The Miracle Prayer

Dear Heart of Jesus:
 In the past, I have asked many favors. This time, I ask you this very special one. Take it Dear Heart of Jesus and place it within your own broken heart, where your father sees it. Then, in your merciful eyes, it will become your favor, not mine.

Say this prayer for 3 days, promise publication and your favor will be granted no matter how impossible. Thank you also to the Divine Mercy.

Tropical Banana Splits

The king of soda-shop desserts is even better made with sorbets and coconut.

1/4 cup shredded coconut
 2 ripe medium bananas, peeled and each cut lengthwise in half, then crosswise into quarters
 1 cup fat-free passionfruit sorbet
 1 cup fat-free raspberry sorbet
 2 medium kiwi fruit, peeled and each cut crosswise into 8 slices

- In small nonstick skillet, toast coconut over medium heat, stirring frequently.
- To serve, on each of 4 dessert plates (oval if possible), arrange 2 banana quarters, cut sides up, on opposite sides of plate. Place 1/4-cup scoop each of passionfruit and raspberry sorbets between banana quarters.
- Top with 4 slices kiwifruit and sprinkle with 1 tablespoon toasted coconut. Makes 4 servings.

• Each serving: About 230 calories, 3g total fat (2g saturated), 20mg sodium, 45g total carbohydrate, 1g protein.

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

COUCH THEATER DVD PREVIEW

The Hustle (PG-13) — In this remake of "Dirty Rotten Scoundrels," Josephine Chesterfield (Anne Hathaway) is an elegant and refined beauty who preys on slick, wealthy men. Penny Rust (Rebel Wilson) is a fly-by-the-seat-of-her-pants catfisher who dupes low-brow guys out of fistfuls of bucks. Both con women set up residence in the lovely and fictional French town of Beaumont-sur-Mer, but two hustlers in one town is one too many. Unable to share the wealth of deserving suckers, they make a deal: Con the ultimate mark — app developer Thomas Westergberg (Alex Sharp) — and the loser has to leave town. There are some laughs for sure, but most of it tries way too hard to be clever or funny and ends up being neither.

A Dog's Journey (G) — If something about this seems super familiar, you're right. It's a sequel to "A Dog's Purpose," and some of the players are the same. Josh Gad returns to voice Bailey the dog, who we follow as he hurtles through time, embodying different puppies along the way. Bailey starts out returned to her boy, Ethan (Dennis Quaid), but now watching over a new little kid: Ethan's granddaughter CJ. When CJ's mother takes her away from the farm, Bailey journeys again through lifetimes to find his girl and watch over her. If you cried at the first one, you'll cry at this one, too. It's simplistic but still sweet, and watchable by any age group.

Brightburn (R) — Here's an interesting take on the superhero genre: a horror story. A baby boy falls to Earth inside a downed spaceship, landing on a farm in Kansas. A couple, Tori (Elizabeth Banks) and Kyle (David Denman), take in the boy they name Brandon (Jackson Dunn) and raise him as their own. They hide the ship in the barn. As the boy approaches puberty, he begins to come into his innate powers and sets off on a rampage worthy of a 12-year-old antihero, all the while egged on by the hidden spaceship's murderous message.

Dennis Quaid in "A Dog's Journey"

The Tomorrow Man (PG-13) — Two eccentrics find love in the grocery aisle in a freshman effort by writer/director Noble Jones. John Lithgow is Ed, a doomsday-prepping, check-writing, cable-news watching, chatboard-loving retiree whose internet handle is "Captain Reality." He's a little delusional and a little sad. Enter Ronnie (Blythe Danner), a peculiar and spacey hoarder who is a vision in flowy skirts and baggy sweaters. Ed discovers Ronnie in the local grocers buying tuna cans and batteries. Must be a match, eh? The pair interact and showcase their numerous oddball tics and eccentricities.

CUTEST PET OF THE WEEK

"TRIXIE"

My name is Trixie and I was rescued from Arkansas. I am one smart pup; I was the valedictorian of my basic obedience class and earned my Star Puppy Award! I love carrying a stick with me EVERYWHERE. I enjoy going for walks and running around like a racehorse in my grandparent's backyard. I also love a good snuggle. I embrace my awkward body shape and flaunt it proudly!

Tucked away in the peaceful countryside of Greene (Coventry), Rhode Island, near the Connecticut border, Woodpecker Hill Health Center is a skilled nursing and rehabilitation center that reflects the small town ambiance of its surroundings. Woodpecker Hill Health Center has always been a family-run health care organization. It originally opened in the 1950s by the Haynes family who welcomed their relatives and other veterans of WWII into their home. As their sons grew and became involved in the operations of the home, they expanded the buildings and services to meet the needs of their community as an intermediate care facility. For many years, most of the local families have counted on Woodpecker Hill Health Center to provide care for their aging loved ones.

Ownership changed in 2009, and Woodpecker Hill Health Center became a member of the Health Concepts, Ltd. family of skilled nursing and rehabilitation centers. Health Concepts is proud to be family owned and operated since 1964. The Ryan family started the company with one small nursing center and it has grown over 55 years to be Rhode Island's largest skilled nursing provider, having cared for thousands of residents in 11 nursing centers throughout the state. Woodpecker Hill is fortunate to be part of a company with the same core belief that the care we provide to our long-term residents and post-acute patients should parallel the care we would want for our own loved ones.

With accommodations for just 41 residents at Woodpecker Hill Health Center, we pride ourselves on our commitment to resident-centered service, and we take pleasure in our ability to meet the unique needs of each person in our care.

Tucked away in the peaceful countryside of Greene (Coventry), Rhode Island, near the Connecticut border, Woodpecker Hill Health Center is a skilled nursing and rehabilitation center

FLASHBACK
 POP, ROCK & SOUL TRIVIA BY MICK HARPER

- Who originally released "I'm Leaving It Up to You" in 1957, and then who made it popular in the '60s?
- Why was the Cavern Club important?
- Name the Steppenwolf song used in the film "Easy Rider." (Shock hint: It was kept out of the No. 1 spot on the chart by "People Got to Be Free" by the Rascals.)
- How did radio deejay Dr. Demento get his name?
- Name the song that contains this lyric: "I really think you're groovy, Let's go out to a movie."

Answers

- Don and Dewey, the songwriters, recorded it first. Dale and Grace released their own version in 1960 that shot to No. 1 on the charts. (Methinks Don and Dewey's is better.)
- The Cavern Club, in a wine cellar basement, was where the Beatles were first spotted by manager Brian Epstein.
- "Born to Be Wild, released in 1968.
- He played strange records, weird comedy and novelty songs. Dr. Demento started in 1970 and can still be found today — online streaming his weekly show.
- "Elenore," by the Turtles in 1968. The song was a parody of the happy pop songs they'd done previously. Intended as a joke, the band was shocked when it was so well-received.

Now here's a tip!

by Jo Ann Derson

• What's going on sale in September? Look for cookware, dishes, pool toys and pool accessories, patio furniture, plus great deals on new cars (2020 models and closeout sales on 2019 models).

• Here's a great mattress de-funker recipe: Mix a cup of baking soda with 10 drops of your favorite essential oil. Sprinkle evenly over your bare mattress. Allow to penetrate for up to an hour, then vacuum up the remaining powder.

• "It's almost time for Scouts to start up again. I have been washing uniforms and sashes, and I find this trick to be helpful when it comes time to stitch on badges: Put a bit of plain school glue on the back of your badge, place it where you want it on the sash, then let it dry. It will stay in place long enough to stitch the edges. When you launder it, the glue will wash right out." — R.D. in Florida

• A school-success tip: Have middle- and high-school kids identify a friend in every class who they can turn to for questions about assignments or course material. It's beneficial to be that friend for someone else, too!

• Here's a great tip for future international travel: "Get yourself a power strip and you'll only need one plug adapter for foreign plugs. You will make friends at the airport, too, on a layover." — G.G. in Arkansas

• When searching for airline flights, try going incognito in your browser, using a private browser, or deleting your cookies between searches. It can sometimes make a price difference.

GENERATORS: Transfer switches installed. Master Electrician. RI #A4602. Insured. Call Jay, 826-2826.

SUMMER CLEAN-UP: Yards raked, lawns mowed, shrubs trimmed, trees cut down, brush hauled away, debris hauled away. Quality work. Excellent rates. Doug, 826-3444.

The Garden Bug

Gomphrena

This compact and colorful plant produces round flowerheads that attract attention and brighten any garden. They are excellent in a fresh-cut display, or dried for use in floral arrangements.

Also known as Globe Amaranth or Globe Flower

Gomphrena likes well-drained soil in full sun, typically growing about 12-24" tall. It may need support for its stems. These plants show good tolerance for drought and high heat, and do very well in borders, rock gardens, cutting gardens or containers. - B. Weaver

Lawn Sprinkler

Decorators and gardening columnists are reporting that the latest look for a garden includes furnishings to make it look like an indoor room. Chairs, tables, rugs, cushions, statues, urns, fountains, hanging decorations, fancy birdhouses and even gnomes and fake animals are half-hidden in the flowers. But one vintage garden piece that has not been copied is the figural sprinkler, the piece that attaches to the hose and stands on the grass to water the yard.

Companies made the first figural sprinklers in about 1910, and by the 1920s and '30s there were many manufacturers with similar ideas. Iron sprinklers shaped like animals, birds, people and frogs were made. Firestone made flat cut-out metal figures holding hoses that turned as the lawn was watered. These were copied in wood and painted in school shop classes. By the 1940s, Bakelite and other colorful plastics were used, and shapes were modern boxes or balls. One was a huge orange sunflower. Today, there is a tall pole that turns to send a spray that looks like a flower.

Figural iron sprinklers are now considered folk art and sell for thousands of dollars. The others still are inexpensive garden art.

This iron frog sits on a ball on a curvy base while balancing a sprinkler on his nose, waiting to water the lawn. The rare figure, even though repainted, auctioned for $780 at a Bertoia auction last summer.

sold at most antiques flea markets. Many were destroyed when the Mickey Mouse mask or other toy was cut out. The most expensive today are the full flattened boxes of the 1950s and 1960s. Some sell for over $100.

CURRENT PRICES

WWII photograph, V-J Day parade, soldiers in car with American and "Don't Tread On Me" flags, black and white, 1945, 3 x 4 inches, $10.
Beatles board game, Flip Your Wig, 4 band member playing pieces, multicolor, box, Milton Bradley, 1964, $150.
Lamp, electric, one-light, dancers, flutist, blue ground, Marcello Fantoni, Italy, 1900s, 27 x 5 1/2 inches, $240.
Easel, walnut, adjustable, wheels, hand crank, Anco, 70 x 28 inches, $505.

TIP: If you own a wicker chair that makes small popping noises when you sit in it, dampen it with water. It is too dry, and wicker may crack if not kept moist.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) You still might want to do more investigating before taking on a new commitment. Later would not be the time to try to fill in any crucial gaps in what you need to know about it.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) A new opportunity should be carefully studied. It might offer some of the things you've been looking for. Or it could contain new possibilities you never considered. Check it out.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) You might have to work harder this week to get people to listen to what you have to say. But if you stay with it, you could start to get your message out to many by week's end.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Although family matters again take up a big chunk of the Goat's time, the week also offers a chance to explore a new career move you'd been contemplating for a while.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Applying your practicality (what does it offer me?) and your creativity (how can I improve on it?) could provide sound reasons for seriously considering that new offer.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) The single set will find that keeping their romantic aspirations on high gives Cupid a better target to aim at. Paired Pisces will find that this week helps reinforce their relationships.

BORN THIS WEEK: You believe in encouraging others to demand the best from themselves. You would be a fine sports coach, as well as an enlightened teacher.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Changing your mind doesn't come easily for Lambs, who place a high value on commitment. But new facts could emerge that might persuade you to rethink your situation.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) This is a good time to put that fine Bovine's eye for beauty to work in redecorating your home or workplace. And don't forget to indulge yourself in some personal time as well.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Your sense of loyalty to someone who asks for your help is commendable. But make sure there are no information gaps that should be filled in before you move too far too quickly.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Don't let difficult people raise the Crab's ire levels this week. Avoid them if you can. If not, resist telling them off, even if you think they deserve it. Things improve by week's end.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Your suspicions about a colleague might be on the mark. But you also could be misreading the signals you believe you're getting. Do some discreet checking before jumping to conclusions.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Take some time out from your many tasks and see if someone might be trying to reach out to you. You could be surprised to learn who it is and why you might want to reciprocate.

Great Local SHOPS & RESTAURANTS

Q. Do you know when a new season of "Grace and Frankie" might be available? Also, I got hooked on "Shtisel." I hated when it ended. It was a great soap opera-type serial. Are there any new episodes or was that the cliffhanger end? — A.V. in New Jersey

Anna Faris

A. "Grace and Frankie" is a hit comedy on Netflix that stars Jane Fonda and Lily Tomlin. It's the longest-running comedy on the streaming service since "Orange Is the New Black." Netflix has so much confidence in the show that it renewed it for a sixth season before season five even aired this past spring. However, you'll have to wait until 2020 (hopefully early in the year) for season six to be available for viewing.

"Shtisel," the show about an Orthodox Jewish family starring Ayelet Zurer, first aired in Israel in 2013 and lasted just two seasons. Netflix then picked it up and made those episodes available to audiences in America, where it became a hit. Now "Shtisel" is being renewed for a third season, but since the drama is only in pre-production, its fans will have to sit and wait.

Q. I'm addicted to the CBS sitcom "Mom" and can't wait to see the new episodes. I'm wondering if Anna Faris, who plays Christy on the show, sings a version of "What a Wonderful World" on a Toyota car commercial? — R.K.

A. I admit defeat. I wasn't able to find out definitively who recorded "What a Wonderful World" for a Toyota Camry commercial, but I did have fun doing the research. There was much, much debate on the Internet over the female vocalist's identity. Guesses included Kat Edmonson, Suzi Quatro, Christina Perri, and various contestants from "The Voice" and "American Idol." (There also were many comments scolding the dad for driving his car at such an unsafe speed on a twisty highway with his young son in the backseat.) As for Anna Faris, I couldn't verify the beautiful, breathy voice was hers,
