Kaitlin Olson in "High Potential"

Kaitlin Olson taps into her 'High Potential' in new ABC series

celebrity update

BY JAY BOBBIN

Q: I understand that Dermot Mulroney is joining "Chicago Fire" for its new season. Why have there been so many cast changes on that show lately?

A: That can happen with a series that has run for a long time, and that NBC

Dermot Mulroney

OF CHICAGO FIRE ON NBC

drama will be entering its 13th season when it resumes new episodes on Sept. 25. Dermot Mulroney will be playing the new chief of Firehouse 51, succeeding Eamonn Walker, who has said that he is open to returning for guest appearances as Wallace Boden. There's precedent for that, since founding cast member Jesse Spencer has made multiple returns as Matt Casey since leaving as a series regular.

If one looks at the history of "Chicago Fire," changes in its co-stars are nothing new. Lauren German departed after the first couple of seasons when her paramedic character Leslie Shay died on duty, and Kara Killmer followed as her replacement, Sylvie Brett. Killmer herself left the show last season, and Jocelyn Hudon — a familiar face from Hallmark Channel movies in recent years — is now succeeding her as Lizzie Novak.

Monica Raymund left the role of paramedic Gabby Dawson after six seasons, and she also has made returns as a guest star. Charlie Barnett departed as firefighter Peter Mills after the first few years of the show, and Miranda Rae Mayo joined as firefighter Stella Kidd in Season 4 (and married Lt. Kelly Severide, played by Taylor Kinney, in Season 10). Firefighter Brian "Otis" Zvonecek, portrayed by Yuri Sardarov, died at the start of Season 8 from injuries suffered on the job.

Dora Madison, Steven R. McQueen, Annie Ilonze and Alberto Rosende are among other "Chicago Fire" alums. And though he wasn't a series regular, Treat Williams made sufficient appearances as Severide's firefighter-veteran father Benny over the first seven years to have a presence on the series; the character died in Season 7.

“What's Next? The Future with Bill Gates” (Sept. 18)

Tech visionary and global health and climate philanthropist Bill Gates invites viewers to join him on a learning journey to explore pressing issues facing our world today. Gates digs deep into the promise and risks of artificial intelligence; the pervasive challenge of misinformation; the scale of the climate crisis and the potential of cutting-edge technologies to solve it; the injustice of income inequality and the opportunities to tackle poverty; and how science and innovation is leading to cures for deadly diseases.

“Monsters: The Lyle and Erik Menendez Story” (Sept. 19)

Ryan Murphy and Ian Brennan's true crime anthology series returns, this time chronicling the case of the real-life brothers Lyle and Erik Menendez, who were convicted in 1996 for the murders of their parents, José and Mary Louise “Kitty” Menendez. While the prosecution argued they were seeking to inherit their family fortune, the brothers claimed — and remain adamant to this day, as they serve life sentences without the possibility of parole — that their actions stemmed out of fear from a lifetime of abuse.

“Fly” (Hulu/Disney — Sept. 25, Documentary Premiere)

Humans have long dreamed of the freedom of flight. This heart-stopping National Geographic documentary immerses viewers in the exhilarating yet perilous world of BASE jumping. At the heart of the film are three couples: Jimmy and Marta, pioneering figures affectionately known as the “Mom and Pop” of BASE jumping; the fearless wingsuit pilot Scotty and his newfound love, Julia; and the resilient duo Amber and Espen, whose bond is tested by triumph and tragedy. The film explores the complex balance between passion and sacrifice.

“Colin From Accounts” - Season 2 (Paramount+ — Sept. 26, Season Premiere)

This Australian rom-com series is about flawed, funny people choosing each other and embracing the all-too-relatable chaos of modern life. After Gordon (Patrick Brammall) and Ashley (Harriet Dyer) are brought together in Season 1 by a ridiculous incident, Season 2 of the hit series opens with Ash and Gordon now living together and trying to get their beloved, special needs dog, Colin, back from his new owners. It's the first in a series of hurdles for the new couple as they find out more about each other, for better and worse.

“Twilight of the Gods” - Season 1 (Sept. 19)

Zack Snyder presents an all-new, daring and spectacular animated vision of Norse mythology. In a mythical world of great battles, great deeds and great despair, Leif (Stuart Martin), a mortal King, is saved on the battlefield by Sigrid (Sylvia Hoeks), an iron-willed warrior with whom he falls in love. On their wedding night, Sigrid and Leif survive a wrath of terror from Thor (Pilou Asbaek), which sets them — and a crew of crusaders — on a merciless and against all odds mission for vengeance.

“His Three Daughters” (Sept. 20)

This tense, touching, and funny portrait of family dynamics follows three estranged sisters as they converge in a New York apartment to care for their ailing father and try to mend their own broken relationship with one another. Carrie Coon, Elizabeth Olsen and Natasha Lyonne star.
