Strange BUT TRUE

By Samantha Weaver

- It was famed Irish author George Bernard Shaw who made the following sage observation: "A government which robs Peter to pay Paul can always depend on the support of Paul."
- Although we tend to think of the bikini as a modern fashion innovation, two-piece bathing suits can be seen in murals in the ancient city of Pompeii.
- If you're a fan of the "Star Trek" franchise, you might want to plan a trip to the capital of Sweden. It was in Stockholm last year that the world's first Klingon tourist center opened.
- There seems to be quite a rivalry between the towns of Rosehill, North Carolina, and Wilmington, Delaware. Both locales claim to be the home of the world's largest frying pan, with a diameter of 10 feet. This begs some questions, of course: How many eggs are being fried at once to require such a large piece of cookware? And what sort of stove is required to heat such a mammoth pan?
- If you're like most Americans, you've stolen from your employer — though probably not much. It seems that 58% of your fellow citizens admit to taking office supplies for personal use.
- The London-based 40FT Brewery has an unusual beer on its list of offerings: Odius Ale. Its claim to fame? It's brewed using yeast collected from writer Roald Dahl's chair.
- There was a time when cartoon character Fred Flintstone appeared in ads for Winston cigarettes.
- I don't know who studies such things, but those who do say that over the course of a lifetime, you'll probably spend about three years in the restroom.

A front of bitter cold winter weather spreads across New England, forcing us all inside to escape the chilly seasonal temperatures. But we New Englanders are tough and a little cold weather doesn't stop us from celebrating at holiday parties, sports banquets, milestone birthdays, anniversaries, charity events and all the many other reasons we gather to usher in the New Year. Even though the season may feel a little dormant, festivities are still filling up the calendar, business functions and conferences are still being held and the finishing touches are still being put on fund raisers that are planned for venues far and wide.

Now is as good a time as ever for event planners and organizations alike to promote their products or services. Along with making your special event memorable, unique and timeless, growing your business or company by increasing the exposure of its brand is the job of RhodyPrints Promotional Products. RhodyPrints, a division of Beacon Communications & Providence Media, is the best place to go to find a wide assortment of keepsake (and functional) items to commemorate your event.

If you are busy planning an event, business function or fundraiser this season, go that extra mile by contacting Bob Giberti at RhodyPrints. Bob Giberti, a longtime expert in the field of marketing and promotions, will take your business, event or organization to a whole new level with his vast knowledge of his product lines. He is experienced, creative and professional. He knows better than anyone that a well-placed promotional or personalized product can make a world of difference to the success of a business or event. He also knows that similar products purchased online can never guarantee the superior quality of the product lines he has known and worked with for years.

Some of the seemingly endless products available through RhodyPrints include these items, each inscribed with your name, motto, inspirational message or business logo:

- Headwear • T-shirts • Work wear • Golf shirts
- Fleece • Sweaters • Uniforms • Blankets

Yankee Doodle Dandy Pie

What a great day to honor the birthday of the USA. And what a great dessert we've created just for the celebration. Three cheers for the red, white and blue!

- 1 (4-serving) package sugar-free vanilla cook-and-serve pudding mix
- 2/3 cup nonfat dry milk powder
- 1 cup water
- 1 (8-ounce) package fat-free cream cheese
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1 (6-ounce) purchased graham cracker pie crust
- 1 cup sliced fresh strawberries
- 3/4 cup fresh blueberries
- Sugar substitute to equal 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1/2 cup reduced-calorie whipped topping

1. In a medium saucepan, combine dry pudding mix, dry milk powder and water. Cook over medium heat until mixture thickens and starts to boil, stirring often. Remove from heat. Blend in cream cheese and vanilla extract, using a wire whisk. Spread mixture into pie crust. Refrigerate for at least 3 hours.

2. In a medium bowl, combine strawberries, blueberries and sugar substitute. Evenly sprinkle fruit mixture over top of filling. Refrigerate until ready to serve. When serving, top each piece with 1 tablespoon whipped topping. Makes 8 servings.

• Each serving equals: 178 calories, 6g fat, 7g protein, 24g carb., 395mg sodium, 2g fiber; Diabetic Exchanges: 1 1/2 Starch, 1/2 Meat, 1/2 Fat.

To Whom it may Concern,

I am writing about the Coventry Senior Center closing the Monday Night Bingo after 35 plus years. It is not fair. Some Seniors get out only a few times a week. It is socializing and friendship, which means a lot. I thought it was for the elderly NOT about making a lot of money. Please help us get the Bingo back.

PLEASE HELP US.

Thank you,
The Seniors of Coventry

• On July 11, 1656, Ann Austin and Mary Fisher, two Englishwomen, become the first Quakers to immigrate to the Massachusetts Bay Colony. Their liberal teachings enraged the Puritan colonial government and they were arrested and jailed. After five years in prison, they were deported.

• On July 12, 1862, President Abraham Lincoln signs into law a measure calling for the awarding of a U.S. Army Medal of Honor. The previous December, Lincoln had approved a provision creating a U.S. Navy Medal of Valor. To date more than 3,400 men and one woman have received the Medal of Honor.

• On July 8, 1951, Paris, the capital city of France, celebrates turning 2,000 years old. However, the City of Lights was most likely founded around 250 B.C., when a Gallic tribe known as the Parisii settled an island (Ile de la Cite) in the Seine River, which runs through present-day Paris.

• On July 9, 1962, Bob Dylan records "Blowin' in the Wind," although it wouldn't be released for another year. The most well-known version was done by Peter, Paul and Mary, which became a hit.

• On July 10, 1985, in Auckland harbor in New Zealand, Greenpeace's Rainbow Warrior sinks after French agents in diving gear plant a bomb on the ship's hull. Although French authorities denied responsibility, a British newspaper later uncovered evidence of French President Francois Mitterrand's authorization of the bombing plan.

• On July 13, 1990, the romantic-thriller "Ghost" opens in theaters. The film, about a woman who communicates with her murdered husband through a sassy psychic, was a box-office hit and received multiple Academy Award nominations.

POP ROCK & SOUL TRIVIA BY MICK HARPER

1. Name the John Denver song that was inadvertently written to the tune of Tchaikovsky's Fifth Symphony.
2. Which international festival in 1979 featured Stephen Stills, Bonnie Bramlett, the Trio of Doom, Pacho Alonso, Fania All-Stars, Billy Joel, Weather Report and Mike Finnegan?
3. Name the debut song by The Foundations, a group made up of a Brit, a Sri Lankan and West Indian members.
4. In the 1988 song "Buffalo Stance," by Neneh Cherry, what is Buffalo?
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "When no one else can understand me, When everything I do is wrong, You give me hope and consolation, You give me strength to carry on."

Answers

1. "Annie's Song," in 1974. Once it was pointed out, Denver spent an hour writing a new melody.
2. The three-day Havana Jam.
3. "Baby, Now That I've Found You," in 1967.
4. Buffalo was the group of models, makeup artists and photographers brought together for the Buffalo fashion house.
5. "The Wonder of You," by Elvis Presley in 1970. Oddly enough, the slow, romantic song has been picked up by the Port Vale Football Club in England. The stadium of fans sing it at the start of every home game. (See YouTube videos.)

Fourth of July Inspires Chinese Punch Bowl

Be careful when using old reference books. Modern research methods, excavations and old documents that were unknown for years have led to changed histories. The Chinese Export porcelain dishes that picture the signers of the Declaration of Independence originally were thought to be made about 1820 when they copied an 1817 painting by John Trumbull. The men posed while signing the document had Chinese faces, because the decorators probably had never seen a Caucasian man. Full sets were made in this pattern. Collectors and museums paid high prices for examples in the 1950s to 1970s.

The signing of the Declaration of Independence is shown on this Chinese Export punch bowl. The pattern must have been inspired by an 1817 American painting, even though the men on the bowl look Chinese. It sold for $5,228 at auction.

When the existing examples were studied, slight differences in the decoration led to the belief that this design was made for much of the 19th century. It probably was available during the 1876 Philadelphia celebration of the Centennial of the Declaration of Independence. This led to lower prices, but large or unique pieces remain popular and high priced. A punch bowl with a diameter of 11 1/2 inches sold several years ago at a Skinner auction in Boston for $5,228. It pictured 13 blue stars, the men in groups, and a spread-winged eagle with a body that looks like the Union Shield.

an early-bird box of puzzles, stickers, membership in the Star Wars Club, Luke Skywalker's autograph and future delivery of the four figures. The toys were delivered in March 1978.

Of course the early-bird box, the contents, and the first toys are the Star Wars collectors "holy grails." It is said that a package in great condition would sell for $7,500 or more. There have been eight movies and more, and another movie due later this year. Their popularity adds to the fame and price of the memorabilia.

Q. I heard a story that the first "Star Wars" toys were offered for sale before they were made, so the company sold an IOU letter for the first toy characters and more. Is that true? How long was it after the movie was shown before the toys were for sale?

A. The first "Star Wars" movie was released May 25, 1977. Kenner Products, a Cincinnati toy company, had bought the rights to make toys based on the film. But there was not enough time to make small plastic figures, just board games. The popularity of the movie signaled that the toys would be best-sellers, so they sold an IOU for $11.99 that could be redeemed at Christmas for

HOLY SPIRIT, You who solve all problems. You light all roads so that I can obtain my goals. You who give me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evil against me and that in all instances of my life, you are with me. I want in this short prayer to thank you for all things and to confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you even and in spite of all material illusions. I wish to be with you in eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine. Say for three days. After 3 days the favor requested will be granted even if it appears difficult. This prayer must be published immediately after favor is granted without mentioning favor. Thank you Holy Spirit.

"Over the Counter"

by Bill Marcotte, Proprietor

Again, in recognition of the Fourth of July, I thought I would reprise my list of things to do on that day, that I wrote in July of 1999. There seemed to be a lot of people who really enjoyed that article. It was fun writing it, and I think my list of things to do would not change if I wrote it again... so here you go:

1. Take the day off.
  2. Spend the morning with a cup of coffee on the deck or in the kitchen... wherever. Just enjoy the quiet.
  3. If you live near the water take out the canoe.
  4. If you don't then try the bike path. Go for a walk.
  5. Find a parade or celebration. March along with the band.
  6. Have a bar-b-que... or a picnic.
  7. Surround yourself with friends and family.
  8. Toast marshmallows as the sun goes down.
  9. Fireworks... you have to find fireworks! (Johnson's Pond?)
  10. Listen to Kate Smith sing God Bless America. (Best presentation of that... Hill Farm Camps and it's hourly!)
  11. Celebrate independence... yours and the Country's.
  12. Say goodnight to the ones you love, and sleep well.
- To all of you, have a safe and happy Fourth of July from all of us at Crystal!

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Don't be surprised if, in spite of your well-made plans, something goes awry. But don't worry. Your knowledge of the facts plus your Arian charm will help you work it out.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) A personal relationship seems to be demanding more than you feel you're able to give. Best advice: Confront the issue. You could find the situation surprisingly easy to work through.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Resist being pressured into meeting your self-imposed deadline. This is important if you really feel that taking more time to finish a project could save time in the long run.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) A vacation choice seems less interesting than when you first made it. Could it be a matter of the place or the people going with you? Find out before you consider a change of plans.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Someone might be overriding your Leonine logic to get you to agree to "favors" that you would normally avoid. Take a new look at what you've been asked to do and see if you've been misled.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Try to keep that emerging "judgmental" aspect in check this week. Too many critiques on relatively unimportant issues could create a lot of negative bounce-back reactions.

HALL FOR RENT: Coventry Men's Club available for Bachelor Parties, Weddings, Birthdays, Retirement Parties, Etc. Menu available. Call 385-3536 after 2PM for more information.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Facing unpleasant facts about an associate isn't easy. But ignoring them isn't wise. Ask a trusted (and neutral) friend to help guide you on what to do and how you might do it.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) A shift in opinion regarding a workplace situation could go a long way in vindicating the stand you've taken. But be aware that a satisfactory resolution could still be a long way off.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) It's not like you to choose the easy way rather than the right way to do things. So, follow your instincts and feel assured they will lead you to the right decision. Good luck.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Hold off on making a personal commitment until you find out what it really entails and whose interests are actually involved. There could be hidden facts you need to know.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) A new friend offers an unexpected opportunity that could lead to a career change. Check it out carefully and consider getting an assessment from someone familiar with this field.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) A surprising discovery leads to mixed reactions from those involved in the "revelation." But as you come to appreciate the truth, you'll be able to come to terms with your feelings.

BORN THIS WEEK: Your love of travel helps you appreciate the wonders of the world. You would find a satisfying career in any travel-related industry.

HOLLYWOOD — Ben Affleck quit playing Batman after only two films, but producers are confident they've found their new "Caped Crusader" in Robert Pattinson. Pattinson recently filmed director Christopher Nolan's "Tenet," with Michael Caine (who played Alfred in Nolan's trilogy, including "The Dark Knight"). Pattinson also will be seen in five other films — "The Lighthouse," "The King" (for Netflix), "The Devil All the Time," "Waiting for the Barbarians" and "The Stars at Noon" — before we see him as Batman in a trilogy of films, starting June 25, 2021.

Cloris Leachman

With the success of "Bohemian Rhapsody" (about Queen's Freddie Mercury) and "Rocketman" (about Elton John), MGM plans to make a bio-pic about George Alan O'Dowd, aka Boy George. At age 21, Boy George and Culture Club hit it big in 1982 with "Do You Really Want to Hurt Me," which sold 100 million singles and 20 million albums. By 1986, touring and performing pressures allegedly drove him to severe drug usage and the group disbanded. In 1988, they regrouped to minor success until 1999, when they again broke up. In 2013, Boy George went solo to great success and was again backed by Culture Club. There's a lot of drama in this story, but whether Boy George (now 57) was ever popular enough or can appeal to young people today is the question.

rency filming his next opus, "Wasp 2019," with Christoph Waltz, Wallace Shawn (of Woody's "Manhattan") and TV's "Young Sheldon") and Gina Gershon. It's a romantic comedy about a married couple at the San Sebastian Film Festival.

Lin-Manuel Miranda, who took Broadway by storm with "Hamilton" and movie theaters with "Mary Poppins Returns," has come back to his roots to film his 2007 Tony Award-winning musical, "In the Heights." It starts shooting June 26 with Susan Pourfar, Anthony Ramos, Melissa Barrera and Jimmy Smits.

Cloris Leachman, 93, who won an Oscar for "The Last Picture Show" (1971), seven Emmys (including for "The Mary Tyler Moore Show") and a Golden Globe (for "Phyllis"), not to mention a dynamic turn on "Dancing With the Stars," has begun shooting her 82nd film, "Jump, Darling," in which she plays the grandmother of a drag queen. No joke needed here!
