researched. How long have you been working on it?

I have always been fascinated by the American Indian and with the nudging of Eve Ball and then later, by Dan Thrapp, Ed Sweeney, Lynda Sanchez, Keith Humphries, Lee Myers and many more, I decided to give it a try. I was in my 20s when I had my first article published by True West magazine and followed by other factual magazines and journals. I then had a long hiatus because of a workload and when I became a caregiver for many years. I have been to many depositories such as the National Archives, Huntington Library, Bancroft Library, Arizona Historical Society and many more universities. 'Mom and Pop' museums sometimes can surprise you with their collections. Also, in the early days, there were still people around who were not long removed from the events and were glad to contribute what they could. Newspapers can be used, but be very careful with them as they are notorious for exaggerating or reporting erroneous news. They are useful anyway for many other reasons such as names, weather reporting, dates, etc. Military correspondence, diaries. etc. are also useful.

The boy on the cover of your book, Santiago McKinn, is fascinating. What did you learn about that case?

That much of what had been written about him wasn't true and that there was much information on him that had never been written about.

One story from the book is your account of Josanie's raid and the aftermath. Why was the official number of dead so underreported?

Mainly because General Crook wrote that 38 had been killed. Newspapers reported many more, but I tried to report only the ones that were confirmed by military reports, lists, and on the veracity of those reporting the events. I suspect several more were killed, but never found, because of the nature of the terrain that Josanie traversed.

With a subject as fascinating and unexplored as the Apache, how did you narrow it down to a few chapters?

Actually, I was going to include two more chapters, but the publisher wanted to keep the book under 200 pages. There are many more relatively unknown, but yet interesting, episodes out there.

What stories did you hold that might be in your next book?

Victorio's siege at Alma, the Johnson affair, and about a dozen others.

Where can people buy your book?

It's available for less than $20 at ECO Publishing in Rodeo, New Mexico; COAS Books at 317 N. Main St., at Moonbow Books at 225 E. Idaho No. 32 in Las Cruces; and at the Mesilla Book Center on the Mesilla Plaza. It's also available online at ecouniverse.com. It will soon be available at many other locations, as well as Amazon Books.

Local business leaders discuss best practices

BUSINESS

By MIKE COOK

Las Cruces Bulletin

"Always be honest. Always be the hardest working person in the building."

That was the advice Mesilla Valley Trucking owner and founder Royal Jones had for business owners at the Greater Las Cruces Chamber of Commerce's June 15 "In the Know" lunch.

Joining Jones on the panel for a discussion of "Learning Through Best Business Practices" were Rick Jackson and Brandi Selby of American Document Services, Abel Covarrubias of Aprendamos and Terra Winter of the Community Foundation of Southern New Mexico, along with chamber President and CEO Debbi Moore.

After 26 years in the U.S. military, Rick Jackson decided to go into business for himself, starting American Document Services in 2001.

Jackson said he has learned it is important to "take your time hiring the right people."

Jackson said he wanted a business he could pass on to his children and said having a succession plan - who will take over when you retire – is an important consideration for any small business.

Jackson's daughter, Brandi Selby, joined ADS in 2021.

"It was the best decision we've ever made," said Selby, who also has thought about having "something to leave my daughter."

Selby's goal for ADS is "a business that feels like family," she said.

Both Jackson and Selby said community involvement and giving back are also important elements for businesses to consider.

"Relationships are so important," said Abel Covarrubias, founder of Aprendamos Family of Services early intervention program. Core values ing her sixth year with are also essential, he said.

"Do the right thing when nobody's watching," Covarrubias said.

It's also important to "recruit the best employees" and provide excellent customer service, he said.

A successful nonprofit has to be run like a small business, said Community Foundation of Southern New Mexico (CFSNM) President and CEO Terra Winter, who is celebratCFSNM.

Just like a small business, Winter said, "the whole focus is capacity building."

Winter said CFSNM has an advisory council in each of the 12 counties it serves in southern New Mexico.

It is also important for someone thinking of starting a business to "find something to do that you love," said Jones, who bought his first truck at age 19 and opened Mesilla Valley Transportation at age 27. The company now has more than 1,600 trucks that operate in 48 U.S. states and Canada.

"People have to be happy in their work," Jones said.

"You've got to believe in what you're doing," Jackson said.

"Ask yourself, 'Why am I starting this business," Covarrubias said. "Find good partners in the community. Ask for help along the wav."

"Be passionate about what you do," Winter said. "Find a not-for-profit to partner with," she advised business owners.

"You've always got to give back," Jones said.

"Make sure you have a kitchen cabinet... people you trust you can bounce ideas off of," chamber President and CEO Debbi Moore said.

State sees increased job numbers

BULLETIN REPORT

New Mexico's economy "delivered exceptionally strong job growth in May and, along with falling unemployment levels, the state is now seeing the highest number of jobs in its history," the office of Gov. Michelle Lujan Grisham said in a news release.

New Mexico added 20,900 jobs over the year in May 2023, according to state Department of Workforce Solutions data released June 16. The increase brings the total number of jobs in New Mexico to 869,400, the highest ever. New Mexico's unemployment rate is currently 3.5 percent, which is below the national unemployment rate of 3.7 percent as calculated by the U.S. Department of Labor.

Many of the job gains since Lujan Grisham became governor in 2019 "are in key, higher-paying sectors," the news release said, include a 21 percent increase in transportation and warehousing jobs (5,322), a 12 percent increase in professional, scientific and technical services jobs (7,194 jobs), a 5.9 percent increase in construction jobs (3,022), a 5.6 percent increase in manufacturing jobs (1,541) and a 1.6 percent increase in healthcare and social assistance jobs (2,269).

FMP expands in Santa Teresa; will add 60 employees

BULLETIN REPORT

Franklin Mountain Packaging (FMP), a manufacturer specializing in producing high-quality corrugated micro-flute sheets and digital print and die cutting, has signed a lease on a new 150,000-square-foot production center and warehouse facility being constructed in Santa Teresa, New Mexico, New Mexico Economic Development Department (NMEDD) said in a news release.

The new facility is adjacent to Franklin Mountain Packaging's (FMP) current 140,000-squarefoot building at 401 Avenida Ascencion in Santa Teresa. The company expects to add 60 employees in the next three years, bringing its total employee count in New Mexico to 155, the news release said. The state is investing $500,000 from its Local Economic Development Act Job Creation Fund (LEDA) to support the expansion.

"Franklin Mountain Packaging is a major pillar in the Santa Teresa industrial base," said Border Industrial Association President Jerry Pacheco. "We are excited that this global player is expanding.'

FMP's quantum corrugator is one of only two of its kind in North America and one of 14 in the world, NMEDD said. Quantum not only has advanced corrugated sheetmaking capabilities. It also uses 30 percent less energy and square footage than traditional corrugators, NMEDD said. Producing micro-flutes means creating lighter weight sheets and boxes with the same strength, while using less fiber in each. This translates into lower packaging and freight costs for FMP's customers.

FMP also has a high speed, single pass digital printer on site that allows for printing high-quality graphics on corrugated sheets without the need for costly print plates, the news release said.

"The State of New Mexico's focus on the border region for the past few years and their infrastructure investments are making the area an attractive spot for industrial development," FMP CEO Paul Foster said. "The joint efforts on the Santa Teresa border crossing between the State of New Mexico and the State of Chihuahua are also moving the needle. Together, these investments and efforts will continue to foster economic growth in the area."

The company is assisted in its expansion by the Mesilla Valley Economic Development Alliance (MVEDA), which awarded FMP $150,000 in economic assistance from the NMBorderplex Closing Incentive, a local incentive administered by MVEDA and the Community Foundation of Southern New Mexico.

"We are excited to see Franklin Mountain Packaging's continued growth in Santa Teresa," MVEDA President and CEO Davin Lopez said. "Investments like these are why Santa Teresa is fast becoming recognized as the premier location in the southwest United States for company expansions."

The Santa Teresa Port of Entry is a primary crossing between the United States and Mexico, and it is the first land port without a bridge structure from the east, NMEDD said. Because of this, it serves a critical function for the El Paso and Ciudad Juarez industrial regions, as the only oversized and overweight port, not limited by space or weight. The port is also clearing a growing number of regular commercial vehicles and a larger segment of local and non-local private commuters.

Santa Teresa continues to set records in commercial traffic, and that number is expected to increase due to consistent heavy congestion in El Paso ports, NMEDD said. In the last two years, the port has doubled the number of commercial vehicles processed per hour and hit a new record in 2022 by processing more than 160,000 trucks.

FMP's expansion announcement is the third this summer for businesses in the Santa Teresa Borderplex region, the news release said.

Who in the world is Jimmy Dunne?

In case you hadn't heard, on June 6 (I call it D-Day for professional golf) the PGA Tour and the Saudi regime struck a deal in which they became partners.

Call it "united, a "merger" or "agreement" -- it was a shocker to the golfing world.

One year ago, the LIV golf tour got off the ground, with players who defected from the PGA Tour and the D.P. World Tour, pocketing millions of dollars (even six figures for some), before they even played a golf shot.

The LIV experiment was funded by the Saudi Public Investment Fund (SPIF), estimated at $750 billion.

Of course, the merger news came as a total surprise to everyone, given the animosity between the LIV people and the PGA Tour. The new mega-tour has yet to be named, but the expensive litigation will cease.

It seems Greg Norman is out of a job, which makes many folks happy.

The individual who brokered the PGA Tour/Saudi deal is none other than Jimmy Dunne.

Dunne has been the consummate professional golf insider for many years.

"The only way you could get closer to professional golf than Jimmy Dunne is if you were a flagstick," wrote SI.com.

He was a managing partner in the investment banking firm of Sandler-O'Neill, which had offices on the 104th floor of the South tower at the World Trade Center on 9/11.

That day Dunne was out of the office and at the golf course trying to qualify for to stay at home and not the USGA Mid-Amateur. Sixty-eight of his colleagues and co-workers perished in the 9/11 attacks. Subsequently,

Dunne was able to rebuild Sandler-O'Neill, taking decisive action by paying the salaries and bonuses to families of those who died, and established a foundation which funded college tuition for 76 children of those victims who were killed on 9/11.

Sandler O'Neill grew to become America's largest independent full-service investment banking firm. It was acquired by Piper Jaffray in 2020 to become Piper Sandler, with whom Dunne is vice chairman and senior managing principle of that firm.

Dunne is a member of several of the most prestigious golf clubs in America, including Augusta National, Pine Valley (where I once played), National Golf Links on Long Island, and he is president of Seminole Golf Club in Florida.

From the start, Dunne was against the LIV idea. "I don't like it when they say they're 'growing the game.' That's crap. I don't even like it when they say, 'I have to do what's best for my family.' I really wonder how many of those guys, the lifestyle that they were living was so horrible that their family needed them to do this," Dunne exhorted.

From the start, he tried to urge PGA Tour players be enticed by the LIV riches. Then in 2022 Dunne was appointed to the PGA Tour Policy Board, and one of his primary tasks in that official role was to ensure that more elite players did not leave the PGA Tour for LIV.

With PGA Tour vs LIV golf two-way litigation pending, with the lengthy discovery process, a trial would not have started until sometime in 2025. With litigation and elevated tournament purses draining PGA reserves, as well as the reticence of the Saudis to open SPIF books, something had to be done. On April 8, Jimmy Dunne met secretly in London with Yasir Al-Rumayyan, governor of SPIF. In the weeks following, PGA Tour commissioner Jay Monahan and Al-Rumayyan had a couple of meetings and rounds of golf. It turns out that the PGA Tour and the Saudis shared many interests about the future of professional golf. The Saudi folks desperately longed to be a major player in the sport of golf but were sorely disappointed with the LIV golf model. As to the "merger" agreement it must pass scrutiny by the U.S. judicial and legislative branches of government. One of the issues is whether the PGA Tour will retain its non-profit 501-c(6) status. If not, the billions of donations to charities from tournaments could diminish.

Although I have not met Jimmy Dunne I do admire him immensely. He is a 1978 graduate of the University of Notre Dame, my alma mater. He has been a trustee of the University since 2010. He has donated over $20 million to the University, and a men's residence hall bears his name. Jimmy and Susan Dunne are parents of three children who are all graduates of Notre Dame. Dunne delivered the commencement address to the Notre Dame class of 2021, whereupon Notre Dame President Rev. John I. Jenkins, C.S.C. stated: "At a time when our graduates have had to show remarkable resilience in the face of the adversity of the Covid-19 pandemic, Jimmy is someone who personified resilience in the aftermath of the tragic events 20 years ago."

Aggies hire new baseball coach

BULLETIN REPORT

Jake Angier, most recently the pitching coach at the University of Oregon, has been named head baseball coach at New Mexico State University.

Angier will succeed Aggies interim head coach Keith Zuniga, who took over for Mike Kirby, who was terminated after NMSU was winless seven games into the 2023 season. Though the Aggies won the Western Athletic Conference tournament in 2022 and made the NCAAs, 2023 was a different story, with

NMSU finishing 14-37

on the year, and 9-21 in conference play. Despite the losing record, NMSU landed four players on all-WAC teams.

Keith Jones II, Kevin Jimenez and Christian Perez were named second team all-conference, and catcher Nick Gore, a junior, earned a spot > on the all-defensive team.

Jones, a junior, hit .453 on the year, third best in the WAC, and committed only one error in the outfield.

Perez, a freshman third baseman, hit .350 and led the Aggies with 12 home runs.

During the season, the Aggies hit .288 as a team and averaged 6.5 runs per game, but had a team pitching ERA of 7.60 and an opponents' batting average of .333.

LC women's footballers headed to playoff game

By MIKE COOK

Las Cruces Bulletin

The New Mexico Banitas, Las Cruces' women's tackle football team, will host their first-ever playoff game at 6:30 p.m. Saturday, June 24, at Cloudcroft High School's Bear Stadium in Cloudcroft.

Tickets for the playoff game are $5. Cloudcroft students get in free.

The Banitas play the Rocky Mountain ThunderKatz in the first round of the Women's Football Alliance WFA) Division 3 playoffs. The teams split two games during the regular season, with the ThunderKatz winning 26-12 in Colorado Springs in April and the Banitas winning 26-0 in Cloud-croft in May.

The Banitas finished the 2023 regular season, "which ranked them No. 1 in the Pacific Region and gave them home field advantage for this June 24 showdown with the ThunderKatz," said Banitas Coach Jamar Cotton.

"The Banitas hosted their home games in Cloudcroft as there were no fields available in Las Cruces this year," Cotton said.

"However, Cloudcroft has been a blessing to the Banitas," he said. "The school district embraced us and opened the doors for us something special! We really appreciate the love and support Cloudcroft has given us.

"The players are gearing up to continue to make history," Cotton said.

With coaches Brian Bartlett, Noah Bartlett, Tre Bennett, Jessica Segura and Cotton, "the Banitas have a well-rounded staff that meshes well together," he said. "We look to use what everyone brings to the field in our pursuit to Canton."

The winner of the June 24 game advances to the second round of the playoffs, July 8. The WFA national championship is July 21 at Thom Benson Hall of Fame Stadium in Canton, Ohio.
