FLASHBACK
POP ROCK & SOUL
TRIOIA BARBER

1. What is Bachman-Turner Overdrive's 1974 song "Let It Ride" about?
2. Name the album that bounced Michael Jackson's "Thriller" off the top of the charts after 17 straight weeks.
3. Who sang "Love Won't Let Me Wait" in 1975?
4. Which group released "Everybody Wants to Rule the World" in 1985?
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "I realize the way your eyes deceived me, With tender looks that I mistook for love."

- Answers
1. Getting stuck in traffic. The band was in a tour bus when they got hemmed in by trucks on the highway. They faced off with the truckers at a rest stop and were told to "let it ride."
 2. "Flashdance," the soundtrack from the 1983 film. It won a Grammy for Best Album of Original Score.
 3. Major Harris. Other hits followed, but never reached the No. 1 chart slot.
 4. Tears for Fears. The video showed their bass player cruising in a vintage Austin Healy.
 5. "Paper Roses," by Anita Bryant in 1960 and Marie Osmond in 1973. The song was Bryant's biggest hit, but for Osmond, it was the launch of a career. It topped the country chart when she was just 14.

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

This Local community paper is free to our readers. We've been that way from the beginning. We won't change that even in the toughest of times.

But we do improve this paper every issue. We won't stand still as the market changes. Giving readers and advertisers the best value is our goal.

Over the years we have become the marketplace for our community. And while other media might be shrinking, we are growing. That growth will continue, hand-in-hand, with our community.

We'll continue working for you.

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

• On Aug. 11, 1806, explorer Meriwether Lewis is shot in the hip, probably by one of his own men. Private Cruzatte, who was blind in one eye and nearsighted in the other, insisted he had not shot his captain. Lewis, however, had the offending bullet: A .54 caliber slug from a modern U.S. Army rifle, identical to the one carried by Cruzatte.

• On Aug. 8, 1863, after his defeat at Gettysburg, Confederate Gen. Robert E. Lee sends a letter of resignation to Confederate President Jefferson Davis. Davis refused the request.

• On Aug. 10, 1937, the electric guitar is recognized by the United States Patent Office with the award of Patent No. 2,089,171 for the Rickenbacker Frying Pan. The guitar used a heavy electromagnet that surrounded the base of the steel strings like a bracelet.

• On Aug. 6, 1945, an American B-29 bomber, the Enola Gay, drops the world's first atom bomb over the city of Hiroshima, Japan.

• On Aug. 7, 1959, the American satellite Explorer 6 is launched into Earth orbit. The 142-pound spacecraft featured a photocell scanner that transmitted a crude picture of the Earth's surface from a distance of 17,000 miles. The photo, received in Hawaii, took nearly 40 minutes to transmit.

• On Aug. 9, 1974, Richard Nixon officially resigns as president of the United States, departing in a helicopter from the White House lawn. Minutes later, Vice President Gerald Ford was sworn in. Ford spoke in a television address, declaring, "My fellow Americans, our long national nightmare is over."

• On Aug. 5, 1981, President Ronald Reagan begins firing 11,359 air-traffic controllers striking in violation of his order to return to work. Two days earlier almost 13,000 air-traffic controllers went on strike over negotiations to raise their pay.

Sherris Come Along Inn
"Food Fresher than the Cook!"

402 Washington St. Coventry

Open Tues. - Sun. 11:30am

Welcome to Sherri's Come Along Inn, where our "Food is Fresher than the Cook"! Sherri Delfino is the inspiration behind this concept, an unlikely hole in the wall, which strives to serve the "best you've ever had" food.

The Come Along Inn has a long, storied history and is revered by locals who wax on about the good ol' days. It once operated as a men's only Tavern, where the wives had to come in the side door to pick up their husbands who were playing cards. It was also a place where folks could come and meet Jonny Pinto to buy tickets to concerts, and more. It also operated as a local bar with food prepared by Chef David Spirito in a very tiny kitchen. Since then, several proprietors have maintained it as a local watering hole with not much love put into its appearance or food. The bar became available in 2017 and it was pretty tired and run down - to say the least. It needed a makeover so we took almost a year and renovated the inside to brand new condition with a large bar and enough kitchen space to run a professional operation.

When this opportunity came up, I knew we had to try this project because of what I've seen in Sherri through all of her cooking I've eaten over the years and detailed stories I've heard about her and her family's food related experiences. Sherri was immersed in cooking at an early age. She was trained to cook by her mom, who just happened to be the best naturally talented cook in town, taught by her own mother, and has passed that talent down. Sherri was always in the kitchen learning by her mom's side from the time she could walk. Taught the "old school" way by her Italian-Swedish mom and grandmothers, they cooked for their entire family and the entire town, sending care packages here and there to family and friends. Stories float around about hundreds of Hungarian hot peppers stuffed and given away, feeding what seemed to be a whole campground, while working at the Foster Country Club on the line next to Chef David Spirito, and also sacrificing her summers to help run a spot with her mom in Bonnet Shores. If you have the good fortune to know her as I do, I hope you'll agree her magnetic personality, presence and cooking expertise are what makes this Tavern a comfortable and inviting place to be.

You'll usually find Sherri at the Tavern cooking, cleaning, working closely with our excellent staff to figure out specials for the day and week and caring for our patrons daily. Arriving in the morning to whip up a Pasta e Fagioli, she loves to cook and we have very high standards when it comes to the food being prepared in our kitchen. Our secret is simple, make it the best you've ever had or we will work tirelessly to ensure it is!

We thank all of you who have come to Sherri's Come Along Inn to try our food and hope to see you again soon! Take Care, and God Bless.

CARING FOR RHODE ISLAND

Care New England

FORWARD FOR A STRONGER, HEALTHIER FUTURE

Care New England is moving forward for a stronger, healthier future.

Our top priority is to build on the success already underway at Care New England while expanding access to great, affordable health care here in Rhode Island. We have important plans to grow our system, explore new clinical opportunities, and improve our facilities. We are continuing to build on our decade-long clinical affiliation with Brigham Health and we're expanding our Care New England Medical Group network of providers and specialists.

We are confident and optimistic about the future for Care New England and our role as a leading health care institution in Rhode Island and one of the state's top employers. As we move forward in our mission, we are reaffirming our strong commitment to continue serving our patients with honesty, integrity, and clinical excellence.

We are Care New England:

- Butler Hospital
- Kent Hospital
- Women & Infants Hospital
- Care New England Medical Group
- Integra Community Care Network
- The Providence Center
- VNA of Care New England

Car Care Council
Be Car Care Aware

Show Your Vehicle A Little Love

(NAPSA)—Your car doesn't ask for much. It's always there for you, getting you where you need to go. A little extra care this Valentine's Day—or any day—in the form of an oil change, tune-up and basic service can be a great gift for the one who keeps you going.

"Don't let your car break your heart by neglecting to take care of it," advised Rich White, executive director of the nonprofit Car Care Council. "Being car care aware can add years of useful life to your relationship with your vehicle and keep you from being stranded because of an unexpected breakdown."

The Council recommends a little tender loving auto care.

- Schedule a tune-up annually to optimize your car's performance. A well-tuned engine delivers the best balance of power and fuel economy and produces the lowest level of emissions.
- Change the oil and filter per the owner's manual. Periodic oil and filter changes keep your engine clean on the inside.
- Check the tire pressure monthly, including the spare. Your car's tires affect its ride, handling, traction and safety.
- Have the alignment checked annually. Potholes and other road conditions, as well as normal wear, can take their toll on your car's steering and suspension. A wheel alignment reduces tire wear, improves fuel economy and handling, and increases driving enjoyment and safety.

Show your car you care with proper maintenance and it can take good care of you.

- Inspect the windshield wipers and lights on the car. Lights and wipers play a major role in safe driving, and they are normal wear items that need periodic replacement.

To help make vehicle ownership more enjoyable, economical and convenient so you can keep your relationship with your car on track, the Car Care Council has a free custom service schedule available on its website.

The Council is also the source of information for the "Be Car Care Aware" consumer education campaign promoting the benefits of regular vehicle care, maintenance and repair to consumers.

VETERANS POST

by Freddy Groves

Honor Flights Needs Our Help

The number of World War II veterans topped 16 million during the war. Now there are fewer than half a million still alive, all in their 80s and 90s. We're losing over 300 WWII veterans each day. Most of them have never seen the memorial in Washington, D.C., that was built in their honor.

Honor Flights Network, a nonprofit, works to change that. Since 2010, it has escorted 222,133 veterans to see the memorial, at no cost to the veteran. Last year HFN took 21,000 veterans to Washington. The one-day trips leave from a "hub" in most states and fly to Washington, where they visit the memorial dedicated to them, as well as the Vietnam and Korean memorials. These trips are scheduled multiple times a year.

But it takes money and volunteers (guardian escorts) to pull it off, and there are over 38,000 veterans on a wait list. We're running out of time to get all the vets to Washington who want to go.

There are programs to help more veterans get there. The Solo program is for those who have friends and family who can fund the air trip and hotel for one to three days. The Lone Eagle program is for veterans who are not near an airport hub. Once in Washington, the veteran and his escort will join the main group for all their activities. In addition, Honor Flights has expanded to include Korean War and Vietnam War veterans.

If you can send money, please do. The address is Honor Flight, Inc., 175 South Tuttle Road, Springfield, OH 45505, or donate at www.honorflight.org. (Don't miss the video on the website).

If you want information or can serve as an escort, call Honor Flight at 937-521-2400, or Jane Julian at 614-558-6220. If you have any medical experience, that's a bonus, but there are many roles you can fill.

This Design Trend Is Coming Back

Wood paneling can add a rustic feel to a bathroom.

Design trends come and go, but some have a funny way of resurfacing years after they first became popular. Homeowners who may have been considering renovating their home to remove a design element they believe to be passé might want to see if that feature has experienced a resurgence in popularity. In fact, one of the more derided home decor trends of yesteryear has slowly crept back into style, albeit in moderation.

Wood paneling is back and better than ever, advise many design professionals. It's the formerly ugly duckling that filled homes starting in the 1950s, creating drab dens and faux-wood family rooms. Paneling had long been an element of choice because it is relatively easy to install and can camouflage problem walls in a home, like those covered in boisterous wallpaper prints. Wood paneling reach the peak of its popularity in the 1970s, and since then homeowners have been tearing down these faux offenders for years or masking them in paint to brighten up spaces. However, the experts at Apartment Therapy report that wood paneling in shades of brown are making a comeback in cozy spots such as dens or studies.

The warm tones of wood paneling elicit a retro vibe. But unlike their fake predecessors, today's paneled walls are being outfitted in real wood, making them more eco-friendly and stylish than ever before.

Designers have flocked to reclaimed wood and veneer panelings to incorporate them into design elements. And while wood paneling used to be hung vertically, designers now experiment with hanging paneling.

Many people no longer use paneling to cover an entire space. Paneling is used sparingly as an accent wall or another feature for character. Wood walls can be stained in a rich mahogany to look upscale or be weathered and rustic. Homeowners ready to re-embrace wood paneling can choose to enhance one wall in a room. Think about the space above a fireplace or a strip of wall behind a sitting chair and side table. Paneling also can serve as a headboard behind a bed in a master suite. Painted horizontally, paneling can add dimension and texture to walls, even in a bathroom.

Wood paneling is slowly making a comeback, proving that no design trend every truly goes away.

Hints For The Home

Don't Forget THIS During A Deep Housecleaning

(NAPS)—When it comes to doing a thorough cleaning, there are the "usual suspects": getting rid of old clothes and magazines, organizing the pantry, cleaning the yard and getting the garden ready to plant. But there's one item that many people don't think about when it comes to deep cleaning—unused, unwanted cans of paint.

Not only do cans of paint clutter a basement, garage or crawl space, these areas are susceptible to moisture that can cause cans to become rusty or leaky. It's important to properly dispose of unused paint—especially if you have completed any home improvement projects in the past year.

Before you get rid of your paint, however, it's wise to create a paint list to keep in your files. Include the brand name, paint color or number, and the name of the room where that paint was used. Then, you can reference this list when you need to do a touch-up or when you're looking to repaint.

Next, think about using up leftover paint for another project. Instead of buying new paint, simply use some paint you may already have. Looking to give an old rocking chair or dresser a makeover so it looks fresh and new? Use up paint from a recent bedroom or bathroom makeover.

If repurposing leftover paint in creative ways isn't up your alley, there's a way to recycle and properly dispose of unused paint: Take it to a PaintCare drop-off site. PaintCare is the paint recycling program that makes it easy for consumers and businesses to drop off their unwanted paint for recycling at no additional cost at over 170 participating locations in Colorado.

Drop-off sites are conveniently located at paint and hardware stores and accept all paint brands, regardless of when or at which store in Colorado it was purchased. Items that can be dropped off for recycling include most house paints, primers, stains, sealers, and clear top coatings (varnish and shellac). Drop-off is available year-round during each retail location's regular business hours.

PaintCare then works with partners to transport the collected paint from the drop-off sites to processing facilities, where it's remixed into recycled-content paint, given away through local reuse programs, used as fuel, or used in other products and applications. If it can't be recycled or used some other way, it will be dried out and properly disposed of.

When you need to buy paint for a project in the future, make sure you buy the right amount to minimize leftover paint. Then, you won't need to worry about using up or recycling the rest. To do this, give the representatives at your paint store the dimensions of the room you're painting. They should be able to tell you how much you'll need, depending on the type of coating and the desired outcome. You can also use an online paint calculator to help determine how much paint you need to get. The next time you think about storing or throwing away unwanted paint, think again...and recycle it! For more information and to find a drop-off site near you, visit www.paintcare.org.

Bring a lawn chair or blanket and enjoy a Sunday afternoon full of music! Outside bar will be open for drinks. NO DOGS, OUTSIDE COOLERS OR ALCOHOL

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Technology snafus tax your patience. But before you throw that computer or other hardware into the trash, take a deep breath and call someone knowledgeable for help.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Don't be too upset if your generosity goes unappreciated. These things happen, and rather than brood over it, move on. A new friend could open up some exciting new possibilities.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) A loved one helps you get through an especially difficult emotional situation. Spend the weekend immersed in the body and soul restorative powers of music and the other arts.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) You are pretty much in charge of what you want to do this week. However, it might be a good idea to keep an open mind regarding suggestions from people you know you can trust.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Another chance to shine (something always dear to the Lion's heart) might be resented by others. But you earned it, so enjoy it. The weekend brings news about a family member.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) A suggestion that never took off could become viable again. Dust it off, update it if necessary, and resubmit it. In your personal life, a new relationship takes an "interesting" turn.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Confronting a new challenge to your stated position could work to your advantage by settling all doubts once you're able to present a solid defense backed up by equally solid facts.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) You enjoy doing nice things for others. But this is a good time to do something nice for yourself as well. You might want to start by planning a super-special getaway weekend.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Some changes you feel you need to make might be reasonable and appropriate. But others might lead to new problems. Think things through carefully before you act.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Good instincts usually keep the sure-footed Goat on the right path. So, what others might see as stubbornness on your part, in fact reflects your good sense of what is worth supporting.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) A period of introspection could lead to some surprising conclusions — and also equally surprising changes — involving a number of your long-held positions on several issues.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) The financially practical Pisces might want to take a sensible approach to spending as well as investing. Being prudent now pays off later. A romantic situation moves into another phase.

BORN THIS WEEK: Your sense of curiosity keeps you continually alert for what's new about people, places and things.

- ⚡ To have a voice in every aspect of their future through Labor-Management Partnerships

The IBEW is experiencing record growth. In fact, we now have the highest number of Electrical Workers in the 125 year History of the IBEW and growing at an incredible rate. With the projected work and our committed goals, we expect to welcome thousands more electricians, in the area, into the ranks of the IBEW in the very near future. This includes: residential, commercial and industrial Journeymen. It also includes Low Voltage techs of every variety.

Many applicants have concerns that they may not be good enough or skilled enough to join the premier Electrical Union in the world. Fear not, our training facility is the best in the industry and we offer many varieties of training, free of charge to our membership. If you enjoy mastering your craft and are a quality employee with an exceptional work ethic, then we are interested in talking to you. No pressure, no stress, just a simple one on one conversation with you and even with your family if you wish.

It is time for you to find out all you have been missing by hesitating. Send your resume or simply an email to myfuture@ibew99.org or call IBEW Local Union 99 at (401) 946-9900 x227.
