Carrie Underwood
OF AMERICAN IDOL ON ABC/HULU

Q: It was good to see Carrie Underwood on "Dick Clark's New Year's Rockin' Eve With Ryan Seacrest 2025." I know she'll be a judge on "American Idol" for the new season. Does that mean she'll be popping up on many other ABC shows?

A: It's certainly a possibility, since the network isn't being shy about promoting her new role on the singing contest, which she won herself in 2005 (its fourth season, when it still was on Fox). While her New Year's Eve appearance served the immediate purpose of having an all-star music lineup, it was also a way to publicize her upcoming "Idol" stint (reinforced by the presence of Seacrest, who is also the host of "Idol," of course).

At the very least, you can expect to see Underwood turn up in such other ABC programs as "Good Morning America," "The View" and "Jimmy Kimmel Live." It's normal for hosts of reality-competition shows to make guest appearances on the same network's talk-oriented fare, and in Underwood's case, that's especially likely to happen in late February and early March — as the new "Idol" season gets a preview telecast after the Oscars on March 2, before it has its official premiere on March 9.

Lately, the network with which Underwood has been most associated is NBC, since she has performed the theme song for its "Sunday Night Football" since 2013. She inherited that mantle from fellow country-music star Faith Hill, who had the job for six years. Interestingly, Underwood was first approached about doing it soon after her "Idol" win, but she turned it down then, reasoning that she had much else going on career-wise at that time (which she certainly did). When Hill decided to step down, NBC Sports went back to Underwood a second time, and the rest has been history for more than a decade.

What's Available NOW On

"Friday Night Lights" (Jan. 31)

A small, turbulent town in Texas obsesses over their high school football team to an unhealthy degree. When the star tailback, Boobie Miles (Derek Luke), is seriously injured during the first game of the season, all hope is lost, and the town's dormant social problems begin to flare up. It is left to the inspiring abilities of new coach Gary Gaines (Billy Bob Thornton) to instill a sense of self-respect and honor in the other team members and the town itself.

"Knocked Up" (Jan. 31)

Rising journalist Alison Scott (Katherine Heigl) hits a serious bump in the road after a one-night stand with irresponsible slacker Ben Stone (Seth Rogen) results in pregnancy. Rather than raise the baby on her own, she decides to give Ben a chance to prove he is father material. However, their road to parenthood is anything but smooth.

"Beauty Shop" (Available Now)

Far from Chicago, hairdresser Gina Norris (Queen Latifah) has relocated to Atlanta with her daughter and has quickly established herself as a rare talent in her profession. But, after repeatedly butting heads with her shady, over-the-top boss, Jorge (Kevin Bacon), Gina sets out to create her own salon — even snagging a few of Jorge's employees and clients. Now, Jorge will do anything to shut her down.

"The Blues Brothers" (Available Now)

After his release from prison, Jake (John Belushi) reunites with his brother, Elwood (Dan Aykroyd) — collectively known as the "Blues Brothers." Jake's first task is to save the orphanage the brothers grew up in from closing, by raising $5,000 to pay back taxes. The two are convinced they can earn the money by getting their old band back together. However, after playing several gigs and making a few enemies, including the police, the brothers face daunting odds to deliver the money on time.
