'Fun art, not fine art' is the key to business's success

When sisters Libbi Poole and Lesley Vitel teamed up to buy the Painting with a Twist studio in Ponte Vedra Beach their main goal was centered around having fun and creating an atmosphere and experience that created lasting memories for people.

The fun has been endless ever since they purchased studios in Ponte Vedra Beach and Fruit Cove in what turned out to be a busy but blessed 2021.

What makes the experience so unique is the fact that it allows people to express their creativity without the fear of being scrutinized for it.

"This is fun art, not fine art," Vitel said. "We want you to come in and know that you will create your masterpiece. This is a fun zone, not a judgement zone."

Both the Ponte Vedra Beach and Fruit Cove studios have been around for about nine years and were owned by different owners.

The pairing of Poole and Vitel took a leap of faith and bought the Ponte Vedra Beach studio located at 268 Solana Road in February 2021 and it in March after renovating the space.

They loved it so much that they followed it up by purchasing the Fruit

Cove location as well six months later.

The idea that led to the purchase of the studios came about in October 2020 when Poole was a kindergarten teacher in Waycross, Georgia, and confided in her sister that she was ready for a change once her daughter graduated in 2022.

She wanted to do a "sip and paint" concept, and as fate would have it, a month later they learned that the Painting with a Twist locations were for sale.

"So, we took a giant leap of faith and jumped in with both feet a year and a half early," Vitel said.

The great thing about the studios is that they cater to the creativity of any age group, and they have found that both adults and children can enjoy the experience. It is something the entire family could do together.

"We love having a space where people can come and relax for a couple of hours with their friends and family," Vitel said. "You can get the kids away from the screens and doing something creative and interactive."

The Ponte Vedra Beach location currently employs six artists, while the Fruit Cove location has 13 artists on staff.

Several different classes are offered, which seek to cater to an array of people depending on what they are looking to get from the experience as a whole.

"We offer BYOB painting classes every evening from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. and multiple classes on the weekends," Vitel said. "We also offer Pop-In and Paint two days a week starting at both studios in October from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., so you can come in any time and pick whatever you want to paint."

Written and video instruction is provided during the classes, and they have found many have reserved the experience as a fun night for group events, such as team building events, birthday parties and bachelorette parties.

"For larger groups we can also bring the party to you as an off-site event," Vitel said. "If you prefer to twist in your own way, at home, we provide kits with everything you need to paint at home and video instruction."

According to Vitel, it is their artists that bring the experience to life and make it what it is.

"They are so wonderful at walking even the least experienced painter through the process of creating their own masterpiece," Vitel said. "We strive to create a fun environment so that you can just enjoy painting."

Classes are offered with a variety of age groups in mind.

The main goal for Painting with a Twist is for people to have fun and express their creative side in a relaxing atmosphere.

“The D’Amelio Show”

This unscripted series follows up the smashing success of its first season with more drama under the glare of the internet spotlight in Season 2, as the D’Amelios’ meteoric rise creates once-in-a-lifetime opportunities in business and personal relationships — but they could come at the cost of what makes them a tight-knit family. (ORIGINAL)

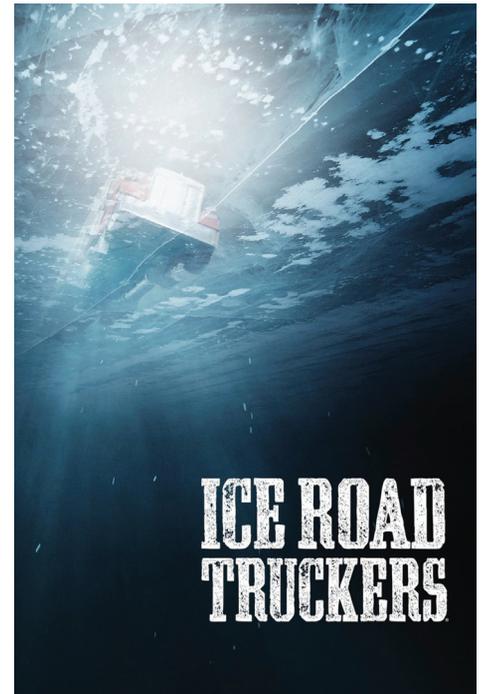

“Movie: The Last Duel”

Ridley Scott’s 2021 historical action drama unfolds in three distinct “chapters” reflecting the perspective of the three main characters. Matt Damon stars as Jean de Carrouges, a knight who feels compelled to challenge his old friend, Jacques Le Gris (Adam Driver) to a duel after Jean’s wife, Marguerite (Jodie Comer), accuses Jacques of raping her. Ben Affleck takes a supporting role.

“Movie: Joe”

Nicolas Cage stars in this 2013 adaptation of Larry Brown’s novel as the title character, an ex-convict who’s doing his best to go straight — but that becomes difficult when he befriends a youngster (Tye Sheridan, “Mud”) whose father is abusive. Joe then has to make a decision whether to do something about the situation in his own way.

“Ice Road Truckers”

The first two seasons of this unscripted History series that follows six hardy drivers whose job it is to drive supplies hundreds of miles to diamond miners in northern Canada — over frozen lakes that could give way under them any minute — comes to the streaming service.

The third installment of director Joe Berlinger’s “Conversations With a Killer” series focuses on how Jeffrey Dahmer, responsible for 17 murders in Wisconsin and Ohio from 1978 to 1991, managed to avoid suspicion and detection from police as he stalked Milwaukee’s gay scene for victims, many of whom were people of color. (ORIGINAL)

“The Midnight Club”

Based on the works of novelist Christopher Pike, this horror series follows a group of five terminally ill patients who share scary stories and make a pact that the next of them to die will give the group a sign from the other side. Down, set, eat! Go tailgating with the help of Food Network chefs

It's Week 4 of the 2022 NFL regular season – do you know where your portable gas grill, smoker or deep fryer are?

Yes, the NFL season is well underway and fans across the country are once again engaging in what is fast becoming the other national pastime – tailgating. So if you want hit a pro game and join the party in the parking lot, here are a few ideas for some imaginative and delicious eats to serve up before kickoff courtesy of FoodNetwork.com.

On the more esoteric side, there is Guy Fieri, whose stuffed pupusas (www.foodnetwork.com/shows/guys-big-bite/guidos-tailgate-greats) are guaranteed to satisfy any hungry pre-game diner. This is a Mexican dish consisting of a thick corn tortilla stuffed with any number of fillings including chorizo, a variety of vegetables and cheese, then is baked or fried. Best of all, they can be made ahead of time so no muss, no fuss once at the stadium. Hearty fare for a hardy crowd.

If finger foods aren't your thing, then perhaps Melissa d'Arabian's game day chili (www.foodnetwork.com/shows/ten-dollar-dinners-with-melissa-darabian/videos/ten-dollar-tailgate) might be. Here, she makes hers with the usual ingredients including ground beef, onions, black beans, tomato sauce, canned tomatoes and seasonings, and adds bacon and beer for a malty flavor. And then there is a surprise ingredient – cocoa. Don't judge before you try.

For sides, how about Tyler Florence's potato salad (www.foodnetwork.com/shows/tylers-ultimate/videos/ultimate-tailgate)? here, the "Tyler's Ultimate" chef draws on his Southern heritage to make a mixture from small Yukon Gold potatoes, hard boiled egg, salt, minced red onion, dill, parsley, scallions, dill pickles and brine plus mayo, dijon mustard, olive oil and lemon to give it a creamy flavor. And don't forget the capers. Of course, this is made ahead of time as well but it'll be worth the extra work.

And no football game is complete without wings. Florence is all over that as well (www.foodnetwork.com/shows/tylers-ultimate/videos/ultimate-tailgate), roasting them ahead of time in the oven and tossing them with a mixture of honey, soy sauce, Thai red curry paste, lime zest and butter. If you like spicy wings, this imaginative take on a well-worn dish is for you.

And for dessert, there is Sandra Lee's New York cheesecake cookies (www.foodnetwork.com/shows/sandras-money-saving-meals/videos/city-tailgate-favorites). For this, you'll need a whole sleeve of Graham crackers, flour, butter, egg white and brown sugar for the base and cream cheese, egg yolk, lemon zest and vanilla for the filling. Certainly anything to do with cheesecake isn't dietary and this is no exception. Then again, we don't go tailgating to lose weight, do we?

“Movie: Support Your Local Sheriff!”

Makes sense; after all, he can toss you in jail. A stranger (James Garner) traveling to Australia stumbles into a gold-rush town and ends up becoming the sheriff. He manages to tame the lawless town and keep the peace by using his brains instead of his gun. Directed by Burt Kennedy, this 1969 comedy also stars Joan Hackett, Walter Brennan, Bruce Dern and Harry Morgan.

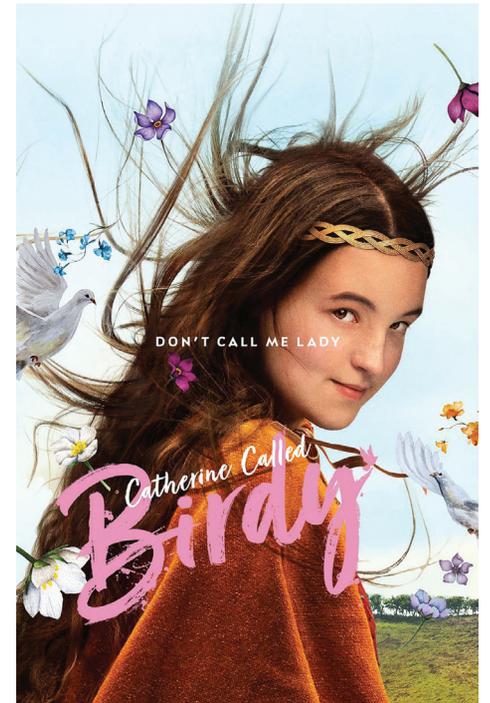

“Movie: The Lord of the Rings: The Fellowship of the Ring”

In director Peter Jackson's first installment of the epic trilogy, Frodo the hobbit (Elijah Wood) is enlisted to help the wizard Gandalf (Ian McKellen). Evil forces are gathering to control the land, and Frodo is given a magic ring, which he must destroy. He is accompanied on his journey by a noble assortment of companions. Viggo Mortensen, Orlando Bloom, Sean Astin and Dominic Monaghan co-star.

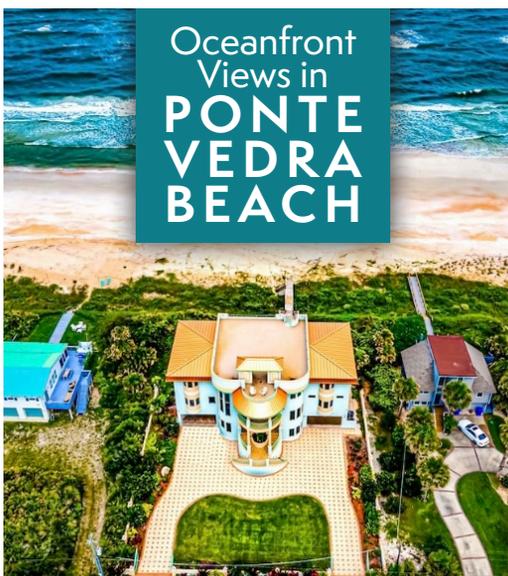

“Friday Night Lights”

Director Peter Berg's 2004 drama about a high school football team in an economically depressed Texas town was adapted for this critically lauded though often low-rated series about the lives of those in and around the Dillon Panthers, a team in a close-knit rural West Texas town. Kyle Chandler, Connie Britton, Zach Gilford and Taylor Kitsch are among the cast of the first season, which streams here.

“Movie: Catherine Called Birdy”

“Girls” creator Lena Dunham co-wrote and directed this adventure flick set in 1290 England that follows Lady Catherine (Bella Ramsey, “Game of Thrones”) aka “Birdy,” as she thwarts repeated attempts by her father, the destitute Lord Rollo (Andrew Scott, “His Dark Materials”) to marry her off for money. Lesley Sharp, Sophie Okonedo and Joe Alwyn also star. (ORIGINAL)
