celebrity update

BY JAY BOBBIN

Q: How did Jerry O'Connell get the hosting job when Julie Chen Moonves was absent from "Big Brother" recently?

Jerry O'Connell

OF THE TALK ON CBS

A: A combination of factors played into it, one of the biggest being O'Connell's quick availability for the CBS show when a substitute was needed for Chen Moonves since she was continuing to test positive for COVID. She called in to that day's edition of "The Talk," the weekday CBS program of which she used to be a co-host (and of which O'Connell currently is), giving him pointers on how to handle the "Big Brother" job.

The episode involved a live eviction, the first time Chen Moonves had missed such a show, and it was fortunate that O'Connell is an avowed "Big Brother" fan. That surely gave him a leg up on who the players were and what the household dynamics were, so he already had done much of his homework in a sense when he was enlisted for the fill-in spot mere hours before the episode aired.

While "The Talk" – which now is in its final season, slated to be over by the end of this year – and the syndicated game show "Pictionary" have been the main examples of O'Connell (also known for many performances as an actor) as a host lately, he has filled that function a number of times. Along with wife Rebecca Romijn, he had a brief stint hosting the CBS series "The Real Love Boat" in 2022, he was a guest host of the syndicated "Wendy Williams Show" several times, and he had his own syndicated talk show titled "Jerry O'" for a short time in the summer of 2019.

“Annabelle Comes Home” (Available Now)

Determined to keep Annabelle from wreaking more havoc, demonologists Ed (Patrick Wilson) and Lorraine Warren (Vera Farmiga) bring the possessed doll to the locked artifacts room in their home, placing her “safely” behind sacred glass and enlisting a priest’s holy blessing.
