Prayer to the BLESSED VIRGIN
(Never known to fail). O Most Beautiful Flower of Mt. Carmel, Fruitful Vine, Splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. O Star of the sea, help me and show me here in, you are my mother. O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in my necessity (make request). There are none that can withstand your power. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times.) Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Say this prayer for three consecutive days. You must publish it and it will be granted to you. Grateful Thanks. C.P.

We started as GTECH in a tiny office over Capriccio's.

Many bowls of pasta later, we planted our flags in a small industrial park in West Greenwich.

Our kids—and by now, more than a few grandkids—were born at Women and Infants and Kent County Hospital.

We grew. We merged. We grew some more.
12,000 employees, more than 1,000 of them are your neighbors.

We know exactly where Almacs used to be, and you will never see us drinking Del's with a straw.

We do business in over 100 countries and 46 states.
But only one of them feels like home.

At our party store, our goal is to make it feel like the good old days. We strive to have that “mom & pop” feel. Having a family oriented feel to our store, we have the advantage of having personal connections with our customers. We like to get to know everyone on a first name basis & always strive to meet all of their party needs.

Our story started 7 months ago. Myself, (Michael) & my significant other (Nadine) bought a house in April of 2018. Once we got settled, we started brainstorming ideas. We are normally conservative people who work hard to pay our bills & live the best life we can. We decided to take a big risk for us & delve into the small business world & see what was out there. During our research, we came across the party store idea. Nadine, coincidentally, used to work for a party store during her teenage years. She also has aspirations of doing party planning along with our party store. With extensive research & many months of learning the process of owning a small business, the opportunity finally arrived. We landed in Coventry. We have put everything we have into this business. We will do whatever it takes to succeed. We also appreciate the customers who have already come in telling us how they truly support small businesses. We thank you very much for that.

We are currently the only party store in Coventry. For only being open a short period of time, we have already met so many wonderful people in the area. We have also had many of our customers say they would spread the word about our store. We really appreciate that as well.

Some of our items include over 200 choices of helium-filled Mylar & latex balloons for all occasions! Looking for a good value? We have a value section that includes many colors of cups, plates, napkins, silverware, table covers, etc. We have various character & superhero items from Toy Story, Lion King, Pokemon, Spiderman, Avengers, Peppa Pig, Frozen, & the list goes on! Those are just a handful of items we offer. We cater to children & adult birthdays, weddings, baby showers, gender reveal, bachelorette parties, over the hill, Hawaiian Luau’s, Mardi Gras & more!

When you get a chance, come on down & see what we are all about! Free pens, lollipops, & balloons available while supplies last!!

• "Our family loves to make our own pizza, and we purchase dough from a pizzeria. On pizza nights, I pick up the dough first thing on the way home from work and let it sit in a bowl in the car while I pick up the kids and drive home. It takes about 45 minutes, so it's risen nicely while we've been on the go." —E.F. in New York

• If you have stainless steel appliances, you might want to try a simple furniture polish to get those surfaces shiny and smudge free. You can use most any commercial spray-on polish, applied with a clean, lint-free rag.

• Peg racks mounted low on the wall near an entranceway can make a swell shoe rack. Hang shoes from pegs by the heel. It's a great way to keep your daily walkers up off the floor!

• "Plastic containers with a serving spout can be used for more than fruit juice and sweet tea! Mine fit a full bag of flour or sugar, and if I open a hole in the bag right where the spout is, I can pour what I need out without even removing the top. Admittedly, it works better for sugar than for flour, but it still makes baking goods easy to store." —T. in Arkansas

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

'Pile-O-Gold'

A paperweight that looks like a forgotten mound of gold coins is a vintage puzzle that has been solved. A pristine example was offered for sale recently with the original box. There is an inscribed leather patch on the bottom, and a small leaflet describing the coins and their history. The leather patch had a message: "Your friendship is more precious than gold." The paperweight was made by the Johnson Bronze Company of New Castle, Pennsylvania. The weights were sold to companies who gave them to customers as gifts. They were very popular with banks, insurance agents, stock brokers, mortgage brokers, real estate agents and other companies that dealt with coins and money.

This 5 1/2-inch wide pile of coins is a paperweight, probably first made in the 1960s. It was a popular gift for good customers and executives who were in financial businesses. Some are being sold online for about $40 to $50.

The paperweight is called the "Pile-O-Gold," and the coins picture presidents, captains of industry, scientists, inventors and engineers. Some of the coins have quotes, and all have the name and embossed head of the honored person, plus the name of the job that brought the person fame. A vintage example sold recently for about $50. We are told the pile of gold coins on a desk often fools visitors.

Q. A friend just told me that a 12 1/2-inch round wooden plate with a center "well" and nine smaller carved wells surrounding it is a gaming board — not an oyster plate like I thought. It is decorated with painted playing cards so that might be true. Any suggestions?

A. It can't be an oyster plate. The food and the washing would destroy the painted cards, and oyster plates usually have four to six wells. That is a generous portion for dinner. There is an old English card game called "Pope Joan" that uses a board like yours. It was known in the 16th century, and still is played today by three to eight players. The game was very popular with families in Victorian times and first recorded in the famous book of card and board game rules by Hoyle in 1814. The game uses the 52-card deck minus the eight of diamonds and making the nine of diamonds an important winning card. All antique game boards are selling well today, and a rare round wooden Pope Joan board sold at auction for a little over $1,000 a few years ago.
