A message from the superintendent of schools

Dr. Tammy Garrett will retire in June after 5 years of service to Bedford County schools. Most 2026 graduates had just started high school when she was appointed as superintendent. From dealing with COVID to building new wings and schools, she's been there. From the classes of 2026 and their families: Thank you Dr. G!

Dear Graduating Seniors,

We celebrate an incredible milestone in your lives - your high school graduation. This moment represents years of hard work, perseverance, growth and determination. On behalf of our entire school system, I offer you my heartfelt congratulations. We are proud of you, and we believe in the bright future that lies ahead.

As you step into this next chapter, I encourage you to carry with you not only the knowledge you've gained but also a deep sense of purpose. Each of you has the ability to make a meaningful difference in the world - starting right in your own community. Whether your path leads you to college, the workforce, the military or another journey, never underestimate the impact of kindness, service and leadership.

Communities thrive when people choose to give back - when they lend a helping hand, lift others up and invest their time and talents for the greater good. You have already shown that you can rise to challenges and achieve great things. Now, I challenge you to use those same strengths to make a positive impact on the lives of others.

Remember, success is not measured only by personal achievements, but by how you contribute to something bigger than yourself. Be the person who shows up, who cares deeply and who leaves every place better than you found it.

As you move forward, carry your dreams boldly, stay connected to your roots and know that you will always be a valued part of this community. We will be cheering you on every step of the way.

Congratulations, Class of 2026! Your future is bright, and your potential is limitless.

*With pride and best wishes,
Dr. Tammy Garrett
Superintendent of Bedford County Schools*

Self-Care for Graduates

We thank therapist Jan Lamb of Lamb Counseling Services for this great guest article. Please share this with the seniors you know.

As you begin your life after high school, these are some tips on taking care of yourself and your mental health.

1. Take time to breathe

Our world moves at such a fast pace that it takes our breath away. Take the time to stop and breathe. Breathe before you speak, before you text, before you post, and before you email.

2. Ground yourself

Grounding can be as simple as stopping to look around the room and notice 5 things. You can elaborate on that by naming 5 things for each of your 5 senses.

Take a walk outside. Notice the trees, flowers, and the animals that you see.

3. Separate your thoughts from feelings

Disturbing thoughts can be fleeting but disturbing feelings stay with us for a longer period of time. Disturbing thoughts are more like darts that are shooting through and not sticking. Feelings tend to stick and must be dealt with more extensively than thoughts.

4. Stay present

Do not get caught up in the "if on-lys" or the "what ifs"! "If on-lys" make us live in the past. If only I had said something different. If only I had driven a different way. If only I could have one more conversation with that person.

"What ifs" keep us daydreaming about the future. What if this person does this and this person responds this way. What if I make the wrong career choice? What if I marry the wrong person?

Stop those negative thought processes by bringing yourself into the present. You can use the grounding techniques above. You can memorize Scripture that helps you remember to stay focused on the present. Learning to catch these thoughts is difficult but can change the course of a life when mastered.

Take care of yourself and your mental health!

If your mental health is suffering, I urge you to reach out to me or another mental health professional in our community for help!
