Josh Brolin

OF OUTER RANGE ON PRIME VIDEO

Q: I enjoyed seeing Josh Brolin host "Saturday Night Live" recently. Has he ever had a TV series of his own?

A: That March appearance – which was meant to promote his presence in the movie "Dune: Part Two" – actually was the third time that James Brolin's fellow-actor son hosted the NBC late-night staple. Having the popular Ariana Grande as the episode's musical guest surely was a boost in terms of viewership. Though Brolin's work principally has been in feature films, he was a television-series regular in several instances early in his career. Not long after he made his movie debut in the enduringly popular "The Goonies" in 1985, he co-starred in the short-lived NBC drama "Private Eye" (1987-88). He then had a longer run as the young Wild Bill Hickok in the ABC Western "The Young Riders," which lasted three seasons (1989-92) and currently can be found in the On Demand lineup for the MGM+ cable channel. Brolin's next series was "Winnetka Road," a 1994 interpersonal NBC drama that lasted only five episodes (a sixth was produced but never aired). He would return yet again to NBC briefly in 2003 in the title role of "Mister Sterling," a drama about a U.S. senator that was created by Lawrence O'Donnell, the MSNBC personality who then used his personal experience from working for Senator Daniel Patrick Moynihan. Lately, Brolin – who also narrated the 2012 documentary series "Mankind: The Story of All of Us" – has starred in "Outer Range," a combination of science-fiction and Western that currently is in its second season on Prime Video. Imogen Poots and Lili Taylor are among his fellow cast regulars.

What's Available NOW On

“Superkitties” - Season 2 (June 12)
Adorable and packed with adventure, this animated series follows four fierce and furry superhero kittens — Ginny, Sparks, Buddy and Bitsy — who are on a mission to make their town of Kittydale a more caring and “pawesome” place. Geared to kids ages 2-7 and their families, each episode features two 11-minute stories that highlight the SuperKitties as they receive a “SuperKitty Call” from one of their animal friends with a problem that only the SuperKitties can help with.

“The Acolyte” (Available Now)
With episodes airing weekly, this newest addition to the Star Wars universe, set in the High Republic Era, follows an investigation into a shocking crime spree that pits a respected Jedi Master (Lee Jung-jae) against a dangerous warrior from his past (Amandla Stenberg). As more clues emerge, they travel down a dark path where sinister forces reveal all is not what it seems.

“Disney Jr.’s Ariel: Mermaid Tales” - Season 1 (Available Now)
This animated musical series inspired by “The Little Mermaid” follows young mermaid princess Ariel as she embarks on fun-filled, action-packed adventures with her friends throughout their Caribbean-inspired fairytale kingdom of Atlantica. Geared towards preschoolers, each episode features two 11-minute stories that celebrate the multicultural elements of the Caribbean.

“Secrets of the Octopus” (Available Now)
In the ocean lives the octopus, an animal with characteristics we think of as “human” — intelligent, social, curious, gentle, and fierce. They build cities, use tools, and collaborate with other species to hunt. They have personalities — some are bold, while others shy. These animals can change their skin colour, texture, and body shape in a blink of an eye and see in wavelengths beyond our vision. This series follows along with fascinating creatures as it uncovers some of their many secrets.

What's Available NOW On

“Counsel Culture” - Season 1 (Available Now)

Nick Cannon, Dr. Ish Major and Dr. Mike Dow recalibrate discussions in a cancel culture world. With an expert panel, they delve into topics including mental health, toxic masculinity and modern dating, fostering a brave space for men's vulnerability and growth. No topic is off-limits.

“The LEGO Ninjago Movie” (Available Now)

Lloyd (Dave Franco) is shunned and loathed by the people of Ninjago, thanks to his dad being the evil warlord Garmadon (Justin Theroux), who keeps trying to conquer the city, but what they don't realize is that Lloyd is also a member of the secret ninja force that always foils his father's villainous plans. When Lloyd finally reveals his identity to his estranged dad, the ninja and evil warlord set out on a journey together.

“Gattaca” (Available Now)

This 1997 sci-fi hit follows Vincent Freeman (Ethan Hawke), who has always fantasized about traveling into space, but is grounded by his status as a genetically inferior “in-valid.” He decides to fight his fate by purchasing the genes of Jerome Morrow (Jude Law). He assumes Jerome's DNA identity and joins the Gattaca space program, where he falls in love with Irene (Uma Thurman). But, an investigation into the death of a Gattaca officer complicates Vincent's plans.

“Emma.” (Available Now)

Jane Austen's beloved comedy about finding your equal and earning your happy ending is reimagined in this film adaptation. Handsome, clever and rich, Emma Woodhouse (Anya Taylor-Joy) is a restless “queen bee” without rivals in her sleepy little English town. In this glittering satire of social class, Emma must navigate her way through the challenges of growing up, misguided matches and romantic missteps to realize the love that has been there all along.

Rebecca Hall and Dan Stevens in "Godzilla x Kong: The New Empire"

"GODZILLA X KONG: THE NEW EMPIRE"

They've done battle with each other before, but two titans among movie monsters merge efforts to fight a mutual threat – one that also imperils the entire world – in this adventure. Another character that will be familiar to devotees of the genre eventually joins the feud, which comes to involve past civilizations, hidden tribes and telepathy. The human stars include Rebecca Hall and Brian Tyree Henry, who both also appeared in "Godzilla vs. Kong," and Dan Stevens ("Downton Abbey"). The picture was a major box-office success internationally, to the degree that it now ranks as the top moneymaker of all films about Godzilla; Rome, Cairo, Rio de Janeiro and the Arctic are among the story's settings. ★★★ (PG-13: P, V) (Also on Blu-ray, 4K Ultra HD, Digital and On Demand)

"IMMACULATE"

One of the most popular young actresses working today, Sydney Sweeney ("Anyone but You," "Euphoria") stars in this unsettling suspense drama as a nun who becomes a member of an Italian convent. She notices strange circumstances involving others, with her life eventually being placed in danger while others also face perils at the site. When she tries to leave, she's prevented from doing so, with the threats to her only increasing as she realizes that escaping is her only means of survival – forcing her to take drastic measures in her desperate bid to regain her freedom. The principally foreign supporting cast of the picture (filmed mainly in Rome) includes Alvaro Morte, Dora Romano and Benedetta Porcaroli; Sweeney also helped to develop the project creatively as one of its producers. ★★★ (R: AS, N, P, GV) (Also on Blu-ray, Digital and On Demand)
