"Back to the Future" is among the films excerpted in "STILL: A Michael J. Fox Movie," which streams Friday on Apple TV+.

Michael J. Fox's life has entailed a lot, and as his many fans long have been aware, not all of it has been for the cameras.

The five-time Primetime Emmy Award winner was at the height of his popularity as an actor when he received a diagnosis of Parkinson's disease in 1991, and both his private and public aspects get considerable attention in "STILL: A Michael J. Fox Movie," which Apple TV+ debuts Friday, May 12. Directed by Davis Guggenheim ("An Inconvenient Truth") – whose wife, Elisabeth Shue, worked with Fox in the "Back to the Future" franchise – the film factors dramatic re-creations into Fox-narrated recollections of his experiences.

Though Fox admits he had early difficulty emotionally in dealing with his health assessment, he ultimately channeled the situation into the nonprofit Michael J. Fox Foundation for Parkinson's Research. It has financed more than $1 billion in projects, including a recent breakthrough involving a spinal fluid test. Fox also has traced his life and times in several memoirs: "Lucky Man," "Always Looking Up: The Adventures of an Incurable Optimist" and "No Time Like the Future: An Optimist Considers Mortality."

Last year, the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences gave Fox the Jean Hersholt Humanitarian Award, also an acknowledgment of his significance as a member of the entertainment community. After he moved to Los Angeles from his native Canada, it wasn't long before he was cast as politically minded Alex P. Keaton in the sitcom "Family Ties"; during its seven-season run, he also scored such movie successes as the three "Back to the Future" films, "Teen Wolf" and "The Secret of My Success," plus image departures in "Bright Lights, Big City" (co-starring Fox's wife, Tracy Pollan) and "Casualties of War."

After making such early-1990s comedy films as "Doc Hollywood" and "For Love or Money," Fox returned to weekly sitcom work in "Spin City." Midway through that show's run, he went public with his Parkinson's news, and Charlie Sheen succeeded him in the series. However, Fox earned later acclaim for recurring guest roles on "Boston Legal," "Rescue Me" and "The Good Wife."

In 2012, Fox made a bid for series work again with "The Michael J. Fox Show," which incorporated aspects of his real life as he played a TV newsman. It lasted less than one season, but afterward, Fox reunited with earlier movie co-star and longtime friend Kiefer Sutherland in a guest arc on the latter's show "Designated Survivor."

Though Fox maintains that he has retired from acting, he notes that could change under the right circumstances. For now, he's back in the limelight by telling his own story in "STILL: A Michael J. Fox Movie," and it's a singular tale that's worth relating – and hearing – firsthand.

“Movie: Point Break”

Young FBI recruit Johnny Utah (Luke Bracey) goes under cover to infiltrate a gang of extreme athletes — including surfer and eco-warrior Bodhi (Edgar Ramirez) — who performs daredevil heists in this 2015 makeover of a 1991 action movie blockbuster that featured iconic performances by Patrick Swayze (as Bodhi) and Keanu Reeves (as Johnny).

“Movie: Ford v Ferrari”

James Mangold’s 2019 sports drama emerged as one of that year’s winners from every perspective, earning big bucks at the global box office, cheers from critics and multiple accolades, including an Oscar nomination for best picture and wins in two editing categories. Matt Damon and Christian Bale head the cast as, respectively, automotive designer Carroll Shelby and British driver Ken Miles, leaders of an American team determined to build a new racing car that can break the Ferrari winning streak at Le Mans. Jon Bernthal also stars.

“Movie: White Men Can't Jump”

This modern remix of the iconic 1992 comedy follows the adventures of two polar-opposite Los Angeles street ballers: Jeremy (rapper Jack Harlow in his feature film debut), a former star of the game whose injuries stalled his career; and Kamal (Sinqua Walls, “American Soul”), once a promising player who derailed his own future in the sport. (ORIGINAL) Premiere

“Movie: Sophie's Choice”

Meryl Streep stars as a young Polish refugee with a mysterious past as a concentration camp prisoner. Alan J. Pakula wrote and directed this 1982 film, set in postwar New York and based on the novel by William Styron. Streep won an Oscar and the New York Film Critics Circle award for her performance as Sophie. Kevin Kline and Peter MacNicol also star.

More A-listers do good as HGTV's 'Celebrity IOU' returns

Jonathan Scott says the renovations on "Celebrity IOU" are always good for an ugly cry for all involved. And he says the projects in the upcoming new season are no exception.

Premiering Monday, May 15, on HGTV, the new round picks up with he and fellow "Property Brother" Drew back at it helping celebrities give surprise home renovations to deserving friends and mentors. So in the eight episodes, they'll roll up their sleeves and get to work alongside such celebs as Kristin Chenoweth, Glenn Close, Jay Leno, Taraji P. Henson, Derek Hough and Kristin Davis.

In Monday's season opener, that do-gooder is model and former "Project Runway" host Heidi Klum, who gamely jumped right in to give Lucia, her housekeeper of 17 years, the fabulous and functional home of her dreams, complete with an open concept living area and large kitchen suitable for family gatherings.

"Heidi Klum is absolutely fearless and literally scaled the roof of Lucia's house to bring this renovation home for Lucia and her family," notes Jonathan Scott.

"Heidi jumped into any job we gave her to see Lucia get the upgrades she needed," Drew Scott adds, "including building her the kitchen of her dreams complete with state-of-the-art appliances and a huge island for cooking and entertaining."

Food Network celebrates Mother's Day with recipes for Mom and the family

As she's being served breakfast in bed this Sunday, Mom will have a full morning's worth of Mother's Day-related culinary programming to take in on Food Network.

The May 14 lineup kicks off bright and early with "Girl Meets Farm," which finds host Molly Yeh celebrating Mother's Day with a tea party and a menu of rose cupcake cones, savory hot dog flower buns, ham and cheese sandwiches on sour cream and chive scones and fairy toast with marzipan butter and homemade sprinkles.

Then on "Valerie's Home Cooking," Ms. Bertinelli practices a little self-care for Mother's Day by inviting over friend and actress Angela Kinsey ("The Office") for a decadent meal of roasted cod with cashew coconut lime topping, tangy quick collards and a tomato and cucumber salad with cumin vinaigrette. And for dessert, she serves up a citrus upside-down cake. We're still waiting for our invitation.

A little later on "The Pioneer Woman," Ree Drummond is enjoying a little pampering. While she's out for the afternoon, the boys are in the kitchen preparing filet steaks with shrimp peppercorn sauce, along with ranch-style oven potatoes and roasted asparagus. But she's not out of the kitchen entirely as she makes an Italian chicken soup and some homemade cherry pie. Yum!

Then immediately following, Drummond is back to share some ideas for a special lunch just for Mom. In this case, it starts with grilled chicken lettuce wraps with Italian-style filling, accompanied by a colorful grain salad. For dessert, she makes dark chocolate espresso sundaes, washed down with blood orange and basil wine spritzers.

At midday, Kardea Brown hosts a Mother's Day lunch for some childhood best friends on "Delicious Miss Brown." On the menu is a scalloped potato-stuffed chicken with a sugar snap pea Salad with roasted grapes. Then for dessert, there is a lemon meringue pie with shortbread cookie crust, tart lemon filling and pillowy meringue. And let's not forget the strawberry rose daiquiri, a frozen cocktail made from sparkling rose, rum and strawberries.

And in the afternoon, head to "The Kitchen," where the chefs are celebrating their mothers with recipes inspired by them. So for Geoffrey Zakarian, that means making savory lamb sliders with a rose elderflower sangria. Meanwhile, Jeff Mauro prepares a shrimp and pea pasta, Alex Guarnaschelli skewers up her fresh griddled flatbread and Katie Lee Biegel shares her grandmother's award-winning angel food cake recipe.

Barbara Billingsley in "Leave It to Beaver"

BEST TV MOMS

June Cleaver (Barbara Billingsley, "Leave It to Beaver"): This mother commendably kept her cool in the face of the frequently precocious antics of youngest son Theodore ... or "Beaver" (Jerry Mathers).

Margaret Anderson (Jane Wyatt, "Father Knows Best"): One of the prototypes of the American family woman on 1950s television, this character actually originated on radio.

Donna Stone (Donna Reed, "The Donna Reed Show"): The role of this idealized wife and mom made Reed one of the first Oscar winners to cross over from movies to a TV series.

Wilma Flintstone (voice of Jean Vander Pyl, "The Flintstones"): This Stone Age woman's dryly humorous outlook helped her stay focused in the prehistoric era.

Maureen Robinson (June Lockhart, "Lost in Space"): If being an effective mom seems challenging enough, try achieving it in other worlds, as this lady did.

Julia Baker (Diahann Carroll, "Julia"): This nurse, widow and single parent was groundbreaking for TV in many ways at the time (1968-71).

Carol Brady (Florence Henderson,

"The Brady Bunch"): Well, of course. Through many years and many variations on the original show, this was the "lovely lady who was bringing up three very lovely girls."

Shirley Partridge (Shirley Jones, "The Partridge Family"): It took a tuneful and spirited matriarch, and a colorfully decorated bus, to keep this clan on the road to sustained musical success.

Edith Bunker (Jean Stapleton, "All in the Family"): As daffy as she might have seemed much of the time, this doting housewife had nothing but pure love for her daughter Gloria (Sally Struthers)

“Movie: Ticket to Paradise”

George Clooney and Julia Roberts bring their considerable onscreen charisma to this otherwise lightweight 2022 romantic comedy in which they star as David and Georgia Cotton, a bickering divorced couple who travel to Bali to keep their soon-to-wed daughter Lily (Kaitlyn Dever, “Dopesick”) from making the same mistake they made 25 years earlier. Billie Lourd (“American Horror Story”) also stars.

“Movie: Crazy Love”

Dan Klores (“Ring of Fire: The Emile Griffith Story”) co-directed (with Fisher Stevens) and wrote this 2007 documentary that examines the case of Burt Pugach, a married New York lawyer whose obsession with much-younger Linda Riss eventually led to a horrific act for which he spent 14 years in prison.

“Movie: I Melt With You”

The past becomes the present for several pals from college — played by Thomas Jane (“Hung”), Rob Lowe, Jeremy Piven (“Entourage”) and Christian McKay — in this 2011 drama. During their annual get-together, they dredge up an agreement they made in their younger days, and their effort to fulfill it takes surprising and unfortunate turns. Co-stars include Carla Gugino, Arielle Kebbel, Melora Hardin (“The Office”) and Sasha Grey.

“Primo”

Shea Serrano (“Hip Hop: The Songs That Shook America”) created this coming-of-age comedy inspired by his own life growing up in San Antonio, Texas, that follows 16-year-old Rafa as he navigates life with a clever mom and five overbearing uncles as well as the confluence of three major life events — graduating high school, first love and the prospect of college. Ignacio Diaz-Silverio and Johnny Rey Diaz star. (ORIGINAL) Series Premiere

Ryan Seacrest

Q: Why did it say that Ryan Seacrest’s last “Live With Kelly and Ryan” episode was recorded earlier, when the show is supposed to be live? – Judy Marks, Reading, Pa.

Why Ryan Seacrest left ‘Live’ on tape

A: Given the occasion that Seacrest’s sign-off was, the show’s staff likely wanted extra time to get things right and as gaffe-free as possible. It also was a way to ensure that everything got in without the show running over its allotted hour, which couldn’t occur with a syndicated program being sent to many local stations across the country. That overrun would have been easy to happen, given all the clips shown from Seacrest’s tenure on the program ... plus his wanting to address family members who were in that day’s audience, plus the presence of First Lady Dr. Jill Biden as a guest, plus the presentation of a celebratory cake to Seacrest by his successor Mark Consuelos (co-host Kelly Ripa’s husband).

Q: Wasn’t Sylvester Stallone on “This Is Us”? – Jo Cooper, Columbus, Ohio

A: He was, playing himself in a war movie — directed by Ron Howard, within the context of that story — that Kevin (Justin Hartley) landed a role in. Kate (Chrissy Metz), a huge Stallone fan like Kevin, visited the set and got to meet her idol. And Stallone imparted some valuable, memorable wisdom to the personally troubled Kevin.

How Stallone got the gig is interesting, since the invitation was extended by another star of the former NBC series ... Milo Ventimiglia, who had played the son of Stallone’s title character in “Rocky Balboa.” The television job also gave Stallone a taste of series life, which he’s now experiencing for himself on two Paramount+ shows, “Tulsa King” and “The Family Stallone.”

What our customers say about us...

Two of my friends recommended Creeks to me and I'm so glad they did. The estimator was friendly, open and honest and gave several options and the installers were courteous, on time and cleaned up the working area. Plus, the system works great. No one likes to have to buy a new AC in the middle of summer, but their price was fair and the work was good. Highly recommend! - Renay T.

From the moment you reach out to Creeks Air Conditioning and Heating you will recognize their professionalism and commitment to service are superior in the industry. The polite voice answering your call will reassure and work proficiently to accommodate answering your questions while placing your needs as their priority. From sales to installation, the representatives of Creeks Air Conditioning and Heating demonstrate their excellence in every aspect of their profession. I have called upon them on two separate occasions in two different homes (never the same unit) over the past 15 years and will continue to use them if I need HVAC repair or replacement. - DC Junior
