'The Handmaid's Tale' returns for final season on Hulu

celebrityupdate

BY JAY BOBBIN

Q: It was nice to see Zoe Saldana win an Oscar. Will her series "Lioness" be back?

A: After earning her Academy Award for best supporting actress in "Emilia Pérez," Paramount+ has not yet given an official renewal for a third season of the military-espionage drama series. However, things look promising on that count for a number of reasons.

Zoe Saldana

OF LIONESS ON PARAMOUNT+

Saldana said in an interview last fall that she was committed to three seasons of "Lioness." Both existing seasons of the show have fared quite well in terms of ratings — the series was among the top 10 of all scripted streaming series in the United States.

Also, if the series returned, "Lioness" would be able to boast no less than three Oscar winners as major cast members, provided that Nicole Kidman and Morgan Freeman also returned to the series. That's big prestige for any network or streaming service and not easily dismissed, even in these times when production costs are being scrutinized more closely than ever.

Saldana has an investment in "Lioness" beyond performing in it, since she's also an executive producer — as is Kidman. So is co-star Jill Wagner, who developed the show with "Yellowstone" mentor Taylor Sheridan, one of the kings of Paramount+ programming when one considers he also furnishes "1923," "Mayor of Kingstown" and "Tulsa King" to the service. Sheridan wrote all of the Season 2 scripts for "Lioness," so it's likely that he'll have his work cut out for him again (something he doesn't shy away from) if a third year is ordered.

"Small Things Like These" (April 8)

This historical drama film takes place over Christmas in 1985, when devoted father and coal merchant Bill Furlong (Cillian Murphy) discovers startling secrets kept by the convent in his town, along with some shocking truths of his own. The film reveals truths about Ireland's Magdalene laundries — horrific asylums run by Roman Catholic institutions from the 1820s until 1996, ostensibly to reform "fallen young women." Adapted from acclaimed novel by Claire Keegan.

"Angels & Demons" (April 9)

When Harvard symbologist Robert Langdon (Tom Hanks) discovers the resurgence of an ancient brotherhood known as the Illuminati, he flies to Rome to warn the Vatican, the Illuminati's most hated enemy. Joining forces with beautiful Italian scientist Vittoria Vetra (Ayelet Zurer), Langdon follows a centuries-old trail of ancient symbols in the hope of preventing the Illuminati's deadly plot against the Roman Catholic Church from coming to fruition.

"Red Dog" (April 10)

Based on a true story, this family comedy drama film sees a red dog unite a disparate local community while roaming the Australian outback in search of his long lost master. Josh Lucas, Rachael Taylor, Keisha Castle-Hughes and Luke Ford and among the cast.

"Magpie" (April 11)

A stylish neo-noir thriller, this film centers on married couple Anette (Daisy Ridley) and Ben (Shazad Latif), whose lives begin to fracture when their daughter is cast alongside a glamorous movie star, Alicia (Matilda Lutz). As Anette's suspicions of Ben's infatuation with Alicia intensify, their secrets and lies threaten to burst to the surface and destroy them all.

"Government Cheese" - Season 1
(Apple TV+ — April 16, Series Premiere)

A surrealist comedy set in 1969 in the San Fernando Valley, the series tells the story of the Chambers, a quirky family pursuing lofty and seemingly impossible dreams, beautifully unfettered by the realities of the world. When Hampton Chambers (David Oyelowo) is released from prison, his long-awaited family reunion doesn't go quite as he'd planned. During his absence, Hampton's wife, Astoria (Simone Missick), and sons, Einstein (Evan Ellison) and Harrison (Jahi Di'Allo Winston), have formed an unconventional family unit, and Hampton's return spins their world into chaos.
