ARIES (March 21 to April 19) An offer to help with a stalled project should reassure you that you have a workable plan in spite of the problems in getting it up and running. The week's end brings more positive news.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) A past problem about a workplace situation re-emerges early in the week. Talking things out helps ease tensions by midweek, but some hurt feelings could linger a few more days.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Optimistic aspects dominate your efforts. However, expect to confront some criticism, some of which might be valid, so keep an open mind. But overall, it's your views that will count.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Social interaction with new people, especially on the job, could be a bit strained in the early part of the week. But the awkwardness passes as you get to know each other better.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Expect news about a follow-up to a workplace change that could make a difference in your career path. Meanwhile, new friends widen the circle for all you Social Lions who love to party.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Enjoy your well-earned plaudits for a job well done. But be aware that some people might not share your colleagues' admiration, and you might have to work harder to win them over.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) It's a good week to recheck your probably already overlong "to do" list and decide what to keep and what to discard. Lose the clutter and focus your energy on what's really important.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) This is a good time to take a new perspective on what you've been offered. Expanding your view could help to uncover any pluses or minuses that weren't apparent at first.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Applying the usual methods to this week's unique challenges might not work too well. Instead, use your creativity to find a way to resolve any impasse that develops.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) So what if fate throws some obstacles in your path this week? Just keep in mind that the sure-footed and resolute Goat can get past any barrier by focusing on the goals up ahead.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) This week calls for better communication with people in both your private life and the workplace. Start by asking questions, and then pay close attention to the answers.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Potentially beneficial workplace changes could be closer than you realize. Make sure you know what's going on so that you're not left high and dry when the good things happen.

BORN THIS WEEK: You're not timid about pushing to have your aims realized once you've set your mind to accomplishing your goals.

Just to name a few, all those that supplied raffle prizes and baked goods, classic car owners, crafters and our unbelievable volunteers. A special thank you goes to Dottie Zack and the Outlaws, Danny Albro for the use of The Mishnock Barn and also to The Reminder for placing community service ads in their paper, we can't say thank you enough!

The Garden Bug

Old pots made new

Try freshening up old clay pots with paint, mosaics, stucco, gluing items like shells or buttons, etc. It can make mismatched pots look more uniform and give your garden or patio fresh color, without the cost of replacing all your pots. First, inspect the pots you intend to refinish for any cracks, damage, mold and mildew. Then you will need to clean and repair them. Sand the surface lightly, then begin your refinishing process. When you have finished, you should seal it with a clear water-proof finish.

Add More Seafood to Your Menu

At our house, we're always searching for ways to eat healthier ... on a budget. One way to do just that is to add healthy seafood to your menu at least twice a week. This includes both fish and shellfish as the main protein on your plate. Seafood is available in a variety of price points, so it doesn't have to be expensive.

Seafood contains an abundance of nutrients, including healthy omega-3 fats. According to Dietary Guidelines for Americans, eating about 8 ounces per week (less for young children) of a variety of seafood can help prevent heart disease. Here are some tips:

Choose wisely: Include the types of seafood that are higher in omega-3s and lower in mercury, such as salmon, trout, oysters, Atlantic and Pacific mackerel, herring and sardines.

Keep it lean and flavorful: Try grilling, broiling, roasting or baking — methods that don't add extra fat. Spices or herbs such as dill, chili powder, paprika or cumin, and lemon or lime juice, can add flavor without adding salt.

Shellfish counts, too!: Oysters, mussels, clams and calamari (squid) all supply healthy omega-3s. Try mussels marinara, oyster stew, steamed clams or pasta with calamari.

Get creative with seafood: Think beyond fish fillets. Try salmon patties, a shrimp stir-fry, grilled fish tacos, or clams with whole-wheat pasta. Add variety by trying a new fish such as grilled Atlantic or Pacific mackerel, herring on a salad or oven-baked pollock.

Use in a salad or sandwich: Top a salad with grilled scallops, shrimp or crab in place of steak or chicken.

Shop smart: Whiting, tilapia, sardines, canned tuna and some frozen seafood are usually lower-cost options. Check the local newspaper, online and at the store for sales, coupons and specials on seafood.

Grow up healthy with seafood: Omega-3 fats from seafood can help improve nervous-system development in infants and children. Serve seafood to children twice a week in portions appropriate for their age and appetite. A variety of seafood lower in mercury also should also be part of a healthy diet for women who are pregnant or breastfeeding.

Know your portions: To get 8 ounces of seafood a week, use these as guides: A drained can of tuna is about 3 to 4 ounces, a salmon steak ranges from 4 to 6 ounces and a small trout is about 3 ounces.

Keep seafood handy: Canned seafood (think canned salmon, tuna or sardines) is quick and easy to use. Canned white tuna is higher in omega-3s, but canned "light" tuna is lower in mercury.

My delicious recipe for Pasta Puttanesca With Sardines uses inexpensive jarred sardines packed in olive oil. Sardines are sustainable and are full of healthy omega-3 fatty acids. They are a nutritious replacement for anchovies in most recipes.

PASTA PUTTANESCA WITH SARDINES

- 1 pound linguine
- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- 1 medium onion, finely chopped
- 1 (4.25 ounce) canned or jarred sardines packed in oil, reserve the oil
- 3 cloves garlic, finely minced
- 2 tablespoons Italian seasoning blend
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon freshly ground

- 1/4 black pepper
- 1/4 teaspoon stevia, honey or sugar
- 1/8 teaspoon ground cloves
- 1/8 teaspoon red pepper flakes or cayenne pepper
- 1 medium tomato (approximately 1/2 pound), seeded and chopped into 1/2-inch pieces, or 14.5-ounce can diced tomatoes
- 1 (6-ounce) can pitted black olives, olives halved crosswise; or sliced, canned pitted black olives, drained
- 1 tablespoon capers, drained, rinsed and finely chopped
- 1/4 cup shredded or shaved Pecorino Romano or Parmesan cheese

1. In a large pot of boiling, salted water (approximately 6 quarts boiling water and 3 tablespoons kosher salt), cook the linguine according to label directions until it is al dente. Reserve 1 1/2 cups of the pasta cooking water for adding to the Pasta Puttanesca at the end of the cooking time.

2. In a large saute pan or skillet, heat the olive oil over medium heat, then add the onion and cook until translucent, about 3 minutes. Add sardines and their oil, then the garlic and Italian seasoning, 1/2 teaspoon each salt and pepper, the honey, stevia or sugar, cloves, the red pepper flakes or cayenne pepper, tomatoes, olives, and capers.

3. Turn heat to low and cook until the tomatoes are softened and the sardines are breaking apart, about 15 minutes, stirring occasionally.

4. Add the linguine to the pan, then pour in 1 cup of the reserved pasta cooking water, stirring well to combine all the ingredients. If the pasta still looks dry, add the remaining pasta cooking water, 1/2 cup at a time. Season with the remaining 1/2 teaspoon of salt and pepper, and the Pecorino Romano or Parmesan.

Coventry Regional Career and Technical Center's NJROTC to Offer Courses on Drones and Marksmanship

Coventry Regional Career and Technical Center (RCTC) Naval Junior Reserve Officer Training Course will, for the first time, offer a small Unmanned Aircraft System (UAS) drone course. RCTC has teamed up with the Unmanned Safety Institute to offer a training program that will allow students to obtain certification to safely operate drones in a commercial or recreational setting.

The course is a hybrid model combining classroom, online, and practical application program that, when completed, allow qualifying students to take the FAA Part 107 sUAS Certification test and obtain a certification for Visual Line of Sight Operation. Upon graduation, certified students could seek employment in the growing UAS industry. Students will also earn three college credits.

UAS is widely used by first responders to locate people in the woods, fight forest fires, and in the rescue of people in catastrophic situations. Telecommunications companies, utility companies, and construction companies for inspections that would be hazardous or difficult to complete also use UAS. Most recently, FEMA and rescue workers in the Bahamas have used UAS. Additionally, there is an increasing demand to utilize UAS for military operations.

Another exciting addition to the NJROTC program is the SeaPerch Program, which teaches students how to maneuver underwater drones that they operate remotely. Through the SeaPerch Program, students use critical thinking and teamwork to assess a set of underwater challenges to develop a remotely operated vehicle. The SeaPerch Program provides students with the opportunity to learn about robotics, engineering, science, and mathematics (STEM) while building an underwater ROV as part of a science and engineering technology curriculum. Throughout the project, students learn important engineering concepts, problem solving, teamwork, and technical applications. Building a SeaPerch ROV teaches basic skills in ship and submarine design and encourages students to explore naval architecture and marine and ocean engineering principles. Upon completion of the ROV build, the students compete locally against their peers, with the potential to compete nationally.

Lastly, NJROTC is proud to announce the start of their Marksmanship Team. Marksmanship offers more than target shooting; it develops concentration, discipline, focus, and responsibility. Marksmanship is a fun and engaging sport that allows the individual shooter to compete at all levels, from high school through college and even the Olympics. The Marksmanship Team will compete against other schools leading up to National shooting competitions and the potential for NCAA scholarships, as well as Civilian Marksmanship Program scholarships.

For more information about the many opportunities the NJROTC program offers and to learn how your child can be a part of an exciting team, call the Regional Career & Technical Center at 822-9499 x283.

Put Your Home To Work This Winter

(NAPS)—Here's an idea many homeowners may warm to: Rent out your place as a vacation home.

With vacation rentals becoming a preferred choice for travelers and their families, homeowners can realize the financial benefits of renting their homes when they're not in use. In fact, a recent report shows that over half of vacation homeowners cover 75 percent of their mortgage with their rental income. You can rent out a variety of different properties to earn extra income, including primary residences rented for only a few weeks and vacation homes or second homes rented throughout the entire year.

This can be a particularly lucrative idea for Floridians in the winter when snowbirds from the Midwest and Northeast flock south.

According to Vrbo data, there's already a spike in vacation rental demand for the winter holiday season in popular areas such as Sarasota, Fort Myers, Clearwater and Naples. Available properties in these areas are in high demand this winter, and local homeowners should pay attention. With droves of travelers looking to escape the cold for warmer climates, over 700 million visitors are viewing Florida vacation homes listed on Vrbo. On average, homeowners in these areas can earn nearly $4,500 per booking during the winter season.

How To Get In On This

So how can you cash in on this trend? For homeowners looking to rent for the first time, Vrbo provides everything needed to get started: from educational materials on how to market your rental and attract travelers to your property, to information to help you stay compliant with local regulations and a set of tools that help you optimize your pricing, bookings and communication with travelers.

You remain in total control of how often you list your home on the site—just one weekend of the entire year, or for months at a time—whatever works for you and your lifestyle. You simply explain what's unique about your property, show it off with photos, and set the price. Vrbo connects you with travelers from home and abroad and manages the payment process.

"Southwest Florida is an incredibly popular destination for families and groups," said Bill Furlong, VP of North American Business at Vrbo. "We're here to help homeowners capitalize on the many visitors to these cities in the easiest way possible. Once a property is listed on Vrbo, we work to match that property to the right travelers and maximize bookings and rental income for homeowners."

Calculate Your Income Potential

A new rental calculator takes the guesswork out of the equation so you can get a preliminary estimate of what you could earn even before you list, and a clear idea of potential extra income to help you plan for retirement, college tuition or other household costs.

To learn more, check out your home's earning potential, or get started with listing, you can visit the new rental calculator at www.vrbo.com/lyp

SUMMER CLEAN-UP: Yards raked, lawns mowed, shrubs trimmed, trees cut down, brush hauled away, debris hauled away. Quality work. Excellent rates. Doug, 826-3444.

Four Tips To Help You Perk Up Your Kitchen

(NAPS)—Remodeling a kitchen can be a great idea—for most families it is the heart of the home and most-used room—and it can be easier than you may realize, if you heed these four suggestions.

Helpful Hints

1 Cabinet “magic”: Instead of going through the trouble and expense of installing new, custom cabinets, give your current ones a coat of paint, new pulls and knobs or perhaps new doors.

2. Light up your life: It can be a bright idea to improve the lighting. Make sure overhead lighting is concentrated in those areas where you work the most, such as over the stove and sink. Under-cabinet lighting can also be a good idea.

3. Be sink smart: You needn't change every appliance if they're working well but one thing that can give any kitchen a new look is to change the sink, the most-used appliance. For example, BLANCO sinks save space on the counter and make everyday cleaning and prepping easy. Those made of SILGRANIT are impervious to scratches, chips and stains while the company's newest stainless material, DURINOX, resists fingerprints and scratches. If you can, keep the plumbing in the same place it is now, to save time, trouble and money.

4. Clever, convenient accessories: A few little things can make a big difference. Sink accessories add functionality while letting you create your own personalized workstation. Custom stainless grids and elegant drain covers and strainers can make prep work more pleasing, cleanup less complicated, and entertaining an event reserved for graciously accepting compliments.

Kitchen sink accessories such as “floating” colanders and cutting boards can add a splash of personality, a dash of sophistication and a pinch of much-needed convenience.

As one kitchen designer put it: “Most clients are particular about aesthetics, but all clients insist on functionality. People want spaces that convey their personality, but most of all want their kitchen to make their lives easier.”

In response, Blanco came up with grids that float inside the sink to dry dishes, elevate pots or wash vegetables; colanders and cutting boards that can sit on top of the sink or on a specially engineered ledge to save counter space and make prep work a dream. You have to set the colander inside the sink anyway, while using the cutting board in the sink is a sneaky way to get in more counter space and make the job of prepping easier, too.

Moments in time

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

- On Sept. 27, 1540, in Rome, the Society of Jesus — a Roman Catholic missionary organization — receives its charter from Pope Paul III. The Jesui order succeeded in converting millions around the world to Catholicism.
- On Sept. 28, 1066, claiming his right to the English throne, William, duke of Normandy, invades England. On Christmas Day, William the Conqueror was crowned the first Norman king of England. William I also is known for his "Domesday Book," a great census of the lands and people of England.
- On Sept. 24, 1941, the Japanese consul in Hawaii is instructed to divide Pearl Harbor into five zones and calculate the number of battleships in each zone. The United States had intercepted the message, but it was dismissed a month later as being of no great consequence.
- On Sept. 26, 1957, "West Side Story," composed by Leonard Bernstein opens on Broadway. The show went on to an impressive maiden run of 732 performances. In 1961, a film version was an enormous hit and took home 10 Academy Awards.
- On Sept. 23, 1969, the trial for eight antiwar activists charged with sparking violent demonstrations at the August 1968 Democratic National Convention opens in Chicago. Most were convicted on criminal charges or contempt of court, but none served time after convictions eventually were overturned or appeal or charges dropped.
- On Sept. 25, 1970, ABC premieres "The Partridge Family," which would become a smash hit. The group's songs were not actually recorded by the five siblings and their mom in a garage but were mostly the work of professional musicians in Los Angeles.
- On Sept. 29, 1982, seven people die in Chicago after ingesting over-the-counter painkiller laced with cyanide. No other contaminated capsules were found in a nationwide recall, but the mass murder led to new tamper-proof medicine containers.

CUTEST PET OF THE WEEK SEPTEMBER 17, 2019

"SULLY"

Sullivan aka Sully is an Australian Shepherd. He brings so much joy to our life and the lives of anyone he meets. He loves people and other dogs. He is incredibly cuddly and curious. When he is excited to see you he wiggles his little bum and curls his little body back and forth until he can get close enough for some kisses or a belly rub.

Happy companion of Laura and Aaron

1. What artist released "Let the Little Girl Dance"?
2. Which song was used as the theme song for the 12th James Bond film in 1981?
3. Name the R&B singer and producer who has a 25-mile stretch of I-65 named after him.
4. Which Carly Simon song ended up in a condiment commercial?
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "They all tell me sing to him, swing with him, and just do anything for him, and tell him he's the one."

- Answers
1. Billy Bland, in 1960. After offering suggestions to another artist in a studio, it was Bland's version that was recorded.
 2. "For Your Eyes Only," by Sheena Easton. Blondie also wrote a theme song by the same name, but the studio went with Easton singing another version by the film's composer.
 3. Kenneth "Babyface" Edmonds. The section is in Indianapolis, where he was born.
 4. "Anticipation," in 1971. From the 1970s into the '80s, the song was used to promote a thick ketchup that poured very slowly.
 5. "Easier Said Than Done," by The Essex in 1964. The Essex were active-duty Marines who first met while stationed in Okinawa. Group member William Linton wrote the song to the rhythm of the teletype machine in his office.

Prayer to St. Jude

Most holy Apostle, St. Jude, faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the church honors and invokes you universally, as the patron of hopeless cases, of things almost despaired of. Pray for me, I am so helpless and alone. Make use, I implore you, of that particular privilege given to you, to bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired of. Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolation and help of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations, and sufferings, particularly (your request) and that I may praise God with you and all the elect forever. I promise, O blessed St. Jude, to be ever mindful of this great favor, to always honor you as my special and powerful patron, and to gratefully encourage devotion to you. Amen.
