Susan Kelechi Watson

OF WILL TRENT ON ABC

Q: Such a big deal was made about Susan Kelechi Watson of "This Is Us" joining "Will Trent," why was her character killed off in the season premiere?

A: Though it wasn't known before that episode aired in February, the ABC series had a specific purpose for making that move as it pertained to Georgia Bureau of Investigation agent Trent (played by Ramon Rodriguez) going forward. He and Watson's explosives-expert character Cricket Dawson established a connection quickly, and it seemed that it would proceed rapidly from the professional to the personal, since they were planning to go on a date.

What ultimately happened prevented that social occasion from happening, since Cricket didn't have enough time to disarm a bomb that had been planted in the bureau's parking garage. She was killed by the explosion, which she had tried to contain in a room within the garage ... and her death added to the pain that Will already was trying to handle from other situations, including the murder of his biological mother and the strain of his complicated relationship with police detective Angie Polaski (Erika Christensen).

Though she might not be a lasting physical presence on "Will Trent," then, Cricket still has a place on the show as a spectre destined to continue to haunt Will as he makes his way through the show's sophomore round. The addition of the character did its job for the brief time Cricket was around, since that season-opening episode achieved a ratings high for the series up to that point – not an easy thing to achieve in its Tuesday time slot against another crime procedural, CBS' well-established and much-watched "FBI."

"Vanderpump Villa" - Season 1 (April 1)

Decadence and debauchery collide in this new, unscripted docu-drama, following Lisa Vanderpump's hand-selected staff as they work, live and play at an exclusive French estate: Chateau Rosabelle. It follows the elite staff as they try to provide luxurious, once-in-a-lifetime experiences for guests while dealing with the rivalries, romances and raucous misadventures that come from working and living together 24/7.

"American Horror Story: Delicate" - Part 2 (April 4)

Returning with Part 2, this installment of the horror anthology series from Ryan Murphy and Brad Falchuk is adapting its story from Danielle Valentine's book "Delicate Condition." While the series is notoriously close-lipped about plotlines, the book's synopsis may provide viewers with a peak at what is to come. Emma Roberts, Cara Delevingne, Matt Czuchy, Michaela Jaé (MJ) Rodriguez, Kim Kardashian, Julie White, Debra Monk and Annabelle Dexter-Jones star.

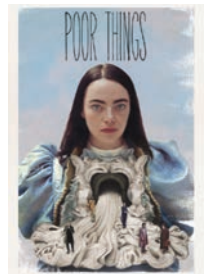

"Anatomy of a Fall" (Available Now)

In this Oscar winner, Sandra (Sandra Huller), her husband Samuel (Samuel Theis) and their young son Daniel (Milo Machado-Graner) live a secluded life in a remote town in the French Alps. When Samuel is found dead in the snow below their chalet, the police question whether he was murdered or committed suicide. What follows is not just an investigation into the circumstances of Samuel's death but an unsettling psychological journey into the depths of Sandra and Samuel's conflicted relationship.

"Poor Things" (Available Now)

Based on the Novel of the same name, this four-time Oscar-winning film tells the incredible tale and fantastical evolution of Bella Baxter (Emma Stone), a young woman brought back to life by the brilliant and unorthodox scientist Dr. Godwin Baxter (Willem Dafoe). Under Baxter's protection, Bella is eager to learn. Hungry for the worldliness she is lacking, Bella runs off with Duncan Wedderburn (Mark Ruffalo), a slick and debauched lawyer, on a whirlwind adventure across the continents.

“Scoop” (April 5)

Inspired by real events, this drama film is the inside account of the tenacious journalism that landed an earth-shattering interview — Prince Andrew’s (portrayed by Rufus Sewell) infamous BBC Newsnight appearance. From the tension of producer Sam McAlister’s (Billie Piper) high stakes negotiations with Buckingham Palace, all the way to Emily Maitlis’s (Gillian Anderson) jaw dropping, forensic showdown with the Prince, it takes us inside the story, with the women who would stop at nothing to get it. “Fallout” - Season 1 (Prime Video — April 11, Series Premiere)

Based on one of the greatest video game series of all time, Fallout is the story of haves and have-nots in a world in which there’s almost nothing left to have. 200 years after the apocalypse, the gentle denizens of luxury fallout shelters are forced to return to the irradiated hellscape their ancestors left behind — and are shocked to discover an incredibly complex, gleefully weird and highly violent universe waiting for them. “Battle Royale” (March 31)

In a dystopian future, Japan resorts to extreme measures to control their rebellious youth. The BR Law enables an annual culling, in which a 9th-grade class is sent to a remote island where they are forced to hunt and kill each other until there is only one survivor left. Based on the novel of the same name by Koushun Takami.

“Musica” (April 4)

Rudy Mancuso, playing a fictionalized version of himself, is a charismatic but directionless young street performer from Newark, New Jersey’s Ironbound neighborhood. Thanks to a rare condition called synesthesia, he experiences everyday noises – from car horns to water droplets to doors slamming – as a series of complex rhythms. He struggles to keep the music in his head at bay, but it’s not so easily accomplished. When a sudden accident leads him to Isabella (Camila Mendes), his whole world starts to change.

“How to Date Billy Walsh” (April 5)

Teenagers Amelia (Charithra Chandran) and Archie (Sebastian Croft) have been best friends since childhood. Archie has always been there to fight Amelia’s battles and laugh at her jokes all whilst keeping his lifelong love for her a secret. Just when he builds up the courage to declare his feelings, Amelia falls head over heels for Billy Walsh (Tanner Buchanan), the new American transfer student. Heartbroken, Archie goes to great lengths to try and keep Amelia and Billy away from each other, but ends up pushing them closer together and risks losing his best friend in the process.

Chelcie Ross in "Major League"

"MAJOR LEAGUE"

With this year's baseball season officially getting under way, it's an ideal time for the 4K Ultra HD debut of this comedy about the sport, which is marking its 35th anniversary. Written and directed by David S. Ward – who won an Oscar for his script for "The Sting" – the 1989 film sees a Cleveland team inherited by its previous owner's widow (Margaret Whitton), who intends to relocate the franchise to Miami. She fortifies her plan by replacing the players with rookies and out-of-condition veterans, but to her surprise, they rally and build a promising squad, threatening her intentions and forcing her into additional scheming. Tom Berenger, Charlie Sheen and Corbin Bernsen portray several of the principal players, with Rene Russo, Wesley Snipes, Dennis Haysbert and actual pro-baseball alum Bob Uecker also prominent in the 1989 picture's cast. ★★★ (R: AS, N, P, V) (Also on DVD and Blu-ray)

"FOUR DAUGHTERS"

A recent Oscar nominee for best documentary feature, and a winner at the Film Independent Spirit Awards, director Kaouther Ben Hania's ("The Man Who Sold His Skin") film probes the relationships among a Tunisian woman and her offspring after her two eldest daughters vanish. Actresses portray several of the ladies, setting up an approach that combines fictionalized sequences with footage featuring the actual mother and two still-present daughters. The mother – Olfa Hamrouni – has maintained that her absent children were radicalized for the benefit of the Islamic State in Libya, and she reportedly was kept from leaving Tunisia to initiate her own search for them. The film also was an entry in the 2023 Cannes Film Festival, marking the first time in more than 50 years that a Tunisian production was in that event's main competition. DVD extras: theatrical trailer; interview with Ben Hania. ★★★ (Not rated: AS) (Also on Blu-ray)
