“Documentary: Eldorado: Everything the Nazis Hate” (June 28)

The film looks at Berlin in the late Golden Twenties, where the legendary Eldorado nightclub is a decadent escape for the LGBTQ+ community, alongside the city's rich and powerful. “Is It Cake?: Season 2” (June 30)

It's a bird! It's a plane! It's ... cake? With ever-advancing techniques and skilled artists dedicated to their craft, Netflix is baffling viewers once again when this fun, confectionary competition series returns with its second season. Hosted once again by “Saturday Night Live's” Mikey Day, the series, which is part game show and part baking show, is ready to put more celebrity judges' sleuthing skills to the test as talented, hyper-realistic cake makers put their sweet creations next to everyday objects that are identical in almost every way — except, of course, for the fact that one is edible and one is not. If the bakers can fool the panel of judges, they will be walking out of the arena with a cash prize.

Family Viewing Ratings

AS Adult situations    P Profanity    V Violence    N Nudity    GV Graphic Violence

"EVIL DEAD RISE"

The iconic horror franchise gets a new chapter that involves many of the talents who also contributed to it previously, including producers Sam Raimi and Rob Tapert and actor Bruce Campbell. Demons still are on the loose here, moving out of woodlands and into a more metropolitan setting for their mayhem, with two estranged and newly reunited sisters (played by Lily Sullivan and Alyssa Sutherland) among their principal targets. It likely goes without saying, particularly for those already familiar with the series that dates back to the early 1980s, that having a strong stomach is a definite benefit for any viewer here. Morgan Davies, Gabrielle Echols and Neil Fisher also appear. ★★★ (R: AS, P, GV) (Also on Blu-ray, 4K Ultra HD, Digital and On Demand)

"BIG GEORGE FOREMAN"

This biographical drama is subtitled "The Miraculous Story of the Once and Future Heavyweight Champion of the World," and that pretty much covers the saga of the boxing legend — played here by Khristian Davis ("Judas and the Black Messiah") — whose athletic triumphs were put on hold for a while after a situation that nearly turned tragic for him. That wouldn't be the end of his career in the ring, though, since he became determined to reclaim his title to help his ailing community. Directed and co-written by George Tillman Jr. ("Soul Food"), the film also stars Forest Whitaker, Jasmine Matthews, Sonia Sohn and Lawrence Gilliard Jr. ★★★ (PG-13: AS, V) (Also on Blu-ray, Digital and On Demand)

"NATIONAL LAMPOON'S VACATION"

As it marks its 40th anniversary, a classic comedy gets its day on 4K Ultra HD, thanks to this memorable cross-country trip to the California amusement park Walley World undertaken by Clark Griswold — played by Chevy Chase in one of his biggest movie hits — and the rest of his Chicago-area family, including some not-immediate relatives who aren't exactly welcome as fellow travelers. Written by John Hughes and directed by Harold Ramis, the picture (which launched a "Vacation" franchise for Chase) uses Lindsey Buckingham's "Holiday Road" as its theme song. The cast also includes Beverly D'Angelo, Randy Quaid, Imogene Coca, Anthony Michael Hall, Dana Barron, Eddie Bracken, Eugene Levy, Jane Krakowski and (as a determined security guard) John Candy, plus Christie Brinkley as a beauty in a frequently passing car who doesn't escape Clark's notice. ★★★ (R: AS, N, P, V)

"MICKEY & FRIENDS: 10 CLASSIC SHORTS — VOLUME 2"

As part of the continuing 100th-anniversary celebration of the company founded by entertainment icon Walt Disney, this gathering of animated short subjects boasts some of his most famous characters. A notable entry is "Tugboat Mickey," which took the concept of "Steamboat Willie" — the cartoon that introduced Mickey Mouse to the public — and updated it, at least by the standards of 1940, when it originally was released (with Disney himself supplying Mickey's voice). Among the other attractions in this set are "Mr. Duck Steps Out," "Pluto's

Party," "The Band Concert" and "Lonesome Ghosts." +++ (Not rated) (Also on Blu-ray)

"TALES OF THE WALKING DEAD"

The parent show yielded another AMC spinoff series last year with this six-episode anthology involving existing characters from the franchise and also introducing new ones. Among the subjects: a time loop that sends some people back to the start of the zombie apocalypse, the struggle for control of a boat, and a scientist's view of the world's future as dominated by the undead. Actors featured in the stories include Terry Crews, Olivia Munn, Parker Posey, Jillian Bell, Samantha Morton, Anthony Edwards, Embeth Davidtz and Julie Carmen. A follow-up series titled "More Tales From the Walking Dead Universe" is being planned. ★★★ (Not rated: AS, P, GV)

"NATURE: NIAGARA FALLS"

One of the scenic wonders of the United States — though it regularly draws many visitors from over the border in Canada, too — is showcased in this recent episode of the PBS series, and you can bank on many views of the waterfall that has kept the New York site a major destination for tourists for more than two centuries. A year in the "life" of Niagara Falls is the approach taken by award-winning filmmaker Joe Pontecorvo, who also considers the various types of wild-life that the area serves as a home for ... on the ground, in the water and in the air. ★★★ (Not rated)

BY JAY BOBBIN

Dulé Hill has done a lot of television, but his current series is a well-known "Wonder."

The veteran of such shows as "The West Wing," "Psych" and "Suits" now plays family patriarch Dean Williams in ABC's reboot of "The Wonder Years," the nostalgic Wednesday sitcom that recently returned for its second season in its present form about a youngster (portrayed by Elisha "EJ" Williams) and those in his immediate circle in late-1960s Montgomery, Ala. In having to wear the styles of the time and evoking that era in other ways as well, Hill is enjoying being a part of the time capsule that the series automatically is.

"Walking out the door, you made a statement," he reflects. "The way you had your hair made a statement. The suit that I have on makes a statement. And I think somewhere along the way, we may have lost that. I do like the idea of looking back on that and, hopefully, reinvigorating that mindset."

At the same time, Hill — who is reunited with a "Psych" executive producer, Saladin K. Patterson, on "The Wonder Years" — notes that "as much as things have changed, they've stayed the same. There is so much tragedy that has gone on between now and then, and it's still happening right now.

"What's interesting to me about even exploring this time period is that you see the trauma, you see the hurt, you see the strength of the people during that time. Then you reflect on where you are now, and you see that same strength, that same power, that same fortitude to press forward that has always been there for people who look like me."
