The 1978 pilot film that introduced the original sci-fi series now gets 4K Ultra HD treatment on home video. Lorne Greene stars as Commander Adama, the leader of a sort of intergalactic wagon train made up of spaceships and their occupants ... survivors of an attack by a lethal, robot-like brigade known as Cylons. Richard Hatch and Dirk Benedict play Captain Apollo and Lieutenant Starbuck, pals and hot-shot pilots who often are at the forefront of protecting a large chunk of mankind from further Cylon assaults. This opening episode, boasting special effects by Oscar winner John Dykstra ("Star Wars") – and famously interrupted when it first aired by news coverage of international peace treaties - got a later theatrical run enhanced with the Sensurround process; John Colicos portrays the traitorous Baltar, Jane Seymour, Ray Milland, Lew Ayres and actor-singer Rick Springfield are among guest stars here.  $\star \star \star$  (PG: AS, V)

When Lara Spencer is done wishing America a good morning, she often can be found looking for rare or thrifty finds.

The personality from the weekday editions of ABC's "Good Morning America" has developed a second television career by hosting several series that One of them is "Everything but the House," in which she advises families on getting rid of clutter as they prepare to downsize. However, it's not just a matter of getting rid of items, but also of appraisers determining the worth of such items and getting the most money at auction for the given family. The show starts a new round by relocating from HGTV (where it spent two seasons) to Lifetime on Tuesday, July 11, as part of the Home.Made.Nation franchise of lifestyle-themed programming.

Spencer also is known for HGTV's "Flea Market Flip," which has defined its title by having teams scan flea markets for the best bargains, then attempt to profit themselves by flipping what they've acquired for higher prices from other buyers. Such a premise comes naturally to Spencer, confirmed by the fact that she's also the author of the best sellers "I Brake for Yard Sales: And Flea Markets, Thrift Shops, Auctions, and the Occasional Dumpster" (which yielded a related TV special) and "Flea Market Fabulous: Designing Gorgeous Rooms With Vintage Treasures."

With a knack for interior design as well - with "A Very Brady Renovation," which restored television's "Brady Bunch" house, among her TV projects in that vein - Spencer is a former host of PBS' "Antiques Roadshow." Devotees of that program will recognize young Inspector Morse (played by Shaun Evans) comes to home video. After taking some time off to deal with a personal matter circa 1972, Morse reunites with more experienced sleuth Thursday (Roger Allam) to probe a college-related tragedy. It isn't long until they have another case to deal with, connected to a renowned orchestra and some very dark, closely held secrets. A funeral director and a librarian are among others who spark investigations by the duo. Acknowledging the series' wrap-up, some characters from earlier capers return, and Morse's love life gets some resolution.  $\star \star \star$  (Not rated: AS, P, V)

As comedy fans night suspect, the men referenced by the title of this compendium of curios are the Three Stooges ... Moe Howard, his brother Curly and Larry Fine, plus some others who came along to be Stooges later. The content here relies heavily on outtakes, home movies, interviews and photos that show how the trio wore their fame at the peak of their popularity – and in some cases, their demeanor when they weren't mugging it up in their famous short subjects is quite surprising, given how zany they were known for being. Shemp Howard (another of Moe's siblings), Joe Besser and "Curly Joe" DeRita were among the later-era Stooges. (Not rated) (Also on Blu-ray)
