Sydney Sweeney

OF EUPHORIA ON HBO

Q: I was glad to hear that Season 3 of "Euphoria" is finally happening. Will Sydney Sweeney still be part of the cast?

A: Though production on new episodes of the HBO drama isn't slated to start until early in 2025, that's the plan. And still having her on board is a big deal for the cable network, since Sweeney's star has risen considerably in recent years, thanks also to her starring roles in the movies "Anyone but You" and "Immaculate." Her hosting stint on NBC's "Saturday Night Live" last season didn't hurt her popularity, either. Not only for Sweeney but for the other returning "Euphoria" regulars, it will be interesting to see what the upcoming installments give them to play, since they've also been showing their range in other projects. Zendaya, Hunter Schafer, Jacob Elordi and Colman Domingo are among those who also have been making the most of their opportunities, and the fact that they've been so busy is one reason it's taken so long for the cameras to roll on "Euphoria" again.

The cast will be without Barbie Ferreira and the late Angus Cloud, but there has been much speculation that the series will return with a five-year time jump for the characters. Since the last time the show was on was early 2022, such a creative move wouldn't be all that jarring, given how much of a gap there will have been in seasons of the saga by the time it returns. That also would address the ages of the actors and their "Euphoria" alter egos in moving the series out of a high-school milieu, given how often critics carp about performers having to play much younger than they actually are.

“UNTOLD: Sign Stealer” (Aug. 27)

During football games, signs and signals from the coaching staff help players on the field to see what play they're running, where they're supposed to go and much more. In the fall of 2023, Connor Stalions, who developed a database of thousands of signals, was working as an analyst for the Michigan Wolverines. When Stalions' constant presence on the sidelines was noticed while his team racked up a pile of wins, enraged parties started to call it foul play. Now, as “UNTOLD” digs deep into the story, Stalions sits down to tell his side for the first time.

A story of Greek gods and their many problems, the battle is taken up by a rag-tag group of mortals determined to protect the world and bring down the Gods.

“Terminator Zero” - Season 1 (Aug. 29)

A future war has raged for decades between the few human survivors and an endless army of machines. When a soldier (Sonoya Mizuno) is sent back in time to change the fate of humanity, she arrives in 1997 to protect a scientist named Malcolm Lee (André Holland) who is working to launch a new AI system designed to compete with the AI, Skynet's, impending attack on humanity. As Malcolm navigates the moral complexities of his creation, he is hunted by the Terminator (Timothy Olyphant), an unrelenting assassin from the future.

“No Gain No Love” (Aug. 26)

What does it take to have it all? This K-drama rom-com follows Son Hae-yeong (Shin Min-a), who is tired of feeling like she's losing in every aspect of her life — from love, to her career, to her family. Fed up with things not going the way she wants, Hae-yeong arranges a fake marriage to Kim Ji-uk (Kim Young-dae), a hard-working and generous neighborhood convenience store employee. Using her marital status to avoid being passed over for a promotion at work, Hae-yeong soon finds herself wrapped up in a complicated quest for love and fulfillment.

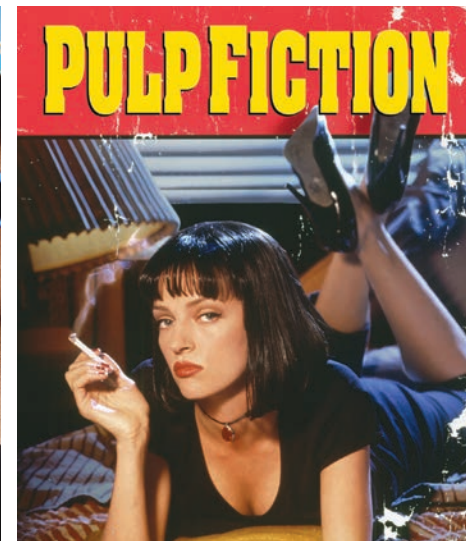

“Fargo” (Available Now)

This Oscar-winner from 1996 is a reality-based crime drama set in Minnesota in 1987. Jerry Lundegaard (William H. Macy) is a car salesman in Minneapolis who has gotten himself into debt and is so desperate for money that he hires two thugs (Steve Buscemi), (Peter Stormare) to kidnap his own wife. Jerry will collect the ransom from her wealthy father (Harve Presnell), paying the thugs a small portion and keeping the rest to satisfy his debts. The scheme collapses when the thugs shoot a state trooper.

“22 Jump Street” (Available Now)

After making their way through high school (twice), big changes are in store for officers Schmidt (Jonah Hill) and Jenko (Channing Tatum) when they go deep undercover at a local college. But when Jenko meets a kindred spirit on the football team, and Schmidt infiltrates the bohemian art major scene, they begin to question their partnership. Now they don't have to just crack the case — they have to figure out if they can have a mature relationship.

“Pulp Fiction” (Available Now)

Jules Winnfield (Samuel L. Jackson) and Vincent Vega (John Travolta) are two hitmen who are out to retrieve a suitcase stolen from their employer, mob boss Marsellus Wallace (Ving Rhames). Wallace has also asked Vincent to take his wife Mia (Uma Thurman) out a few days later when Wallace himself will be out of town. Butch Coolidge (Bruce Willis) is an aging boxer who is paid by Wallace to lose his fight. The lives of these seemingly unrelated people are woven together in a series of funny, bizarre and uncalled-for incidents.

Freya Allan in "Kingdom of the Planet of the Apes"

"KINGDOM OF THE PLANET OF THE APES"

As it heads toward its 60th anniversary, the sci-fi film franchise continues with the latest entry that plays off the preceding "War for the Planet of the Apes," advancing three centuries to put yet another spin on the saga of apes and humans and how they co-exist (or not) in a future society. Here, apes form the dominant species while humans scramble for survival, but one young simian (played by Owen Teague in a motion-capture performance) makes a discovery that could up-end what is then the balance of the world's civilization. Freya Allan ("The Witcher") plays a human who has her own reasons for helping the ape on his quest, with William H. Macy as an expert in human history who advises a self-styled ape leader (Kevin Durand). ★★★ (PG-13: AS, P, V) (Also on Blu-ray, 4K Ultra HD and Digital)

"THE WATCHERS"

Filmmaker M. Night Shyamalan ("The Sixth Sense," "Signs") is a staple of screen horror, and he helped his daughter – Ishana Night Shyamalan – get her footing in the genre by producing her first feature as a director. She also wrote the tale, casting Dakota Fanning in dual roles as estranged twin sisters. One of them, an employee at an Irish pet shop, encounters problems while making a delivery and ends up in fear of murderous beings known as The Watchers ... who allegedly come out at night and prey upon anyone who ventures outside a fortified compound. Much as the elder Shyamalan is known for the unexpected twists in his stories, his daughter springs her own share of surprises on viewers here. Georgina Campbell, Olwen Fouere and John Lynch also are in the cast. ★★★ (PG-13; AS, N, P, V) (Also on Blu-ray, 4K Ultra HD, Digital and On Demand)
