Passion and imagination fuels 15 years in the business

People take a lot of pride in their cars and that includes the way they look.

This is something 3G's Auto Detailing Center understands and that trust in their services is why owner Gustavo Ramos believes they get the business they do after 15 years.

He started out simple enough by just doing work on cars of friends and people that he knew, and it was those friends that helped give him the push he needed to take the next step and turn his passion and knack for car detailing into a business of his own.

"My friends really started bringing their cars by to me, and it turned into the business that I have today," Ramos said. "It was a side passion that really became this big thing and a way that I could provide for my family."

The speed and sound of cars are aspects that capture so many people, but for Ramos the beauty of a car went beyond how fast it was.

"It was all about the shapes and the look of the curves," Ramos said.

According to Ramos, before working on any vehicle he visualizes what the end result should look like and then lays out the best plan to use in order to get there.

For Ramos, he could not imagine doing anything else and realizes how fortunate he is to have a job that he loves that allows him to be around cars all day long.

"I always tell my kids that the secret to success is to find your passion and build your life around that, not the other way around," Ramos said. "I wasn't able to fulfill this until I got older, but I'm here now."

Just as he had for years as a child, Ramos still gets to use his imagination on a daily basis and at times allows it to run a little wild.

"This is where my imagination comes to life," Ramos said. "I transform cars here, with my signature paint correction and ceramic coatings in order to preserve and protect."

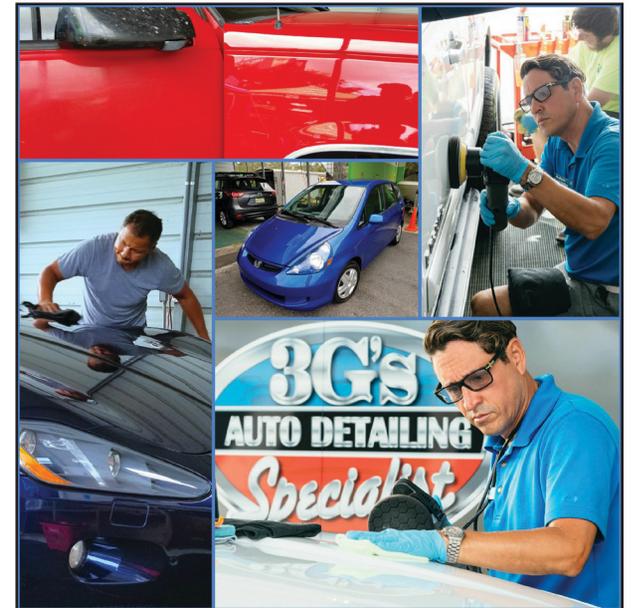

3G's specializes in bringing paint schemes that are faded or scratched back to life and restored to their original beauty.

At his location at 2135 State Road A1A South in St. Augustine, he has seen that the sun and salt water, which are very common in the local area can put their share of damage on a vehicle's exterior over time.

However, it is not just the outside that 3G's looks after, but they also have an interior detailing service to focus on giving an updated and fresh look to the inside of a vehicle as well.

"This entire transformation is what leads to a customer's satisfaction at the end, and that is what motivates me every day," Ramos said.

3G's is open weekdays from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and more information can be found on their Facebook page at 3G's Auto Detailing Center, their website at 3gautodetailing.com or by calling 904-364-0808.

“Movie: True Things”

Stellar performances from Ruth Wilson (“The Affair”) and Tom Burke (“Mank”) elevate director Harry Wootliff’s (“Only You”) psychological drama about a young woman whose quiet existence is overwhelmed when she plunges headlong into a physical relationship with an ex-convict with dyed blond hair. Hayley Squires, Elizabeth Rider and Frank McCusker also star.

“How I Met Your Father”

The adventures of Sophie (Hilary Duff) and her close-knit circle of New York friends continue in this comedy series told from the perspective of a woman in the near future recalling to her son how she met his father. Christopher Lowell, Francia Raisa, Tom Ainsley, Tien Tran and Suraj Sharma head the cast. (ORIGINAL)

“Extraordinary”

From debuting writer Emma Moran and the creative forces behind “Killing Eve” comes this British comedy set in a world where everyone acquires a superpower on their 18th birthday — that is, everyone but Jen (Mairead Tyers, “Belfast”), who struggles to figure out exactly what hers is. Siobhan McSweeney, Robbie Gee and Sofia Oxenham also star. (ORIGINAL)

“The 1619 Project”

Created by Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist Nikole Hannah-Jones and The New York Times Magazine, this six-episode limited series seeks to reframe the country’s history by placing the consequences of slavery and the contributions of Black Americans at the center of the national narrative. Belly on up for the best drinking movies

For those who have dedicated themselves to a Dry January, we salute your restraint. But the following list is not for you.

Drinking has made for some of the funniest storylines and moments in film history as well as some of its most memorable characters. After all, who can forget guzzling frat brother Bluto in “National Lampoon’s Animal House,” California wine-quaffing pals Miles and Jack from “Sideways” or philosophical New York barkeep Doug from “Cocktail”?

They’re all great characters who we laughed at, sometimes cried with and always cared about. Which is what great entertainment is all about. The following are some of the best films in that vein.

“National Lampoon’s Animal House” (Streams on Prime Video, Redbox, Vudu, Apple TV+): Director John Landis’ 1978 classic about the hedonistic antics of a 1950s college fraternity cemented stardom for “Saturday Night Live’s” John Belushi as the aforementioned Bluto as well as launched the long careers of Kevin Bacon, Karen Allen and future “Amadeus” Oscar nominee Tom Hulce.

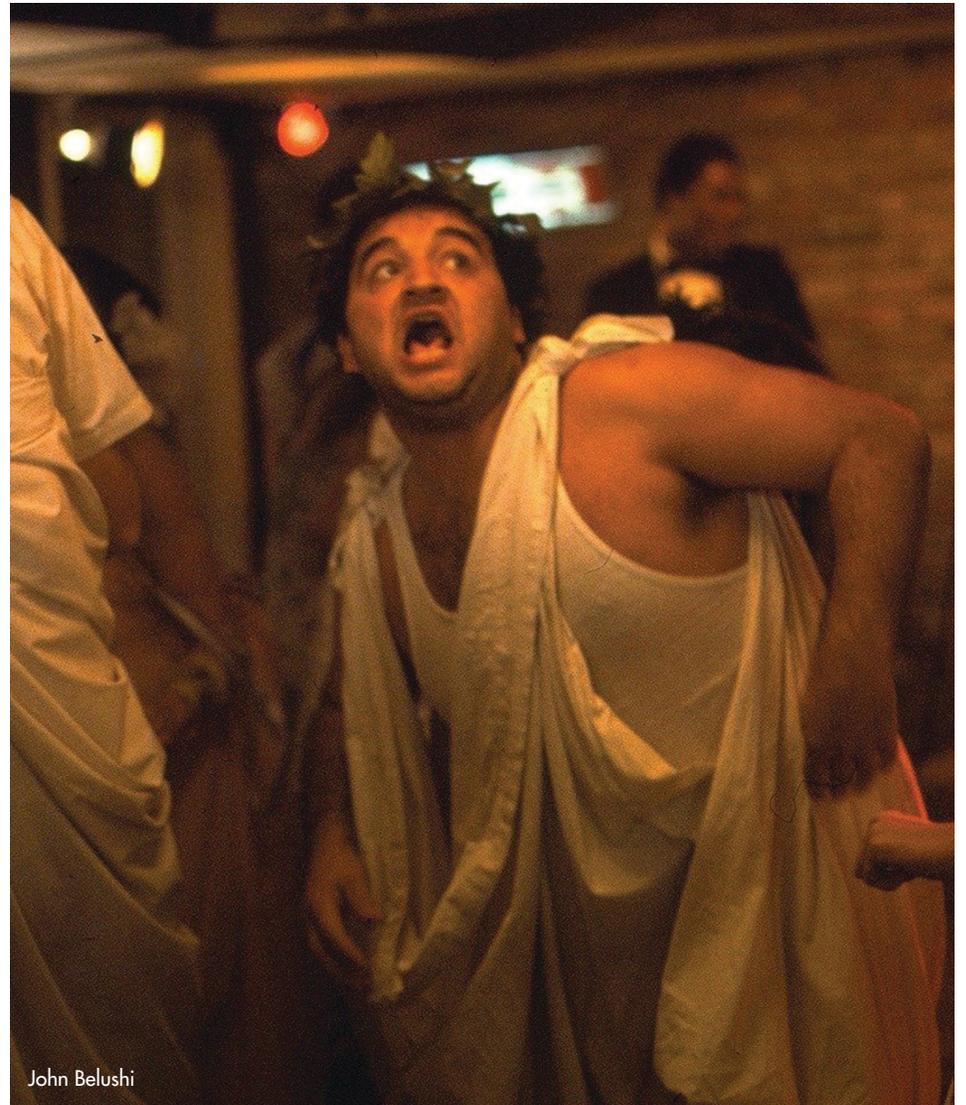

“Strange Brew” (Streams on Prime Video, Vudu, Apple TV+, Redbox): Canada exported the zany misadventures of SCTV’s Bob and Doug McKenzie to the U.S. with this 1983 comedy that starred Rick Moranis and Dave Thomas as the two dimwitted, beer-swilling brothers and hosts of the talk show “Great White North,” who discover something foul is afoot at the local local brewery where they work.

“Cocktail” (Streams on Prime Video, Apple TV+, Vudu, Redbox): While Tom Cruise was the headliner of Roger Donaldson’s 1988 dramedy about a talented New York bartender with big dreams, it is Bryan Brown who steals the show as Douglas Coughlin, his troubled friend and cohort with a cynical view of life and a self-destructive streak.

“Sideways” (Streams on Spectrum, HBO Max, Prime Video, Apple TV+): No list of great drinking movies is complete without Alexander Payne’s excellent 2004 dramedy about two Southern California pals (Paul Giamatti, Thomas Haden Church) who drink good wine, romance distinctive women (Virginia Madsen, Sandra Oh) and examine their own lives while touring Santa Barbara wine country in the days leading up to one’s wedding.

“Another Round” (Streams on Hulu, Prime Video, Apple TV+, Kanopy): In this 2020 Danish comedy, four teachers decide to test a theory that humans are born with too a low an alcohol level and thus proceed with a social experiment in which they consume limited amounts of it at work with the goal of achieving optimal performance as well as reduced stress and tension. The results are, well, mixed to say the least. Mads Mikkelsen (“Hannibal”) heads the cast.

“Movie: The Black Phone”

Abducted by a child killer and held in a soundproof basement, a 13-year-old begins receiving calls over a disconnected phone from his kidnapper’s victims in this 2021 horror thriller from director Scott Derrickson (“Deliver Us From Evil,” “Doctor Strange”). Ethan Hawke stars as “The Grabber” in a cast with Mason Thames, Madeleine McGraw and Jeremy Davies.

“Movie: Hércules”

Action meister Brett Ratner (“Red Dragon,” the “Rush Hour” film franchise) helmed this 2014 action/adventure yarn that casts Dwayne Johnson as the Greek demigod, who finds his life as a mercenary tested when the benevolent ruler of Thrace and his daughter seek his help in defeating a savage warlord. Ian McShane, Rufus Sewell, Joseph Fiennes and Rebecca Ferguson head a solid cast.

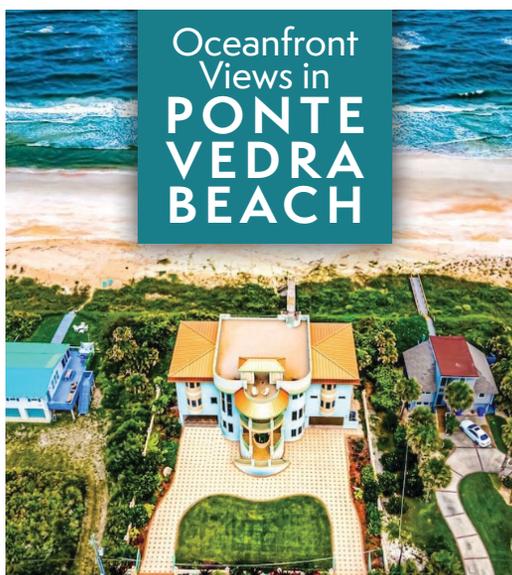

“Movie: The King’s Speech”

After winning virtually every film award as the stammering King George VI, Colin Firth was the unsurprising but hugely deserving recipient of a best actor Oscar for this superb drama. Director Tom Hooper and writer David Seidler received Academy Awards as well for the 2010 film, which also boasts nominated performances by Geoffrey Rush as George’s offbeat speech therapist and Helena Bonham Carter as George’s wife.

“Movie: Shotgun Wedding”

Jennifer Lopez and Josh Duhamel head the cast of this comedy as a couple who get cold feet on the eve of their lavish destination wedding, but they soon have bigger problems when criminals take the entire wedding party hostage. Jennifer Coolidge, Sonia Braga, Cheech Marin, Selena Tan and D’Arcy Carden are also in the cast for director Jason Moore (“Pitch Perfect,” “Sisters”). (ORIGINAL)
