Allegrone Companies plans to purchase and redevelop the historic Wright Building, built in 1898 and located at 255 North St., Pittsfield. Early plans for the $7.5 million adaptive reuse project include market-rate apartments, retail space and a walkway behind the building that would connect it to the Columbus Avenue Parking Garage and the BRTA building.