Mishel Prada in "The Continental: From the World of John Wick"

The 'Continental' experience: John Wick franchise gets three-night TV stay

For many of us, when we book a stay in a hotel (particularly a luxury one), comfort ranks above all else. Though the meaning of the word "comfort" varies from one person to the next and could encompass anything from the thread count of the bedsheets to one's proximity to the bar, "comfort" in the world of John Wick is most closely associated with personal safety.

Those familiar with the John Wick franchise will already be aware of The Continental's most important rule: the assassins seeking refuge within the hotel shall not conduct any "business" on the grounds. Put simply, no hits will be tolerated on the premises.

That said, NBC/Peacock is certainly hoping for a hit of its own (granted, a "hit" of a different kind) when the new miniseries "The Continental: From the World of John Wick" begins streaming Friday, Sept. 22, on Peacock.

John Wick (Keanu Reeves, "The Matrix," 1999), the trained assassin who lends his name to the franchise supported by The Continental Hotel, first made audiences fall in love with him in the 2014 film, simply titled "John Wick." Despite his former career as a hitman, Wick exhibits a soft side while taking care of a new beagle puppy in the wake of his wife's death. However, when a group of gangsters breaks into Wick's home and the puppy is targeted, Wick loses all sensitivity and comes out of retirement to avenge his furry friend. And while Wick's situation may change from film to film, one thing that remains a constant throughout the franchise is The Continental; and this is where Peacock's newest series comes in.

Created by Greg Coolidge ("Ride Along," 2014), Shawn Simmons ("Wayne") and Kirk Ward ("The Turkey Bowl," 2019), "The Continental: From the World of John Wick" is a three-part noir-action miniseries that focuses on the history of the mysterious hotel chain that operates as "neutral territory for members of the criminal underworld" (per IMDb).

Colin Woodell ("The Flight Attendant") stars as a young Winston Scott, the manager of The Continental's New York division and a character already known to franchise fans thanks to the work of "Deadwood" actor Ian McShane. The role of Winston is a meaty one for Woodell, filled with lots of backstory for both character and setting as the series' events dive deep into real-life New York crime history.

While the specifics of the miniseries are being kept a secret for obvious reasons, there has been word that the events take place over three nights at The Continental in the 1970s and that there is a correlation to both the Winter of Discontent and the rise of the American Mafia.

Additionally, audiences can expect to see a few familiar faces along the way; most notably that of controversial actor Mel Gibson ("Braveheart," 1995). Joining Gibson and Woodell on the small screen are Nhung Kate ("The Housemaid," 2016) as Yen, Katie McGrath ("Supergirl") as the Adjudicator, Jessica Allain ("The Laundromat," 2019) as Lou, Adam Shapiro ("Never Have I Ever") as Lemmy, Jeremy Bobb ("The Knick") as Mayhew, Dan Li ("Luther: The Fallen Sun," 2023) as Orphan Master, Sallay Garnett ("Conversations with Friends") as the Concierge, Peter Greene ("Pulp Fiction," 1994) as young Uncle Charlie (portrayed later in life by "Twin Peaks" reboot actor David Patrick Kelly), and new talent Ayomide Adegun as Charon, a role made famous by beloved actor and TV personality Lance Reddick ("White House Down," 2013), who died earlier this year.

“Krapopolis” - Season 1 (Sept. 25)

Set in mythical ancient Greece, this new animated comedy from Fox tells the story of a dysfunctional family of humans, gods and monsters trying to run one of the world's first cities, while also trying their best to not kill each other in the process. The series features the voices of Hannah Waddingham, Richard Ayoade, Matt Berry, Pam Murphy and Duncan Trussell.

“Kitchen Nightmares” - Season 8 (Sept. 26)

This Fox reality series follows chef Gordon Ramsay as he hits the road in search of restaurants in crisis, where he steps in and addresses some of the most stressful aspects of running a successful food business. Ramsay and his team redecorate each eatery to give it a fresh look in the hope of attracting a larger crowd, with the ultimate goal of making the restaurants he visits profitable for their struggling owners.

“The Kardashians” - Season 4 Premiere (Sept. 28)

The cameras are back with all access to the personal and private lives of Kris, Kourtney, Kim, Khloé, Kendall and Kylie. From second chances and new beginnings to unexpected blessings, they continue to bare it all together, a reminder that the most beautiful part of life is family.

“Movie: No One Will Save You” (Available Now)

This sci-fi thriller stars Kaitlyn Dever as Brynn Adams, a creative and talented young woman who's been alienated from her community. Lonely but ever hopeful, Brynn finds solace within the walls of the home where she grew up—until she's awakened one night by strange noises from decidedly unearthly intruders. What follows is an action-packed face-off between Brynn and a host of extraterrestrial beings who threaten her future while forcing her to deal with her past.

“Movie: The Wonderful Story of Henry Sugar” (Sept. 27)

Director and writer Wes Anderson brings a beloved Roald Dahl story to the screen in this short film. It chronicles a variety of stories, but the main one follows Henry Sugar (Benedict Cumberbatch), a rich man who learns about a guru who can see without using his eyes and then sets out to master the skill in order to cheat at gambling. Ralph Fiennes, Ben Kingsley, Dev Patel, Richard Ayoade and Rupert Friend star.

“Encounters” (Sept. 27)

Taking a closer look at some extraordinary true stories, this new, four-part docuseries travels the globe to explore encounters with otherworldly phenomena. Looking into strange lights in the sky over small-town Texas; submersible space crafts haunting a coastal Welsh village; an alien encounter with schoolchildren in Zimbabwe; and non-human intelligence reportedly interfering with a nuclear power plant in Japan, the stories are told from the perspective of firsthand experiencers.

“Movie: Street Flow 2” (Sept. 27)

Two years after his brush with death, Demba (Kery James) tries to turn his life around and resist the desire for revenge. Noumouké (Bakary Diombera) gets involved in brawls between rival neighborhoods, and Soulaymaan (Jammeh Diangana), torn between his convictions and ambitions, takes his first steps as a lawyer. Can the three brothers resist the wave of violence and the brutality of the events that befall them?

“Movie: Love Is in the Air” (Sept. 28)

Dana Randall (Delta Goodrem) is an ultra-committed pilot for non-profit air service, Fullerton Airways, located in picturesque Far North Queensland. When a London-based financial representative, William (Joshua Sasse), is sent to Fullerton Airways to review the organization's financials, Dana welcomes him, aware that they rely heavily on his company's subsidies. What Dana doesn't know is that William's audit is to confirm the business's financial struggles and to prepare for its closure. As William spends time with Dana and the Island community, his loyalty is torn his job and a blossoming romance.

Ramsay reclaims fall: 'Kitchen Nightmares' returns for Season 8

Superstar chef Gordon Ramsay is adding an old-favorite dish to Fox's fall menu as "Kitchen Nightmares" returns with its highly anticipated eighth season after a decade-long hiatus. New episodes premiere Monday, Sept. 25, on Fox.

The network is no stranger to Ramsay's distinct – now practically trademarked – in-your-face, abrupt and (sometimes) devastatingly honest critiques, as Fox is currently home to four other shows hosted by the celebrity chef: "Next Level Chef," "MasterChef," "MasterChef Jr." and "Hell's Kitchen," which is slated to return with its 22nd season – dubbed "Hell's Kitchen: American Dream" – on Thursday, Sept. 28 (also on Fox).

His most popular (and perhaps most quoted) series – "Kitchen Nightmares" – first aired in the U.K. as "Ramsay's Kitchen Nightmares" before making its debut on Fox in 2007. The series ran for nearly 100 episodes before concluding in 2014, much to viewers' dismay.

Later, in 2017, Ramsay told the Daily News: "Yes, it was wrong to pull my own show off air. ... The biggest demand over the last four years is for 'Kitchen Nightmares' (to come back)." Hungry fans have been waiting since then for word of the show's potential return.

Now, with Season 8 around the corner, Fox has shared an updated synopsis for the series: "Chef Gordon Ramsay hits the road to help struggling restaurants all over the United States turn their luck around. Ramsay examines the problems each establishment faces, from unsanitary refrigerators to lazy or inexperienced staff, and searches for resolutions. With help from his team, Ramsay redecorates each eatery to give it a fresh new look and updates the menu as needed. Ramsay's ultimate goal is to make the restaurants he visits popular and profitable, but it's up to the restaurateurs to take his advice and turn their business nightmare into the American dream."

In each episode, Ramsay gives himself, restaurant owners and the rest of their team one week to turn their failing restaurant into spick-and-span, neatly operating (and with any luck, delicious) businesses.

Originally produced by ITV Studios (now known as ITV America), the series will now be produced by Gordon's very own Studio Ramsay Global – and the more Gordon Ramsay, the better. With more insults, code violations and stomach-churning dishes, "Kitchen Nightmares" returns to Fox, Monday, Sept. 25.

BEST FRANK SINATRA MOVIES

Frank Sinatra and Debbie Reynolds in "The Tender Trap"

"On the Town" (1949): Sinatra, Gene Kelly and Jules Munshin live it up energetically as sailors who pack in all the fun they can while on a 24-hour leave in New York.

"From Here to Eternity" (1953): Sinatra's fight to land the role of Maggio in this military drama about the Pearl Harbor attack paid off big, since he won a supporting Oscar (as did co-star Donna Reed).

"Suddenly" (1954): In this intense melodrama, Sinatra plays a captor of a family as he invades their home and waits to assassinate the U.S. president.

"Guys and Dolls" (1955): Sinatra is gambler Nathan Detroit in the screen version of the famously sassy hit musical.

"The Tender Trap" (1955): A major highlight of this romantic comedy is the opening, in which Sinatra shows off the wide screen by walking toward the camera singing the title song.

"The Man With the Golden Arm" (1955): A stunning Sinatra plays a recovered heroin addict struggling to keep from resuming the habit in Otto Preminger's drama.

"High Society" (1956): "What a swell party this is," indeed, as Sinatra teams with Bing Crosby and Grace Kelly in this musical take on "The Philadelphia Story."

"Pal Joey" (1957): Sinatra has the title role in the Rodgers and Hart musical about a singing womanizer whose deepening affection for a chorus member (Kim Novak) doesn't keep him from trying to use a former flame (Rita Hayworth).

"The Joker Is Wild" (1957): Sinatra is terrific in the true story of comedian Joe E. Lewis, who incurred the wrath of mobsters in a drastic way.

"Ocean's Eleven" (1960): This popular casino-heist caper, the first of Sinatra's "Rat Pack" movies with such pals as Dean Martin and Sammy Davis Jr., was reborn as a franchise for George Clooney and company four decades later

"The Manchurian Candidate" (1962): A Korean War veteran's (Sinatra) hunch that a former comrade (Laurence Harvey) is being prepped to commit an assassination fuels this controversial thriller, which Sinatra also produced.

Damian Lewis in “Billions”

Q: Damian Lewis’s return to “Billions” is very welcome. Why did he leave the show in the first place? – Steve Dayton, Orlando, Fla.

Damian Lewis gets his “Billions” payoff

A: When the actor signed off as Bobby “Axe” Axelrod after the first five seasons of the Showtime and Paramount+ With Showtime drama, his wife – actress Helen McCrory (“Peaky Blinders,” “Skyfall”) – had recently passed. He hasn’t addressed that as the specific reason for his leaving, but it undoubtedly had a contributing impact. In terms of his coming back to “Billions,” it likely was appealing to Lewis to know that he would have a limited run, since this is the final season of the show. It also lets Axe get back to being Axe, since this round will do much to determine the character’s enduring legacy, which could continue (though it hasn’t been guaranteed) if he resurfaces in one of the “Billions” spinoffs that are being planned.

Q: It’s nice to see Molly McCollum back on The Weather Channel. It seems like she was off for a long time. Where was she? – Donna Crain, via e-mail

A: She was on maternity leave. She and her husband welcomed their first child, a son, in May. If she had been missing her career, McCollum – who previously worked at stations in Atlanta, Ga. (which also happens to be The Weather Channel’s home base), Tulsa, Okla., and Wichita, Kan. – came back to plenty of activity, since she spent the early days of her return covering the aftermath of the wildfires in Maui and the then-approach of Hurricane Hilary in Southern California.

The first week, McCollum did some fill-in work for Alex Wilson on the weekday program “Weather Underground,” then she was back the following weekend for Hilary coverage as that storm was reaching its peak. Now that she has returned, expect to continue seeing her in various places around the channel’s schedule.
