Cervantes confident court will uphold redistricting

By MIKE COOK

Las Cruces Bulletin

New Mexico State Sen. Joseph Cervantes, D-Doña Ana, said he is confident New Mexico's congressional map will remain unchanged after a court challenge is resolved.

The New Mexico Republican Party and other plaintiffs filed a lawsuit challenging the plan adopted by the state legislature during a 2021 special session and signed into law by Gov. Michelle Lujan Grisham to redraw the state's three U.S. congressional districts based on the 2020 census.

The complaint alleges the map was redrawn "in contravention of traditional redistricting principles ... to accomplish a political gerrymander that unconstitutionally dilutes the votes of residents of southeastern New Mexico in order to achieve partisan advantage."

A state district court judge in Clovis, where the complaint was filed, ruled the plaintiffs in the case had "a strong, well-developed case that (the challenged map) is an unlawful political gerrymander that dilutes Republican votes in congressional races in New Mexico."

Following an appeal, by Lujan Grisham and others named as defendants in the lawsuit, the New Mexico Supreme Court ruled in September that the gerrymandering claim was justifiable under state law and sent the case back to Ninth Judicial District (state) Court Judge Fred T. Van Soelen of Clovis.

CERVANTES

A bench trial began Sept. 27 at the Lea County Judicial Complex in Lovington. Van Soelen's original deadline was Oct. 1, but the

New Mexico Supreme Court last week extended that deadline to Friday, Oct. 6, to file a ruling in the case.

Whatever the outcome of the trial, Cervantes said the loser will appeal Van Soelen's decision to the state Supreme Court, which he said will affirm the legality of the congressional map as the legislature drew it.

Cervantes, a Las Cruces lawyer, was a co-sponsor of the bill creating the map. He is also chair of the state Senate Judiciary Committee.

The way the legislature redrew congressional districts "is strictly within the boundaries of the law," Cervantes said. "I am confident it will be upheld."

The map makes all three congressional districts more competitive, he said. It more closely aligns congressional representatives with average New Mexicans in their districts and reduces the control of political parties in congressional races.

To see the congressional redistricting plan adopted by the legislature, including maps, visit nmlegis.gov. Under "Legislation," select "2021 2nd Special" and enter "Congress Redistricting." Then click on "SB 1 Congress Redistricting," sponsored by Cervantes, state Sen. Daniel Ivey-Soto and former state Rep. Georgene Louis.

Coats for Kids campaign kicks off in Las Cruces

By MIKE COOK

Las Cruces Bulletin

The 29th annual Coats for Kids campaign is under way in Las Cruces.

The goal of this year's campaign is to provide coats to 3,000 children birth to fifth grade by the week before Thanksgiving, said campaign coordinator Alycia Jameson, who is the owner of D2 Designs Coats for Kids is a partnership among Community Action Agency of Southern New Mexico (CAA), 101 Gold, D2 Designs, Comet Cleaners, local Knights of Columbus councils and Las Cruces Public Schools (LCPS).

New and gently used coats sizes infant to adult XL can be dropped off at these collection sites:

- Comet Cleaners: 2001 E. Lohman Ave., 555 Utah Ave. and 2497 N. Main Street
- CAA: Community Action Agency, 3880 Foothills Road
- 101 Gold Studios, 101 Perkins Drive
- U.S. Post Office: 310 E. Union Ave. in Mesilla Park
- Firestone Complete Auto Care, 311 S. Main St.

- St Albert the Great Newman Center, 2615 S. Solano Drive
- Our Lady of Purification Church, 5525 Cristo Rey St., Doña Ana
- Basilica of San Albino, 2280 Calle de Principal, Mesilla.

Coats for Kids held a $101 challenge Sept. 8 at Comet Cleaners. "Knights of Columbus helped collect donations as they came in and we had a lot of honks as people were driving to work," Jameson said.

More than $1,000 was raised at the event.

The Carl. C. Anderson Sr. and Marie Jo Anderson Charitable Foundation is a Coats for Kids sponsor in 2023, providing dollar-for-dollar matching funds. Visit theandersonfoundation.org.

Knights of Columbus Coats for Kids booth

Led by long-time Coats for Kids volunteer Narciso Holguin, a team from local Knights of Columbus councils will set up a table, canopy and kids' games at local events now through the end of the year to raise funds for and increase awareness about Coats for Kids, Jameson said.

Cooper seeks re-election

By MIKE COOK
Las Cruces Bulletin

Carol Cooper is seeking a second four-year term as the district 5 representative on the Las Cruces Public Schools (LCPS) Board of Education.

Cooper won the seat in 2019, taking 29 percent of the vote to incumbent Ed Frank's 27 percent, Maria Pacheco's 24 percent and Gloria Martinez's 21 percent. Frank is running for the seat again in 2023, along with Cooper, Jose L. Aranda and Ernest B. Carlson IV.

The election is Tuesday, Nov. 7, with school board races for LCPS, the Gadsden Independent School District and Hatch Valley Public Schools and municipal elections in Las Cruces, Mesilla, Hatch, Sunland

Park and Anthony, New Mexico. Early voting starts Oct. 10.

"It has been a very enriching experience" Cooper said about serving on the school board.

"We get along," she said of the five-member, non-partisan board. "There is no question; kids are the focus of what we do here. People's political agendas are down the list of priorities. That has made us a pretty unified board. What we're trying to do is what's best for kids."

The board voted unanimously in July to hire Ignacio Ruiz as the new superintendent of schools.

Ruiz is "doing a fine job,"

Cooper said. "He's very knowledgeable. I don't think he's met up with a lot of surprises."

"My concern really does come down to engaging families," Cooper said. "That's always got to be in the back of our minds. We need to see some improvement in that," she said, noting that LCPS' six community schools are helping parents and families "feel comfortable when they come to the school."

With his background as a teacher and administrator, Ruiz has connected with families that are "reluctant to participate" with schools because of language or socio-economic issues, she said. He "has experienced that and knows what to do."

SCHOOL BOARD

Cooper said she is also grateful to attorney Elena Gallegos of the Walsh Gallegos law firm in Albuquerque, which represents LCPS, because everything the board does has to follow the law, and Gallegos “knows what laws govern

For example, a state district court judge’s ruling in the Yazzie/Martinez lawsuit in 2018 mandated that every student “will have an opportunity for a good education,” Cooper said. “That’s the law.”

Cooper said she was the only board member to vote against adopting Policy JBD, Gender Inclusive

Schools, in 2022 because some of its language is confusing.

“I don’t think gender needs to be dealt with in this policy,” Cooper said. “I don’t think educators should introduce that kind of confusion. Every single person is different from every other person. We should accept every person for the individual he or she is. It’s our diversity that makes us very wealthy.”

That inclusiveness should be demonstrated for students by their parents, teachers and government leaders, she said, but it doesn’t need to be set in law.

“I’m a true conservative,” Cooper said, questioning that having a U.S. Department of Education is constitutional. Oversight of public schools should be local, she said.

Cooper said she also is concerned about bullying in schools.

“It damages a student who is affected by it,” she said. “It’s abuse.” The victim “lives with it the rest of his life,” Cooper said. “It’s really important that we shut it down as much as we can.”

Cooper said LCPS’ partnership with the Las Cruces Home Builders Associations’ on the Building My Future program that inspires high school students to pursue construction careers through hands-on experience is a good example of what schools can do to help students discover their talent.

'Bras for a Cause' celebrates art, cancer awareness

By CYNTHIA DE LORENZI
Memorial Medical Center

When Las Cruces artists start gathering their paint and brushes, needle and thread, baubles and beads, glue guns and even their 3D-printer supplies, it must mean some kind of magic is going to happen. Imagination is going to take center stage for Bras for a Cause, a vibrant initiative aimed at raising awareness for breast cancer and supporting Cancer Warriors in our community.

Bras for a Cause is a one-of-a-kind extravaganza where local artists showcase their talent by transforming bras into stunning works of art. This in-person event will be held 6-10 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 12, at New Mexico Farm and Ranch Heritage Museum, 4100 Dripping Springs Road.

Get ready to be amazed by the incredible designs and bid on your favorite masterpiece.

It is not too late to participate and contribute your own work of art. All bra art must be submitted no later than Oct. 10 to participate. Contact Karen Matthews at karen.matthews@lpnt.net or Cynthia de Lorenzi at cynthiadelorenzi@gmail.com.

Dr. Ginny Knowles with her bra "Barbie at Burning Man" is just one of many local artists contributing to "Bras for a Cause" Thursday, Oct. 12.

Bras for a Cause is not your average fundraiser. It's a celebration of art, creativity and community spirit. Local artists have turned their talents toward transforming bras into breathtaking works of art.

The event promises an evening filled with laughter, camaraderie and the chance to witness artistic ingenuity. A silent auction of the bras is part of the evening's festivities, with all proceeds supporting Cancer Warriors.

Participating artists include de Lorenzi (artwork title: "For Kaitlyn"), Dave Goldsberry ("Prickly Pear"), Marie Hughey and Alfred Hughey "Always Remember" and "Go Ask Alice"), Diane Hurd ("Rhinestone Cowgirl"), Ginny Knowles ("Barbie at Burning Man – Party Time"), Kimberly Miller ("Surf's Up" and "Princess Warrior"), Carol San-

Duran enters District 4 City Council contest

By MIKE COOK

Las Cruces Bulletin

Gabriel Duran Jr. is making his first bid for elective office as he campaigns for the District 4 seat on the Las Cruces City Council.

Duran is one of four candidates in the District 4 race, along with incumbent Johana Bencomo, Lorenzo M. Medina and Ramon O. Ortega, whose wife, Gina Ortega, is a candidate for mayor. District 4 includes west Las Cruces, including the West Mesa and Las Cruces International Airport and the city's Industrial and Innovation Park. Visit www.lascruces.gov/2553/Redistricting and click on "Concept Map J (PDF)" to see a map of city council districts.

The election is Tuesday, Nov. 7, and also includes races for Las Cruces mayor and for city council districts 1 and 2 and presiding municipal judge.

DURAN

Duran is a fifth-generation Las Cruces; his great-grandfather farmed in District 4. Duran attended Alameda Elementary School and Picacho Middle School and graduated from Mayfield High School. He has a bachelor's degree in government and a master's in public administration from New Mexico State University.

A father of three, Duran is the founder of Bringing Up Dads (BUDS) nonprofit, which supports and promotes responsible fatherhood, he said.

"Family structure is very important for our youth," Duran said.

An important element of BUDS is helping people simplify and understand the court system, he said, including family court as they deal with issues such as child custody and child support.

Exceptional Rodeo brings joy to participants

Tiffany Whetten learned the ranching business early, with ranchers as parents.

As rodeo chairperson for the Southern New Mexico State Fair and Rodeo's rodeo committee, Whetten did the bulk of organizing for the fair's rodeo events including the Exceptional Rodeo, Ranch Rodeo, Professional Rodeo and Barrell Racing events.

One of her favorites is the Exceptional Rodeo, held Sept. 27, an event in its second year at the fair.

"It's just a great way to get kids with disabilities out here and get them in the arena, get them around rodeo events," she said. "They just have so much fun. It's an event just for them so it's kind of special. Their faces are just amazing."

Five-year-old Jett Womack was so excited he couldn't hold still, bouncing from event to event — roping, riding, stick-horse barrel racing, bull riding — taking it all in as fast as possible. He said everything was his favorite.

"I'm going to wait my turn," he said, bouncing on his heels, and then he was off to the next one.

"I've never been in a rodeo in all my life," Alecia Lucoski said when she got off the bull, a structure pulled around by a pick-up truck. "It was fun. Maybe I'll do more in the future."

Lucoski is in a special needs program at Doña Ana Community College and plans to write about the experience in her English class.

Whetten said the New Mexico State University rodeo team helps with the rodeo. The team's coach, Brice Baggerly, said team members were a bit nervous at first but got over it pretty quickly.

"The whole team came out to help out and support the kids," Baggerly said. "The [team members] are a little shy at first but by the end they love it. I hear all the time how much fun they had and they are glad to give back a little bit."

family structure" is also important in supporting people coming out of the prison system. It also helps reduce poverty and crime and improve educational outcomes.

"Teachers would love to have extra support at home," he said.

Duran said he has worked as a substitute teacher across all grade levels in Las Cruces, and that experience has helped him better understand the needs of schools and teachers.

Duran has worked in real estate for the last couple of years while developing "a strong foundation for BUDS," he said. He has also attended Las Cruces City Council and District 4 meetings.

"There seemed to be a disconnect," Duran said. Issues are not being addressed, he said.

It is clear from his door-to-door campaigning for the district four seat that people are "fed up," Duran said, they are concerned about public safety and "they don't feel represented."

Las Cruces businesses are suffering from theft, vandalism and trespassing, Duran said, and "there's more that we can do."

"Law enforcement needs more support," he said, including better wages and benefits and more officer recruitment. Duran said he also would like to see a stronger relationship between law enforcement and youth in Las Cruces.

Young people would "see police officers as human beings just like them, and vice versa," he said.

"We need to take care of them," Duran said about Las Cruces businesses.

Business owners "work extremely hard their whole lives to build something for themselves and their families," he said, and it's because of them that the city is able to fund many programs and services.

The city also should support young entrepreneurs and people starting their own businesses, he said.

The city also needs to work more closely with the county and the federal government to provide more resources "that focus on mental health and drug addiction," Duran said.

He also would like to strengthen the relationship between the city and NMSU, including cooperating to improve mental health services and working with the university, Las Cruces Public Schools and local businesses to incentivize New Mexico State graduates to stay in Las Cruces through grants, scholarships, wage and health benefits and internships.

NMSU is "a great resource in our back yard," Duran said.

Duran said he is not aligned with any political party or organization.

"I don't want to belong to anybody," Duran said. "I want to represent my district."

District 4 is entitled to the same consideration for development that has occurred in other city council districts, he said. "I want to fight for my district," he said.

"I'm not here to run a dirty campaign," Duran said he told Bencomo when they met. "I have my own ideas and plans for my district and I just want to share that."

AG charges LCPD officer in shooting

BULLETIN REPORT

New Mexico Attorney General Raúl Torrez announced charges against Las Cruces Police Officer Brad Lunsford for the 2022 shooting death of Presley Eze. Lunsford is charged with voluntary manslaughter with a firearm enhancement.

The Bulletin received the information from a news release from the attorney general's office.

On the afternoon of Friday, Aug. 2, 2022, Presley Eze was at the Chevron gas station at 2645 S. Valley Dr. in Las Cruces. The gas station attendant called 911 after witnessing Eze leave the station with a beer he did not pay for. Officer Lunsford was the first officer on the scene and began questioning Eze about the situation inside the gas station. After being unable to verify Eze's identity, Officer Lunsford and another officer forcibly removed Eze from the vehicle in order to detain him. Eze was unarmed and shirtless at the time but nevertheless resisted the officers' attempt to take him into custody. A scuffle ensued and Eze ended up on the ground, on top of one of the responding officers. During the ongoing struggle Eze placed his hand on the second officer's taser though it was not cycled or deployed against either officer. In response Officer Lunsford drew his service weapon and shot Eze on the back, left side of his head at point blank range.

As part of its investigation into this matter special agents with the New Mexico Attorney General's Office consulted with use of force experts who, upon reviewing the available footage, concluded that the Lunsford's use of deadly force was not reasonable under the circumstances and that other, less lethal options could have been used to subdue Eze.

"The killing of Presley Eze is a tragedy and serves as yet another example of poor police tactics resulting in an unjustifiable use of force to subdue an individual resisting arrest for the commission of a minor crime," Torrez said. "As New Mexico's chief law enforcement officer, I have a duty to hold everyone accountable for violations of the law and that includes police officers who cross the line."

Doña Ana County NAACP President Bobbie Green of Las Cruces applauded the attorney general's decision and said, "we are grateful to New Mexico attorney general Raul Torrez for seeking accountability. We know that this will not bring Presley back, but we hope it will bring some comfort to the Eze family. Our thoughts and prayers are with the Eze family and a young child who is now forced to grow up without his father."

Air, Space Expo to feature sport class air racing

By MIKE COOK
Las Cruces Bulletin

What do FAA-certified air racers, the world's first licensed armless pilot and a host of classic and vintage automobiles, planes and helicopters have in common? They will all be at Las Cruces International Airport for the first ever Las Cruces Air and Space Expo (LCASE) – plus a whole lot more.

The expo is 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 21, at the airport, 10 miles west of downtown Las Cruces via Interstate 10 or the frontage road north of the interstate. Admission is free, although paid VIP seating and premium parking will be available.

It's Las Cruces' first air show since 2009, said airport manager Andy Hume. Last year's Airport Appreciation Day and the Wings and Wheels event the prior two years "set the stage for this year," he said.

Reno, Nevada, has been the exclusive home of air races – billed as the "world's fastest motor sport" – until the Las Cruces expo, which will feature sport class air racing.

"It's never happened before outside of Reno," said air show coordinator Janel Carnero, a luxury travel adviser who is working with the city on the event. After a nearly 60-year run, Reno-Stead Airport hosted the Reno Air Racing Association (RARA) National Championship Races for the final time in September. RARA is now looking for a new, permanent home, Hume said.

The expo's special guest is Jessica Cox, an Arizona native and a licensed armless pilot and American Taekwondo Association-certified black belt.

"Since I was born without arms, I became fascinated by the limitless ways the human body can adjust to a variety of circumstances," Cox said on jessicacox.com.

Other aerial performers at the expo will be Jive Kirby, Stephen Covington, Chuck Coleman and Undaunted Air Shows.

The expo will also feature "a riveting display of fast cars, classic muscle cars, vintage antiques, powerful motorcycles, and more," the City of Las Cruces said in a news release.

Exhibitors and vendors at the air show include Virgin Galactic, New Mexico State University, the United States armed forces, Fort Bliss, Spaceport, NASA, the War Eagles Museum and the City of Las Cruces, including Las Cruces Utilities vehicles, the Las Cruces Police Department and the Las Cruces Fire Department.

The expo will include a Coats for Kids of Las Cruces booth, including kids' games. Also attending will be Experimental Aircraft Association (EAA) Chapter 555 of Las Cruces Young Eagles flights.

The expo will include simulators for planes, drones and remote-control cars, along with games and STEM activities for children and food trucks.

"It's going to be such a wonderful event," Canero said. "This is an opportunity for us to make something really special."

"We think the expo can become the next annual New Mexico event that will draw people from across the region and beyond," Hume said.

There will be free parking at the Southern New Mexico Fairgrounds, with shuttles moving people to and from the airport, Hume said. Premium parking at the airport will be available for $25. Premium seating tickets, which will start at $50, include shaded seating with a center view of the aerials, VIP bathroom access and beverages, the city said.

Longtime tradition to end with 'roast'

Remember the fable of stone soup? The innkeeper tells the travelers he can make a delicious soup from just a stone. And, by the way, he tells the travelers, if you could get some carrots and onions to put in the soup, it will be even better. He tells other visitors mushrooms and meat also complement the stone, and he tells additional visitors, the soup could use some noodles and spices.

Paul Finch's near half-century tradition of a horseshoe tournament has been the stone.

The lifelong relationships and memories that have grown around the tournament have been the rich, hearty, fulfilling soup.

In 1978, a year into what would be a 21-year stint teaching industrial engineering at New Mexico State University, Finch and his wife, Judy, invited a few friends and some students to their house for a friendly backyard game of horseshoes.

In the intervening years, the game turned into a tournament, and hundreds of hundreds of guests came for the competition, but more for the camaraderie.

But when the host has the detailed mind of an engineering instructor, thoughts turn to measures and outcomes.

"He had to know the statistics," said one of those former students, Wayne Savage. "Recording every throw, he could calculate each player's handicap." With those figures, Finch would draft tournament seedings to even out the competition.

This weekend will be the 44th and final edition of the Finch event, known as the Armijo Open because of the location of Finch's house on Armijo Street. It will include horseshoes, of course, but also huachas and badminton, two other staples of the Armijo Open.

There will be something else. A throwback to the 1970s, and people like Dean Martin, Frank Sinatra and Sammy Davis Jr.

A good old-fashioned roast. More than 32 of Finch's longtime friends and Armijo Open veterans have committed to attend the farewell event Saturday,

Setback for Ukraine will be temporary

Opponents of our support for Ukraine have started lumping in the defense of their homeland with our past wars in Afghanistan and Iraq and referring to them all as "forever wars." Let's break that down.

The war in Afghanistan started Oct. 7, 2001, with an invasion ordered by President George W. Bush, and ended Aug. 26, 2021, with a withdrawal ordered by President Joe Biden. It lasted for 19 years, 10 months and 19 days, and resulted in the deaths of 2,402 American servicemen and women, including 13 during the withdrawal.

The war in Iraq started on March 20, 2003, with another invasion ordered by President Bush, and ended on Aug. 31, 2010, with a withdrawal ordered by President Barack Obama. It lasted for seven years, five months and 11 days, and resulted in the deaths of 4,431 American service members. In both wars, far more than came home with physical or mental wounds.

The war in Ukraine started on Feb. 24, 2022, with an invasion ordered by Russian President Vladimir Putin. It has lasted for about one year and seven months thus far, and resulted in the deaths of no American servicemen.

We don't know when the war will end, but we do know it won't come at the order of an American president. And we know the number of American servicemen killed and wounded will not change.

Republican hard-liners in the U.S. House of Representatives went into last week's budget showdown with a long list of demands, ranging from border security to defunding federal prosecutors. The only thing they won was removal of funding for Ukraine. For now.

At this point, it seems highly unlikely Putin will follow through on his numerous threats to use nuclear weapons, or that our assistance to Ukraine will lead to an escalation resulting in direct war between the United States and Russia. But there is the real possibility the war could bog down into a long and bloody slog that doesn't end for several years. That would, of course, be incredibly expensive if we continue to support Ukraine at current levels.

I don't think we have a choice. We're spending $816 billion this year on defense. While China is an emerging threat, Russia has long been our greatest military threat. We have the opportunity to diminish that threat without risking American lives.

Beyond the geopolitical aspects, our support for Ukraine has the added advantage of being the right thing to do. Ukrainians have a right to self-determination.

I'm confident that a majority of our leaders understand that, and the setback last week will be temporary.

The View From Here

Oct. 7. They'll be coming from all over the country, and plenty are still here in Las Cruces. And they'll all have plenty of stories, plenty of fuel for the roast.

"Paul turns 90 in October," Savage said. "He wanted to go out on his own terms."

Surrounding him will be a number of ladies who attended many of the events, taking statistics, helping out, performing skits and becoming like additional daughters to Finch.

A similar pattern was true of the male participants.

"I knew Paul like my second dad," Savage said. "He's played that role for a lot of folks."

But Savage was the only one who wound up owning Finch's house.

Savage had married Griselda Martinez in early 2019 and, that fall, at the tournament, Finch made an announcement, with-out Savage's permission.

Finch said he and Judy were going to be moving out of the house.

"Brother Savage and his bride are going to be buying this house," Finch said. "Under one condition: He keeps the tournament going."

Savage and Martinez did buy the house, and spent a couple of years and a lot of sweat equity working on it, with an eye toward the tournament. Of course, in the fall of 2020, thanks to Covid, there was no tournament. But the last two years, Savage and Martinez did their best to carry on the tradition.

But no mistake, it's Paul Finch's event.

The horseshoes and the friendship have always been the focus, but that won't be the case this year, as Finch's friends – people who've become his family – will share the impact this man has made on their lives.

"He's meant a lot to a lot of people," Savage said.

There will be many times this weekend when players will put the horseshoe cleanly around the stake.

But when an old friend puts an arm around Paul Finch, and says what he's meant all these years, that will be the real ringer.

'The need is real'; Empty Bowls fundraiser Oct. 13

BULLETIN REPORT

"Seeing the smile on kids' faces when they have a full tummy; Hearing words like 'Thank you, 'God bless you for the food,' 'I can face another day because of your help,' 'I appreciate all your work,' these are words I hear while at the serving line" at El Caldito Soup Kitchen, said volunteer Abel Chavarria. El Caldito is the recipient of the money raised by Empty Bowls.

"This is the season of giving thanks," said volunteer Terri L. Wenner. "I am Thankful that most of us have only been hungry by choice."

"The need is real, folks," said potter and volunteer Jan Archey, who has been a part of Empty Bowls since the fundraiser began in the 1990s.

Empty Bowls will be held 11 a.m.-2 p.m. Friday, Oct. 13, at St Paul's United Methodist Church, 225 W. Griggs Ave. Tickets are $25 and are available in advance or at the door.

Empty Bowls is sponsored by the Potters' Guild of Las Cruces (PGLC), whose members will make more than 1,000 bowls for this year's event.

An online auction is part of Empty Bowls. This year's auction is Oct. 10-17 at www.mvestatesales.com.

A new event at Empty Bowls this year is Wine and Dine. For a $50 donation, you choose your wine bag, which will include a bottle from one of New Mexico's many wineries and a gift certificate to a local dining establishment. PGLC members have made wine cups and goblets available for purchase.

Two handmade quilts from Las Colcheras Quilters Guild will be displayed at Empty Bowls and available through auction or chance. BEE It A.R.T., has provided a wall-art quilt that will be available through a special auction.

Also new this year at Empty Bowls will be separate event entry lines, depending on whether you have purchased your ticket in advance or are buying it at the gate.

Tickets can be purchased in advance at multiple locations throughout Las Cruces and Mesilla.

The 2023 Dress the Child of Las Cruces fundraising dinner begins at 5 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 8, at Amador Live, 302 S. Main St. Tickets are $100. This year's theme is "Yacht Party 2 Mexican Riviera," with eight food stations featuring dishes that will include shrimp with chimichurri sauce, Yucatan tacos, pollo al Ajillo and Coconut mango panna cotta. Hilary Floren, the long-time host of KVIA-TV's Good Morning El Paso, is returning as master of ceremonies, and DJ Neo Kid will be spinning records from a variety of musical genres. Preparing the food are some of the finest chefs in Las Cruces, assisted by culinary arts students from Doña Ana Community College, with Centennial High School students as servers. There will be a giving tree at this year's event. Dinner ticket sales are a major contributor to this year's Dress the Child goal of $70,000. The program, sponsored by the Rio Grande Rotary Foundation, is in its 70th year. Visit www.dressthechildc.org for more information and to purchase tickets. BY JAY BOBBIN

OF LET'S MAKE A DEAL ON CBS

Q: How long has Wayne Brady been hosting "Let's Make a Deal"?

A: Ever since CBS' current daytime version began in 2009. Its premiere there made it a rare series to run on three different broadcast networks, since the original show – hosted by Monty Hall, also (along with business partner Stefan Hatos) a creator and producer of it – ran on NBC from 1963 to 1966, then moved to ABC, where it continued until 1976. There also were other editions before the Brady-hosted revival premiered, with NBC attempting it again twice, in daytime with Bob Hilton and (very briefly) in prime time with Bush. Brady has earned two of his five Emmy Awards for his work on "Let's Make a Deal," and by the time he started that job, the idea of comedians becoming game-show hosts had been accepted. Among examples, Drew Carey assumed the hosting spot on "The Price Is Right" in 2007, and Louie Anderson had guided "Family Feud" from 1999 to 2002 (Steve Harvey started in the latter show in 2010).

In interviews, Brady has maintained that he never wanted to be just one thing in the entertainment world ... not exclusively an actor nor a comic (a skill he has displayed plentifully on the improvisation-oriented "Whose Line Is It Anyway?") nor a singer (he was nominated for a 2009 Grammy Award for his cover of Sam Cooke's "A Change Is Gonna Come"). He also has appeared on Broadway in "Chicago," "Freestyle Love Supreme" and "Kinky Boots." Along with "The Price Is Right," extra episodes of "Let's Make a Deal" have been made expressly for CBS' prime time lineup. That will continue for both shows during the upcoming television season, when they are slated to be seen on Friday nights starting in November.

“Dancing With the Stars” - Season 32 (Oct. 10)

This hit series dancing competition series, hosted by Alfonso Ribeiro and Julianne Hough, streams a new, live episode from its 32nd season, at 5:00 p.m. PT. Celebrities are paired with trained ballroom dancers to compete in themed choreographed dance routines that are judged by a panel of renowned ballroom experts, including Carrie Ann Inaba, Bruno Tonioli and Derek Hough.

“The Simpsons” - Season 34 (Oct. 11)

The complete 34th season of this iconic animated comedy joins the Disney+ streaming lineup. Following the antics of the Simpson family in Springfield, the show follows the inhabitants of the town on all kinds of wacky — and often topical — adventures. Dan Castellaneta, Nancy Cartwright, Julie Kavner, Harry Shearer, Yeardley Smith, Hank Azaria, Pamela Hayden and Tress MacNeille voice star.

“Alice’s Wonderland Bakery” - Season 2 (Oct. 11)

This fantastical Disney Junior animated series for preschoolers and their families is inspired by the beloved world of “Alice in Wonderland.” Centered on Alice (Libby Rue), the great-granddaughter of the original heroine and a budding young baker at the enchanted Wonderland Bakery. It follows Alice’s recipe adventures with her best pals—Fergie (Jack Stanton), a white rabbit; Hattie (CJ Uy), her madcap friend; and Rosa (Abigail Estrella), the Princess of Hearts.

“Goosebumps” - Season 1 (Oct. 13)

Inspired by R.L. Stine’s bestselling book series, this spooky, family-friendly series follows a group of five high schoolers as they embark on a shadowy and twisted journey to investigate the tragic passing three decades earlier of a teen named Harold Biddle (Ben Cockell) — while also unearthing dark secrets from their parents’ past. Justin Long, Rachael Harris, Zack Morris, Isa Briones, Miles McKenna, Ana Yi Puig and Will Price star.

Anthony Anderson and Cedric the Entertainer from "Kings of BBQ"

Kings of BBQ
A&E 11 a.m.

Anthony Anderson and Cedric the Entertainer continue their BBQ-loving road trip during this inaugural season. Heading out determined to discover the best techniques, flavors and traditions of the trade, the duo finds their efforts have paid off.

Sick
SYFY 3 p.m.

Parker (Gideon Adlon) and her best friend Miri (Bethlehem Million) decide to quarantine at Parker's family lake house during the pandemic. But an unexpected — and unvaccinated — visitor threatens their very lives.

Final Destination
AMC 5 p.m.

Think you have what it takes to make it out alive? Five movies from this franchise air back-to-back, also including "Final Destination 2," "Final Destination 3," "The Final Destination" and "Final Destination 5." This first film stars Devon Sawa.

3 Bed, 2 Bath, 1 Ghost
HALL 6 p.m.

You've got to appreciate a well-meaning ghost who wants to help with your love life. Ruby (Madeleine Arthur), a ghost from the 1920s, refuses to leave a newly listed home, believing she cannot pass over until she gets a woman back together with her ex.

Buying Back My Daughter
LIFE 6 p.m.

During this film, a couple organize a widespread search party when their 16-year-old daughter mysteriously disappears. When they discover she's for sale on an online escort ad, they try to buy her back to rescue her from the trafficker who abducted her. Meagan Good and Ariana Madix star.

Buried in the Backyard
OXYGEN 6 p.m.

A harrowing blizzard rescue the same night two Colorado women disappear could hold the clues to an almost 40-year search for the women's killer. It seems key evidence keeps the case open as investigators look to uncover the truth in a winter wonderland.

48 Hours
KDBC 9 p.m.

This newsmagazine investigates fascinating crime and justice cases that touch on all aspects of the human experience. Over its long run, the show has helped exonerate wrongly convicted people, and driven the reopening — and resolution — of cold cases.

Austin City Limits
KRWG 9 p.m.

In this season premiere the ACL stage welcomes Grammy winning guitar duo Rodrigo y Gabriela in a one-of-a-kind performance featuring the Austin Symphony Orchestra. Rodrigo y Gabriela are touring in support of their most recent album release.

Jasmine and Gino in "90 Day Fiancé"

America's Funniest Home Videos
KVIA 6 p.m.

Alfonso Ribeiro hosts another new episode of this series, crowned the network's longest running primetime entertainment show. Filled with funny animal videos and pranks-gone-wrong, this series airs footage sent in from viewers at home.

90 Day Fiancé
TLC 6 p.m.

Season 10 commences, checking in with these globetrotting couples as their weddings approach. There are cultural and language differences to face, but with a ticking clock, these modern "mail order" pairs must decide if it's all worth the ring.

The Walking Dead:
Daryl Dixon
AMC 7 p.m.

Leaving The Commonwealth hasn't exactly made things easier for Daryl Dixon (Norman Reedus) as he finds himself in France, causing concern in a growing movement centered in Paris and endangering a young boy at the center of a benevolent religious movement.

The Circus: Inside the Greatest Political Show on Earth
SHOW 8 p.m.

Season 8 returns with John Heilemann, Mark McKinnon and Jenn Palmieri as they take a look at the new era of presidential politics, with its partisan overtones and questionable characters. The new normal is intense, inspiring and infuriating.

Snapped
OXYGEN 9 p.m.

Theresa Lund and her newborn son, Paul, went missing in 1996. About the same time, Kim Hardy was claiming to have given birth to a boy. When a guest at a baby shower suspects foul play, police are in a race against time to rescue the pair and stop Hardy.

Billions
SHOW 9 p.m.

Mike Prince's (Corey Still) latest political stunt promises to strengthen his base, but it puts Philip (Toney Goins) in a tough spot. Then Chuck (Paul Giamatti) and Wendy (Maggie Siff) face a crisis from Senior's (Jeffrey DeMunn) poor judgment.

We specialize in wedding and event planning, arrangements for holidays, special occasions, and the everyday!

Your choice, your vote counts

Your participation in the upcoming November election matters! Your choices, your vote counts! With the November 7th election right around the corner and early voting beginning on October 10th, know beyond any shadow of a doubt that your vote matters. My father, as perhaps you have often heard me say, was diligent in voting and when I became of voting age took me down to get registered. I remember my first election standing in line with him and hearing him telling me what a great privilege we have as Americans to be able to participate in our wonderful democratic process we have in this country.

As you see the ads for candidates and listen to the information for the election, I am certain you have become aware of the new Ranked Choice Voting for the City of Las Cruces mayoral and council elections. The Chamber, along with the other Chambers, and other organizations are making it a priority to do our best to educate our community on Ranked Choice Voting. While it sounds complex, we hope to simplify it for our voters. Here is a quick synopsis as distributed by the Doña Ana County Clerk's office:

Ranked Choice Voting is also known as "Instant Runoff." Runoffs are very ex-selection. It's important to know that this Ranked Choice Voting ONLY applies to the City of Las Cruces mayoral and council elections. It does NOT apply to any other elections, including Las Cruces School Board. You will also notice your ballot has consolidated from can rank each of these candidates from 1 to however many candidates are in that particular race.

1. Mark your first choice. If you would like to vote for more than one candidate, it is YOUR CHOICE, not a requirement. If you choose to rank other candidates, then you are participating in the Run-Off Election should after the initial round, no candidate receives 50 percent plus 1.

If you wish for a candidate not to be elected, DO NOT rank them at all.

2. If no one has 50 percent plus 1 of the vote on the first ballot, the person with the least number of votes is eliminated. Their next choice is distributed to the other candidates. If someone then has 50 percent plus 1 of the vote, they are elected. If no one has 50 percent plus 1 of the vote, the person with the next least number of votes is eliminated and their next choice vote is distributed to the other candidates.

pensive, so deploying Ranked Choice Voting can save a lot of money. Few people show up to vote in Run Off elections, so the process also increases the number of voters who participate in the final other separate elections, i.e. Soil & Water, etc.

Example: When Las Cruces residents get their ballot, you will see candidates for mayor and councilors. There will be columns where you

3. The process continues until a candidate has 50 percent plus one vote.

This process suggests that the winning candidate will have support, in one degree or another, from 50 percent plus 1 of voters.

Additionally, you will see the Doña Ana Community College obligation bond questions. The Greater Las Cruces Chamber of Commerce is in full support of the continuation of this bond. It is important to know that there is no increase in the tax rate. For detailed information, please feel free to contact us here at the Chamber or directly at Doña Ana Community College.

For all information pertaining to registration, absentee ballots, early voting and day-of voting, please go to www.donaanacountyelections.com/election-information/ for detailed information and dates. If you would like more information, regarding Ranked Choice Voting go to www.lascruces.gov/1303/Municipal-Elections.

Yes, this election ballot is different. Yes, we have a lot of candidates. The important thing to remember is YOUR CHOICE, YOUR VOTE counts. Register to vote, educate yourself on candidates and issues and most important, VOTE.

FROM THE AMBASSADOR CHAIR

As an Ambassador with the Greater Las Cruces Chamber of Commerce I have had the opportunity to participate and volunteer at events throughout the year.

For the past 10 years, I have volunteered at and served on the committee for Thanks Team WSMR. This event is very meaningful and serves a great purpose. We put together an afternoon of fun, food and entertainment for all White Sands Missile Range civilians and military personnel. Numerous local Las Cruces restaurants donate food and hand out samples to all attendees. We have an area for kids complete with bouncy balloons, yard games and face painting. There is also a prize area and each attendee receives a "prize" donated by a Las Cruces business.

This year the event will be held October 19, at White Sands Missile Range. It's great to see the Las Cruces community come together to thank the folks at White Sands Missile Range for their service and their support of our city.

If you are interested in volunteering, donating or would like to get involved next year, please reach out to me for more information at lyndsay@suncapitalhotels.com.

Thank you to this year's Chair of Thanks Team WSMR, Tyler Overberger for all of your hard work and dedication to this great event.

On Friday, Sept. 15, the Greater Las Cruces Chamber of Commerce held a ribbon cutting to welcome Pinnacle Propane, 3275 W. Picacho Ave, as a new member. Connie McKinley, Customer Care Supervisor, held the proclamation while Chris Olsen, District Manager, cut the ribbon.

“Last One Standing” - Season 2 (Oct. 10)

Hosted by the popular and dynamic Japanese comedy duo, Chidori, this competition series sees comedians and talents engage in intense verbal battles to advance to the next stage, where they take on roles in a thrilling drama alongside seasoned actors. As a portion of the drama remains unscripted, the cast must share their stories in their own words. If their jokes fall flat during these unscripted scenes, they face elimination from the show.

“The Fall of the House of Usher” - Season 1 (Oct. 12)

From Mike Flanagan, the creator of “The Haunting of Hill House” and “Midnight Mass,” this wicked horror series is based on the works of Edgar Allan Poe. Ruthless siblings Roderick (Zach Gilford, Bruce Greenwood) and Madeline Usher (Willa Fitzgerald, Mary McDonnell) have built Fortunato Pharmaceuticals into an empire of wealth, privilege and power. But past secrets come to light when the heirs to the Usher dynasty start dying at the hands of a mysterious woman from their youth.

“Good Night World” - Season 1 (Oct. 12)

Based on the original manga by Uru Okabe, this new anime series is a story about four members of the same broken family who find peace in a game called “Planet.” The catch is: they don't know about each other. As the story unfolds hidden things are discovered about each member and about the relation the virtual world has with reality and how they affect one another.

“Movie: The Conference” (Oct. 13)

This Swedish comedy slasher film follows a teambuilding conference attended by municipal employees. But, as it spirals into a nightmare when accusations of corruption begin to circulate and plague the work environment, a mysterious figure begins stalking and murdering the participants.

“Billy the Kid” - Season 2, Part 1 (MGM+ — Oct. 15, Season Premiere)

An epic romantic adventure based on the life of Billy the Kid (Tom Blyth), from his humble Irish roots and his early days as a cowboy and gunslinger in the American frontier, to his pivotal role in the Lincoln County War and beyond.

“Wolf Like Me” - Season 2 (Peacock — Oct. 19, Season Premiere)

This series' second season follows Mary (Isla Fisher) and Gary (Josh Gad) as they leap into the next phase of their relationship and face their biggest challenge yet: pregnancy. As much as they try to have a 'normal' pregnancy, it seems impossible with so many questions looming over them. When Mary's former professor, Anton (Edgar Ramirez), suddenly reappears in her life, new secrets from Mary's past are revealed.

“Bodies” (Netflix — Oct. 19, Miniseries Premiere)

Four detectives. Four timelines. One body. Based on the mind-bending graphic novel by Si Spencer, this eight-episode series is a police procedural with a twist. When a body — the same body — is found on Longharvest Lane in London's East End in 1890, 1941, 2023 and 2053, one detective from each period must investigate. As connections are drawn across the decades, the detectives soon discover their investigations are linked, and an enigmatic political leader — Elias Mannix (Stephen Graham) — becomes increasingly central. Jacob Fortune-Lloyd, Shira Haas, Amaka Okafor, Kyle Soller and Tom Mothersdale star.

“The Pigeon Tunnel” (Apple TV+ — Oct. 20, Documentary Premiere)

Academy Award-winning documentarian Errol Morris pulls back the curtain on the storied life and career of former British spy David Cornwell — better known as John le Carré, author of such classic espionage novels as “The Spy Who Came in from the Cold,” “Tinker Tailor Soldier Spy” and “The Constant Gardener.” Set against the turbulent backdrop of the Cold War leading into present day, the film spans six decades as le Carré delivers his final and most candid interview, punctuated with rare archival footage and dramatized vignettes.

tonight's picks

Will Arnett from "Snake Oil"

The Real Housewives of Orange County BRAVO 6 p.m.

It's deja vu all over again with Vicki Gunvalson, Shannon Beador and Tamra Judge back as the Tres Amigas. But even when they try to find peace, things sometimes fall to pieces in Orange County.

Survivor KDBC 7 p.m.

Survivors ready? Jeff Probst hosts a new episode of this brutal competition, which follows as a group of hopeful competitors are left on a remote island and must face challenges, evading elimination from their tribe in order to win a million-dollar prize.

Celebrity Jeopardy! KVIA 7 p.m.

Jeopardy superstar Ken Jennings hosts Season 2 of this star-studded show, airing a new episode tonight featuring celebrity contestants Christopher Meloni, Sherri Shepherd and Katie Nolan. This season's winner receives $1 million for a charity of their choice.

Are You There God? It's Me, Margaret. STARZ 7 p.m.

When 11-year-old Margaret (Abby Ryder Fortson) moves to a new town, she begins to contemplate life, friendship and adolescence. Relying on her mother, Barbara (Rachel McAdams), and grandmother, Sylvia (Kathy Bates), they grow closer searching for meaning.

Expedition Bigfoot DSC 8 p.m.

What was that? After hearing strange whistles, Ronny and Mireya decide to launch a sound trap for some answers. Then Russell finds himself with no escape after tracking a possible Bigfoot. And Bryce learns a witness was withholding terrifying information.

Magnum P.I. KTSM 8 p.m.

A new episode airs from Season 5, following as a Navy-SEAL-turned-private-investigator works to solve cases across Hawaii, paired with his ex-M16 partner and a few trusted buddies, all of whom are ready and willing to lend a helping hand (or helicopter) when needed.

Snake Oil KFOX 8 p.m.

Contestants must choose the real product between a pair of entrepreneurs pitching unique (if not bizarre) products via visuals and infomercials — one of which is totally fake. With the help of a celebrity advisor, the contestants must decide who is real.

Secrets of the Dead KRWG 9 p.m.

With 20 seasons worth of mysteries explored, this documentary series airs a brand-new episode, this time diving into sunken treasures as a survey flight over Turkey's Lake Iznik unexpectedly reveals the preserved remains of a fourth-century basilica.

“Movie: Mr. Dressup: The Magic of Make-Believe” (Oct. 10)

This documentary tells the story of Canada's favorite children's show, Mr. Dressup, which built a legacy of kindness, patience, inclusiveness, and creativity in 4,000 episodes across 29 years on CBC. With never-before-seen footage and interviews, the documentary reveals Ernie Coombs' two passions: Entertaining others with childlike wonderment and kindness, and the love for his wife and family, who were his support system and biggest fans.

“Movie: Awareness” (Oct. 11)

Ian (Carlos Scholz), a rebellious teenager living on the outskirts of society, can manipulate minds with his ability to generate visual illusions. He uses this power to survive, running small, indiscreet scams. When one of his cons goes awry, his abilities publicly spiral out of control and Ian becomes the target of two rival organizations, each seeking to exploit his powers. María Pedraza, Pedro Alonso, Oscar Jaenada and Lela Loren also star.

“Movie: The Burial” (Oct. 13)

Inspired by true events, when a handshake deal goes sour, funeral homeowner Jeremiah O'Keefe (Tommy Lee Jones) enlists charismatic, smooth-talking attorney Willie E. Gary (Jamie Foxx) to save his family business. Tempers flare and laughter ensues as the unlikely pair bond while exposing corporate corruption and racial injustice in this inspirational, triumphant story.

“Everybody Loves Diamonds” (Oct. 13)

This Italian heist series with a comedic twist is inspired by the 2003 “Antwerp Diamond Heist”, dubbed “the world's largest theft of diamonds” by media around the world. The eight-part series follows a team of small-time Italian thieves, led by Leonardo Notarbartolo (Kim Rossi Stuart), who manage to deceive top-level security with a genius plan and steal millions of dollars' worth of precious stones from the Antwerp Diamond Centre.

Warren Kole in "Yellowjackets"

"YELLOWJACKETS: SEASON TWO"

The sophomore round of the widely acclaimed Showtime drama series opens with deaths challenging the emotional equilibrium of the surviving soccer-team players both in the past and the present day. In each time period, Shauna (played by Melanie Lynskey as an adult and Sophie Nelisse in younger years) shows more of her true colors as she participates in attempted cover-ups. Also, the contemporary Natalie (Juliette Lewis) finds herself in big trouble at a commune. The cast also includes Tawny Cypress, Christina Ricci, Lauren Ambrose, Sophie Thatcher, Samantha Hanratty, Liv Hewson, Steven Krueger and Warren Kole. This season currently is nominated for a Primetime Emmy Award as outstanding drama series, as is Lynskey for her work in it. ★★★ (Not rated: AS, P, V) (Also on Blu-ray)

"SNOW WHITE AND THE SEVEN DWARFS"

One of the most beloved of all animated films (and the first such feature from its studio) comes to 4K Ultra HD in Walt Disney's 1937 interpretation of the classic story, which sees the charming princess Snow White (voiced by Adriana Caselotti) win the hearts of virtually everyone she encounters – except for her stepmother, a wicked queen (voice of Lucille La Verne), who intends to use a poisoned apple to put her perceived rival to sleep permanently. Besides a well-timed kiss from a handsome prince, the only hope for Snow may be assistance from a septet of dwarfs she has won over to her side quite easily. For the sake of naming them, they are (all together now): Doc, Sneezy, Grumpy, Happy, Bashful, Sleepy and Dopey. The picture's legacy only has grown over the years, with theme-park rides and a successful stage musical among its offshoots. A 4K Ultra HD Steelbook edition of the movie also is available. ★★★ (G)

"THE BOOGEYMAN"

Though movies based on Stephen King stories aren't as plentiful as they once were, this thriller is one of the latest. A family that has lost its matriarch is plagued by an evil force – known as The Boogeyman – that they were warned about by a man (David Dastmalchian) who died under mysterious circumstances soon afterward, with different members of the clan experiencing

"ROSEMARY'S BABY"

A classic chiller from genre-staple producer William Castle makes its 4K Ultra HD debut in time for Halloween, as director Roman Polanski's 1968 version of Ira Levin's best seller casts Mia Farrow – who had become hugely popular through her work on television's "Peyton Place" – as a young wife whose senior-citizen neighbors show an extraordinary interest in her. And actually not only in her, but also in her forthcoming child, for reasons that are quite unsettling once they're exposed. Co-star Ruth Gordon won an Oscar for her performance, and she's joined by such other veteran talents as Sidney Blackmer, Maurice Evans (in the same year he was Dr. Zaius in the original "Planet of the Apes") and Ralph Bellamy. John Cassavetes plays Farrow's husband; Charles Grodin made his movie debut here. ★★★ (Not rated: AS, P, V)

"SNIPER: G.R.I.T."

The action series that has continued with direct-to-video releases puts forth another adventure, with Chad Michael Collins returning as a veteran shooter who now belongs to a Global Response & Intelligence Team ... or G.R.I.T. The members' target is a terrorist group determined to upset international political relations, making Malta a potential battleground between the two sides. Dennis Haysbert (no stranger to such stories, thanks to the series "24" and "The Unit"), Ryan Robbins and Josh Brener also appear. ★★ (R: P, GV) (Also on Digital)

Pipelines In Your Community

The City of Las Cruces is committed to the safe operation of its pipelines in your community. From our Control Centers we use state of the art technology to continuously monitor the operation of our pipelines 24 hours each day, seven days a week. Our pipelines are designed, installed, tested, operated and maintained in accordance with all applicable Federal and State requirements. The City of Las Cruces maintains our safe, compliant and efficient pipelines by routine inspections, corrosion protection, maintenance and testing programs, employee training, and public education. Public education includes educational meetings with excavating contractors, emergency response officials and other appropriate public officials and distribution of these informational flyers.

Tuberías en su Comunidad

La Ciudad de Las Cruces está comprometida en la operación segura de sus tuberías en su comunidad. Desde nuestros Centros de Control usamos tecnología de punta para monitorear continuamente la operación de nuestras tuberías, las 24 horas del día, los siete días de la semana. Nuestras tuberías están diseñadas, instaladas, probadas y mantenidas de acuerdo con todos los requisitos Federales y Estatales aplicables. La Ciudad de Las Cruces mantiene nuestras tuberías seguras, listas y eficientes por medio de inspecciones de rutina, protección contra la corrosión, programas de mantenimiento y de prueba, capacitación de empleados y educación pública. La educación pública incluye reuniones educativas con contratistas en excavaciones, oficiales de respuesta de emergencia y otros oficiales públicos apropiados, y la distribución de estos volantes informativos.

How To Work Around Our Pipeline

We need your help in preventing pipeline emergencies. The number one cause of pipeline leaks is damage from earth-moving and construction equipment and tools owned by parties other than the pipeline company. If you plan to dig or do any type of excavation or construction work, call New Mexico One Call (NMOC) toll free at 811. A City of Las Cruces representative will locate and mark the underground gas lines at no cost to you. Call at least 48 hours (excluding weekends and holidays) before you dig. Even if you haven't provided advance notification, please contact us immediately if you dig and hit or touch a pipeline – even if you should cause what seems to be only minor damage to the pipeline – contact us immediately. A gouge, dent, crease, or scrape may cause a future safety problem.

Cómo Trabajar Alrededor De Nuestra Tubería

Necesitamos de su ayuda para evitar emergencias en las tuberías. La causa número uno de las fugas en las tuberías es el daño provocado por el movimiento de la tierra y el equipo y herramientas de construcción propiedad de otras partes diferentes a la compañía de la tubería. Si usted tiene planes para cavar o hacer cualquier tipo de excavación o trabajo de construcción, llame al Centro de Una Llamada de Nuevo Mexico gratuitamente al 811. Un representante de la Ciudad de Las Cruces localizará y marcará las líneas de gas subterráneas sin costo para usted. Llame por lo menos 48 horas (excluir los fines de semana y los días de descanso) antes de excavar. Aunque no haya enviado una notificación por adelantado, por favor comuníquese con nosotros inmediatamente si excava y golpea toca una tubería – aunque cause lo que parezca un daño menor a la tubería – comuníquese con nosotros inmediatamente. Una abolladura, pliegue o rayadura puede causar un futuro problema de seguridad.

Your Partner In Pipeline Safety

The City of Las Cruces cares about your safety. We design, install, test, operate, and maintain our pipelines to meet or exceed regulatory standards. Our employees are thoroughly trained to operate and maintain the system safely. We want you to be aware of our pipeline. We ask for your help in preventing accidental damage to it.

Su Socio En La Seguridad De Las Tuberías

La Ciudad de Las Cruces se preocupa por su seguridad. Nosotros diseñamos, instalamos, probamos, operamos y mantenemos nuestras tuberías para cumplir o exceder las normas reguladoras. Nuestros empleados están totalmente capacitados para operar y mantener el sistema en forma segura. Deseamos que esté usted consciente de nuestra tubería. Le solicitamos su ayuda para prevenir un daño accidental.

How To Identify Where The Pipeline Is Located

Since pipelines are buried underground, line markers are sometimes used to indicate the approximate – not exact – location of the pipeline. Line markers can be found where the pipeline intersects a street, highway, or railroad. However, they cannot be relied upon to indicate the exact position of the pipeline. The pipeline may not follow a straight course between markers, which provide no information on the depth or number of pipelines in the vicinity. Don't try to guess the pipeline's location or route by the marker's placement. Call New Mexico One Call (NMOC) at 811.

Cómo Identificar Dónde Está Ubicada La Línea De Tubería

Ya que las líneas de tubería se encuentran bajo tierra, a veces se usan marcas para indicar de manera aproximada –no exacta– la localización de la línea. Los marcadores de las líneas pueden ser encontrados en donde la línea de la tubería intersecta a una calle, carretera o vía del ferrocarril. Sin embargo, no son confiables para indicar la posición exacta de la línea de la tubería. La tubería puede no seguir un curso derecho entre dos marcas, lo cual no proporciona información de la profundidad o el número de líneas en la vecindad. No trate de adivinar la localización de la línea o ruta por la ubicación del marcador de las líneas de la tubería, llame al Centro de Una Llamada de Nuevo Mexico 811.

If you are a public safety official...

...you know to take whatever steps you deem necessary to safeguard the public in the event of a pipeline emergency.

The following suggestions are offered as a guide:

- Secure the area around the leak to a safe distance. This could include the evacuation of people from homes, businesses, schools, and other locations, as well as the erection of barricades to control access to the emergency site and similar precautions.
- If the pipeline leak is not burning, take steps to prevent ignition. This includes prohibiting smoking, rerouting traffic, and shutting off the electricity.
- If the pipeline leak is burning, try to prevent the spread of fire but do not attempt to extinguish it. Burning petroleum products will not explode. If the fire is extinguished, gas or vapor will collect and could explode when reignited by secondary fires.
- Contact the pipeline company as quickly as possible. Pipeline marker signs show the pipeline company's name, emergency telephone number, and pipeline contents.

Si Usted Es Un Oficial De Seguridad Publica...

...sabe que debe tomar las medidas necesarias para proteger al público en caso de una emergencia relacionada a una tubería.

Le ofrecemos las siguiente sugerencias como guía.

- Asegure el área alrededor del escape hasta una distancia segura. Esto podría incluir la evacuación de la gente de los hogares, los negocios, las escuelas, y otros lugares, también la instalación de barreras para controlar el acceso a la zona de emergencia y otras precauciones similares.
- Si el escape de la tubería no esta ardiendo, tome las medidas necesarias para evitar la combustión. Esto incluye prohibir fumar, desviar el tránsito y cortar las fuentes de electricidad.
- Si el escape de la tubería esta ardiendo, trate de prevenir la propagación del fuego pero no trate de extinguirlo. Los productos del petróleo en combustión no explotan. Si se extingue el fuego, puede haber una acumulación de gas o vapor y estos pueden explotar si un fuego secundario causara su combustión.
- Comuníquese con la compañía operadora de la tubería lo antes posible. Los marcadores de las tuberías muestran el nombre de la compañía, el teléfono de emergencia, y el contenido de la tubería.

Exploring psychedelics

BULLETIN REPORT

A new Las Cruces non-profit, Sol Tryp, is sponsoring a movie showing and panel discussion “to help raise awareness about psychedelic medicine,” said board member Lee-Ann Meadows.

“Dosed: A part of a Lifetime” will be shown at 2 p.m. (doors open at 1 p.m.) Saturday, Oct. 7, at the Fountain Theatre, 2469 Calle de Guadalupe, in Mesilla.

Tickets are $20 in advance and $25 at the door. For tickets, visit Sol Tryp on Facebook.

The movie will be followed by a panel discussion about psychedelic medicine in healthcare and decriminalization of plant medicine with the indigenous perspective, Meadows said. It will include healthcare providers and founders of Sol Tryp, Deborah Thorne, DMSc (doctor of medical science); Hector Lerma, MD; and University of New Mexico law student Colman McCanna.

All three are members of the New Mexico Psychedelic Science Society and Decriminalize Psychedelics New Mexico, Meadows said. Other panelists are Tony Grenko, a Las Cruces licensed clinical social worker in private practice, and Alan Olacio Tatewari, “who is deeply connected with indigenous elders in México using hikuri (peyote) and assists in their ceremonies,” Meadows said.

Sol Tryp, Inc.’s mission is “to provide safe and medically sound healing experiences to individuals and groups by way of specialized funding, research, education and reciprocity,” according to its website.

About the movie

“When Laurie Brooks, a 53-year-old mother of four, develops terminal cancer and is given six-12 months to live, she is riddled with anxiety. The biggest question that looms over her is, ‘Will her family be ok after she is gone?’ Raised as an evangelical Christian and a graduate of seminary school, Brooks has never done drugs in her life. She is one of the first four people the Canadian government grants permission to use psilocybin, known commonly as magic mushrooms. As part of a supervised therapy, she sets intentions and goes on a journey. Alternating between her fears and wonder, she emerges a changed person and is open to trying cannabis oil as part of her cancer treatment. Brooks admits, ‘If someone would have told me I’d become an advocate for magic mushrooms, I’d have told them they were nuts. That’s the stupidest thing I’ve ever heard. And yet here I am.’ Sweeping views of the beautiful British Columbia forest punctuate this film. Dosed also features Gabor Maté and Paul Stamets, Laurie Brooks husband, Glenn Brooks, her three children, her therapist and nurse that led her on her psychedelic journeys.”

For more information, contact Sol Tryp at 575-570-1438 and info@soltryp.org. Visit www.soltryp.org.

LAS CRUCES DANCE COMPANY

‘Ten Gallon’

BULLETIN REPORT

Dark Circles Contemporary Dance Company of Las Cruces will host the world premiere of its production “Ten-Gallon” Thursday-Sunday, Oct. 12-15, at Pebble Hills High School’s Black Box Theatre, 14400 Pebble Hills Blvd. in El Paso.

Performances are 7:30 p.m. Thursday-Saturday, Oct. 12-14, and 2 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 15.

Tickets are $25 for the 80-minute show.

“Ten Gallon” is “a captivating and innovative contemporary dance production,” said Dark Circles founder and artist director Joshua L. Peugh.

“Ten Gallon” is “a groundbreaking exploration of movement, narrative and humanity inspired by the allure of the American West. It delves into the intricate tapestry of the western frontier, weaving together themes of courage, resilience and the human spirit.”

The production “showcases the exceptional talents of our internationally acclaimed and local dancers as they translate the spirit of the West into a mesmerizing dance narrative,” Peugh said. “The choreography seamlessly fuses contemporary dance with elements of western imagery, inviting the audience on a transformative journey that transcends time and tradition.”

The nonprofit Dark Circles was founded in 2010 by Peugh and Cho Hyun Sang in Seoul, South Korea. Since its inception, the company has become a trailblazer in contemporary dance. It moved to Las Cruces in 2021.

For tickets and more information, visit www.darkcirclescontemporary-dance.com.

'True West' opens Friday night

BULLETIN REPORT

"True West" by Sam Shepard opens at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 6, for a three-weekend run at Las Cruces Community Theatre (LCCT), 313 N. Main St.

Directed by Michael Wise, the cast includes Ben Ramsey, Nick Check, Matthew Esqueda and Claudia Billings.

Performances are 7:30 p.m. Friday-Saturday, Oct. 6-7, 13-14 and 20-21; and 2 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 8, 15 and 22. Ticket prices range from $12-$20.

"Written in the early 1980s, this play seems particularly prescient given the current preoccupation or concern with what is 'real' and 'authentic' versus what is manufactured or perceived to be real; the news on the television, the images on computers created by AI, the bold lies about facts that we all experience and share," Wise said. "It questions fundamental things like personal identity, what it means to be a man, and the mutability of memory."

Charley Davis returns as stage manager for "True West." Doug Roby is the set designer, Alecks Rundell the lighting designer, Wise the sound designer, Darin Cabot the fight choreographer, Lennie Brown the props and costume designer and Olive Flores, who is the stagehand.

Visit www.lcctnm.org to purchase tickets in advance. Tickets will also be available at the LCCT box office before each performance.

'Trio Reveron' plays Hotel Encanto Oct. 11

BULLETIN REPORT

El Paso Pro-Musica (EPPM) kicks off its 2023-24 season in Las Cruces with "Trio Reverón," performing at 6 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 11, at Hotel Encanto, 705 S. Telshor Blvd.

Tickets are $25, with military and student discounts, and are available at eppm.org (click on "Shows & Tickets" and scroll down to "Trio Reveron at Mezcla") or by calling EPPM at 915-747-8163.

The trio consists of Simon Gollo, violin; Horacio Contreras, piano; and Ana Maria Otamendi, piano.

Gollo is no stranger to Las Cruces, having served as the New Mexico State University philharmonic conductor for six years.

The trio's main goal is to introduce audiences to underrepresented music from Latin America alongside contemporary and standard repertoire, EPPM said in a news release.

"These seasoned artists are active promoters of Latin American music through their work as scholars and entrepreneurs, and they have devoted their careers to the discovery of music from their native Venezuela and throughout Latin America," EPPM said.

The concert celebrates National Hispanic Heritage month.

"I am thrilled to present this young dynamic Trio with their incredible unique sound and their commitment to Latin American classics," said EPPM Artistic Director Zuill Bailey.

Agave hosts Williams

BULLETIN REPORT

October Agave Artists Gallery artist of the month is Barbara Williams.

Williams began making functional pottery in 1980, the gallery said in a news release. Her plates, bowls, and mugs are all table safe and can be used in the oven, microwave and dishwasher.

Williams' home studio includes an electric wheel and kilns. She makes her own glazes, which are food-safe and lead-free. Her decorative items, crystal pottery, are not food safe.

Williams will do an artist demonstration noon-1 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 21, in the Agave Gallery courtyard, 2250 Calle de San Albino in Mesilla. The event is free and open to the public.

Agave Gallery is open 11 a.m.-5 p.m. Friday-Monday. Call 575-339-9870. Visit aga-veartists.com.

ALR series looks at 'Nuclear New Mexico'

BULLETIN REPORT

The Academy for Learning in Retirement's (ALR) October Zoom series focuses on "Nuclear New Mexico," ALR said in a news release.

The series will explore the decision to place the Manhattan Project in New Mexico, the consequences of nuclear activities in Los Alamos, the responses of New Mexicans living downwind from the Trinity Site explosion, uranium mining and the Navajo people and the role of nuclear energy in climate change and national energy strategies.

Myrriah Gómez, Ph.D., an assistant professor in the University of New Mexico Honors College and author of "Nuclear Nuevo México: Colonialism and the Effects of the Nuclear Industrial Complex on Nuevomexicanos," will present the first two sessions, Monday, Oct. 9, and Wednesday, Oct. 11.

GOMEZ

Gómez will discuss "nuclear colonialism in New Mexico" and Trinity Site downwinders and radiation exposure.

Monday, Oct. 16, the presenter will be Marsha Weisiger, Ph.D., associate professor in the University of Oregon (UO) Department of History, author of "Dreaming of Sheep in Navajo Country," holder of the Julie and Rocky Dixon Chair of U.S. Western History at UO and co-director of the Center for Environmental Futures. Weisiger will focus on uranium mining on the Navajo Reservation.

Wednesday, Oct. 18, James Conca, Ph.D., will conclude the series, discussing "Mitigating Climate Change – Do We Have a Plan B?" Conca is a trustee of the Herbert M. Parker Foundation at Washington State University (WSU) and science contributor to Forbes, with 40 years of experiences as a consultant to NASA, WSU, NMSU and Los Alamos, Pacific Northwest and Lawrence Livermore national labs.

All sessions will be live presented on Zoom, 10:30 a.m.-noon and recorded for later viewing.

The cost is $20 for a single month or $48 for the four fall months (16 sessions).

Register at dacc.nmsu.edu/academics/programs/academy-learning-in-retirement/.

ALR offers presentations from September through May each year. The presentations are often given by current or retired NMSU faculty and staff members, along with other experts.

BCC exhibit celebrates 'Souls'

S. VLAUN PHOTO

Icons of All Saints Day and All Souls Day will be on display at Branigan Cultural Center through Dec. 30.

BULLETIN REPORT

Branigan Cultural Center (BCC) will open a new exhibit, "A Celebration of Souls: Day of the Dead in Southern Mexico," Friday, Oct. 6, at BCC, 501 N. Main St.

The exhibit explores the history, heritage and traditions of Día de los Muertos (Day of the Dead) celebrations in Oaxaca, Mexico, the City of Las Cruces said in a news release. It features 26 photographs that capture a typical Oaxacan Day of the Dead celebration.

The exhibit, which continues at BCC through Saturday, Dec. 30, was developed by The Field Museum of Natural History in Chicago.

"Each Nov. 1 and 2, on the Christian holidays of All Saints Day and All Souls Day, families in villages across Mexico gather to welcome home the visiting spirits of departed relatives on Día de los Muertos," the city said. "The photographs in this exhibition show Oaxacan villagers immersed in all aspects of traditional celebrations, which often include decorating burial plots, lively family reunions and the preparation of special foods. Altars are created in honor of the deceased that feature skeleton models, elaborate wreaths and crosses, votive lights and fresh seasonal flowers. Day of the Dead is both a personal and communal celebration of life with public processions, offerings of foods and personal reminiscences."

BCC is open 10 a.m.-4:30 p.m. Tuesday-Friday and 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m. Saturday. There is no admission charge. Call 575-541-2154. Visit www.lascruces.gov/museums.

'Artistas de la Fronterizas' opens

BULLETIN REPORT

The Las Cruces Museum of Art (MOA), 491 N. Main St., will host "Artistas de la Fronterizas – Borderland Contemporary Artists," beginning Friday, Oct. 6.

The exhibit will include 16 contemporary artists from Las Cruces, El Paso and Ciudad Juárez who "come together in this colorful and expressive exhibit to showcase their work as prominent borderland artists," the City of Las Cruces said in a news release.

An opening reception will be 5-7 p.m. Friday, Oct. 6, at MOA, with artists in attendance to discuss their work and respective experiences.

The exhibit continues through Saturday, Dec. 16.

Participating artists were selected from a 2021 MOA call for artists focusing on artists with Hispanic and Latino origins.

Artists will showcase their newest work in Artistas de la Fronterizas

"using a variety of unique, symbolic and meaningful pieces that reflect their work as regionally distinct artists and their experiences as part of a minoritized community that has shaped their perspective as artists," the news release said. Works include 2D pieces using watercolor, monotype, oil, acrylic, pastels, photography, handcrafted mixed mediums and more.

For more information, call 575-541-2137. Visit www.lascruces.gov/museums.

Finding the holy sitting on your bicycle seat

We've got to be grateful for the American bicycle industry. In less than 50 years, great new bike companies have sprung up, succeeded, and continue to be technological and design leaders. This alone is testimony not only to the rising number of cyclists, but to the viability of cycling as what we have always hoped it would be: a major form of transportation.

Cycling ought not to be approached as exercise. We'll never develop the mental platform to see cycling simply as part of life if we continue to sideline it as recreation. That's one legacy of the car culture. We get convinced that, when we grow big, we drive cars. Bikes are for kids. What a loss.

I commute by bike for all my basic needs. Shops, banks, restaurants, doctors, dentists, NMSU.

If I need to buy a refrigerator, that's a different story, but my normal mode of transport is the bicycle. I suppose it's exercise, but that's not the point. Life at 14 miles an hour gives you time to think, meditate, drink in your surroundings, find your rhythm.

Funny how the growth of automobile culture led to a faster pace of life. We live at warp speed, though we do not recognize it anymore. For younger people the sense of rush must be more intense. To ease up such an assault upon the psyche, some folks find solace in drugs, others in alcohol, sex, the usual suspects.

GABRIEL ROCHELLE

Tales from the Cassock

Take a bike ride. A ride to the supermarket or many miles farther. Once you get used to it (again, perhaps?) cycling becomes part of you. Cycling and walking occur at a human pace. That is not the frenetic anxiety-laden rat race many of us choose or are forced to run.

Even though I'm riding alongside motor vehicles, even though there can be distractions – things cyclists notice, a screwdriver in the gutter, a new “for rent” sign – I am in my monastery. There is no requirement for brick and mortar to make this monastery. You can do it in your heart, and you can find the silence that is below and above the noises that crowd into our lives. You can find solace and cultivate inner peace on the seat of your bicycle.

On that seat you are rooted in your community if you choose to be. You learn every street, pothole, and major crack in the road, but along with the smells, you learn the culture where you're planted. The learning plants you deeper.

Cyclists are a community within a community. We talk over coffee, tea, water, beer.

Most of the time our talk is not just about bikes, in fact may be not about bikes at all. It may be philosophical or political. Or simply, how's your daughter in Montana? Your sick uncle in Wisconsin? Cyclists care by their presence and they are prepared to care even more if needed.

You may have noticed (after all these years of columns) that my spirituality is tied up with dirt and kinship, with material and relational stuff.

I find the holy in those arenas.

Not in some sky, pie or not. Cycling is a way of meditation upon just that truth.

You may think I'm a romantic with my talk of cycling. I'm not. Honest. I do not gush about cycling. I see it as part of a solution to a handful of personal, societal, and environmental problems we've not sufficiently addressed.

So go on. Take a bike ride. Take the first step toward a different level of engagement with your world.

Breast cancer: Be aware and take action

EDITOR'S NOTE: In recognition of Breast Cancer Awareness Month, Liz Lopez, Breast Health Navigator at Memorial Medical Center's Women's Imaging Center, answers some of the most frequently asked questions concerning this form of cancer. See more information on breast cancer awareness on Page 34 and in Arts on Page XX.

Why is Breast Cancer Awareness Month so important?

The average woman's risk of breast cancer is around 13 percent in the U.S. – meaning about one in eight women will be diagnosed with invasive breast cancer in her lifetime. In fact, breast cancer is the most common form of cancer among American women, besides skin cancers. Breast cancer is also the second leading cause of cancer death in women, superseded only by lung cancer. According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), about 264,000 women are diagnosed with breast cancer each year in the U.S., and roughly 42,000 women die as a result.

What are the risk factors?

Arguably, the biggest risk factor for developing breast cancer is aging, but it's important to remember all women – no matter their age – can develop breast cancer. This means you may need to begin annual screenings sooner if you are at higher risk of developing the disease. Important risk factors to consider include genetic mutations, having dense breasts, a family history of breast cancer, a lack of physical activity, and being overweight after menopause, among others. Talk with your provider about your risk factors and ask about the best time for you to begin regular breast health screenings.

What are the symptoms?

There are many types of breast cancer, and they can present with a variety of warning signs. Some of these signs may include a new lump in the breast or underarm, any change in the size or shape of the breast, breast skin irritation, pain in any area of the breast, and discharge other than breast milk. Although there are many different symptoms of breast cancer, some people diagnosed with breast cancer have no signs at all. That's why it's so important to stay on top of your health and take the proper steps to prevent breast cancer, including having screening mammograms.

What is a mammogram?

A mammogram is a simple, routine screening that takes about an hour, and can detect breast cancer before symptoms start to appear. Mammograms have been proven to help reduce deaths from breast cancer by identifying the disease early when treatment is most effective. Most women should get their first mammogram at age 40, and repeat based on their provider's recommendations.

What else can I do?

In addition to mammograms, there are a few proactive things you can do to help lower your risk for breast cancer. It's important to exercise regularly, get enough sleep, eat healthy, limit your alcohol intake and avoid chemicals that can cause cancer. Clinical breast exams and self-exams are also good secondary methods for identifying warning signs like lumps or breast pain.

Warriors Week thinks 'pink' for breast cancer awareness

By MIKE COOK

Las Cruces Bulletin

Bras for a Cause.

What better event could there be in the fight against breast cancer and other women's cancers?

That fundraiser is one of nearly a half dozen events that also include a candlelight vigil, an Aggie football game tailgate, local high school football games, an all-star music festival and that are all part of Warriors Week, Saturday, Oct. 7-Sunday, Oct. 15, in Las Cruces.

"We're bringing back Pink Week," said Warrior Week coordinator Marci Dickerson, a cancer survivor, owner of Game 1 and Game 2, entrepreneur and community activist. The Tough Enough to Wear Pink campaign was the local (and nationally recognized) fundraiser sponsored by Cowboys for Cancer Research.

October is National Breast Cancer Awareness Month.

Here is the lineup:

- Saturday, Oct. 7: Breast Cancer 5K race: 9 a.m. (registration at 8:30 a.m.) at Burrell College of Osteopathic Medicine (BCOM), 3501 Arrowhead Drive on the NMSU campus, $10, children under age 12 free; includes moment of silence, free health screenings, raffle prizes, preventive care education and more; sponsored by BCOM OB/GYN and Oncology clubs. Contact zayna.abdulla@burrell.edu, andie.evans@burrell.edu and vani.addepalli@burrell.edu. Visit Instagram @bcom_obgyn.
- Tuesday, Oct. 10: Candles for Hope candlelight vigil and luminarias, 7 p.m., Memorial Medical Center, 2450 S. Telshor Blvd.
- Wednesday, Oct. 11: Cancer Warriors and Goal Line Club tailgate, 5 p.m., Aggie Memorial Stadium, before the NMSU Aggie v Sam Houston State University
- Thursday, Oct. 12: Bras for a Cause fundraiser, 6 p.m. New Mexico Farm and Ranch Heritage Museum, 4100 Dripping Springs Road, tickets are $100, local artists will decorate bras that will then be auctioned off, sponsored by Cancer Warriors, Memorial Medical Center and the Las Cruces Bulletin;

- Thursday-Friday, Oct. 12-13: "Paint the Field Pink," Field of Dreams, 2501 Tashiro Road, football games begin at 7 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 12 (Mayfield High School Trojans v Goddard High School Rockets) and Friday, Oct. 13 (Las Cruces High School v Organ Mountain High School Knights)

- Sunday, Oct. 15: Stronger Together Music Fest, 11 a.m.-8:15 p.m., Game 1, 2605 S. Espina St., tickets are $25. 11:30 a.m.-12:15 p.m.: The Ghetto Blasters, 12:30-1:15 p.m.: The Band, 1:30-2:15 p.m.: Eli James, 2:30-3:15: Stepping Up, 3:30-4:15 p.m.: Satisfied, 4:30-5:15 p.m.: The 575 Band, 5:30-6:15 p.m.: Yarborough Band, 6:30-7:15 p.m.: Flat Blak, 7:30-8:15 p.m.: Rockabilly Strangers.

The music festival also includes The Ghetto Blaster performance Friday, Oct. 13, and Proud Pete performance Saturday, Oct. 14. Both begin at 7 p.m. at Game 1. The music fest was coordinated by Hedio Segreto with support from Hubbard's Music.

"I have qualified as a cancer survivor," said Dickerson, who underwent successful treatment for breast cancer over a nine-month period in 2022-23. "I was very blessed," she said. "My treatment was so much easier than so many others."

Dickerson created Cancer Warriors earlier this year to continue the fight against female cancers, highlight the importance of the early detection of breast cancer and other cancers, make cancer patients aware of all treatment options and emphasize that a cancer diagnosis "is not the end," she said.

"Warriors Week is a weeklong celebration of the battle and the win," Dickerson said, and it a community celebration, she said, because female cancer has "touched so many lives. Everybody has either experienced it themselves or loves someone who has."

Some of the funds raised during Warriors Week will pay for gift certificates for wigs and head coverings for cancer patients who need them, Dickerson said.

Cancer Warriors has created boxes available in doctors' offices for female cancer patients that help them through all the major steps of cancer, Dickerson, said, including "Welcome to the Club," chemotherapy, radiation and surgery.

The boxes are filled with items that "make the journey of cancer suck less," she said, including shirts with pockets that hold post-surgery drains and "cubbies" that keep the drains dry in the shower. The first box also includes a resource guide.

Dickerson said Warriors Week will become an annual event in Las Cruces.

Aggie soccer leading Conference-USA

By RICHARD COLTHARP
Las Cruces Bulletin

Aggie women's soccer: NM State finds themselves in first place in Conference-USA and Loma McNeese with C-USA Offensive Player of the Week honors and teammate Megan Ormson earning Defensive Player of the Week. This follows the Aggies' 2-0 victory on the road at Liberty Sept. 30, which gave them a perfect 4-0 record in C-USA play. Overall, the Aggies are 7-5-1 on the season. Next up for NM

State is another road game, this one Sunday, Oct. 8, at Jacksonville State in Alabama. The Aggies will return home for a game against Florida International 7 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 12, at the NM State Soccer Complex.

Aggie volleyball: The NM State women's volleyball team is 11-5 on the season and 4-1 in Conference-USA play after falling 3-1 to UTEP at the Pan American Center Oct. 3. A second UTEP matchup Oct. 4 took place after the Bulletin's press deadline. This weekend, the Aggies travel to Virginia for a pair of matches at Liberty Saturday, Oct. 7, and Sunday, Oct. 8. They will be back home in the Pan Am Center the following weekend, playing Western Kentucky 6 p.m. Friday, Oct. 13, and noon Saturday, Oct. 14, for more conference matches.

NMSU PHOTO

Before the New Mexico State University women's soccer team faced Liberty University in Lynchburg, Virginia, Sept. 30, the Flames were undefeated and had the nation's longest winning streak. That ended with a 2-0 Aggie victory, leaving NM State atop the Conference-USA standings. After a road match against Jacksonville State this weekend, the Aggies will host Florida International at 7 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 12.

CHS hosts Hobbs

By RICHARD COLTHARP
Las Cruces Bulletin

In high school football this week, Hobbs High School (2-4) comes to Las Cruces to face Centennial High School (3-2) for a 7 p.m. district game Friday, Oct. 6, at the Field of Dreams.

Mayfield High School (3-3) was scheduled to have a non-district home game against Santa Teresa (0-6) 7 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 5, at the Field of Dreams.

Las Cruces High School (2-4) travels to Alamogordo (4-2) for a district game at 7 p.m. Friday, Oct. 6.

Organ Mountain High School (0-6) travels to Carlsbad (1-5) for a 7 p.m. district game Friday, Oct. 6.

Mesilla Valley Christian School (4-2) is at Magdalena High School (2-4) for a district game 7 p.m. Friday, Oct. 6.

In last week's games, Mayfield fell to Deming 20-7 Sept. 29; LCHS defeated Hobbs on the road 42-27 Sept. 30; and MVCS defeated Alamo Navajo 54-0 Sept. 29. Neither OMHS nor CHS played last week.

Reflecting on Wimberly's Hall of Fame career

On Sept. 18 the PGA of America announced one of six new inductees of the PGA of America Hall of Fame Class of 2023 is our own Herb Wimberly, College Hall of Fame Golf Coach and former NMSU Aggie Men's golf coach. The 2023 Class will be inducted at the 107th PGA Annual Meeting during a special ceremony on Nov. 8, at the Omni PGA Frisco Resort in Texas, where the PGA of America has its new headquarters.

Wimberly's career in golf spans many decades and includes many achievements. In 1962, Herb was hired as the New Mexico State University men's head golf coach, serving until retiring after 31 years. Notable professional golfers who played for Herb include

Rich Beem (2002 PGA Champion), Larry Beem, Ben Kern, Tom Byrum and the late Bart Bryant. Among the players he coached were 18 who achieved NCAA All-American honors. As NMSU golf coach, Herb was named Coach of the Year six times by the Missouri Valley Conference and once by the Big West Conference. He was instrumental in building the NMSU Golf Course and the NMSU Division I Men's Golf Program from the ground up. He served as president of the Southwest Section of the PGA New Mexico Chapter, and was one of the founding fathers of the Sun Country Section of the PGA, now headquartered in Bernalillo, New Mexico. Herb was one of the forefathers of the College Golf Coaches Association of America, serving as president in 1972-1973, and another six years serving on the NCAA Golf Committee, and was chairman from 1975-77.

In addition to his coaching and service in the golf industry, Herb was a stand-out professional golfer. He won the New Mexico Open in 1960 and 1962. He traveled and played pro tournaments throughout the Southwest, usually finishing in the top 10. In 1968, he beat Lee Trevino by one stroke in the New Mexico Professional tournament in Socorro. Years ago, Herb shared with me he could play well and make money on tour, but he did not want to be away from his wife and family traveling that much. Besides, he loved coaching.

In 1987, one year before I moved to Las Cruces, Herb and his late brother Guy Wimberly, who was inducted into the PGA of America Hall of Fame in 2011, were instrumental in creating the Professional Golf Management Program in the School of Business at NMSU. That program was part of the four original PGM programs in the country. Today there are 21.

When I started working with the NMSU men's golf team as sports psychologist in 1995, I got to know Herb, who was then Director of Golf and Head PGA Professional at NMSU

Golf Course. He invited me to join him at the Rocky Mountain Golf School in Gunnison, Colorado, where he spent summers teaching and working with adults and juniors. I was responsible for teaching the "mental game." In 1999, we got together and decided to form Performance Golf Schools to teach golf on weekends throughout New Mexico, El Paso and Far West Texas. We organized affordable weekend golf clinics for all ages and abilities, which became more popular than we dreamed. I was a 2 handicap at the time, and Herb looked at me and said, "I'd like you to teach golf with me." Those 15 years were the most wonderful experience I have had in golf.

In 2016, Joe Bullock, local businessman and a former Aggie golfer who played for Herb, wrote "Walking With Herb," the inspirational book about a small town banker and aspiring amateur golfer, which was, in essence, a thinly veiled tribute to his beloved coach in real life, Mr. Herb Wimberly. A few years later, the book was turned into a movie, filmed here in Las Cruces.

Herb's humble nature allowed him the opportunity to positively affect the lives of many people. He is the most sincere and authentic man you'll ever meet. While he is proud to have been recognized on many occasions, you'll never hear him talk about it. He's had an amazing career.
